(19) The Book Of Invoking Curses

1-(1492) Sahl Ibn Sa'd "Allah be pleased with him" reported: Uwaimir Al-Ajlani came to Asim Ibn Adi Al-Ansari and said: "What do you say about a man who has found another man with his wife? Should he kill him whereupon you would kill him (The husband), or what should he do? Please, O Asim, ask Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" about this matter on my behalf." Asim asked The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" about that. But Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" disliked the question and considered it as shameful to the extent that Asim felt it because of what The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had said to him.

Then Asim returned home and Uwaimir came to him. Uwaimir asked Asim: "O Asim! What did The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" answer you?" Asim replied: "You brought to me no good. Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" disliked such questions and considered them as shameful." Uwaimir then said: "By Allah, I will not give up asking unless I ask Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" about it."

Uwaimir came to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "O Allah's Apostle! A man has found another man with his wife! Should he kill him whereupon you would kill him (the husband, in retaliation) or what should he do?" Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Allah has revealed regarding you and your wife's case in the Qur'an. Go and bring her."

Sahl told: They performed the measures of invoking Allah's curse upon the liar according to what Allah had mentioned in His Book, while I was present with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". Uwaimir said: "O Allah's Apostle! If I kept her I would be a liar." So Uwaimir divorced her thrice before being ordered by The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". Ibn Shihab said: In this way, divorce became a tradition for the invokers of curses (upon the liar of them, husband and wife when she is accused of committing adultery).

which he implied: In this way, divorce became a tradition afterwards for the invokers of curses (upon the liar of them, husband and wife). He also added: Sahl said: She was pregnant. Then his son used to be ascribed to his mother. Then it became of Sunna that he should inherit her and she should inherit him what Allah prescribed for her.

3-(...) Ibn Shihab narrated about those involved in the case of invoking curse and the tradition of practicing it, from Sahl Ibn Sa'd, the brother of Banu Sa'ida, that a man from the Ansar came to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "O Messenger of Allah! Give me your verdict if a man found another man with his wife..." and the rest is the same, in which he added: They implemented the measures of invoking curse (upon the liar of them) in the mosque, while I was present. He also said: He divorced her with three pronouncements before being ordered by The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". In this way, he separated from her in the presence of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". Then, The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "It is as such that the two invokers of curses should be separated from one another."

4-(1493) Sa'id Ibn Jubair narrated: I was asked about the invokers of curses during the governorship of Mus'ab (Ibn Az-Zubair) whether they could be separated (from one another after that). He said: I did not know what to say. So I went to the house of Ibn Umar in Mecca. I said to his servant: "Ask permission for me to be admitted." He said: "He is taking his siesta." But, he (Ibn Umar) heard my voice and said: "Are you Ibn Jubair?" I said: "Yes." He said: "Come in. By Allah, it should be some (serious) need which brought you here at this Hour." So I entered, and found him lying on a blanket, reclining on a pillow stuffed with fibers of date palm. I said: "O Abu Abd Al-Rahman, should there be separation between the invokers of curses?" He said: "Glory be to Allah! Yes. The first one who asked about it was so-and-so, son of so-and-so. He said: "O Messenger of Allah! Tell me: If one among us finds his wife committing fornication, what should he do? If he talks, that is a very serious thing, and if he keeps silent, that is also of similar seriousness." Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" kept silent (for some time).

Later on, he (that man) came to him (The Prophet) and said: "I have been involved in that case, about which I had asked you." Allah "Exalted and Hallowed be He" then revealed (the following) verses from the Sura of الْحَدِيثَ قَوْلَهُ: وَكَانَ فِرَاقُهُ إِيَّاهَا، بَعْدُ، سُنَّةً فِي الْمُتَلاَعِنَيْنِ.

He (the man) said: "No, by Him Who has sent you with the Truth, I did not tell a lie against her." He (The Prophet) called her (her accused wife) whom he admonished and exhorted, and he told her that the punishment of this world is easier than that of the Hereafter. She said: "No, by Him Who has sent you with the Truth, he is a liar."

Then, he started with the man who testified (with an oath) by Allah four times that he was from among the truthful (persons), and at the fifth (oath he) invoked curse of Allah upon himself if he was from among the liars. Then the woman was called and she testified (with an oath) by Allah four times that he (her husband) was among the liars, and at the fifth (oath she) invoked Allah's wrath upon herself if he were among the truthful (persons). He (The Prophet) ordered that they should be separated.

(...) Sa'id Ibn Jubair narrated: I was asked about the invokers of curses during the governorship of Mus'ab Ibn Az-Zubair whether they could be separated (from one another after that). He said: I did not know what to say. So I went to the house of Ibn Umar and said: "Tell me whether the two invokers of curses should be separated (from one another)..." and the rest is the same as narrated by Ibn Numair.

5-(...) Sa'id Ibn Jubair narrated from Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both": The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to the invokers of Allah's curse upon the liar of them: "Your reckoning is with Allah. One of you two is a liar, and you (the husband) have no right over her (in case of being divorced)." The man said: "What about my property (Dowry)?" The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "You have no right to get back your property. If you told the truth about her then your property would be for the your legal right to have intercourse with her; and if you told a lie about her, then it would be more inaccessible for you than she is."

8-(1494) Nafi narrated from Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both that a man invoked curse upon his wife during the lifetime of Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and then he separated them (by divorce from one another) and ascribed the son to his mother.

9-(...) Nafi narrated from Ibn Umar: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" made an Ansari man and his wife carry out (the process of) invoking Allah's curse upon the liar of them. Then he separated them from one another.

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Ubaidullah, with the same chain of transmitters.

10-(1495) Abdullah "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: On the night of Friday, we were staying in the mosque when a man from the Ansar came and said: "If a man finds his wife with a man, and then he speaks about that, you will lash him. If he kills (her), you will kill him, and if he keeps silent, he will remain angry. By Allah, I will surely ask Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" about that." On the following day, he came to Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and asked him: "If a man finds another man with his wife and then he talks about that, you will lash him. If he kills (her), you will kill him, and if he keeps silent, he will remain angry. (Then, what could he do?)" He (The Prophet) said: "O Allah! Show (us the right judgement concerning that matter)." Then, he started supplicating (Allah). Then the verse of invoking curse was revealed: "And for those who launch a charge against their spouses, and have (in support) no evidence but their own, their solitary evidence (can be received) if they bear witness four times (with an oath) by Allah that they are solemnly telling the truth." This man from among the people was put to trial according to this revelation. He and his wife came in the presence of Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and they invoked curses. The man testified (with an oath) by Allah four times that he was one of the truthful persons, and then invoked curse (upon himself) at the fifth time, i.e. that Allah's curse be upon him if he was from among the liars. When she went to invoke curse, Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to her: "Wait (and remember Allah's punishment)!" But she refused and invoked curse. When she turned away, he (Allah's Apostle) said: "It seems that this woman would give birth to a curly-haired black child." She gave birth to a curly-haired black child.

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Al-A'mash, with the same chain of transmitters.

11-(1496) Hisham narrated from Muhammad: I asked Anas Ibn Malik "Allah be pleased with him", thinking that he had knowledge (of the matter of invoking curse). He said: Hilal Ibn Umaiyya accused his wife of committing adultery with Sharik Ibn Sahma. He was the half-brother of Al-Bara Ibn Malik, from the side of his mother. He was the first man to carry out (the measures of) invoking curses (upon the liar of the couple) in Islam. Both of them implemented (the measures of) invoking curses. Then, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Watch her: If she delivered a white-complexioned, lank-haired and red-eyed child, then, he (such a child) should be (the son of) Hilal Ibn Umaiyya (who would be, in turn, regarded to have accused her falsely); and if she delivered a blacked-eyed, curly-haired child of thin shins, then he (such a child) should be (the son) of Sharik Ibn Sahma (and in this case she should have committed fornication)." I (the narrator) was told then that she delivered a blacked-eyed, curly-haired child, with thin shins.

12-(1497) Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: Once invoking curses was mentioned before The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" whereupon Asim Ibn Adi said something and went away. Then a man from his tribe came to him, complaining that he had found a man with his wife. Asim said: "I have not been put to trial except for my statement (about invoking curses)." Asim took the man to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and the man told him of the state in which he had found his wife. The man was pale, thin, and of lank hair, while the other man whom he claimed he had seen with his wife, was brown-complexioned, with fat- shins, and he had much flesh on his calves.

should I not touch him until I bring four witnesses?" The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Yes." Sa'd said: "No, by Him, Who sent you with the truth! I should hasten to (kill) him with the sword before that." Upon this The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Listen (O people) to what your chief is saying. He is jealous of his honour, and I'm more jealous of honour than him, and Allah is more jealous than me."

17-(1499) Al-Mughira Ibn Shu'ba narrated that Sa'd Ibn Ubada said: "If I saw a man with my wife, I would kill him with the (sharp edge of my) sword, not with its flat side." Being informed of that, The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Are you astonished by Sa'd's jealousy? Verily, I am more jealous of honour than Sa'd, and Allah is more jealous than me. For this, He has prohibited Shameful deeds and sins (such as adultery), done openly and secretly. Moreover, none likes that the people should repent to Him and beg His pardon more than Allah does. For this reason He sent the Messengers as Warners and givers of glad tidings. None likes to be praised more than Allah does. For this reason, Allah promised to grant Paradise (to the good doers)."

(...)A Hadith like this was narrated on the authority of Abd Al-Malik Ibn Umair, with the same chain of transmitters, but with a slight change.

18-(1500) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: Once, a man from (the tribe of) Banu Fazara came to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "My wife has delivered a black child." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Do you have (a herd of) camels?" he said: "Yes." He (The Prophet) asked: "What is their colour?" he said: "They are red." He said: "Is there any dusky one among them?" He said: "Yes, there are many dusky ones among them." He said: "How has that come?" He said: "Perhaps, it is due to a certain species to which it was attracted." He (The Prophet) said: "Perhaps, it is due to a certain species to which he (your child) was attracted."

19-(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Az-Zuhri with the same chain of transmitters. According to the Hadith narrated by Ma'mar, he (this man) said: "O Messenger of Allah! My wife delivered a black child." At that time he had the intention of denying him. He added in the end: He (The Prophet) did not permit him to disavow him.

(20) The Book Of Emancipation

1-(1501) Nafi narrated from Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both": Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "He, who frees his share of a common slave and he has sufficient money to free him completely, should let its price be estimated by a just man and give his partners the price of their shares and manumit the slave; otherwise he would manumit the slave partially (according to his own share)."

[1] The slave's labour (to get what enables him to free himself)

2-(1502) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated that The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said about the slave who is jointly owned by two persons, one of whom would emancipate him (partially): "He should guarantee for him (the complete emancipation)."

3-(1503) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "He, who frees his share of a common slave should free the slave completely by paying the rest of his price from his money if he has sufficient money; otherwise the slave is to be helped to work without being overburdened till he pays the rest of his price."

4-(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Sa'id Ibn Abu Uruba, with the following addition: "If he has no enough money (to emancipate him), then the price of the slave is to be estimated justly, and the slave is to be helped to work to get (the price of) the remaining share to be emancipated, without being overburdened."

(...) The same was narrated on the authority cf Quatada, with the same chain of transmitters, in which he said: "And the price of the slave should be justly estimated."

[2] The right of inheriting the slave is to be for the manumitter

5-(1504) Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" narrated that A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" wanted to buy a slave-girl in order to emancipate her. Her masters said to her: "Well, we would sell her to you provided that the right of inheriting her should be for us." She mentioned that to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", who said: "Let that (condition which they stipulated) not prevent you (from buying her), for the right of inheriting the property of a slave is to be for the manumitter.

6-(...) Urwa narrated that A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" told him that Barira came to seek her help in her writing of emancipation (for a certain sum) and that time she had paid nothing of it. A'isha said to her: "Go back to your masters, and if they agree that I pay the amount of your writing of emancipation and get the right of inheriting you , I will do so." Barira informed her masters of that but they refused and said: "If she (A'isha) is seeking for Allah's reward, then she can do so, but the right of inheriting the property of you will be for us." A'isha mentioned that to Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" who said to her: "Buy and manumit her, since the right of inheriting the property of the slave is for the liberator." Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" then got up and said: "What about the people who stipulate conditions which are not present in Allah's Laws? Whoever imposes conditions, which are not present in Allah's Book (i.e. Allah's Laws), then those conditions will be invalid, even if he imposed these conditions a hundred times. Allah's conditions (Laws) are more right and trustworthy."

7-(...) Urwa narrated: A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" told: Barira came to me and said: "I have agreed with my masters to pay them nine ounces (of silver) (in installments) one per year; please help me."...and the rest is the same, according to which the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to her: "Let that (condition they stipulated) not stand in your way. Buy and then emancipate her." Then, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" got up to (address) the people. He praised Allah and lauded Him. Then, he said: "Now and then."

8-(...) Urwa narrated: A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" told: Barira came to me and said: "I have agreed with my masters to pay them nine ounces (of silver) (in installments) one per year; please help me." I said: "If your owners so like, I am ready to pay the whole amount now provided that your masters agree that the right of inheriting the property of you will be for me." So, Barira went to her masters and told them about that offer but they refused it. She returned, and told me of that. I scolded her. I said: "Then, Allah is with her." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" heard that. He then said to her: "Buy and emancipate her and stipulate that the right of inheriting her property would be for you, since such a right is for he who manumitted." I (A'isha) did so. Then in the evening, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" stood up (to address the people). He praised Allah and lauded Him as He

Any condition that is not in Allah's Book is invalid even if there were one hundred conditions, for Allah's decisions are the right ones and His conditions are the strong firmer ones. What is the matter with those people who say: "Emancipate so-and-so, and the right of inheriting his property should be for us"? Indeed, the right of inheriting the property of a slave will be for him, who manumitted."

9-(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Hisham Ibn Urwa, with the same chain of transmitters. But, in the narration of Jarir, it was mentioned: Her (Barira's) husband was a slave. So, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" gave her the choice, and she chose herself (i.e. to be separated from him after she had been emancipated). Had he (her husband) been a free, he (The Prophet) would not have given her such a choice. The phrase "Now and then" was mentioned in their narration.

10-(...) Al-Qasim Ibn Muhammad narrated from A'isha: Three principles were established for Barira: Barira's masters wanted to sell her on the condition that the right of inheriting her property should be for them. I mentioned that to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" who said: "Buy and then manumit her, for the right of inheriting the property of a slave is for the manumitter." Barira was manumitted. Then, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" gave her the choice (either to stay with her husband or leave him), and she chose her (freedom and separation from him). The people used to give her in charity, and she used to present to us gifts (from those objects of charity given to her). I mentioned that to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" who said: "it is (an object of) charity for her , but it is a present for you. So, you could eat from it"

11-(...) Al-Qasim Ibn Muhammad narrated from A'isha that she intended to buy Barira from some people among the Ansar, but they stipulated that the right of inheriting her property should be for them. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The right of inheriting the property of a slave is for the manumitter." (After her manumission) The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" gave her the choice (either to stay with her husband or leave him), and her husband was a slave. Upon this he said: "It is (an object of) Charity for her, and it is a gift for us." (After her manumission) she was given the option (whether to stay with her husband). Abd Ar-Rahman said that her husband was a free man. Shu'ba (a sub-narrator) said: Later, I asked him about (the reality of) her husband, and he said: I do not know.

Once, some meat was given to her in charity. At the same time, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" entered upon me, while there was a cooking pot on the fire. When he asked for food, he was given bread and meat soup from that of the house. The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Didn't I see the cooking pot having meat on the fire?" It was said: "Yes, O Messenger of Allah! That is the meat given in charity to Barira, and we disliked to give you from it (since you never eat the food of charity)." 16-(1506) Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" narrated that The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade selling or granting the right of inheriting a slave. (Imam Muslim said: All the narrators are dependent upon Abdullah Ibn Dinar in this Hadith).

(...)This Hadith was narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Dinar from Ibn Umar, from The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" through another chain of transmitters, but in the Hadith narrated by Ath-Thaqafi from Ubaidullah he mentioned only selling (the right of inheritance) and did not mention granting it.

Then, I was told that he cursed in his document anyone who did so.

18-(1508) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "He, who takes as his allies others without the permission of his manumitters, then, let him incur the curse of Allah and the angels, and neither obligatory nor supererogatory deeds would be accepted from him."

٤ ـ بابُ تحريمِ تَوَلِّي العَتيقِ غيرَ مَواليهِ

١٧ ـ (١٥٠٧) ـ وحدّثني مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ رَافِعٍ: حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ الرَّزَّاقِ: أَخْبَرَنَا ابْنُ جُرَيْجٍ: أَخْبَرَنِي أَبُو الزُّبَيْرِ؛ أَنَّهُ سَمِعَ جَابِرَ بْنَ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ يَقُولُ: كَتَبَ النَّبِيُّ ﷺ عَلَىٰ كُلِّ بَطْنٍ عُقُولَهُ. ثُمَّ كَتَبَ: «أَنَّهُ لاَ يَحِلُّ لِمُسْلِمٍ أَنْ يَتَوَالَىٰ مَوْلَىٰ رَجُلٍ مُسْلِمٍ بِغَيْرِ إِذْنِهِ».

ثُمَّ أُخْبِرْتُ، أَنَّهُ لَعَنَ فِي صَحِيفَتِهِ مَنْ فَعَلَ ذٰلِكَ.

١٨ ـ (١٥٠٨) ـ حدّثنا قُتَيْبَةُ بْنُ سَعِيدٍ: حَدَّثَنَا يَعْقُوبُ ـ يَعْنِي ابْنَ عَبْدِ الرَّحْمٰنِ الْقَارِيَّ ـ عَنْ سُهَيْلٍ، عَنْ أَبِيهِ، عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ، أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ﷺ قَالَ: «مَنْ تَوَلَّىٰ قَوْماً بِغَيْرِ إِذْنِ مَوَالِيهِ، فَعَلَيْهِ لَعْنَةُ اللَّهِ وَالْمَلاَئِكَةِ، لاَ يُقْبَلُ مِنْهُ عَدْلٌ وَلاَ صَرْفٌ».

١٩ ـ (...) ـ حدّثنا أَبُو بَكْرِ بْنُ أَبِي شَيْبَةَ: حَدَّثَنَا حُسَيْنُ بْنُ عَلِيٍّ الْجُعْفِيُّ، عَنْ زَائِدَةَ، عَنْ سُلَيْمَانَ، عَنْ أَبِي صَالِحٍ، عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ، عَنِ النَّبِيِّ ﷺ. قَالَ: «مَنْ تَوَلَّىٰ قَوْماً بِغَيْرِ إِذْنِ مَوَالِيهِ، فَعَلَيْهِ لَعْنَةُ اللَّهِ وَالْمَلاَئِكَةِ وَالنَّاسِ أَجْمَعِينَ، لاَ يُقْبَلُ مِنْهُ، يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ عَدْلٌ وَلاَ صَرْفٌ».

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Al-A'mash, with the same chain of transmitters, with a slight change of words.

20-(1370) Ibrahim At-Taimi narrated from his father: Ali Ibn Abu Talib "Allah be pleased with him" addressed us saying: "Whoever thought we have anything to recite other than Allah's Book (Qur'an) and this document (hanging in the sheath of his sword), then he has told a lie. It (this paper) implies the ages of the camels (to be paid as charity or as blood money), (legal verdicts about the retaliation for) wounds. In it too, The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Medina is a sanctuary from Air (mountain) to Thawr (mountain). So whoever innovates in it a heresy (concerning religion), or gives shelter to such an innovator, will incur the curse of Allah, the angels, and all the people, and none of his obligatory or supererogatory deeds will be accepted from him by Allah on The Day of Judgement. The asylum granted by any Muslim is to be respected by all the Muslims, even if it is granted by one of the lowest social status among them. Whoever claimed to (be a son of) anyone other than his (real) father, or (if a slave) belonged to others than his manumitter, will incur the curse of Allah, the angels, and all the people, and none of his obligatory or supererogatory deeds will be accepted from him by Allah on The Day of Judgement."

[5] The excellence of emancipation

21-(1509) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated from The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him": "He, who emancipated a believing slave, then Allah would release, for every organ of his (the slave's) body, an organ of his (the manumitter's) body from the fire."

22-(...) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "He, who emancipated a slave, then Allah would release, for every organ of those (of the slave's body), an organ of his (the manumitter's) body from the (Hell) fire, even his (the manumitter's) private parts for the private parts (of the slave he emancipated)."

23-(...) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: I heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying: "He, who emancipated a believing slave, then Allah would release, for every limb of him (the slave), a limb of him (the manumitter) from the (Hell) fire, even his (the manumitter's) private parts for the private parts (of the slave he emancipated)."

Sa'id Ibn Marjana said: When I heard this Hadith from Abu Huraira, I went out and mentioned it to Ali Ibn Al-Husain, who immediately emancipated a slave of his, for whom Ibn Ja'far was ready to pay ten thousand Dirhams or one thousand Dinars (to buy).

[6] The excellence of emancipating one's father

25-(1510) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "A son would not recompense a father (of him) except in case he finds him as a slave whereupon he buys and then emancipates him."

(21) The Book Of Transactions

[1] Forbiddance of selling through touching or throwing (the goods)

1-(1511) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade (selling through) touching (i.e. that each one of the two parties involved in the process of transaction would touch the garment of the other without examining it before confirming the transaction), and throwing (i.e. that each one of them would throw his garment to the other without looking at it).

(...) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated the same from The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him".

(...) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated the same from The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", through another chain of transmitters.

(...) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated the same from The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", through another chain of transmitters.

2-(...) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: It was forbidden (by The Prophet to practice) two kinds of selling: touching and throwing. As for touching, it is that each one of them would touch the garment of the other without even examining it. As for throwing, it is that each one of them would throw his garment to the other without looking at it. (As a result of those two kinds, selling would become obligatory).

3-(1512) Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade us to practice two kinds of selling and two kinds of dresses. He forbade us to do transactions by Mulamasa and Munabadha. Mulamasa implies that one touches another's garment with his hand, whether at night or by day, without turning it over except this much. Munabadha implies that one throws his garment to another and the other throws his garment to him, and in this way, the transaction would be affirmed, without checking (the sold objects) or even considering mutual consent.

[2] Invalidity of selling by the way of (tossing) pebbles, and of selling what is unknown, or is not in the possession of the seller

4-(1513) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade selling by the way of tossing pebbles, and the selling of Gharar. (The first is to say to the buyer: I would sell to you all the garments upon which the pebbles would fall; or to say to him: You are permitted to keep having the option (whether to cancel or to confirm the transaction) until I toss the pebbles; or to make the act of tossing pebbles the same transaction, as to say: If I toss this garment with the pebbles, then it would be regarded to have been sold by such-and-such a price. As for the second type of invalid transaction, it is to sell what is unknown or is not in the possession of the seller such as selling the fish in the river, the milk in the udder, or the offspring in the womb).

[3] Forbiddance of selling the offspring of the pregnant (animal)

5-(1514) Nafi narrated from Abdullah "Allah be pleased with him" that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade selling the offspring of the pregnant (animal whether by paying the price in advance until the she-camel delivers its offspring, or by selling the same offspring of the she-camel currently).

6-(...) Nafi narrated from Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both": The people of the pre-Islamic period of ignorance used to bargain the meat of the camel until (they would sell) that of the offspring of its would-be born (offspring before being born). I.e. that the she-camel would produce an offspring, which would become pregnant. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade them (Muslims) to practice that.

[4] Forbiddance of urging somebody to return what he has already bought so as to sell him his own goods, or purchasing (the same object) one's brother has already agreed to buy, or outbidding, or tying up the udder of the animal which is on sale without being milked for a long time (for deception)

7-(1412) Nafi narrated: Abdullah Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" told: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "None should urge somebody to return what he has already bought (from another seller) so as to sell him his own goods."

٤ ـ باب تَحْرِيم بَيعِ الرَّجُلِ على بَيْعِ أَخِيهِ، وَسَوْمِهِ على سَوْمِهِ، وتحريمِ النَّجْشِ، وتحريم التَّصْرِيَةِ

٧ ـ (١٤١٢) ـ حدّثنا يَحيَىٰ بْنُ يحْيَىٰ. قَالَ: قَرَأْتُ عَلَىٰ مَالِكٍ، عَنْ نَافِعٍ، عَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ﷺ قَالَ: «لاَ يَبِعْ بَعْضُكُمْ عَلَىٰ بَيْعِ بَعْضٍ».

8-(...) Nafi narrated from Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" that The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "One should not urge somebody to return the goods (to the seller from whom he has already bought) so as to sell him his own goods; nor should one demand the hand of a girl who has already been engaged to someone else unless he (the latter) permits him to do."

9-(1515) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" reported: Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "No Muslim should urge somebody to cancel a transaction (upon which the seller has already agreed) with his brother (i.e. the purchaser as well as its price has been agreed upon) so as to purchase it from him."

10-(...) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated through another chain of transmitters, that The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade one's purchasing (in opposition) to his brother.

11-(...) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Do not go forward to meet the (desert) riders (to buy from them on the way with cheaper prices before they reach the town and know the real prices of their goods). Do not urge buyers to cancel their transactions to sell them (your own goods) yourselves, and do not practice outbidding (against one another). A town dweller should not sell the goods on behalf of the desert dweller. Do not leave she-camels or sheep without being milked for a long time, when they are on sale, and whoever buys such an animal has the option, after milking it, either of keeping it, in case of being satisfied with it, or of returning it, in case of being displeased with it, along with a Sa of dates."

12-(...) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade that one should meet the (desert) riders (so as to buy from them with cheaper prices), that a town dweller should sell (goods) on behalf of a desert dweller, that a woman should ask the divorce of her sister (in order to deprive her of her belongings). (He also forbade) outbidding (against one another), keeping milk for a long time in the udder of the animal, which is on sale, and purchasing (in opposition) to one's brother.

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Shu'ba, through another chain of transmitters. In the narration of both Ghundur and Wahb (it was mentioned): It was forbidden (by The Prophet). In the narration of Abd As-Samad (it was mentioned): The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade.

13-(1516) Nafi narrated from Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade outbidding (against one another).

[5] Forbiddance of meeting the traders (to buy from them with cheaper prices before their arrival in the town)

14-(1517) Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" narrated that The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade that the (traders of the) goods should be met (in order to buy from them on the way) until they reach the markets. (This is the wording of Ibn Numair. As for the two other transmitters, they told that The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade the meeting (of goods traders).

(...) Ibn Umar narrated the same from The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" through another chain of transmitters.

15-(1518) Abu Uthman narrated from Abdullah "Allah be pleased with him" that The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade meeting the (traders of the) sales (to buy from them on the way).

16-(1519) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated that The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade that the (traders of the) goods should be met (in order to buy from them on the way).

17-(...) Ibn Sirin narrated: I heard Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" telling: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Do not meet the (traders of the) goods (on the way), and if one met them and bought something from them, and then its (the merchandise's) owner went to the market (and knew that its real price was more than what he had been paid), he should have the option (to take it and cancel the transaction).

[6] It is forbidden for a town dweller to sell (goods) on behalf of a desert dweller

18-(1520) Sa'id Ibn Al-Musaiyyab narrated from Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him", who traced it to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him": "No town dweller should sell (goods) on behalf of a desert dweller." According to the narration of Zuhair (Abu Huraira narrated) that The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade that a town dweller should sell on behalf of a desert dweller.

19-(1521) Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" narrated that The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade that the (traders of the) goods should be met (in order to buy from them on the way), and yields of a certain land) for many years, (or, according to the narration of Ibn Abu Shaiba, selling the fruits (of a certain field) for many years).

Ata told: Jabir explained to us as follows: Mukhabara means that a man would give a (piece of) wasteland to another, who would spend on cultivating it for a definite share of its yield. Muzabana means to sell the fresh fruits on the date-palm trees for dry dates by measure. Muhaqala in cultivation is the same, i.e. to sell the standing crops for grains by measure.

102-(1544) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "He, who has a (piece of) land should cultivate it himself, or lend it to his (Muslim) brother gratis (to cultivate it). If he refused, then let him keep his land (uncultivated)."

103-(1536) Jabir Ibn Abdullah "Allah be pleased with both" narrated that he heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbidding Muzabana and Huqul (i.e. Muhaqala). Jabir Ibn Abdullah said (commenting): Muzabana is to sell the fresh fruits (on the date-palm trees) by dry dates (according to measure). Huqul is to rent the land (for a specific share of its yield).

104-(1545) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade Muhaqala (renting the land for a definite share of its yield), and Muzabana (selling fresh fruits on the trees by dry fruits of the same kind).

105-(1546) Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri "Allah be pleased with him" narrated that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade Muzabana and Muhaqala. Muzabana is to purchase the fresh fruits on the date-palm trees (by dry dates according to measure). Muhaqala is to rent the land (for a specific share of its yield).

106-(1547) Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: We used to see no harm in renting the land for a definite share of its yield until the first year was over, when Rafi Ibn Khadij pretended that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had forbidden it.

used to be rented during the lifetime of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"." But, Abdullah feared that perhaps The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" might have issued a latest command (by which he forbade it), which he (Abdullah) did not know. So, he abandoned renting the land.

[18] Renting the land for food

113-(1548) Rafi Ibn Khadij "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: During the lifetime of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", we used to rent the land for one-third or one-fourth (of its yield), or for a definite amount of food. One day, one of my paternal uncles came to us and said: "The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade us to do a thing, which was been of benefit for us, but the obedience of Allah and His Messenger is much more beneficial for us. He forbade us to rent the land for one-third or one-fourth (of its yield), or for a definite amount of food. Therefore, he ordered that the landlord should either cultivate the land himself (if he so liked), or give it to somebody else gratis to cultivate it. He (The Prophet) disliked renting it and the like of that."

(...) Sulaiman Ibn Yasar narrated from Rafi Ibn Khadij "Allah be pleased with him": We used to rent the land for one-third or one-fourth (of its yield)...and the rest is the same.

(...) A Hadith like this was narrated on the authority of Ya'li Ibn Hakim.

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Ya'li Ibn Hakim, from Rafi Ibn Khadij, from The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", in which he did not mention "from some of his paternal uncles."

114-(...) Rafi Ibn Khadij "Allah be pleased with him" reported: My uncle Zuhair came to me and said: "Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade us to do a thing which was a source of benefit to us." I said: "What is that? Whatever Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" says is right." He said: "Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" sent for me and asked: "What are you doing with your farms?" I replied: "O Messenger of Allah! We get our farms rented on the basis that we get the yield produced at the banks of the water streams for the rental fee, or rent them for some Wasaqs of dates or barley." Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Do not do so, but cultivate them yourselves or let them be cultivated by others gratis, or keep them uncultivated."

[19] Renting the land for gold and silver

115-(1547) Hanzala narrated that he asked Rafi Ibn Khadij about renting the land. Upon this he said: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade renting the land." I said to him: "What about (renting the land for) gold and silver (i.e. money)?" He replied: "As for (renting the land for) gold and silver, there is no harm in it."

116-(...) Hanzala Ibn Qais Al-Ansari narrated: I asked Rafi Ibn Khadij about renting the land for gold and silver. He said: There is no harm in it. During the lifetime of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", people used to rent the land for (the yield produced on the areas irrigated with) canals and (the yield produced on) the ends of the streamlets, and shares of the crops. (Sometimes) that (portion specified for the rental fee) might be destroyed, and the other might be safe, and vice versa. Since the people had no rental other than that, they were prevented to practice it. But, if it (the rental fee) was something definite and secured (such as money), there would be no harm in it.

117-(...) Rafi Ibn Khadij "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: We were the most to work on cultivation among the Ansar. He (Rafi) said: We used to rent the land on the condition that (the yield of) that portion would be for us, and (the yield of) that portion would be for them. Perhaps, that (portion) might yield and this (portion) might not yield. So, he (The Prophet) forbade us to practice that. As for (renting the land for) silver (i.e. money), he did not forbid us (to do it).

[20] What about sharecropping and renting (the land)

118-(1549) Abdullah Ibn As-Sa'ib narrated: I asked Abdullah Ibn Ma'qil about sharecropping. He said: Thabit Ibn Ad-Dahhak "Allah be pleased with him" told me that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade sharecropping. According to the narration of Ibn Abu Shaiba, he (mentioned that he) said: He (The Prophet) forbade it. He (Ibn As-Sa'ib) said: I asked Ibn Ma'qil, without naming Abdullah.

Upon this he scolded him and said: "By Allah! Had I known that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had forbidden it, surely, I would not have practiced it. But, the most knowledgeable of them (Muslims) (i.e. Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both") narrated that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "It is better for one to give his land to his brother gratis than to take (from him) a fixed rent on it.""

If you abandoned such a renting of land for a specific share of its yield, (it would be better) since they pretend that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade it." He replied: "O Amr! The most knowledgeable of them (Muslims) (i.e. Ibn Abbas) told me that The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had not forbidden it, but said: "It is more beneficial for one to give his land to his brother gratis than to take (from him) a fixed rental fee on it.""

(22) The Book Of Sharecropping

(It is to take care of one or many trees of somebody on the condition that he would have a certain share of the fruits; and that applies also to cultivating the land and then sharecropping)

[1] Sharing the fruits

1-(1551) Nafi narrated from Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both": The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" treated the people (Jews) of Khaibar (in such a way as to give them the land to cultivate) for half of its yield of fruits or vegetation (as their wages).

2-(...) Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" reported: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" gave the land to the people of Khaibar (to utilize it) on the condition that half the yield of fruits or vegetation would be their share. The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to give his wives yearly one hundred Wasaqs each: eighty Wasaqs of dates and twenty Wasaqs of barley. When Umar became the caliph, and distributed (the land of) Khaibar, he gave the wives of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" the option either they should have the land and water as their shares, or he should secure for them (their shares of those) Wasaqs yearly. They differed: Some of them chose the land and water, and some chose the Wasaqs (to be secured for them) yearly. A'isha and Hafsa were among those who chose the land and water.

3-(...) Nafi narrated from Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both": The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" treated the people (Jews) of Khaibar (in such a way as to give them the land to cultivate) for half of its yield of fruits or vegetation...and the rest is the same as narrated by Ali Ibn Muzhir. He did not mention that A'isha and Hafsa were among those who chose the land and water. He mentioned: He (Umar) gave the wives of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" the option to give them the land. He did not mention the water.

4-(...) Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: When Khaibar was conquered, the Jews requested The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" to let them stay there on the condition that they would do the labour and get half of the fruits and vegetation. Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" told them: "We will let you stay on this condition, as long as we wish."...and the rest is the same as narrated by Ibn Numair and Ibn Muzhir from Ubaidullah, in which he added: The half of its fruits used to be distributed as shares, from which

The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to take one-fifth.

5-(...) Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" narrated that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" gave to the Jews the date-palm trees and the land of Khaibar on the condition that they should take care of, (and spend on) them from their money, and The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" should get half of its fruits.

6-(...) Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: Umar expelled the Jews and the Christians from Hijaz. When Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had conquered Khaibar, he wanted to expel the Jews from it, as its land became the property of Allah, His Apostle, and the Muslims. Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" intended to expel the Jews but they requested him to let them stay there on the condition that they would do the labour and get half of the fruits. Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" told them: "We will let you stay on this condition, as long as we wish." So they (Jews) kept on living there until Umar expelled them to Taima and Ariha.

[2] The excellence of planting and cultivating (the land)

7-(1552) Jabir "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "There is no Muslim, who planted some plants, from whose yield it was eaten, but that it would be a charity for him, nothing was stolen from it but that it would be a charity for him, nothing was eaten from it by a beast but that it would be a charity for him, nothing was eaten from it by a bird but that it would be a charity for him, and nothing was taken or decreased from it by anyone but that it would be a charity for him."

8-(...) Jabir "Allah be pleased with him" narrated that The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" visited Umm Mubashshir Al-Ansariyya (the wife of Zaid Ibn Haritha) in (a garden of) date-palm trees of hers. He asked her: "Who did plant those date-palm trees? Is he a Muslim or an unbeliever?" she said: "He is a Muslim." He said: "There is no Muslim, who planted some plants or cultivated some trees from which a man, a beast or anything ate, but that it would be a charity for him."

٤ـ باب استحباب الوَضْعِ مِنَ الدَّيْن

(...) ـ حدّثني يُونُسُ بْنُ عَبْدِ الأَعْلَىٰ: أَخْبَرَنَا عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ وَهْبٍ: أَخْبَرَنِي عَمْرُو بْنُ الْحَارِثِ، عَنْ بُكَيْرِ بْنِ الأَشَجِّ بِهٰذَا الإِسْنَادِ... مِثْلَهُ.

٢٠ ـ (١٥٥٨) ـ حدّثنا حَرْمَلَةُ بْنُ يَحْيَىٰ: أَخْبَرَنَا عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ وَهْبٍ: أَخْبَرَنِي يُونُسُ، عَنِ ابْنِ شِهَابٍ: حَدَّثَنِي عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ كَعْبِ بْنِ مَالِكٍ: أَخْبَرَهُ عَنْ أَبِيهِ؛ أَنَّهُ

Hadrad in the Mosque and their voices grew louder till The Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” heard them while he was in his home. He came out to them, raising the curtain of his room, addressing Ka’b: "O Ka’b!" Ka’b replied: "Here I’m responding to your call, O Allah's Apostle!" He (The Prophet) said (to him): "Reduce your debt to one half," gesturing with his hand. Ka’b said: "I have done so, O Allah's Apostle!" On that The Prophet “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” said to him (Ibn Abu Hadrad): "Get up and fulfill the debt to him."

21-(...) Abdullah Ibn Ka’b Ibn Malik narrated that Ka’b Ibn Malik “Allah be pleased with him” demanded his debt back from Ibn Abu Hadrad...and the rest is the same.

(...)Abdullah Ibn Ka’b Ibn Malik narrated from his father Ka’b Ibn Malik “Allah be pleased with him” That Abdullah Ibn Abu Hadrad Al-Aslami owed him some debt. Ka’b met him, and caught hold of him. They started talking and their voices grew louder. The Prophet “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” passed by them and addressed Ka’b, pointing out to him to reduce the debt to one half. So, Ka’b got one half of the debt and exempted the debtor from the other half.

[5] If one found what he had sold with the purchaser, who became bankrupt, he would have the right to take it back

22-(1559) Abu Huraira “Allah be pleased with him” narrated: The Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” said (or I heard The Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” saying): "If a man finds his very things with a bankrupt, he has more right to take them back than anyone else."

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Yahya Ibn Sa’id, through another chain of transmitters. Ibn Abu Rumh said in his narration: “If one became bankrupt...”

23-(...) Abu Huraira “Allah be pleased with him” narrated from The Prophet “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” that if one became bankrupt, and he had not yet distributed the things (he purchased from a certain person), then, they should be given to the one who sold them.

24-(...) Abu Huraira “Allah be pleased with him” narrated that The Prophet “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” said: “If one (the purchaser) became bankrupt, and he (the seller) found with him his very things (he sold to him), then, he would have more right to take them.”

[6] The merit of giving respite to the one who is in difficulty

26-(1560) Rib'i Ibn Hirash narrated that Hudhaifa told them: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The angels received a soul of a man from those (people) who were before you, whom they asked: "Did you do any good?" he replied in the negative. They said: "Try to remember (any good you had done)." He said: "I used to give loans to people. I used to order my servants to give respite to the one who was in difficulty (to repay his debts), and excuse the rich one (to repay his debt at his convenience)." Upon this Allah "Exalted and Hallowed be He" said: "Then, excuse him."

27-(...) Rib'i Ibn Hirash narrated: Once, Hudhaifa and Abu Mas'ud "Allah be pleased with both" met one another. Hudhaifa said: (It was narrated that) a man met his Lord (after death), Who asked him: "What did you do (of good in the world)?" he (the man) said: "Indeed, I did no good except that I was a man of wealth (and I used to lend money to the people), and whenever I demanded it back, I used to accept only what was available (from the man who could afford it), and exempt (the one who was in difficulty) from what was not available." Upon this He (Allah) said (to the angels): "Excuse My slave." Abu Mas'ud said: It was like this that I heard it from The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him".

28-(...) Hudhaifa "Allah be pleased with him" narrated from The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him": "There was a man who died and then he was admitted in Paradise. He was asked: "What (good) did you use to do (in the world)?" Either he remembered or was reminded. Then, he said: "I used to sell (commodities) to the people. I used to give more time to the one who was in difficulty (to repay his debts), and I used to be lenient in accepting the coins or cash payment." Subsequently, he was forgiven." Abu Mas'ud said: I also heard that from The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him".

where we did not leave a dog but that we killed it, to the extent that we would kill the dog of the desert woman, which came following her.

46-(1571) Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" narrated that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered that the dogs should be killed except a dog used for hunting, and a dog (used for watching) herds of sheep and cattle. It was said to Ibn Umar that Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" had said (adding to that): And a dog (used for guarding) farms. Upon this Ibn Umar said: However, Abu Huraira had farms (so he was eager to keep this portion of the narration).

47-(1572) Abu Az-Zubair narrated that he heard Jabir "Allah be pleased with him" saying: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered us to kill the dogs. (We used to kill all of them) to the extent that whenever a woman came from the desert with a dog, we would kill it. Afterwards, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade killing them and said (excluding): "You should kill the black dog of two spots (in the eyes), because it is a devil."

48-(1573) Abdullah Ibn Mughaffal narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered (the people) to kill dogs. Then, he said: "What do they have to do with dogs?" afterwards, he permitted (keeping) the dog used for hunting and (watching) the herds.

[12] Prohibition of selling the wine

67-(1578) Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: I heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" addressing (the people) in Medina: "O people! Allah Almighty referred to (the prohibition of) the wine, and perhaps Allah would reveal something pertaining to it. So, whoever has anything of it should sell it and benefit of its price." It was a short time later when The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Allah Almighty prohibited the wine. So, whomever this Verse (of prohibition) reached and he had anything of it (wine), should neither drink nor sell it." The people brought what they had of it in the streets of Medina, and spilled it.

68-(1579) Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Wa'la (a man from the people of Egypt) narrated that he came to Abdullah Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" and asked him about making juice from grapes. Ibn Abbas said: Once, a man presented to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" a leather container full of wine. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" asked him: "Did you not know that Allah had prohibited it?" the man replied in the negative. Then he said something secret to another man (by his side). The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "What secret did you tell him?" he said: "I ordered him to sell it." Upon this he (The Prophet) said: "No doubt, The One Who prohibited drinking it, prohibited also selling it." Then, he opened the leather container until what was in it was spilled.

٨٠ ـ (١٥٨٧) ـ حدّثنا عُبَيْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ عُمَرَ الْقَوَارِيرِيُّ: حَدَّثَنَا حَمَّادُ بْنُ زَيْدٍ، عَنْ أَيُّوبَ، عَنْ أَبِي قِلاَبَةَ، قَالَ: كُنْتُ بِالشَّامِ فِي حَلْقَةٍ فِيهَا مُسْلِمُ بْنُ يَسَارٍ. فَجَاءَ أَبُو الأَشْعَثِ. قَالَ: قَالُوا: أَبُو الأَشْعَثِ، أَبُو الأَشْعَثِ. فَجَلَسَ فَقُلْتُ لَهُ: حَدِّثْ أَخَانَا حَدِيثَ عُبَادَةَ بْنِ الصَّامِتِ. قَالَ: نَعَمْ. غَزَوْنَا غَزَاةً. وَعَلَى النَّاسِ مُعَاوِيَةُ. فَغَنِمْنَا غَنَائِمَ كَثِيرَةً، فَكَانَ فِيمَا غَنِمْنَا، آنِيَةٌ مِنْ فِضَّةٍ، فَأَمَرَ مُعَاوِيَةُ رَجُلاً أَنْ يَبِيعَهَا فِي أَعْطِيَاتِ النَّاسِ، فَتَسَارَعَ النَّاسُ فِي ذٰلِكَ، فَبَلَغَ عُبَادَةَ بْنَ الصَّامِتِ فَقَامَ فَقَالَ: إِنِّي سَمِعْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ﷺ يَنْهَى عَنْ بَيْعِ الذَّهَبِ بِالذَّهَبِ، وَالْفِضَّةِ بِالْفِضَّةِ،

from The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", whom we saw and accompanied and we did not hear them from him? Upon this Ubada stood up and repeated the story, and then said: We are going to narrate what we heard from The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" even if Mu'awiya disliked that (or even if that was against his will). I would not care then if I did not accompany him (as one) among his soldiers even in a dark night. Hammad said: He said that or something similar.

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Aiyyub, with the same chain of transmitters.

81-(...) Abu Qilaba narrated from Abu Al-Ash'ath from Ubada Ibn As-Samit "Allah be pleased with him" that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "(Selling) gold by gold, silver by silver, wheat by wheat, parley by parley, dates by dates, and salt by salt (should not be held valid unless they are) equivalent (in weight and quality) and handed over on the spot. But if their kinds are different, then, you might sell as you like so long as it is from hand to hand."

82-(1584) Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri "Allah be pleased with him" narrated that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "(Selling) gold by gold, silver by silver, wheat by wheat, parley by parley, dates by dates, and salt by salt (should not be held valid unless they are) equivalent (in weight and quality) and handed over on the spot. Whoever added (anything) or accepted any addition would be considered to have committed usury, the taker and the giver are equal (in such a sin)."

(...)Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri "Allah be pleased with him" narrated that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "(Selling) gold by gold (should be held valid only if it is) equivalent (in weight and quality)..."and the rest is the same.

83-(1588) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "(Selling) dates by dates, wheat by wheat, parley by parley, and salt by salt (should not be held valid unless they are) equivalent (in weight and quality) and handed over on the spot. Whoever added (anything) or accepted any addition would be considered to have committed usury, except if their kinds are different."

[16] Forbiddance of selling silver for gold on credit

86-(1589) Abu Al-Minhal narrated: A partner of mine sold silver for payment on credit to the season or to the (time of the) pilgrimage. He came and told me. I said: "This is an invalid matter." He said: "I sold it in the market, and no one objected to what I had done." I came to Al-Bara Ibn Azib, whom I told about that. He said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came to Medina, and found us practicing such a selling. Upon this he said: "As for what is (to be sold) from hand to hand, there is no harm in it, and as for what is (to be sold) on credit, it is (a kind of) usury." Anyway, go to Zaid Ibn Arqam (and ask him about that), because he has a trade, greater than mine (and for that reason he had more knowledge than me in this respect)." I came and asked him, and he confirmed that.

87-(...) Shu'ba narrated from Habib that he heard Abu Al-Minhal saying: I asked Al-Bara Ibn Azib about the exchange of currency, and he said: "Ask Zaid Ibn Arqam, for he has more knowledge than me (in this respect)." I asked Zaid who said: "Ask Al-Bara, for he has more knowledge (than me)." Then he said: "The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade selling silver by gold on credit."

88-(1590) Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Abu Bakra narrated from his father: "The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade (selling) silver by silver and gold by gold unless they are equal (in weight and quality), and he told us to buy silver by gold as we liked, and to buy gold by silver as we liked." A man asked him: "(Is it necessary to be) from hand to hand?" he said: "It is so that I heard it."

[17] Selling a necklace having gems and (pieces of) gold

89-(1591) Fadala Ibn Ubaid Al-Ansari narrated: While The Messenger of Allah was in Khaibar, a necklace having gems and (pieces of) gold was brought to him. It was meant to be sold, and it was among the booty. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered that the (pieces of) gold should be taken from it. Then, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to them: "The gold should be (sold) by gold only if it is weight by weight."

90-(...) Fadala Ibn Ubaid narrated: On the day of (the holy battle of) Khaibar, I bought a necklace having gems and (pieces of) gold by twelve Dinars. When I separated (gold from) it, I found that (the gold it contained) was more than twelve Dinars. I mentioned that to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" who said: "It should not be sold until it (the gold it contained) is separated."

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Sa'id Ibn Yazid, with the same chain of transmitters.

91-(...) Fadala narrated: We were with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" on the day of (the holy battle of) Khaibar, and we sold to the Jews the single ounce of gold with two and (sometimes) with three Dinars. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Do not sell gold by gold unless it is weight by weight."

92-(...) Hanash narrated: I was with Fadala Ibn Ubaid in a certain expedition when a necklace having (pieces of) gold, silver and jewels fell in the lot of me with some of my companions. I wanted to purchase it, so I asked Fadala Ibn Ubaid who said: "Take the gold (it had) and put it in a (pan of) scale, and put your gold (by which you want to buy it) in the other (pan of) scale, and do not take but like by like. No doubt, I heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying: "He, who believes in Allah and the Last Day, should not take (anything in the transaction) but like by like.""

[18] Selling foodstuff like by like

He said: "I'm afraid that it (this Hadith) might be applicable (to that case)."

94-(1593) Both of Abu Huraira and Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri "Allah be pleased with them" narrated that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" sent the brother of Banu Adi Al-Ansari as a governor of Khaibar. When he came back to Medina, he brought with him dates of (good quality called) Janib. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" asked him: "Are all the dates of Khaibar of such (a good quality)?" he said: "No, by Allah, O Messenger of Allah. We buy the Sa (of that good kind) by two Sa's of this bad kind (of mixed dates)." Upon this The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Do not do that (since it is a kind of usury), but (buy it as) like by like, or sell this (bad kind) and buy with its price that (good kind), and that is the (right) measure."

The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" asked him: "Are all the dates of Khaibar of such (a good quality)?" The man replied: "No, by Allah, O Messenger of Allah. We exchange two Sa's of bad dates for one Sa of such a kind, or three Sa's for two." On that, The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Don't do so (since it is a kind of usury); but sell the dates of inferior quality for money, and then buy Janib with the money."

96-(1594) Abu Sa'id "Allah be pleased with him" reported: Once Bilal brought (A good kind of) dates called Barni to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" who asked him: "From where have you brought these?" Bilal replied: "I Had some inferior type of dates of which I exchanged two Sa's for one Sa of Barni dates in order that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" would eat it." Upon this The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "This is definitely usury. Return it, sell the dates of our (land for money by which) buy for us from that (better kind)."

98-(1595) Abu Salama narrated from Abu Sa'id "Allah be pleased with him": During the lifetime of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" we used to be given dates of different qualities, mixed together, of which we used to sell two Sa's by one Sa (of a better kind of dates). When this news reached The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", he said: "Neither (the sale of) two Sa's of dates by one Sa (of dates) should be permissible, nor should (the sale of) two Sa's of wheat by one Sa (of wheat) be permissible, nor should (the exchange of) one Dirham by two Dirhams be permissible."

99-(1594) Abu Nadra narrated: I asked Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" about the exchange of currency. He asked me: "Is it from hand to hand?" I replied in the affirmative. He said: "Then, there is no harm in it." I told Abu Sa'id "Allah be pleased with him that I asked Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" about the exchange of currency, who asked me: "Is it from hand to hand?" I replied in the affirmative. He said: "Then, there is no harm in it." He (Abu Sa'id) said: "Did he really say that? We would write to him so that he should not give you such a religious verdict."

He further said: "By Allah! Once, a servant of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" brought some dates, which he denied and said: "This does not seem to belong to the dates of our land." He said: "I saw something doubtful in the dates (or the fruits) of our land this year. So, I bought those (dates of a better kind by those of our land in whose amount) I increased something (upon that amount I bought)." Upon this he (The Prophet) said: "Then, you increased (the dates you sold upon the dates you bought), and in this way you committed usury. Do not approach that (act in the future). If you see something doubtful in your dates then sell it (for payment) and then buy whatever dates you like.""

100-(...) Dawud narrated from Abu Nadra: I asked both Ibn Umar and Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with them" about the exchange of currency, and they saw no harm in it. While I was sitting in the company of Abu Sa'id, I asked him about it, and he said: "If any increase was made (in either side) then it would be regarded as usury." But, I objected to his opinion in view of what they (Ibn Umar and Ibn Abbas) had said. Upon this he said: "I do not narrate to you but what I heard from The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him".

Once, the guardian of his (The Prophet's) date-palms brought to him a Sa of dates which was fine, and the dates of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" were not of such a quality. The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" asked him: "How did you bring that (dates of such a quality?" he said: "I went with two Sa's (of those dates of inferior quality), by which I bought this Sa (of dates of better quality). However, the price of this kind in the market is so-and-so, and the price of that kind is so-and-so." Upon this The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Woe to you! In this way, you have committed usury. If you want that (i.e. to get those dates of such a better kind), sell your dates by a certain commodity, by which you could buy the dates you like.""

Abu Sa'id said: "Then, is (the sale of) dates by dates more entitled to be regarded as usury or (the sale of) silver by silver?" he (the narrator) said: I came to Ibn Umar afterwards (with whom I discussed the matter) and he forbade me to do it, but I did not go to Ibn Abbas. Abu As-Sahba told me that he asked Ibn Abbas about it in Mecca, and he disapproved of it.

101-(1596) Abu Salih narrated: I heard Abu Sa'id "Allah be pleased with him" saying: "(The exchange of) Dinar by Dinar and Dirham by Dirham should be done like by like; and whoever increased something (in any side) or accepted such an increase would be regarded to have committed usury." I said to him: "But, Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" say something other than that." He (Abu Sa'id) said: "I met Ibn Abbas and asked him: Tell me about that which you say: Is it something you heard from The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", or you found in the Book of Allah "Exalted and Hallowed be He"?" He said: "I did neither hear it from The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", nor did I find it in Allah's Book. [21] Selling the camel on the condition that one should ride it (until he returns from the journey)

109-(715) Jabir Ibn Abdullah "Allah be pleased with both" narrated that he was riding a camel who got exhausted. Then, he intended to let it off. (He resumed): The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" joined me and invoked good for me, and he poked it with the result that it turn to walk (so much fast) as it had never walked as such before. He said (to me): "Sell it to me for an ounce." I said: "No." he said once again: "Sell it to me." I sold it to him for an ounce, on the condition that I should ride it until I reach my family. When I reached, I brought the camel to him, and he paid me its price. When I returned, he sent (somebody) behind me (so that I might come to him). Then, (when I came back to him) he said: "Do you see that I asked you to reduce (the price) in order to take your camel? Take your camel and Dirhams, for it is a gift for you."

He asked me: "What is wrong with your camel?" I said: "It is tired." Then, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" stepped behind, struck it and invoked good for it. It (turned to be so much fast to the extent that it) was walking ahead of all the camels. He (The Prophet) asked me: "Now, how do you see your camel?" I said: "It is very good, by virtue of your blessing."

He said to me: "Do you sell it to me?" I felt shy (to refuse) for I had no camel used for carrying water other than it. I replied in the affirmative. I sold it to him provided that I should ride it until I would reach Medina. I said to him: "O Messenger of Allah! I'm a newly married." I excused him (to proceed faster) and he gave me permission. I proceeded ahead of the people towards Medina until I reached it, whereupon my maternal uncle asked me about the camel. I told him of what I had done with it. He blamed me for it.

He (the narrator) said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had said to me when I took his permission (to proceed faster): "What did you marry? A virgin or a previously married woman?" I said to him: "I married a previously married woman." He said: "Why did you not marry a virgin who could play with you and you could play with her?" I said: "O Messenger of Allah! My father died (or was martyred) and left young sisters of mine. So, I disliked to marry a girl like them, who would not be able to educate them, and look after them. So, I married a previously married woman so that she would look after and educate them." Jabir "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: When The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came upon me while my camel was tired, he pricked it and it jumped (and walked so much fast) that I was to constrain its nose string in order that I could hear the talk of him (The Prophet), but I was not able to have control over it. Then, The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" overtook me and said: "Sell it to me." I sold it to him for five ounces (of gold) provided that I would ride it to Medina. He said: "You have (the right of) riding it to Medina." He (the narrator) said: When I arrived in Medina, I came to him (and brought the camel to him). He (gave me its price and) added an extra ounce for me. Then, he granted it (the camel) to me (besides its price).

114-(...) Jabir Ibn Abdullah "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: I set out with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" on one of his journeys (I think in an expedition)...and the rest is the same, in which he added: He (The Prophet) said: "O Jabir! Have you got the price in full?" I replied in the affirmative. Then, he said: "The camel and its price are for you; the camel and its price are for you."

115-(...) Shu'ba narrated from Muharib that he heard Jabir Ibn Abdullah "Allah be pleased with both" saying: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" bought from me a camel for two ounces (of gold) and one or two Dirhams. He (the narrator) said: When he arrived be upon him" saying: "Beware of taking more oaths in transactions, because it might result in selling (the commodity) but it would obliterate (the blessing)."

[28] The pre-emption

133-(1608) Jabir "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "He, who has a partner in a home or a (garden of) date-palm trees, it is unlawful for him to sell (his share) until he takes permission from his partner. If he (such a partner) liked, he would take (and buy) it, and if he disapproved of it, he would abandon that (idea of selling)."

134-(...) Abu Az-Zubair narrated from Jabir "Allah be pleased with him": The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" made valid the pre-emption in every joint undivided property, dwelling or garden, in such a way that it is unlawful for him (a partner) to sell (his share) until he takes permission from his partner. If he (the later) liked, he might take (and buy) it, and if he liked, he might leave it. If he sold without taking permission from his partner, then, such a partner would have more right to take (and buy) that (which he sold).

135-(...) Abu Az-Zubair narrated that he heard Jabir "Allah be pleased with him" saying: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The pre-emption is valid in every joint (undivided) property, land, dwelling, or garden it might be, in such a way that it is not valid that one should sell (his share of it) until he offers it to his partner, who might take (and buy) it, or leave it. If the one (who wants to sell his share) does not do so, then his partner has more right to have it until he gives him permission."

[29] Fixing a wooden-peg in the wall of one's neighbour

136-(1609) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "No one should prevent his neighbour from fixing a wooden peg in his wall." Abu Huraira said (to his companions): "Why do I find you disinclined to it? By Allah, I certainly will narrate it to you (no matter harmful it might be)."

[30] Prohibition of oppression and usurping the land (of others) or anything else illegally

137-(1610) Sa'id Ibn Zaid Ibn Amr Ibn Nufail "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "He, who usurped (anything even as little as) a span of land illegally, Allah would encircle his neck with it on the Day of Judgement seven earths."

138-(...) Umar Ibn Muhammad narrated from his father that Arwa disputed Sa'id Ibn Zaid Ibn Amr Ibn Nufail over a portion of his home. He said: "Abrogate your claim over it, for I heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying: "He, who usurped (anything even as little as) a span of land illegally, it would encircle his neck on the Day of Judgement seven earths." O Allah! If she is a liar, let her be blind, and make her grave in her house!" He (the narrator) commented: Afterwards, I saw her blind, touching the walls (in order to know her way), and she used to say: "The invocation of Sa'id Ibn Zaid has befallen me." Then, while she was walking in the house, she passed by a well inside the home, in which she fell down. (She died, and in this way) that (well) became her grave.

139-(...) Hisham Ibn Urwa narrated from his father that Arwa, daughter of Uwais claimed that Sa'id Ibn Zaid usurped a portion of her land illegally. She filed the case before Marwan Ibn Al-Hakam. Upon this Sa'id Ibn Zaid said: "How would I usurp anything from her land illegally after what I had heard from The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"?" he (Marwan) asked him: "What did you heard from The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"?" he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "He, who usurped (anything even as little as) a span of land illegally, Allah would encircle his neck with it on the Day of Judgement seven earths." Marwan said to him: "I would not ask you to bring an evidence after that." He (Sa'id) said: "O Allah! If she has told a lie, let her be blind and cause her to be killed in that very land!" he (the narrator) said: (it was so). She did not die before she had become blind. While she was walking in her land, she fell down in a pit and then died.

140-(...) Sa'id Ibn Zaid narrated: I heard The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying: "He, who usurped (anything even as little as) a span of land illegally, it would encircle his neck on the Day of Judgement seven earths."

6-(...) Jabir Ibn Abdullah "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and Abu Bakr came on foot to visit me (and inquire about my health) at Banu Salama (when I was ill). They found me unconscious. He (The Prophet) asked for water and performed ablution, from which he sprinkled over me. When I came to my senses, I said: "What should I do with my property O Messenger of Allah?" then, the following Verse was revealed: "Allah (thus) directs you as regards your children's (inheritance): to the male, a portion equal to that of two females." Jabir Ibn Abdullah "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" accompanied by Abu Bakr came on foot to visit me (and inquire about my health) when I fell sick. Found me unconscious, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" performed ablution, and poured over me from (the remaining water of) his ablution. When I came to my senses The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was (by my side). Then I said: "O Messenger of Allah! What should I do with my property (since I'm afraid that I'm at the verge of death)?" he gave no reply. Then the Verse of the law of inheritance was revealed.

8-(...) Jabir Ibn Abdullah "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: Once, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" entered upon me while I was sick and unconscious. He performed ablution, and poured over me from (the remaining water of) his ablution. When I came to my senses, I said to him: "O Messenger of Allah! I have neither descendants nor ascendants to inherit me. (What should I do then with my property?)" then, the Verse of the law of inheritance was revealed. I (a sub-narrator) said to Muhammad Ibn Al-Munkadir: (Is it) " They ask thee for a legal decision. Say: Allah directs (thus) about those who leave neither descendants nor ascendants"?" he said: "It is thus that it was revealed."

(24) The Book Of Gifts

[1] Disapproval of buying anything one gave in charity from him, to whom it had been given

1-(1620) Zaid Ibn Aslam narrated from his father that he had heard Umar Ibn Al-Khattab "Allah be pleased with him" saying: I gave an outstanding horse in Allah's Cause. The person to whom it was given, did not look after it. I intended to buy it from him, thinking that he would sell it cheaply. When I asked The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" about that he said: "Don't buy it, and do not take back whatever you have given in charity, for the person who takes back what he has given in charity, is like a dog that swallows back its vomit."

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Malik Ibn Anas, with the same chain of transmitters, in which he added (that The Prophet said): "Don't buy it, even if he gives it to you for one Dirham."

2-(...) Zaid Ibn Aslam narrated from his father that Umar Ibn Al-Khattab gave a horse to be ridden in Allah's Cause. But the person who got it neglected it, and he was of little property. So, he wanted to buy it. He came to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and asked him about that. But he said: "Do not buy it even if it was given to you for one Dirham, because the example of him who takes back his gift is like the example of a dog which swallows back its vomit."

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Zaid Ibn Aslam through another chain of transmitters, but the narration of Malik and Rawh is much longer and more complete.

3-(1621) Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" narrated that Umar gave a horse (in charity) to be ridden in the cause of Allah. Then, he found it being sold (by the one to whom it had been given). He wanted to purchase it. When he asked The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" about that, he said: "You should neither purchase it, nor should you take back what you've given in charity."

(...) A Hadith like this was narrated on the authority of Ubaidullah from Nafi from Ibn Umar from The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" through another chain of transmitters.

4-(...) Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" narrated that Umar gave a horse (in charity) to be ridden in the cause of Allah. Then, he found it being sold (by the one to whom it had been given). He wanted to purchase it.

[2] Prohibition of taking back what was given in charity or as a gift particularly after it has become in the possession of the donee, except what is given as a gift to one's child

5-(1622) Sa'id Ibn Al-Musaiyyab narrated from Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both": The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The example of him who takes back his gift is like the example of a dog which heaves, then swallows back its vomit."

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Muhammad Ibn Ali Ibn Al-Husain, with the same chain of transmitters.

(...) Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Amr (known as Al-Awza'i) narrated that Muhammad, son of Fatima, daughter of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" narrated the same.

An-Nu'man Ibn Bashir "Allah be pleased with him" narrated that his father had took him to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "I have given this son of mine a slave." He asked: "Have you given all your sons the same?" He replied: "No." He said: "Take back your gift then."

11-(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Az-Zuhri, with the same chain of transmitters, with a slight variation of words.

12-(...) Hisham Ibn Urwa narrated from his father that An-Nu'man Ibn Bashir told that when his father gave him a slave as a gift, The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" asked him: "What is this slave?" he said: "My father gave him to me as a gift." He (The Prophet) said (to his father): "Did you give all of his brother the same as you gave him?" he replied in the negative. Upon this he said: "Then, take him back."

13-(...) An-No'man Ibn Bashir "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: My father gave me as a gift some of his property, but my mother Amra Bint Rawaha said that she would not agree to it unless he made Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" a witness to it. So, my father went to Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" in order to make him a witness to that. But, he (The Prophet) asked: "Have you given (its like) to everyone of your sons?" He replied in the negative. Upon this he (The Prophet) said: "Be afraid of Allah, and be just to your children." My father then returned and took back his gift.

14-(...) An-No'man Ibn Bashir "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: My mother Amra Bint Rawaha asked my father to present me a gift from his property. He hesitated for a year, after which it seemed to him (to give it to me). She (My mother) said that she would not be satisfied unless The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was made a witness to it. I was a young boy, when my father held me by the hand and took me to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". He said: "O Messenger of Allah! The mother of this (boy), Bint Rawaha, liked that I should make you a witness to what I've given to her son as a gift." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "O Bashir! Do you have other sons besides him?" He said: "Yes." [4] The permanent life gift

20-(1625) Jabir Ibn Abdullah "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Whoever is donated a permanent life gift along with his offspring, then it should belong to the donee, and should not return to the donator, because he has given it as a gift to which the (rules of) inheritance would apply."

21-(...) Jabir Ibn Abdullah "Allah be pleased with both" narrated that he heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying: "Whoever donated a permanent life gift to somebody and then his offspring, then his saying (upon which it has become a gift) would cancel his claim over it. In this way, it would belong to the one to whom it was granted, and then to his offspring (after him)." According to the narration of Yahya, he (The Prophet) said in the beginning of the Hadith: "Whoever is given a permanent life gift, it should belong to him and then his offspring (after him)."

22-(...) Abu Salama Ibn Abd Ar-Rahman narrated that Jabir Ibn Abdullah Al-Ansari "Allah be pleased with both" told him: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Whoever donated a permanent life gift to somebody along with his offspring, by saying: "I've given this as a permanent life gift to you and then to your offspring (after you) as long as anyone of you survives", then it should belong to the one to whom it was granted, and should not return to the donator, because he has given it as a gift to which the (rules of) inheritance would apply."

life and death." They filed the case before Tariq, the freed slave of Uthman. He called Jabir, who testified that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had judged that the permanent life gift should belong to the one to whom it has been granted. Tariq passed that judgement, and wrote to Abd Al-Malik to inform him of that. He told him of the testimony of Jabir. Abd Al-Malik said: "No doubt, Jabir has told the truth." Then Tariq implemented that (judgement), and this garden has become in the possession of the descendants of the donee to this day.

29-(...) Sulaiman Ibn Yasar narrated that Tariq passed a judgement that the permanent life gift should belong to the heir (of the one to whom it has been granted) depending upon the testimony of Jabir Ibn Abdullah "Allah be pleased with both", which he narrated from The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him".

30-(...) Ata narrated from Jabir Ibn Abdullah "Allah be pleased with both" that The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The permanent life gift is valid (for the one to whom it has been granted,."

31-(...) Jabir Ibn Abdullah "Allah be pleased with both" narrated that The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The permanent life gift is a heritage of the one to whom it has been granted."

32-(1626) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated that The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The permanent life gift is valid (for the one to whom it has been granted, and then to his heirs after him)."

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Sa'id from Quatada, with the same chain of transmitters, but here he (The Prophet) said: "(The permanent life gift is) a heritage of the one to whom it has been granted" or said "valid (for the one to whom it has been granted and then to his heirs after him)."

1-(1627) Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "It is not right for any Muslim who has something with which he wants to make a bequest to stay for two nights without having his will written and kept ready with him."

2-(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Ubaidullah, with the same chain of transmitters, but with a slight change of wording.

3-(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Nafi, from Ibn Umar, from The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him".

4-(...) Salim narrated from his father "Allah be pleased with him": Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "It is not right for any Muslim who has something to make a bequest with to stay for three nights without having his will written and kept ready with him." Ibn Umar commented: Since I heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying so, no single night came upon me without keeping my bequest ready with me.

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Az-Zuhri, with the same chain of transmitters.

[1] The bequest should be made only with one-third (the property)

5-(1628) Amir Ibn Sa'd narrated from his father: In the year of the Farewell Hajj, The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" visited me when I fell ill and was about to die as a result of that disease. I said: "O Allah's Apostle! I am very ill as you see. I am a rich man and have no heir except my only daughter. Shall I give two-thirds of my property in charity?" He said: "No." I said: "Shall I then give one half of it in charity?" He said: "No, (give) one-third (in charity); and even one-third is too much. No doubt, it is better to leave your children rich than to leave them poor, begging from others. Allah will reward you for whatever you spend with the intention of getting Allah's Pleasure even if it were a mouthful of food you put into your wives mouth." I said: "O Allah's Apostle! Shall I be left behind (in Mecca) after my companions go?" He said: "If you are left behind, you will be upgraded and elevated for every deed you will do with a desire to get Allah's Pleasure. I hope that you will live long so that some people will benefit by you while others will be harmed. O Allah! Please fulfill the migration of my companions and do not make them turn back on their heels. But (we feel sorry for) the unlucky Sa'd Ibn Khawla." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" lamented his death in Mecca.

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Az-Zuhri, with the same chain of transmitters.

(...) Amir Ibn Sa'd narrated from Sa'd (Ibn Abu Waqqas): The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" visited me to inquire about my health (since I was ill)...and the rest is the same as narrated by Az-Zuhri, without mentioning the saying of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" as regards Sa'd Ibn Khawla, but he said: He disliked to die in the very land from which he emigrated.

6-(...) Mus'ab Ibn Sa'd narrated from his father: I fell ill, and I sent (a message) to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", (requesting him to come and visit me). I said (to him): "Let me distribute my property (among the poor after death) as I wish (for I'm about to die as a result of this disease)." But, he refused. I said: "Then (let me distribute) a half (of it)." He rejected. I said: "Then (let me distribute) one-third (of it)." He kept silent after (I mentioned) the one-third. Afterwards, (bequeathing) one-third (of a property) has become permissible.

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Shu'ba from Simak, with the same chain of transmitters, without mentioning: Afterwards, (bequeathing) one-third (of a property) has become permissible.

7-(...) Mus'ab Ibn Sa'd narrated from his father: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" visited me (when I was ill in Mecca). I said to him: "Would I bequeath all my property (to be given in charity after my death)?" he said: "No." I said: "Then, would it be a half of it?" He said: "No." I said: "Then, would it be one-third of it?" he said: "Yes, and even one-third is too much."

8-(...) Humaid Ibn Abd Ar-Rahman Al-Himyari narrated from three of Sa'd's sons, each of whom told from his father that The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came to visit Sa'd in Mecca (and inquire about his health), whereupon he start weeping. He asked him: "What does cause you to weep?" he said: "I'm afraid that I should die in the very land from which I emigrated as Sa'd Ibn Khawla died." Upon this The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "O Allah! Might You cure Sa'd! O Allah! Might You cure Sa'd!" he said it thrice.

Then, he (Sa'd) said: "O Messenger of Allah! I have a great wealth, and

10-(1629) Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" said: People would better reduce the portion of what they bequeath by will from one-third to one-fourth (of the heritage), for The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "One-third, yet even one-third is too much."

[2] The dead person receives the reward of the charity given on his behalf after his death

11-(1630) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: A man said to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him": "My father died and left behind a great wealth, without making a bequest. If I give in charity on his behalf, would that expiate his sins?" he said: "Yes."

12-(1004) A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" narrated that a man came to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "My mother died suddenly, making no will. I think that had she been able to speak, she would have surely given alms. Would I have a reward if I gave alms on her behalf?" He said: "Yes."

[3] What reward one gets after his death

14-(1631) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "If the son of Adam (i.e. mankind) died, his deeds would cease except for three: A recurring charity, an advantageous knowledge by which (people would) benefit, or a good child who might invoke (Allah) for him."

[4] The endowment (Waqf)

15-(1632) Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: Umar Ibn Al-Khattab got (a piece of) land in Khaibar and he went to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" to consult him about it saying: "O Messenger of Allah! I got (a piece of) land in Khaibar better than which I have never had, what do you suggest for me to do with it?" The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "If you like you can give the land as endowment and give its yield in charity." So Umar gave it in charity as an endowment on the condition that it should neither be sold, purchased, given to anybody as a gift, nor should it be inherited. However, Umar gave its yield in charity to the poor people, to the Kith and kin, for manumitting slaves, in Allah's Cause, and to the travellers and guests. But there would be no harm if the administrator of the endowment ate from it fairly (according to his need), and fed his friends without the intention of getting wealthy from it.

I (a sub-narrator) said: I narrated this Hadith to Muhammad, and when I reached this point "without the intention of getting wealthy from it", he said: "without hoarding wealth (out of it)." Ibn Awn said: The one who read this book told me that it (was mentioned in it): "without hoarding wealth (out of it)."

(...) A Hadith like this was narrated on the authority of Ibn Awn, with the same chain of transmitters, but the narration of Ibn Abu Za'ida and Azhar ended at his saying: "and fed his friends without the intention of getting wealthy from it." What follows was not mentioned.

(1633) Ibn Umar narrated that Umar said: I got a (piece of) land from the land of Khaibar. I went to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "I got a (piece of) land, dearer to me and better than which I've never got any property..." and the rest is the same, without mentioning: I told Muhammad... and what follows it.

[5] The one who has nothing to bequeath might not make a bequest

16-(1634) Talha Ibn Musarrif narrated: I asked Abdullah Ibn Abu Awfa "Allah be pleased with him": "Did The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" make a will?" He replied: "No." I asked him: "How is it then that making a will has been enjoined on people, (or why have they been ordered to make a will)?" He replied: "He (The Prophet) made a bequest (to abide) by the Book (Qur'an) of Allah "Exalted and Glorified be He"."

17-(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Malik Ibn Mighwal, with the same chain of transmitters. In the narration of Waki (it was mentioned that the narrator told): I said: "Then, how have the people been ordered to make will?" According to the narration of Ibn Numair: I said: "Then, how has making a bequest been enjoined upon Muslims?"

18-(1635) Masruq narrated that A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" neither left a Dinar, a Dirham (i.e. money in cash), a goat (sheep) or a camel, nor did he make a bequest (as regards his possessions, for he had none).

19-(1636) Al-Aswad narrated: In the presence of A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" some people mentioned that a will had been made (by The Prophet) for Ali (to be his successor). A'isha said: "When did he appoint him by will? Indeed, when he died he was resting against my chest (or in my lap) and he asked for a washbasin. Then he collapsed while he was in that state, and I could not even perceive that he had died. Then, when did he appoint him by will?"

20-(1637) Sa'id Ibn Jubair narrated: Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" said: "Thursday! What (dangerous thing) took place on Thursday!" Then he started weeping till his tears wetted the gravels of the ground. I said: "O Ibn Abbas! What (happened on) Thursday?" He said: "On Thursday the illness of Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was aggravated and he said: "Fetch me a writing material so that I may have something written to you after which you will never go astray." The people (present there) differed in this matter and people should not differ before a prophet. Then, they said: "What is the matter with him? Has he lost his consciousness? Try to inquire from him about that." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Let me alone, since the

In this way, the people in the house differed and started disputing. Some of them said: "Give him writing material so that he may write for you a document after which you will not go astray." But others said what Umar had said. So when their talk and differences increased in front of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Get up."" Ubaidullah said: Ibn Abbas used to say (commenting): "What a great disaster it was that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was prevented from writing for them that book because of their differences and noise."

(26) The Book Of Vows

[1] The order to fulfill one's vow

1-(1638) Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: Sa'd Ibn Ubada asked The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" for the religious verdict as regards a vow made by his mother who died before she fulfilled it. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Fulfill it on her behalf."

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Az-Zuhri, through another chain of transmitters.

[2] Forbiddance of taking vows since it never averts anything (such as the Divine Decree)

2-(1639) Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: Once, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" started forbidding us to make vows saying: "It (vow) never averts anything (such as the Divine Decree), but (it is made so that) by which something might be taken (in fulfilling it) from the miser."

3-(...) Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" narrated from The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him": "The vow neither hastens nor delays anything, but (it is taken so that) by which something might be extracted from the miser."

4-(...) Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" narrated that The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade making vows, and said: "It is not necessary that) it would produce good but (it is made so that) by which something might be taken from the miser."

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Mansur, with the same chain of transmitters.

5-(1640) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Do not make vows since the vow never saves anyone from the Divine Decree, but (it is made so that) by which something might be taken out from the miserly person."

6-(...) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated that The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade making vows, and said: "It (the vow) never averts (anything) from the Divine Decree, but it is meant so that something might be taken out from the miserly person."

Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Indeed, the vow never make accessible to the son of Adam anything which Allah has not decreed for him, but the vow happens to coincide with the Divine Decree, with the result that it would extract from the miserly person what he might not intend to extract."

(...) A Hadith like this was narrated on the authority of Amr Ibn Abu Amr, with the same chain of transmitters.

[3] There is no fulfillment of any vow in disobedience to Allah or in anything, which is not in the possession of him who makes it

8-(1641) Imran Ibn Husain "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The (tribe of) Thaqif was allies of Banu Uqail. Those of Thaqif took as captives two of the companions of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and the companions of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" captivated one of those of Uqail, and they took along with him (the she-camel) Al-Atba. Once, The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came upon him while he was fettered, whereupon he said: "O Muhammad!" he (The Prophet) went to him and replied: "What is the matter with you?" he asked: "For what (crime) did you take me (as captive)? Why did you catch hold of the one walking ahead of the pilgrims (i.e. the she-camel)?" He (The Prophet) said: "For a great crime (you've made). I (by the help of my companions) caught hold of you for the crime of your allies, Banu Thaqif."

He (The Prophet) turned away. The man called him once again and said: "O Muhammad! O Muhammad!" Since Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was merciful and tenderhearted, he returned to him and said: "What is the matter with you?" He said: "I am a Muslim." He (The Prophet) said: "Had you said that when you had had a mastership over yourself, you would have got every prosperity." He turned away. He (the captive) called him (for the third time) saying: "O Muhammad! O Muhammad!" He (The Prophet) went to him and said: "What is the matter with you?" the man said: "I am hungry, so feed me, and I am thirsty, so supply me with water." He (The Prophet) said: "That is (to cover) your need." Afterwards, he was ransomed for the two men (who had been captivated by Banu Thaqif).

He (the narrator) added: Once, a woman of the Ansar had been taken as captive, and Al-Adba also was caught. The woman was fettered. The people used to give rest to their animals in front of their houses. One night, she (the captivated woman) fled from the fetter and then came to the camels. The more she drew near a camel, the more it fretted and fumed. So, she left them until she came to Al-Adba, which did not fret and fume, since it was submissive. She rode upon its back, drove it away and then went off. When those (of Thaqif) felt this, they went in pursuit of it, but it (the she-camel) exhausted them. She (the woman) took vow to Allah, that in case He saved her through it, she would slaughter it as a sacrifice. When she arrived in Medina, the people saw her and said: "Here is Al-Adba, the she-camel of Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"." She (the woman) said that she had taken a vow that if Allah saved her through it, she would slaughter it as a sacrifice. They came to Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and informed him of that, whereupon he said: "Exalted be Allah! How bad she rewarded it that she took vow to Allah that if He saved her on its back, she would slaughter it as a sacrifice! There is no fulfillment of a vow in disobedience, or in anything which is not in the possession of the one (who made it)." In the narration of Ibn Hujr (he said): "There is no vow in disobedience to Allah."

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Aiyyub, with the same chain of transmitters. In the narration of Hammad he said: Al-Atba was a she-camel of a man from Banu Uqail, and it was among those (animals), which proceeded ahead of the pilgrims. It was also mentioned that she (the captivated woman) came to a docile trained she-camel.

[4] What about him who vowed to go to Ka'ba on foot

9-(1642) Anas "Allah be pleased with him" narrated that once, The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saw an old man supported between his two sons (while he was walking). He asked: "What is wrong with this (man)?" they said: "He took a vow to walk (to Ka'ba on foot)." Upon this he said: "No doubt, Allah is not in need of his tormenting himself." Then, he ordered him to ride.

10-(1643) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated that once, The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came upon an old man who was walking between his two sons, resting upon them. He asked: "What is the matter with this (old man)?" one of his sons said: "O Messenger of Allah! He had made a vow (to go to Ka'ba on foot)." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Ride O old man! No doubt, Allah is not in need of you and your vow."

(…) A Hadith like this was narrated on the authority of Amr Ibn Abu Amr, with the same chain of transmitters.

11-(1644) Uqba Ibn Amir narrated: My sister took a vow to walk to the House of Allah as barefooted. She requested me to ask The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" for the religious verdict as regards that. I asked for his religious verdict, and he said: "Let her walk (for sometime) and ride (for sometime)."

12-(…) Uqba Ibn Amir Al-Juhani narrated: My sister took a vow…and the rest is the same, in which (the word) barefooted was not mentioned. But he added: Abu Al-Khair was sticking to Uqba.

(27) The Book Of Oaths

[1] Forbiddance to swear by anything other than Allah Almighty

1-(1646) Salim Ibn Abdullah narrated from his father: I heard Umar saying: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Verily, Allah "Exalted and Hallowed be He" forbids you to swear by your fathers." Umar said: By Allah! Since I heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbidding it, I've never sworn by it, either by myself or on behalf of anyone (of whom I narrate anything).

2-(...) A Hadith like this was narrated on the authority of Az-Zuhri, with the same chain of transmitters. But in the narration of Uqail, he said: I've never sworn by it since I heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbidding it, nor have I uttered it (in my talks). He did not mention "either by myself or on behalf of others."

(...) Az-Zuhri narrated from Salim that his father said: Once, The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" heard Umar swearing by his father...and the rest is the same as narrated by Yunus and Ma'mar.

3-(...) Abdullah narrated that once, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came upon Umar Ibn Al-Khattab in a group of riders, while Umar was swearing by his father, whereupon The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" addressed them (saying): "Verily, Allah "Exalted and Hallowed be He" forbids you to swear by your fathers. So, whoever (is intending to) take an oath, let him swear by Allah, otherwise he should keep silent."

4-(...) A Hadith like this was narrated on the authority of Nafi from Ibn Umar from The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him".

(...) Abdullah Ibn Dinar narrated that he heard Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" saying: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Whoever (is intending to) take an oath, let him swear by nothing other than Allah." Quraish used to swear by their fathers, so, he (The Prophet) said: "Do not swear by your fathers."

[2] Whoever swore by Lati and Uzza (forgetfully or jokingly or by mistake) should say "There is no god (to be worshipped) but Allah"

5-(1647) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Whoever among you took an oath, and mentioned (the idol of) Lati in his oath, should say: "There is no god but Allah", and whoever said to his companion: "Come so that I would gamble with you" should give something in charity (as expiation)."

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Az-Zuhri, with the same chain of transmitters. (Grand imam) Abu Al-Husain: Muslim said: No one narrated this statement (i.e. "Come so that I would gamble with you") except Az-Zuhri, who alone narrated ninety traditions with good transmitters, and no one shared them with him.

6-(1648) Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Samura narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "You should neither swear by idols nor by your fathers."

[3] Desirability of the fact that if one takes an oath on something and then finds that it is beneficial to do another thing (which is against his oath), he would do what is better, and make expiation for his oath

7-(1649) Abu Musa "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: I went to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" along with a group of The Ash'arites, asking him to provide us with means of conveyance. He said: "By Allah, I will not provide you with any means of conveyance; and I have nothing to make you ride on." We stayed as long as Allah wished. Then some camels as booty were brought to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and he ordered that we should be given three camels with white humps. When we set out we (or some of us) said: "By Allah! We will never be blessed (with what we have been given). We came to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and asked him to provide us with means of conveyance, but he took an oath not to provide us with any means of conveyance. Let's go and remind him."

We returned and told him. He replied: "I have not provided you with means of conveyance, but Allah has provided you with it, and by Allah, Allah willing, if I take an oath to do something, and later on I find out that it is more beneficial to do something different, I will do the thing which is better, and give expiation for my oath."

8-(...) Abu Musa "Allah be pleased with him" reported: My Companions sent me to Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" to ask him for some mounts to ride on as they were accompanying him in the army of difficulty, (and that was the holy battle of Tabuk). I said: "O Allah's Prophet! My companions sent me to you to provide them with means of conveyance." He said: "By Allah! I will not make you ride

So I returned sadly because of the refusal of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (to provide us with means of conveyance), and for fear that The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" might have become angry with me.

I returned to my companions and informed them of what The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had said. Only a short while had passed when I heard Bilal calling: "O Abdullah Ibn Qais!" I replied to his call. Bilal said: "Respond to Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" who is calling you." When I went to him, he said: "Take these two camels tied together, these two camels tied together, and also these two camels tied together," referring to six camels he had bought from Sa'd at that time. The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" added: "Take them to your companions and say: Allah (or Allah's Apostle) allows you to ride on these, so ride on them."

Abu Musa further said: I took them to my companions and said: "The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" allows you to ride on these (camels). But by Allah, I will not leave you till some of you proceed with me to somebody who heard the statement of Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" when I came to ask him (to provide you with means of conveyance) on your behalf, according to which he refused (to provide you with them) in the first time I had asked him on your behalf, and then his (statement of) giving me (those six camels) after that, lest you would think that I narrate to you a thing which Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" did not say." They said to me: "By Allah! Though we consider you as true, we will do what you like."

So Abu Musa proceeded along with some of them till they came to those who heard the statement of Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" according to which he denied them (some animals to ride on) and later (his statement) according to which he gave them the same. So these people told them the same information as Abu Musa had told them.

There entered a red-faced man from the tribe of Banu Taimullah, who seemed to be a Mawla, , to whom Abu Musa said: "Come near (to eat)." But he (the man) hesitated. He said to him once again: "Come near (to eat), for I saw The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" eating it (the chicken)." He

[8] How would the masters treat their slaves, and the expiation for (the sin of) slapping the face of one's slave

29-(1657) Zadhan Abu Umar narrated: I came to Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" and he had just manumitted a slave of his. Then, he took a wood stick or something like it from the ground and said: "It (such a manumission) implies no reward (even as little as to be) equal to that (wood stick, since my intention when I manumitted him was not out of gift whose reward would be expected from Allah), but I heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying: "Whoever slapped the face of his slave or beat him, then the expiation for such (a sin) is to manumit him.""

30-(...) Zadhan narrated that Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" called a slave of his and saw a scare (of a strike) on his back. He asked him: "Has this (strike) pained you?" he replied in the negative. He said: "Then, you've become free." He (the narrator) said: Then, he (Ibn Umar) took something from the ground and said: "No doubt, I would receive no reward for (manumitting) him more than that (very little thing), but I heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying: "Whoever beat a slave of his for no sin he has committed, or slapped his face (for no significant fault), then, the expiation of that should be to manumit him."

(...) The same was narrated through another chain of transmitters, with a slight variation of words.

31-(1658) Mu'awiya Ibn Suwaid narrated: I slapped (the face of) a slave of ours, and then I fled away (for fear of my father). A short time before noon, I came and offered the (Noon) prayer behind my father who (after the prayer) called me and him. He said to him: "Retaliate (and take your right) from him." But, he forgave (me). Then, he (my father) said: "We, Banu Muqrin, had only a slave-girl, during the lifetime of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". One of us slapped (the face of) her. When this news reached The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", he said: "Manumit her." They said: "There is no servant other than her." He said: "Then, let them employ her as their servant, and if they dispensed with her, they should let her go.""

١٠ ـ بابُ إِطْعَامِ المَمْلُوكِ مما يَأْكُلُ وإِلْبَاسِهِ مما يلبَسُ ولا يُكلِّفُه ما يغلِبُه

[البخاري: كتاب الإيمان، باب المعاصي من أمر الجاهلية...، رقم: ٣٠].

39-(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Al-A'mash, with the same chain of transmitters. But, in the Hadith transmitted on the authority of Zuhair and Abu Mu'awiya, after his (The Prophet's) words: "You are a person who still has (some characteristics of the days of) Ignorance", he (Abu Dharr) said: "Even up to this time of my old age?" He (The Prophet) said: "Yes." In the narration of Abu Mu'awiya (The Prophet said): "Yes, up to this time of your old age." In the narration of Isa (The Prophet said): "If you overburden him, you should sell him." In the narration of Zuhair (The Prophet said): "You should help him in that (work)." In the narration of Abu Mu'awiya no statement of the following was mentioned: "You should sell him" or "You should help him." But it ends at his saying: "Do not overburden him."

40-(...) Al-Ma'rur Ibn Suwaid narrated: I saw Abu Dharr wearing a garment, and his slave was wearing a similar garment. I asked him about that, and he told that he had abused a person during the lifetime of Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and abused him for his mother. He came to Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and mentioned that to him. Upon this Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "You are a person who still has (some characteristics of the Days of) Ignorance. Your slaves are your brothers, whom Allah has put under your control. He who has his brother under his control, should feed him from what he eats and dress him from what he dresses. You should not overburden them, and if you overburden them, you should help them."

41-(1662) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The slave has (the right of) eating and dressing, and he is not to be overburdened by work (which might be beyond his capacity)."

42-(1663) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" reported: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "When the slave of anyone among you prepares food for him and serves it after having sat close to (and bearing the hardship of) its heat and smoke, he should make him (the slave) sit along with him and make him eat (along with him), and if the food seems to run short, then he should spare a portion for him (from his own share), a morsel or two."

56-(1668) Imran Ibn Husain "Allah be pleased with him" narrated that a man emancipated six slaves at the time of his death, and he had no property other than them. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" called them, divided them into three parts (each containing two slaves), and drew lots among them. Then, he emancipated two (slaves upon whom the lot fell), and kept (the remaining) four as slaves. He spoke to the man (i.e. their master) so harshly.

57-(...) This Hadith was narrated through another chain of transmitters (with the following change): A man from amongst the Ansar bequeathed the emancipation of six slaves of his at the time of his death.

[13] Permissibility of selling a Mudabbar slave

58-(997) Jabir Ibn Abdullah "Allah be pleased with both" narrated that a man from the Ansar emancipated a slave of his (on the condition that it would come into force after the manumitter's death), other than whom he had no property. When this news reached The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" he said: "Who would buy it from me?" Nu'aim Ibn Abdullah purchased him for eight hundred Dirhams, which he paid to him. Amr said: I heard Jabir Ibn Abdullah saying: He was a Coptic slave who died in the first year (of Ibn Az-Zubair's caliphate).

(28) The Book of Oaths for establishing responsibility for murders, fighting, law of equality, and blood money

[1] What about Qasama

1-(1669) Both of Sahl Ibn Abu Hathma and Rafi Ibn Khadij "Allah be pleased with them" reported: Abdullah Ibn Sahl Ibn Zaid and Muhaiyyisa Ibn Mas'ud Ibn Zaid set out together, and when they reached Khaibar, they parted and later on, Muhaiyisa came upon Abdullah Ibn Sahl and found him murdered. He buried him and returned to Medina. He, Huwaiyyisa Ibn Mas'ud and Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Sahl, who was the youngest of them, came to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him".

Abd Ar-Rahman intended to talk before his two companions, but The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said (to him): "Let the eldest of you speak." He kept silent and the other two spoke, and he spoke with them. They mentioned to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" the murder of Abdullah Ibn Sahl, whereupon he said: "Would you take fifty oaths (as to who has committed the murder), and then you would be entitled to take (the right of) your companion from the murderer?" They said: "How could we swear if we did not witness (the murder or the murderer)?" The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Then the Jews can clear themselves from your charge by taking fifty oaths (that it was not they who committed the murder)." They said: "How should we believe in the oaths of infidels?" When The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saw that, he himself paid the blood money (of the murdered).

2-(...) Both of Sahl Ibn Abu Hathma and Rafi Ibn Khadij "Allah be pleased with them" reported: Muhaiyisa Ibn Mas'ud and Abdullah Ibn Sahl set out to Khaibar. Then, they parted in the gardens, and later on, Abdullah Ibn Sahl was murdered. They (his people) accused the Jews (of murdering him). His brother Abd Ar-Rahman, and his paternal cousins Muhaiyisa and Huwaiyisa, came to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". Abd Ar-Rahman, who was the youngest of them, intended to talk about the matter of his brother, but The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said (to him): "Let the eldest of you speak (or said "Let the eldest of you start talking")." The other two talked about the matter of their (murdered) companion. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "If fifty of you take oaths as to the person among them who has committed the murder, he would be

The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Then the Jews can clear themselves from your charge if fifty of them take oaths (that it was not they who committed the murder)." They said: "(How should we believe in the oaths of) infidels?" So, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" himself paid the blood money (of the murdered) from his own (property). Sahl said: One day, I entered a fold, and one of those she-camels (which were given as the blood money) hit me with its leg.

(…) Sahl Ibn Abu Hathma narrated the same Hadith about The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", in which he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" paid his blood-money from his own (property). He did not mention that he had entered the fold.

(…) The same was narrated on the authority of Yahya Ibn Sa'id, from Bushair Ibn Yasar, from Sahl Ibn Abu Hathma.

3-(…) Bushair Ibn Yasar narrated that during the lifetime of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", Abdullah Ibn Sahl Ibn Zaid and Muhaiyyisa Ibn Mas'ud Ibn Zaid, who were from the Ansar, namely from Banu Haritha, set out together to Khaibar, with whose inhabitants of Jews there was a peace (treaty). Then, they parted to fulfill their needs. Later on, Abdullah Ibn Sahl was killed and was found (as thrown) in a spring. His companion (Muhaiyyisa) buried him, and returned to Medina. The brother of the murdered Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Sahl, along with Huwaiyyisa and Muhaiyyisa went (to The Prophet). They mentioned to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" the matter of Abdullah, and that he was murdered.

Bushair Ibn Yasar pretended in his narration from whomever he met among the companions of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" that he (The Prophet) said to them: "Let you take fifty oaths (as to who has killed your companion), after which you will be entitled to take the blood-money of your murdered person (or your companion)." They said: "O Messenger of Allah! We neither saw nor did we attend (this murder)." He (Bushair) pretended that he (The Prophet) said: "Then, let the Jews clear themselves from your charge by (taking) fifty (oaths)." They said: "O Messenger of Allah! How should we accept the oaths of infidels?" Bushair pretended that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" paid himself his blood money from his own (property).

4-(...) Bushair Ibn Yasar narrated that a man from the Ansar, namely from Banu Haritha called Abdullah Ibn Sahl Ibn Zaid set out along with a paternal cousin of his named Muhaiyyisa Ibn Mas'ud Ibn Zaid...and the rest is the same up to his saying: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" paid himself his blood-money from him. Yahya said: Bushair narrated from Sahl Ibn Abu Hathma: One of those she-camels given in this blood-wit hit me with its leg in the fold.

5-(...) Bushair Ibn Yasar Al-Ansari narrated from Sahl Ibn Abu Hathma Al-Ansari that some of them set out to Khaibar, wherein they parted. Later on, they found one of them murdered...and the rest is the same, in which he said (in the end): The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" disliked that his blood should be wasted, so, he paid his blood-wit one hundred camels of those given in charity.

6-(...) Abu Laila Abdullah Ibn Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Sahl narrated that Sahl Ibn Abu Hathma told him from some great men of his tribe that Abdullah Ibn Sahl and Muhaiyyisa went out to Khaibar as they were struck with poverty and difficult living conditions. Then Muhaiyyisa was informed that Abdullah had been killed and thrown in a pit or a spring. Muhaiyyisa went to the Jews and said: "By Allah, you have killed him." The Jews said: "By Allah, we have not killed him." Muhaiyyisa then came back to his people and told them the story. He, his elder brother Huwaiyyisa and Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Sahl came (to The Prophet) and Muhaiyyisa who had been at Khaibar, proceeded to speak, but The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to Muhaiyyisa: "The eldest! The eldest!" meaning: "Let the eldest of you speak."

Huwaiyyisa spoke first and then Muhaiyyisa. Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The Jews should either pay the blood-money of your (deceased) companion or be ready for war." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" wrote a letter to the Jews in that respect, who replied: "We, by Allah, did not kill him." Then The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to Huwaiyyisa, Muhaiyyisa, and Abd Ar-Rahman: "Can you take an oath by which you will have the right to take the blood-money?" They said: "No." He said : "Shall we ask the Jews to take an oath (to deny the charge) before you?" They replied: "But the Jews are not Muslims." So The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" gave them the blood money from his own property. He sent to them one hundred she-camels, which were made to enter the house. Sahl said: A red she-camel of them kicked me.

7-(1670) Both of Abu Salama Ibn Abd Ar-Rahman and Sulaiman Ibn Yasar, the freed slave of Maimuna, the wife of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" narrated from one of the companions belonging to the Ansar that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" held valid the Qasama as it was during the pre-Islamic period of ignorance (a process of taking fifty oaths either by fifty persons or by those present in the session to establish the responsibility of murders: The heirs of the murdered person would take fifty oaths to confirm their claim that somebody had killed their companion. The suspects of murder would, in opposition, take fifty oaths to refute such a claim).

So The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to them: "If you like to go out with the camels of charity and drink their milk and urine (as a kind of medicine), you could do." They did so and became healthy. Then they turned to the camels' shepherds and killed them, reverted to Heathenism (after embracing Islam), and then drove away the camels of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". When this news reached The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", he sent (some people) in their pursuit. They were caught and brought back. from (the tribe of) Uraina. They embraced Islam and swore allegiance to him. At that time, pleurisy had spread there...and the rest of the Hadith is the same (with the following addition): There were with him (The Prophet) about twenty young men of the Ansar whom he sent in their pursuit. He also sent along with them a tracer so that he might trace their footprints.

(...) This Hadith was narrated on the authority of Anas Ibn Malik through another chain of transmitters.

14-(...) Anas "Allah be pleased with him" narrated that Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" pierced the eyes of those (of the tribe of Uraina) because they pierced the eyes of the shepherds.

[3] The law of equality is to be held valid as regards killing by stones or any other tools whether edged or heavy, and killing a man in retaliation for his killing a woman

15-(1672) Anas Ibn Malik "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: A Jew attacked a girl and took some silver ornaments she was wearing. Then he killed her (by crushing her head) with a stone. She was brought to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" while she was in her last breaths. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" asked her: " did So-and-so kill you?" (he mentioned somebody other than her murderer). (Since she was unable to speak), she moved her head, indicating denial. He asked her for the second time (mentioning a person other than her real murderer), and she again moved her head indicating denial. Then he asked her for the third time (naming her real killer). She nodded affirmatively. Then Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered that he should be killed (with his head be crushed) between two stones.

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Shu'ba, with the same chain of transmitters. According to the narration of Ibn Idris (it was mentioned): He (The Prophet) ordered that his head should be crushed between two stones.

16-(...) Anas "Allah be pleased with him" narrated that a man from Jews killed a girl from the Ansar for (stealing her silver ornaments). Then, he threw her (dead body) into a well, and crushed her head with the stones. Then, he was brought to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", who ordered that he should be stoned to death. Actually, he was stoned until he died.

[7] The sin of him who was the first to introduce murder

27-(1677) Masruq narrated from Abdullah "Allah be pleased with him" that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "There is no person, killed illegally, but that the first son of Adam would bear a portion of (the sin of) his murder, because he was the first to introduce murder."

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Al-A'mash, with the same chain of transmitters.

(...) A Hadith like this was narrated on the authority of Abu Wa'il from Abdullah from The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". According to a certain narration, it was mentioned: "which will be decided." But some narrated it as "in connection to which judgements will be established among the people."

[9] The decisive prohibition of bloodshed, (violation of) honors and (seizing) the property (of others illegally)

29-(1679) Abu Bakra "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The division of time has turned to its original structure which was current when Allah created the Heavens and the Earths. The year consists of twelve months, out of which four months are sacred: Three are in succession: Dhul-Qa'da, Dhul-Hijja and Muharram, and (the fourth is) Rajab of (the tribe of) Mudar which comes between Jumada the last and Sha'ban."

Then The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" asked: "Which is this month?" We said: "Allah and His Apostle know better." On that The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" kept quiet so long that we thought that he might name it with another name. Then The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Isn't it the month of Dhul-Hijja?" We replied: "Yes." Then he said: "Which town is this?" We replied: "Allah and His Apostle know better." On that he kept quiet so long that we thought that he might name it with another name. Then he said: "Isn't it the town (of Mecca)?" We replied: "Yes."

Then he said: "Which day is today?" We replied: "Allah and His Apostle know better." He kept quiet so long that we thought that he might name it with another name. Then he said: "Isn't it the day of slaughtering one's sacrifice?" We replied: "Yes." He said: "So your blood, your properties, And your honour Are as sacred to one another as this day of yours, in this city of yours, in this month of yours; and surely, you will meet your Lord, who will ask you about your deeds. Beware! Do not become infidels after me, cutting the throats of one another. It is incumbent on those who are present to convey this message (of mine) to those who are absent. May be that some of those to whom it will be conveyed will understand it better than those who have actually heard it." Then, he (The Prophet) asked: "Haven't I conveyed (Allah's Message) to you?"

strap. He said: "O Messenger of Allah! This (man) killed my brother." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Did you really kill him?" he (whose brother was killed) said: "If he did not confess, I would hold the evidence against him." The man said: "Yes, I killed him." He (The Prophet) said: "Why did you kill him?" he said: "We were striking down the leaves of a tree when he insulted me and made me angry. I hit him with the axe on the side of his head and killed him."

The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" asked him: "Do you have anything to afford (as a blood-money) on your behalf?" he said: "I have got nothing except my clothes and axe." He (The Prophet) said: "Do you think that your people would buy your life (by paying the blood-money on your behalf)?" he said: "I'm more insignificant in the sight of my people than to do that." Then, he (The Prophet) threw his strap to him (whose brother was killed) and said to him: "Here it is your companion." Then, the man set out with him. When he turned away, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "If he killed him, he would be like him (in the fact that he would have neither excellence nor favour)."

(Being informed of what The Prophet had said) he returned and said: "O Messenger of Allah! I was informed that you had said: "If he killed him, he would be like him." I caught hold of him according to your order." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Do you not like that he should bear the burden of the sin of you and your companion (i.e. your killed brother)?" he said: "O Prophet of Allah! (Perhaps he said) yes, I like so." He (The Messenger of Allah) said: "If it is so, then, let it be." He threw the strap (of the murderer) and let him go.

33-(...) Alqama Ibn Wa'il narrated from his father that a man who killed another man was brought to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", who (passed a judgement, according to which he) enabled the heir of the murdered one to take retribution from him. He set out with him, dragging him with (the help of) a strap tied around his neck. When he turned away, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Both the killer and the killed would be admitted in the (Hell) fire." A person went to that man (who had the right of taking retribution), and reported to him the statement of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", as a result of which, he let him (the murderer) go. Isma'il Ibn Salim said: I mentioned that (Hadith) to Habib Ibn Abu Thabit, who said: Ibn Abu Ashwa narrated to me that (it was so because) The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had asked him to forgive him, but he rejected.

لَقَاعِدٌ مَعَ النَّبِيِّ ﷺ إِذْ جَاءَ رَجُلٌ يَقُودُ آخَرَ بِنِسْعَةٍ. فَقَالَ: يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ، هٰذَا قَتَلَ أَخِي.

فَقَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ: «أَقَتَلْتَهُ؟» ـ فَقَالَ: إِنَّهُ لَوْ لَمْ يَعْتَرِفْ أَقَمْتُ عَلَيْهِ الْبَيِّنَةَ ـ قَالَ: نَعَمْ قَتَلْتُهُ. قَالَ: «كَيْفَ قَتَلْتَهُ؟» قَالَ: كُنْتُ أَنَا وَهُوَ نَخْتَبِطُ مِنْ شَجَرَةٍ، فَسَبَّنِي فَأَغْضَبَنِي، فَضَرَبْتُهُ بِالْفَأْسِ عَلَىٰ قَرْنِهِ فَقَتَلْتُهُ.

فَقَالَ لَهُ النَّبِيُّ ﷺ: «هل لَكَ مِنْ شَيْءٍ تُؤَدِّيهِ عَنْ نَفْسِكَ؟» قَالَ: مَالِي مَالٌ إِلاَّ كِسَائِي وَفَأْسِي. قَالَ: «فَتَرَىٰ قَوْمَكَ يَشْتَرُونَكَ؟» قَالَ: أَنَا أَهْوَنُ عَلَىٰ قَوْمِي مِنْ ذَاكَ. فَرَمَىٰ إِلَيْهِ بِنِسْعَتِهِ. وَقَالَ: «دُونَكَ صَاحِبَكَ». فَانْطَلَقَ بِهِ الرَّجُلُ.

فَلَمَّا وَلَّىٰ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ: «إِنْ قَتَلَهُ فَهُوَ مِثْلُهُ» فَرَجَعَ. فَقَالَ: يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ، إِنَّهُ بَلَغَنِي أَنَّكَ قُلْتَ: «إِنْ قَتَلَهُ فَهُوَ مِثْلُهُ» وَأَخَذْتُهُ بِأَمْرِكَ. فَقَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ: «أَمَا تُرِيدُ أَنْ يَبُوءَ بِإِثْمِكَ وَإِثْمِ صَاحِبِكَ؟» قَالَ: يَا نَبِيَّ اللَّهِ، ـ لَعَلَّهُ قَالَ ـ بَلَىٰ. قَالَ: «فَإِنَّ ذَاكَ كَذَاكَ». قَالَ: فَرَمَىٰ بِنِسْعَتِهِ وَخَلَّىٰ سَبِيلَهُ.

قَالَ إِسْمَاعِيلُ بْنُ سَالِمٍ: فَذَكَرْتُ ذٰلِكَ لِحَبِيبِ بْنِ أَبِي ثَابِتٍ، فَقَالَ: حَدَّثَنِي ابْنُ أَشْوَعَ؛ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ ﷺ إِنَّمَا سَأَلَهُ أَنْ يَعْفُوَ عَنْهُ فَأَبَىٰ.

[11] The blood money of the fetus, and the obligation of paying the blood money for the unintentional murder or the semi-intentional murder

34-(1681) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated that two women of (the tribe of) Hudhail (fought one another and) one of them threw the other (with a stone) and caused her to have a miscarriage. The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" judged in connection with it (the fetus) that a slave or a slave-girl should be paid (as a blood-money).

35-(...) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" gave the verdict that a male or female slave should be given as a blood-money for the fetus which was in the womb of a woman from the tribe of Banu Lihyan, as a result of an (attack by another woman which led to) abortion. But the lady about whom the judgement of compensation died, so The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered that her inheritors should go to her offspring and husband and that the penalty should be paid by her close relatives.

36-(...) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: Two women from Hudhail fought with each other, one of whom threw the other with a stone that killed her and what was in her womb. They (i.e. the relatives of the killer and the relatives of the victim) filed their case to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" who judged that the blood-money for the fetus was a slave or a slave girl, and the blood-money for the killed woman was to be paid by the killer's family. He made her son and those with him her heirs. Hamal Ibn An'Nabigha Al-Hudhali said: "O Messenger of Allah! Why should I pay blood money for one who neither drank, nor ate, nor spoke, nor cried (after miscarriage by which it would be known that he died after he was alive). It is like a nonentity (which deserves no blood-money)." Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "He seems to be one of the brothers of soothsayers in view of the rhymed speech he composed."

(...) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated that two women fought with each other...and the rest of the Hadith is the same without mentioning: He made her son and those who were with him her heirs. Somebody said: "Why should we pay blood-money? He did not name Hamal Ibn Malik.

37-(1682) Al-Mughira Ibn Shu'ba "Allah be pleased with him" narrated that a woman struck her fellow-wife who was pregnant with a tent-pole and killed her. One of them belonged to the tribe of Lihyan. Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" made the killer's close relatives responsible for paying blood-money on her behalf, and ordered that a slave or a slave-girl should be given as blood-money for what was in her womb. One of the murderer's relatives said: "Should we pay blood-money for one who, neither ate, nor drank, nor cried (after delivery by which it would be known that he died after he was alive), who was just like a nonentity (who deserved no compensation)?" (...) The same was narrated on the authority of Mansur, according to which (it was mentioned that) she had a miscarriage. This file was brought before The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", who judged that a slave or a slave girl should be given (as blood-money for the fetus), and made the heirs of the woman (who killed) responsible to pay it. The blood money for the killed woman was not mentioned.

39-(1683) Hisham Ibn Urwa narrated from his father that Al-Miswar Ibn Makhrama told that Umar consulted the people about the (blood-money which should be paid for) a woman's miscarriage. Al-Mughira Ibn Shu'ba said: "I witnessed The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having judged that a slave or a slave-girl should be given for it." Umar said: "Bring me one to bear witness to you." Muhammad Ibn Maslama bore witness to him.

6-(1686) Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" narrated that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" cut (the hand of) a thief (when he stole) a shield priced at three Dirhams.

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Nafi from Ibn Umar. Some narrators substituted the world "value" for "price".

7-(1687) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Allah curses a thief who steals an egg and gets his hand cut off, or steals a rope and gets his hands cut off." (People interpreted the egg as an iron helmet, and thought that the rope might cost a few Dirhams).

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Al-A'mash, with the same chain of transmitters, but with a slight variation of words.

[2] Cutting (the hand of) the thief belonging to a high social class, and forbiddance of intercession for canceling the legal punishments

8-(1688) A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" narrated: People of Quraish were concerned with the lady from Banu Makhzum who had committed theft. They asked: "Who will intercede for her with Allah's Apostle?" Some said: "No one has the courage to do so except Usama Ibn Zaid, the beloved one to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"." When Usama spoke about that to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Do you intercede for somebody in a case connected with Allah's Prescribed Punishments?" Then he got up and delivered a sermon saying: "What destroyed the nations before you, was that if one amongst them belonging to a high social class stole, they would forgive him, and if a person amongst them belonging to a low social class stole, they would execute the Legal punishment on him. By Allah, if Fatima, the daughter of Muhammad stole, I would cut off her hand."

9-(...) A'isha "Allah be pleased with her", the wife of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", narrated: People of Quraish were concerned with the lady who had committed theft during the lifetime of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" in the expedition of the Conquest (of Mecca). They asked: "Who will intercede for her with Allah's Apostle?" Some said: "No one has the courage to do so except Usama Ibn Zaid, the beloved one to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"."

When she was brought to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and then Usama spoke about that to him, the colour of (the face of) The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" changed, and he said: "Do you intercede for somebody in a case connected with Allah's Prescribed Punishments?" Usama said to him: "Then, ask for Allah's forgiveness for me." In the evening, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" got up and delivered a sermon. He praised Allah and lauded Him as He deserves. Then he said:

"Now and then: What destroyed the nations before you, was that if one amongst them belonging to a high social class stole, they would let him, and if a person amongst them belonging to a low social class stole, they would execute the Legal punishment on him. By Him, in Whose hand is my life! If Fatima, the daughter of Muhammad stole, I would cut off her hand."

Then, he ordered that the hand of this woman who had stolen should be cut off. A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" further said: Afterwards, her repentance (to Allah) was good, and she got married. She used to come to me, and I would convey her needs to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him".

10-(...) A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" narrated: A woman from Makhzum used to borrow the luggage (from others) and then refuse to give it back. The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered that her hand should be cut off (because she had committed theft). Her family came to Usama Ibn Zaid and spoke to him (so that he might intercede for her with The Prophet). He spoke to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (and interceded) for her...and the rest of the Hadith is the same.

11-(1689) Jabir "Allah be pleased with him" narrated that once, a woman from Makhzum committed theft. She was brought to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". She sought refuge with Umm Salama, the wife of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". Upon this, The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "By Allah! If it was Fatima (who had committed theft), I would cut her hand." Then, it (her hand) was cut off.

[3] The legal punishment of committing adultery

12-(1690) Ubada Ibn As-Samit "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Take (teachings) from me! Take (instructions) from me! Allah has ordained a way for those (women): (The legal punishment of adultery committed by) an unmarried (male or female) with an unmarried (or married female or male) is to receive one hundred lashes and a (sentence of a) year in exile. (The legal punishment of adultery committed by) a married (male or female) with a married (or an unmarried female or male) is to receive one hundred lashes and a (sentence of) stoning to death."

(...) A Hadith like this was narrated on the authority of Mansur, with the same chain of transmitters.

الْعَشِيُّ قَامَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ فَاخْتَطَبَ فَأَثْنَىٰ عَلَى اللَّهِ بِمَا هُوَ أَهْلُهُ. ثُمَّ قَالَ: «أَمَّا بَعْدُ، فَإِنَّمَا أَهْلَكَ الَّذِينَ مِنْ قَبْلِكُمْ، أَنَّهُمْ كَانُوا إِذَا سَرَقَ فِيهِمُ الشَّرِيفُ، تَرَكُوهُ. وَإِذَا سَرَقَ فِيهِمُ الضَّعِيفُ، أَقَامُوا عَلَيْهِ الْحَدَّ. وَإِنِّي، وَالَّذِي نَفْسِي بِيَدِهِ، لَوْ أَنَّ فَاطِمَةَ بِنْتَ مُحَمَّدٍ سَرَقَتْ لَقَطَعْتُ يَدَهَا» ثُمَّ أَمَرَ بِتِلْكَ الْمَرْأَةِ الَّتِي سَرَقَتْ فَقُطِعَتْ يَدُهَا.

قَالَ يُونُسُ: قَالَ ابْنُ شِهَابٍ: قَالَ عُرْوَةُ: قَالَتْ عَائِشَةُ: فَحَسُنَتْ تَوْبَتُهَا بَعْدُ. وَتَزَوَّجَتْ. وَكَانَتْ تَأْتِينِي بَعْدَ ذٰلِكَ، فَأَرْفَعُ حَاجَتَهَا إِلَىٰ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ ﷺ.

13-(...) Ubada Ibn As-Samit reported that whenever revelation was sent down to Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", he would feel its severity, and the complexion of his face would change. One day, revelation was sent down upon him, with the result that he felt the same severity. When such a state was over and he was relieved, he said: "Take (instructions) from me! Allah has ordained a way for those (women who commit adultery): (When) a married man (commits adultery) with a married woman, and an unmarried man with an unmarried woman, then in case of the married (persons) there is (a legal punishment of) one hundred lashes and then stoning (to death); and in case of the unmarried persons, there is (the legal punishment of) one hundred lashes and exile for a year."

14-(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Quatada, with the same chain of transmitters, but according to this narration (it was mentioned that) the unmarried should be lashed and exiled, and the married person should be lashed and stoned to death. Neither one year nor one hundred was mentioned.

[4] Stoning to death the married adulterer

15-(1691) Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" reported that Umar Ibn Al-Khattab "Allah be pleased with him" sat on the pulpit of Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "No doubt, Allah sent Muhammad "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" with truth and He sent down the Book upon him, and the verse of stoning was included in what was sent down to him. We recited it, kept it in our memory and understood it. Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" stoned to death (the married adulterer and adulteress) and so did we after him. I am afraid that over the time, the people may say: We do not find the (punishment of) stoning to death in the Book of Allah, and thus go astray by leaving this duty prescribed by Allah. Stoning to death is a duty laid down in Allah's Book for married men and women who commit adultery when proof is established, there is pregnancy, or a confession."

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Az-Zuhri, with the same chain of transmitters.

[5] What about him who confessed of committing adultery committed adultery." On that The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" turned his face from him to the other side. But the man turned to the side towards which The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had turned his face, and said: "O Allah's Apostle! I have committed fornication." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" turned his face to the other side. He repeated the same with him four times. So after the man had given four witnesses against himself, The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" called him and said: "Are you insane?" He replied: "No." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" asked him: "Are you married?" he replied in the affirmative. Upon this, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said (to his companions): "Go and stone him to death." Ibn Shihab said: I was told by a person who heard Jabir "Allah be pleased with him" saying: I was one of those who stoned him. We stoned him at the praying place in Medina. When the stones hit him with their sharp edges, he escaped. But we caught him at Al-Harra, and stoned him till he died.

17-(1692) Jabir Ibn Samura "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: I saw Ma'iz Ibn Malik As he was being brought to Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". He was a short man with strong sinews, having no cloak around him. He witnessed against himself four times that he had committed adultery, whereupon Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Perhaps you kissed or embraced (her)." He said: "No, by Allah! One deviating (from the straight path) has committed adultery." He (The Prophet) had him stoned to death, and then delivered the following speech: "Is it that whenever we set out for Jihad in the cause of Allah, one of you would lag behind, shriek like the bleating of a male goat, and give a small quantity of milk! By Allah, in case I was enabled (by Allah) to catch hold of anyone of those, I would surely punish him (in such a way as to prevent anyone else from doing so)."

Shu'ba narrated that Simak Ibn Harb said: I heard Jabir Ibn Samura saying: A short disheveled man with strong sinews and a lower garment (without an upper garment) over him, committed adultery. He (The Prophet) rejected his witness twice after which he ordered that he should be stoned to death. Then, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Is it that whenever we set out for Jihad in the cause of Allah, one of you would lag behind, shriek like the bleating of a male goat, and give a small quantity of milk! By Allah, if Allah enabled me to catch hold of anyone of those, I would surely punish him (in such a way as to prevent anyone else from doing so)." He (the narrator) said: I narrated it to Sa'id Ibn Jubair, who said: He (The Prophet) returned him four times.

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Jabir Ibn Samura, from The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". Shababa agreed with him upon (the statement that) he (The Prophet) sent him back twice. According to the narration of Abu Amir, he sent him back twice or thrice.

19-(1693) Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" narrated that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to Ma'iz Ibn Malik: "Has that which reached me about you been true?" he said: "What is that which reached you about me?" he said: "I was reported that you had sexual intercourse with the girl of Banu so-and-so." He said: "Yes (I did)." When he bore four witnesses against himself, he (The Prophet) ordered that he should be stoned to death.

20-(1694) Abu Sa'id "Allah be pleased with him" narrated that a man from (the tribe of) Aslam came to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "I committed a misdeed (of adultery). So, execute its legal punishment upon me." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" asked his family who said: "We know nothing bad of him except that he committed a misdeed, and he thinks that nothing would save him from it unless its legal punishment is executed on him." When he returned to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", he ordered us to stone him to death.

We went with him to Baqi Gharqad. We neither fastened him, nor did we dig a pit for him. We threw him with the (pieces of) bone, solid earth and pebbles. But, he ran away, and we ran after him until he came to the side of Al-Harra, where he stood erect before us. We threw him with the rocks of Harra (i.e. the huge stones) until he (died and) became motionless.

In the evening, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Is it that whenever we set out for an expedition in the cause of Allah, a man would lag behind among our families, shrieking like the bleating of a male goat! It is my duty that none of those who did so was brought to me, but that I would surely punish him (in such a way as to prevent anyone else from doing so)." He neither asked for Allah's forgiveness for him, nor did he abuse him.

21-(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Dawud, with the same chain of transmitters, according to which he said: In the evening, The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" got up, praised Allah and lauded Him. Then he said: "Now and then: What about some people, from whom one would lag behind whenever we set out for an expedition, and he has a shrieking like the pleating of a male goat..." he did not say "among our families."

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Dawud, but in the Hadith narrated by Sufyan (it was mentioned): He confessed of committing adultery thrice.

22-(1695) Sulaiman Ibn Buraida narrated from his father that Ma'iz Ibn Malik came to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "O Messenger of Allah! Purify me!" he said to him: "Woe to you! Return and ask for Allah's forgiveness for you and repent to Him." He returned but not afar when he came back once again and said: "O Messenger of Allah! Purify me!" The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to him: "Woe to you! Return and ask for Allah's forgiveness for you and repent to Him." He returned but not afar when he came back (for the third time) and said: "O Messenger of Allah! Purify me!" The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to him the same. When he came in the fourth time, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" asked him: "From what should I purify you?" The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" asked whether he was mad, and he was told that he was not mad. He asked: "Has he drunk wine?" a man got up and smelled him, but no smell of wine was detected on him. Upon this The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" asked him: "Has you committed adultery?" he replied in the affirmative. He ordered (that he should be stoned to death), and he was stoned to death.

The people divided into two different parties (having two different opinions) about him. Some said: "He was destroyed, and his sin surrounded him." Others said: "There was no repentance better than that of Ma'iz, who came to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", put his hand in his hand, and said to him: "Kill me with the stones (for the crime I had committed)."" They remained as such for two or three days after which The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came while they were sitting. He sat and then said: "Ask for Allah's forgiveness for Ma'iz Ibn Malik." They said: "Might Allah forgive Ma'iz Ibn Malik!" The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "No doubt, he offered a repentance (to Allah, so much great) that if it was distributed among (people of) a nation, it would extend to imply them."

Moreover, a woman from Ghamid, a branch of Azd came to him and said: "O Messenger of Allah! Purify me!" he said to her: "Woe to you! Return, ask for Allah's forgiveness for you, and repent to Him." She said: "I think you intend to send me back as you had sent back Ma'iz Ibn Malik." He asked: "What is the matter?" she said that she was pregnant as a result of committing adultery. He asked: "Is it you (who committed adultery with him)?" she replied in the affirmative. He said: "(You would receive no punishment) until you give birth to what is in your womb." A man from the Ansar sponsored her until she had delivered. When she delivered (her child) he came to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "The woman belonging to Ghamid delivered (her child)." He (The Prophet) said: "We should not stone her to death and leave her child so small, without anyone to suckle him." A man from the Ansar got up and said: "I'm responsible for (the costs of) suckling him, O Prophet of Allah." Subsequently, he (The Prophet) stoned her to death.

23-(...) Abdullah Ibn Buraida narrated from his father that Ma'iz Ibn Malik Al-Aslami came to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "O Messenger of Allah! I've wronged myself since I committed adultery. I have the desire that you should purify me." He sent him back. On the following day, he (Ma'iz) came to him and said: "O Messenger of Allah! I committed adultery." He (The Prophet) sent him back once again. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" sent to his people (a message) saying: "Do you know if there is anything wrong with his mind which you deny?" They said: "We do not know him but as a wise good man among us, according to our judgement."

He (Ma'iz) came for the third time (and said the same), and he (The Prophet sent him back and he) sent to them (his people, asking about him) and they told him that there was nothing wrong with him or with his mind. When it was the fourth time, a pit was dug for him and he (The Prophet) ordered (that he should be stoned to death) and he was stoned to death.

He (the narrator) added: Then, a woman from Ghamid came to him (The Prophet), and said: "O Messenger of Allah! I committed adultery, so purify me." He (The Prophet) sent her back. On the following day she (came and) said: "O Messenger of Allah! Why do you send me back? Perhaps, you send me back as you sent Ma'iz back. By Allah, I became pregnant (as a result of committing adultery)." He said: "Well, if you insist on that, then go away until you deliver (what is in your womb)." When she delivered she came with the child (wrapped) in a rag and said: "Here is the child whom I delivered." He said: "Go away and suckle him (and do not come back) until you wean him." When she had weaned him, she came to him with the child, catching hold of a piece of bread in his hand. She said: "O Messenger of Allah! Here is he after I had weaned him and now he eats food." He (The Prophet) entrusted the child to one of the Muslims and ordered (that she should receive the legal punishment of adultery) and she was put in a ditch up to her chest and he ordered people who stoned her. Khalid Ibn Al-Walid came forward with a stone, which he flung at her head with the result that the blood gushed forth on the face of Khalid who abused her. Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" heard his (Khalid's) abusing her. He (The Prophet) said: "O Khalid! Be quiet! By Him in Whose Hand is my life! She offered such a repentance that even if a wrongful tax collector had repented, he would have been forgiven." Then he ordered her (to be brought) and he offered the funeral prayer on her. Then, she was buried.

24-(1696) Imran Ibn Husain "Allah be pleased with him" narrated that a woman from (the tribe of) Juhaina came to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and she was pregnant as a result of adultery. She said: "O Prophet of Allah! I committed (a prohibited thing which necessitates) one of the legal punishments. So, execute it upon me." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" called her guardian and said: "Be good to her and when she delivers (what is in her womb), bring her to me." He did accordingly. (When she was brought) The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered that her garments should be straightened upon her. Then, he ordered her (to be stoned) and she was

I beseech you by Allah to judge in my case according to Allah's Laws." His opponent, who was more learnt than him, got up and said: "Well, judge between us according to Allah's Laws and excuse me to speak." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "You would speak." He said: "My son was a labourer working for this man, with whose wife he committed illegal sexual intercourse. The people told me that my son should be stoned to death; so, in lieu of that, I paid a ransom of one hundred sheep and a slave-girl to save my son. Then I asked the learned scholars who said: "Your son has to be whipped one hundred lashes and exiled for one year."

The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "By Him, in Whose Hand my life is! I will judge between you according to Allah's Laws. The slave-girl and the sheep are to go back to you, and your son will receive a hundred lashes and one-year exile. O Unais! When she confessed (of adultery) The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered (that she should be stoned) and she was stoned to death.

They change the words from their (right) times and places: they say, "If ye are given this, take it, but if not, beware!" If any one's trial is intended by Allah, thou hast no authority in the least for him against Allah. For such- it is not Allah's will to purify their hearts. For them there is disgrace in this world, and in the Hereafter a heavy punishment." (The Repast "Al-Ma'ida" 41)

He means that (the Jews used to) say: "Come to Muhammad "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (to ask for his religious verdict as regards the adultery). If he ordered you to execute (the punishment of) charcoaling the face and lashing, then accept it from him, and if he ordered you to execute (the punishment of) stoning to death, then beware (of taking it)." In this connection Allah Almighty revealed: "If any do fail to judge by (the light of) what Allah hath revealed, they are (no better than) Unbelievers." (The Repast 44) "And if any fail to judge by (the light of) what Allah hath revealed, they are (no better than) wrongdoers." (The Repast 45) "If any do fail to judge by (the light of) what Allah hath revealed, they are (no better than) those who rebel." (The Repast 47) that implies all of the unbelievers.

(…) The same was narrated on the authority of Al-A'mash, with the same chain of transmitters, up to his saying: Then, The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered (that he should be stoned) and he was stoned to death. What follows that was not mentioned.

28-(1701) Abu Az-Zubair narrated that he heard Jabir Ibn Abdullah "Allah be pleased with both" saying: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" stoned to death a man from (the tribe of) Aslam (who committed adultery), and a Jew with his woman (with whom he had illegal sexual intercourse).

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Ibn Juraij, with the same chain of transmitters.

29-(1702) Ali Ibn Muzhir narrated from Abu Ishaq Ash-Shaibani: I asked Abdullah Ibn Abu Awfa "Allah be pleased with both": "Did The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" stone to death (anyone in implementation of the legal punishment of committing adultery)?" he said: "Yes." I said: "Was that before or after the Sura of the Light "An-Nur" was revealed?" he said: "I do not know."

30-(1703) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated that he heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying: "If a slave-girl of anyone of you commits adultery, and it is proved beyond doubt, she must be whipped but not blamed after the legal punishment. If she does it again, she must be whipped but not blamed. But, if she commits adultery for the third time, and it is proved beyond doubt she must be sold even by a rope of hair."

31-(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Abu Huraira from The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", through another chain of transmitters. But, Ibn Ishaq mentioned in his narration from Sa'id from his father from Abu Huraira from The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" as regards lashing the slave-girl (as a legal punishment) for committing adultery thrice: "Then, let him (her master) sell her in the fourth time (she commits adultery)."

32-(...) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was asked about the slave-girl: if she was a virgin and she committed adultery. The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "If she committed adultery, whip her, and if she did it once again, then whip her. But if she repeated it for the third time, then whip and sell her even for a hair rope." Ibn Shehab said: "I don't know whether to sell her after the third or fourth time."

33-(1704) Both of Abu Huraira and Zaid Ibn Khalid Al-Juhani "Allah be pleased with them" narrated that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was asked about the slave-girl...and the rest is the same without the saying of Ibn Shihab.

[7] Postponing the execution of the legal punishment on the woman who is in the state of delivery

34-(1705) Abu Abd Ar-Rahman narrated: Ali "Allah be pleased with him" addressed us saying: "O People! Execute the legal punishment (of committing adultery) on your slaves (whether men or women, and) whether married or unmarried. Once, a slave-girl belonging to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" committed adultery, and he ordered me to lash her (as the legal punishment for adultery). But, she was still close to the time of her delivery. I was afraid that if I lashed her, I would kill her (so, I postponed executing such a punishment). I made a mention of that to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" who said to me: "You've done well."

[8] The legal punishment of (drinking) wine

35-(1706) Anas Ibn Malik "Allah be pleased with him" narrated that once, a man who drank wine was brought to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", who lashed him with two date-palm leaf stalks nearly forty lashes. Abu Bakr punished with such a punishment. When it was (the time of the caliphate of) Umar, he consulted the people. Abd Ar-Rahman said: "The lightest legal punishment consists of eighty (lashes)." Umar ordered that (it be the legal punishment of drinking wine).

(…) A Hadith like this was narrated on the authority of Yahya Ibn Sa’id from Hisham, with the same chain of transmitters.

37-(…) Anas “Allah be pleased with him” narrated that The Prophet “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” beat the drunk with date-palm leaf stalks and sandals (as a legal punishment)…and the rest is the same without mentioning the countryside and villages.

38-(1707) Hudain Ibn Al-Mundhir Abu Sasan narrated: I was with Uthman Ibn Affan when Al-Walid (Ibn Uqba, the Kufa previous governor) was brought to him. It was he who offered two Rak’as for the Morning prayer and then said (to the people praying behind him): “Would I pray more with you?” two men, one of whom was Humran, bore witness against him. He bore witness that he drank wine. The other man bore witness that he saw him vomiting. Uthman said: “He would not have vomited it unless he had drunk it.” He added: “O Ali! Stand up and lash him.” Ali said: “Get up O Hasan and lash him.” Al-Hasan said: “Let those who undertook its (the caliphate’s) coolness (i.e. blessings and pleasures) undertake also its heat (i.e. severities and difficulties).” It seemed as if he (Ali) became angry with him. He said: “O Abdullah Ibn Ja’far! Stand up and lash him.” He lashed him while Ali was counting (the lashes), until he reached forty (lashes), he said: “Stop! The Prophet “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” whipped forty (lashes), Abu Bakr whipped forty (lashes), and Umar whipped eighty (lashes as the legal punishment of the drunk). Every (kind of punishment) is a tradition (which might be followed), though that (punishment of forty lashes) is dearer to me.”

39-(1707) Umair Ibn Sa’id narrated that Ali Ibn Abu Talib "Allah be pleased with him" said: “I would not feel sorry for one who dies because of receiving a legal punishment, except the drunk, for if he died (while being punished), I would give blood money to his family because no fixed punishment has been commanded by Allah's Apostle "Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him" for the drunk.”

[9] The number of stripes for the scolding punishment

40-(1708) Abu Burda Al-Ansari "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to say: "Nobody should be flogged more than ten lashes except if he is guilty of a crime, the legal punishment of which is assigned by Allah."

[10] The legal punishments are expiations to their people

41-(1709) Ubada Ibn As-Samit "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: We were in a gathering with Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" when he said: "Swear allegiance to me for: Not to associate anything in worship along with Allah, not to commit adultery, not to steal, and not to kill your children. Whoever among you fulfils his pledge will be rewarded by Allah. Whoever indulges in any of them (except the ascription of partners to Allah) and gets the punishment in this world, that punishment will be expiation for that sin. If one indulges in any of them, and Allah conceals his sin, it is up to Him whether to forgive him or to punish him (in the Hereafter)."

42-(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Az-Zuhri, with the same chain of transmitters, adding here that he (The Prophet) recited to us the Verse pertaining to women not to associate anything (in worship) with Allah...(Al-Mumtahina 12).

43-(...) Ubada Ibn As-Samit "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" took the pledge of allegiance from us as he took it from women: Not to associate anything in worship along with Allah; not to steal; not to commit adultery; not to kill our children; not to accuse (falsely) an innocent person (among people). (The Prophet added): "Whoever among you fulfils his pledge will be rewarded by Allah. Whoever indulges in any of them (except the ascription of partners to Allah) and its legal punishment is executed on him in this world, that will be expiation for such a sin. But if Allah conceals his sin, it is up to Him to forgive or punish him (in the Hereafter)."

44-(...) Ubada Ibn As-Samit "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: I was one of the (twelve) chiefs who gave the pledge of allegiance to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". He said: We gave him the pledge of allegiance not to associate anything with Allah (in worship), not to commit adultery, not to steal, not to kill the person whose blood has been made unlawful by Allah except rightly, not to commit

[4] The case of Hind

7-(1714) A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" narrated: Hind Bint Utba said: "O Allah's Apostle! Abu Sufyan is a miser and he does not give me what is sufficient for my children and me except for what I take from his property without his knowledge. Would there be any harm to me if I did so?" The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Take what is sufficient for you and your children, but fairly and reasonably."

8-(...) A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" reported: Hind Bint Utba Ibn Rabie'a came to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "O Allah's Apostle! By Allah! (Before my embracing Islam) there was on the surface of the earth, no family I desired to be degraded and humiliated by Allah than yours. But now, there is, on the surface of the earth, no family I would like to be dignified by Allah than yours." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" replied: "So (you will increasingly keep on that, with the faith growing deeper in your heart), by Allah, in whose hand my soul is." She said: "Abu Sufyan (her husband) is a miser. Would there be any harm to me to take from his money without his knowledge to spend on his children?" The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to her: "There would be no harm to you to (take and then) spend on them but reasonably and fairly."

[5] Forbiddance to ask so many questions when there is no need, to withhold giving the rights of others, and to beg from others what is not one's right

10-(1715) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "No doubt, Allah likes you to do three (good characteristics) and hates you to do three (bad characteristics). He likes you to worship Him alone, and not to associate anything with Him, and to hold fast, all together, by the rope which Allah (stretches out for you), and be not divided among yourselves. He hates you to talk too much (about others or vain useless talk), to ask too many questions (in controversial religious matters), and to waste the wealth (by extravagance)."

11-(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Suhail, with the same chain of transmitters, but with a slight variation of words.

12-(593) Al-Mughira Ibn Shu'ba "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Allah has forbidden for you: to be undutiful to your mothers, to bury your daughters alive, not to pay the rights of the others and to beg from men (by taking from their wealth what is unlawful for you to take). Allah has hated for you three (bad characteristics): to talk too much (about others or vain useless talk), to ask too many questions (in controversial religious matters) and to waste the wealth (by extravagance)."

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Mansur, with the same chain of transmitters, but he said here that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" has forbidden for you, and did not say that Allah has forbidden for you.

13-(...) The clerk of Al-Mughira Ibn Shu'ba narrated that Mu'awiya wrote to Al-Mughira to write to him something he had heard from The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". [10] The difference of those who try to reach a correct judgement

20-(1720) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "There were two women, each of whom had a child with her. A wolf came and took away the child of one of them, whereupon the other said: "It has taken your child." The first said: "No, it has taken your child." So they both carried the case before (The Prophet) David "Peace be upon him" who judged that the living child be given to the elder. So both of them went to Solomon Ibn David "Peace be upon them" and informed him (of the case). He said: "Bring me a knife so as to cut the child into two pieces and distribute it between them." (31) The Book Of The Fallen Thing Which Is Picked up

1-(1722) Zaid Ibn Khalid Al-Juhani "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: A man came to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and asked about the fallen thing which is picked up. The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Recognize its container and its tying material and then make a public announcement about it for one year. If its owner shows up, give it to him; otherwise use it as you like." The man said: "What about the lost sheep?" The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "It is for you, your brother or the wolf." The man asked: "What about the lost camel?" The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Why should you take it so long as it has got its water-container (stomach) and its hooves, and it can reach the places of water and eat the trees till its owner finds it?"

2-(...) Zaid Ibn Khalid Al-Juhani narrated: A man went to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and asked him about picking up a fallen thing. The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Make public announcement about it for one year. Remember the description of its container and the string with which it is tied; and if somebody comes and claims it describing it correctly, (give it to him); otherwise, utilize it." He said: "O Allah's Apostle! What about a lost sheep?" The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "You can take it, since it is for you, for your brother (its owner), or for the wolf." He further asked: "O Messenger of Allah! What about a lost camel?" On that The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" became so much angry that his cheeks (or his face) turned red and said: "What do you have to do with it, as it has its feet, its water reserve (and can drink and eat) until its owner finds it."

3-(...) Rabie'a Ibn Abu Abd Ar-Rahman narrated the same with the same chain of transmitters, but here, he added: A man came to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" while I was with him and asked him about the fallen thing which is picked up. Amr added in the narration (that The Prophet said): "If none came to claim it, then you could utilize it."

4-(...) Zaid Ibn Khalid Al-Juhani narrated: A man went to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"...and the rest is the same, in which he added that his (The Prophet's) face and temple turned red and he

11-(1724) Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Uthman At-Taimi narrated that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade (picking) the fallen thing of the pilgrim (with the intention of possessing it).

12-(1725) Zaid Ibn Khalid Al-Juhani narrated that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "He, who took a lost thing (such as animal or anything else) would be a stray as long as he did not make a public announcement about it."

رَبِيعَةَ غَازِينَ. فَوَجَدْتُ سَوْطاً فَأَخَذْتُه. فَقَالاَ لِي: دَعْه. فَقُلْتُ: لاَ. وَلٰكِنِّي أُعَرِّفُهُ، فَإِنْ جَاءَ صَاحِبُهُ وَإِلاَّ اسْتَمْتَعْتُ بِه. قَالَ: فَأَبَيْتُ عَلَيْهِمَا، فَلَمَّا رَجَعْنَا مِنْ غَزَاتِنَا قُضِيَ لِي أَنِّي حَجَجْتُ، فَأَتَيْتُ الْمَدِينَةَ، فَلَقِيتُ أُبَيَّ بْنَ كَعْبٍ، فَأَخْبَرْتُهُ بِشَأْنِ السَّوْطِ وَبِقَوْلِهِمَا. فَقَالَ: إِنِّي وَجَدْتُ صُرَّةً فِيهَا مِئَةُ دِينَارٍ عَلَىٰ عَهْدِ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ ﷺ، فَأَتَيْتُ بِهَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ﷺ. فَقَالَ: «عرِّفْهَا حولاً» قَالَ: فعرَّفتها فلمْ أجد منْ يعْرفُها. ثمَّ أتيتُه فقالَ: «عرِّفْها حولاً» فعرَّفتُها فلمْ أجِدْ مَنْ يَعْرِفُهَا. ثُمَّ أَتَيْتُهُ فَقَالَ: «عَرِّفْهَا حَوْلاً» فَعَرَّفْتُهَا فَلَمْ أَجِدْ مَنْ يَعْرِفُهَا. فَقَالَ: «احْفَظْ عَدَدَهَا وَوِعَاءَهَا وَوِكَاءَهَا، فَإِنْ جَاءَ صَاحِبُهَا وَإِلاَّ فَاسْتَمْتِعْ بِهَا» فَاسْتَمْتَعْتُ بِهَا.

فَلَقِيتُهُ بَعْدَ ذٰلِكَ بِمَكَّةَ فَقَالَ: لاَ أَدْرِي بِثَلاَثَةِ أَحْوَالٍ أَوْ حَوْلٍ وَاحِدٍ.

[2] Prohibition of milking the animals without excusing their owner

13-(1726) Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Let no one milk the animal of another without taking his permission. does anyone of you like that his attic room should be broken, his storeroom be opened and his foodstuff be picked up (without taking his permission)? Indeed, the udders of the animals store the food (i.e. the milk) for their owners. So, let no one milk the animal of another without taking his permission."

[3] What about hospitality

14-(48) Abu Shuraih Al-Adawi narrated: My ears heard and my eyes saw when Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "He, who believes in Allah and the Last Day should entertain his guest generously with his reward." We asked: "What is his reward, O Messenger of Allah?" he said: "(to entertain him for) a day and a night (with the highest quality of food available to one); and the time of hospitality (with normal food) is three days. What is more than that would be considered as charity. He, who believes in Allah and the Last Day should talk what is good or keep silent."

"O Messenger of Allah! You always send us (as your envoys) and it happens that we might halt at some people who would not entertain us. What is your opinion as regards that?" upon this The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to us: "If you halt at some people who entertained you with the same as a guest should be entertained, then, accept it; and if they did not do so, then you would take from them what should be given to a guest."

[4] Desirability to spend the surplus wealth on one's brother

18-(1728) Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: While we were on a journey with The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", a man came riding his mount. He started turning his sight right and left. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Whoever has an extra mount should give it to him, who has no mount; and whoever has a surplus provisions should give it to him who has no provisions." He (the narrator) added: He (The Prophet) made a mention of so many kinds of property (whose surplus should be given to those who have nothing of it) to the extent that we thought that one had no right over the surplus (of anything).

[5] Desirability to mix the (remaining) provisions (of the people) together in case the provisions ran short

19-(1729) Iyas Ibn Salama narrated from his father: We set out with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" in a certain expedition. We suffered from a great difficulty (because of the shortage of provisions) that we intended to slaughter some of our mounts. The Prophet of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered that our (remaining) provisions should be collected, for which we spread a leather sheet, on which the (remaining) provisions of the people heaped up. I stretched myself to guess how much that (sheet) was, and I guessed it (in length and breadth) as sufficient for a she-goat to sit, and we were (at this time) fourteen hundred. He (the narrator) added: We all ate our fill, and stuffed our bags. Then, The Prophet of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Is there any (water for) ablution?" a man brought a pot containing very little water, which he poured in a basin, from which all of us performed ablution, using the water abundantly, and we were fourteen hundred. Then, eight persons came and asked: "Is there any (water for) ablution?" The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The ablution has already been performed."

٤ ـ بَابُ اسْتِحْبَابِ الْمُوَاسَاةِ بِفُضُولِ المال

١٨ ـ (١٧٢٨) ـ حدّثنا شَيْبَانُ بْنُ فَرُّوخَ: حَدَّثَنَا أَبُو الأَشْهَبِ، عَنْ أَبِي نَضْرَةَ، عَنْ أَبِي سَعِيدِ الْخُدْرِيِّ، قَالَ: بَيْنَمَا نَحْنُ فِي سَفَرٍ مَعَ النَّبِيِّ ﷺ، إِذْ جَاءَ رَجُلٌ عَلَىٰ رَاحِلَةٍ لَهُ. قَالَ: فَجَعَلَ يَصْرِفُ بَصَرَهُ يَمِيناً وَشِمَالاً. فَقَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ: «مَنْ كَانَ مَعَهُ فَضْلُ ظَهْرٍ فَلْيَعُدْ بِهِ عَلَىٰ مَنْ لاَ ظَهْرَ لَهُ. وَمَنْ كَانَ لَهُ فَضْلٌ مِنْ زَادٍ فَلْيَعُدْ بِهِ عَلَىٰ مَنْ لاَ زَادَ لَهُ».

قَالَ: فَأَكَلْنَا حَتَّىٰ شَبِعْنَا جَمِيعاً. ثُمَّ حَشَوْنَا جُرُبَنَا. فَقَالَ نَبِيُّ اللَّهِ ﷺ: «فَهَلْ مِنْ وَضُوءٍ؟» قَالَ: فَجَاءَ رَجُلٌ بِإِدَاوَةٍ لَهُ، فِيهَا نُطْفَةٌ. فَأَفْرَغَهَا فِي قَدَحٍ. فَتَوَضَّأْنَا كُلُّنَا. نُدَغْفِقُهُ دَغْفَقَةً. أَرْبَعَ عَشْرَةَ مِئَةً.

قَالَ: ثُمَّ جَاءَ بَعْدَ ذَلِكَ ثَمَانِيَةٌ فَقَالُوا: هَلْ مِنْ طَهُورٍ؟ فَقَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ: «فَرِغَ الْوَضُوءُ».

(32) The Book Of Jihad And Expeditions

[1] The permissibility of invading the unbelievers whom the call of Islam had already reached, without notifying them before the attack

1-(1730) Ibn Awn narrated: I wrote to Nafi, asking him about the (necessity of) calling (the unbelievers to Islam) before fighting. He wrote to me (the following reply): "That was during the early days of Islam. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" invaded (the tribe of) Banu Al-Mustaliq while they were inattentive, and their animals were being watered at the (stream of) water. He killed their fighters and captured their captives. On that day, he got (Yahya said: I thought he said Juwairiya) Bint Al-Harith. This Hadith was narrated to me by Abdullah Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both", who was involved in this army (of Muslims).

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Ibn Awn with the same chain of transmitters, in which he mentioned "Juwairiya Bint Al-Harith", with no doubt.

[2] Appointing the leaders of the expeditions by the imam, and his advice to them to abide by the etiquettes of war and the related matters

2-(1731) Yahya Ibn Adam narrated from Sufyan: He dictated to us (the following Hadith).

3-(...) Sulaiman Ibn Buraida narrated from his father: Whenever The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" appointed anyone as leader of an army or detachment, he would privately urge him to fear Allah and to be good to the Muslims who were with him. He would say: "Fight in the name of Allah and in the cause of Allah. Fight against those who disbelieve in Allah. Fight and do not misappropriate (the spoils). You should neither break your pledge, nor should you mutilate (the dead) bodies. You should not also kill the children.

When you meet your unbelieving enemies, call them to three things. If they respond to any one of them, you should accept it and keep yourself from causing any harm to them. Call them to (embrace) Islam. If they respond to you, you should accept it from them and withhold yourself from fighting them. Then call them to emigrate from their land to the land of the Emigrants, and tell them that if they do that, they will have all the privileges and obligations of the Emigrants. If they refuse to emigrate (from their land), inform them that they will become as the Bedouin Muslims and will be subject to the orders of Allah like other believers, but they will not

٣٢ ـ كِتَابُ الجِهَادِ والسِّيَرِ

١ ـ بابُ جوازِ الإغارةِ على الكُفَّارِ الذين بلَغَتْهم دعْوَةُ الإسلامِ من غيرِ تَقَدُّمِ الإِعْلامِ بالإِغارة

١ ـ (١٧٣٠) ـ حدّثنا يَحْيَىٰ بْنُ يَحْيَىٰ التَّمِيمِيُّ: حَدَّثَنَا سُلَيْمُ بْنُ أَخْضَرَ، عَنِ ابْنِ عَوْنٍ. قَالَ: كَتَبْتُ إِلَىٰ نَافِعٍ أَسْأَلُهُ عَنِ الدُّعَاءِ قَبْلَ الْقِتَالِ؟ قَالَ: فَكَتَبَ إِلَيَّ: إِنَّمَا كَانَ ذٰلِكَ فِي أَوَّلِ الإِسْلاَمِ. قَدْ أَغَارَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ عَلَىٰ بَنِي الْمُصْطَلِقِ وَهُمْ غَارُّونَ. وَأَنْعَامُهُمْ تُسْقَىٰ عَلَى الْمَاءِ. فقتلَ مُقَاتِلَتَهُمْ، وسَبَىٰ سَبْيَهُمْ، وَأَصابَ يومئِذٍ ـ قالَ يَحْيىٰ: أَحْسِبُهُ قَالَ ـ جُوَيْرِيَةَ ـ أَوْ قَالَ: الْبَتَّةَ ـ ابْنَةَ الْحَارِثِ.

وَحَدَّثَنِي هٰذَا الْحَدِيثَ عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ عُمَرَ. وَكَانَ فِي ذَاكَ الْجَيْشِ.

[البخاري: كتاب العتق، باب من ملك من العرب رقيقاً فوهب...، رقم: ٢٥٤١].

(...) ـ وحدّثنا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ الْمُثَنَّى: حَدَّثَنَا ابْنُ أَبِي عَدِيٍّ، عَنِ ابْنِ عَوْنٍ، بِهٰذَا الإِسْنَادِ، مِثْلَهُ. وَقَالَ: جُوَيْرِيَةَ بِنْتَ الْحَارِثِ، وَلَمْ يَشُكَّ.

٢ ـ بابُ تأْمير الإمامِ الأُمَرَاءَ على البُعُوثِ وَوَصِيَّتِهِ إيَّاهم بآدابِ الغزو وغيرِها

٢ ـ (١٧٣١) ـ حدّثنا أَبُو بَكْرِ بْنُ أَبِي شَيْبَةَ: حَدَّثَنَا وَكِيعُ بْنُ الْجَرَّاحِ، عَنْ سُفْيَانَ. (ح) وَحَدَّثَنَا إِسْحَاقُ بْنُ إِبْرَاهِيمَ: أَخْبَرَنَا يَحْيَىٰ بْنُ آدَمَ: حَدَّثَنَا سُفْيَانُ. قَالَ: أَمْلاَهُ عَلَيْنَا إِمْلاَءً.

٣ ـ (...) (ح) وحدّثني عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ هَاشِمٍ ـ وَاللَّفْظُ لَهُ ـ: حَدَّثَنِي عَبْدُ الرَّحْمٰنِ ـ يَعْنِي ابْنَ مَهْدِيٍّ ـ: حَدَّثَنَا سُفْيَانُ، عَنْ عَلْقَمَةَ بْنِ مَرْثَدٍ، عَنْ سُلَيْمَانَ بْنِ بُرَيْدَةَ، عَنْ أَبِيهِ. قَالَ: كَانَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ، إِذَا أَمَّرَ أَمِيراً عَلَىٰ جَيْشٍ أَوْ سَرِيَّةٍ، أَوْصَاهُ فِي خَاصَّتِهِ بِتَقْوَى اللَّهِ وَمَنْ مَعَهُ مِنَ الْمُسْلِمِينَ خَيْراً. ثُمَّ قَالَ: «اغْزُوا بِاسْمِ اللَّهِ. فِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ. قَاتِلُوا مَنْ كَفَرَ بِاللَّهِ. اغْزُوا وَلاَ تَغُلُّوا وَلاَ تَغْدِرُوا وَلاَ تَمْثُلُوا وَلاَ تَقْتُلُوا وَلِيداً. وَإِذَا لَقِيتَ عَدُوَّكَ مِنَ الْمُشْرِكِينَ فَادْعُهُمْ إِلَىٰ ثَلاَثِ خِصَالٍ ـ أَوْ خِلاَلٍ ـ. فَأَيَّتُهُنَّ مَا أَجَابُوكَ فَاقْبَلْ مِنْهُمْ وَكُفَّ عَنْهُمْ. ثُمَّ ادْعُهُمْ إِلَى الإِسْلاَمِ، فَإِنْ أَجَابُوكَ فَاقْبَلْ مِنْهُمْ وَكُفَّ عَنْهُمْ. ثُمَّ ادْعُهُمْ إِلَى التَّحَوُّلِ مِنْ دَارِهِمْ إِلَىٰ دَارِ الْمُهَاجِرِينَ. وَأَخْبِرْهُمْ أَنَّهُمْ، إِنْ فَعَلُوا ذٰلِكَ، فَلَهُمْ مَا لِلْمُهَاجِرِينَ وَعَلَيْهِمْ مَا عَلَى الْمُهَاجِرِينَ، فَإِنْ أَبَوْا أَنْ يَتَحَوَّلُوا مِنْهَا، فَأَخْبِرْهُمْ أَنَّهُمْ يَكُونُونَ كَأَعْرَابِ الْمُسْلِمِينَ.

share the spoils of war or booty with them unless they take part with the Muslims in fighting (the unbelievers).

If they refuse (to embrace Islam), ask them to give the tribute. If they agree to give it, accept it from them and keep yourself from (fighting) them. If they refuse to give the tribute, seek for Allah's help and fight them. When you besiege a fort whose people appeal to you for protection granted in the name of Allah and His Messenger, do not give them the guarantee of Allah and His Messenger, but give them your own guarantee and that of your companions, for in case (it happens that) the protection given by you or your companions is disregarded, it will be a lesser sin than that (you will commit) in case the protection guaranteed in the name of Allah and His Messenger is disregarded. If you besiege a fort whose people ask you to let them out according to Allah's Command, do not let them out according to Allah's Command, but do that according to your own command, for you do not know whether you will be able to implement Allah's command regarding them."

4-(...) Sulaiman Ibn Buraida narrated from his father: Whenever The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" sent a leader with a detachment, he would call him and advise him...and the rest is the same.

5-(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Shu'ba.

[3] The order to make things easy (for the people) and to abandon (causing them to have) aversion (towards the religion of Islam)

6-(1732) Abu Musa "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: Whenever The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" sent anyone of his companions as an envoy of him he would say to him: "Give glad tidings (to the people) and do not cause them to have aversion (towards the religion). Make things easy and do not be hard (on them)."

7-(1733) Sa'id Ibn Abu Burda narrated from his father from his grandfather (Abu Musa) that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" sent him and Mu'adh to Yemen, and said to them: "Make things easy and do not be hard (on the people). Give glad tidings (to them) and do not cause them to have aversion (towards the religion). Be in accordance with one another and do not be at odds."

(...) This Hadith was narrated on the authority of Sa'id Ibn Abu Burda, from his father, from his grandfather, from The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", without mentioning (the last statement): "Be in accordance with one another and do not be at odds."

يَجْرِي عَلَيْهِمْ حُكْمُ اللَّهِ الَّذِي يَجْرِي عَلَى الْمُؤْمِنِينَ. وَلاَ يَكُونُ لَهُمْ فِي الْغَنِيمَةِ وَالْفَيْءِ شَيْءٌ. إِلاَّ أَنْ يُجَاهِدُوا مَعَ الْمُسْلِمِينَ، فَإِنْ هُمْ أَبَوْا فَسَلْهُمُ الْجِزْيَةَ، فَإِنْ هُمْ أَجَابُوكَ فَاقْبَلْ مِنْهُمْ وَكُفَّ عَنْهُمْ، فَإِنْ هُمْ أَبَوْا فَاسْتَعِنْ بِاللَّهِ وَقَاتِلْهُمْ. وَإِذَا حَاصَرْتَ أَهْلَ حِصْنٍ، فَأَرَادُوكَ أَنْ تَجْعَلَ لَهُمْ ذِمَّةَ اللَّهِ وَذِمَّةَ نَبِيِّهِ. فَلاَ تَجْعَلْ لَهُمْ ذِمَّةَ اللَّهِ وَلاَ ذِمَّةَ نَبِيِّهِ. وَلَكِنِ اجْعَلْ لَهُمْ ذِمَّتَكَ وَذِمَّةَ أَصْحَابِكَ، فَإِنَّكُمْ، أَنْ تُخْفِرُوا ذِمَمَكُمْ وَذِمَمَ أَصْحَابِكُمْ، أَهْوَنُ مِنْ أَنْ تُخْفِرُوا ذِمَّةَ اللَّهِ وَذِمَّةَ رَسُولِهِ. وَإِذَا حَاصَرْتَ أَهْلَ حِصْنٍ، فَأَرَادُوكَ أَنْ تُنْزِلَهُمْ عَلَىٰ حُكْمِ اللَّهِ، فَلاَ تُنْزِلْهُمْ عَلَىٰ حُكْمِ اللَّهِ. وَلَكِنْ أَنْزِلْهُمْ عَلَىٰ حُكْمِكَ، فَإِنَّكَ لاَ تَدْرِي أَتُصِيبُ حُكْمَ اللَّهِ فِيهِمْ أَمْ لاَ». قَالَ عَبْدُ الرَّحْمٰنِ: هٰذَا أَوْ نَحْوَهُ.

وَزَادَ إِسْحَاقُ فِي آخِرِ حَدِيثِهِ، عَنْ يَحْيَىٰ بْنِ آدَمَ. قَالَ: فَذَكَرْتُ هٰذَا الْحَدِيثَ لِمُقَاتِلِ بْنِ حَيَّانَ ـ قَالَ يَحْيَىٰ: يَعْنِي أَنَّ عَلْقَمَةَ يَقُولُهُ لاِبْنِ حَيَّانَ ـ فَقَالَ: حَدَّثَنِي مُسْلِمُ بْنُ هَيْصَمٍ، عَنِ النُّعْمَانِ بْنِ مُقَرِّنٍ، عَنِ النَّبِيِّ ﷺ... نَحْوَهُ.

the cause of Allah)." Then, The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" stood up and said: "O Allah! The revealer of the Book, the creator of the clouds, the defeater of the (unbelieving) confederates! Defeat those (enemies) and make us emerge victorious over them."

[7] It is desirable to pray for victory when encountering the enemy

21-(...) Abdullah Ibn Abu Awfa "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" invoked evil upon the confederates saying: "O Allah, the Revealer of the Holy Book (of Qur'an), the Quick Taker of the accounts! Please defeat the confederates. O Allah! Defeat and shake them."

22-(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Ibn Abu Awfa, with a slight change of words.

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Ibn Uyaina from Isma'il, through another chain of transmitters, according to which he added: "The disperser of the clouds."

23-(1743) Anas "Allah be pleased with him" narrated that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to say on the day of (the holy battle of) Uhud: "O Allah! If You wish (that the Muslims should be defeated by the unbelievers), you will be worshipped by no one on the earth."

[8] Prohibition of killing women and children in war

24-(1744) Nafi narrated from Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" that a woman was found killed in one of the holy battles led by The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". Consequently, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" disapproved of killing women and children.

25-(...) Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" narrated that a woman was found killed in one of the holy battles (led by The Messenger of Allah). Consequently, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade killing women and children (in wars).

[9] It is permissible to kill women and children during the night attacks but not intentionally

26-(1745) Ibn Abbas narrated from As-Sa'b Ibn Jaththama that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was asked about the women and children (of the unbelievers), who might be killed

27-(...) Ibn Abbas narrated from As-Sa'b Ibn Jaththama: I said: "O Messenger of Allah! We might kill the women and children of the unbelievers during the night raids (what is your command as regards it?)" He said: "(There is no harm if not intentionally since) they are from them."

28-(...) Ibn Abbas narrated from As-Sa'b Ibn Jaththama that it was said to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him": "If some horsemen raided (the enemy) during the night and killed some from the children of the unbelievers (what is your command?)" upon this he said: "(There is no harm if not intentionally since) they are from their fathers."

[10] It is permissible to cut and burn the trees of the unbelievers

29-(1746) Abdullah "Allah be pleased with him" narrated that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" burnt (most of) the date-palms of Banu An-Nadir, and cut down (some of them). Those date palms were at Al-Buwaira. Qutaiba and Ibn Rumh added in their narration: So, Allah revealed His saying: "Whether ye cut down (o ye Muslims!) The tender palm trees, or ye left them standing on their roots, it was by leave of Allah, and in order that He might cover with shame the rebellious transgressors." (The Mustering "Al-Hashr" 5)

30-(...) Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" narrated that The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had the date-palm trees of Banu An-Nadir cut down and burnt. Regarding this case, Hassan Ibn Thabit said this poetic Verse: "the terrible burning of Al-Buwaira has been received uninterestedly by the nobles of Banu Lu'ai (The chiefs of Quraish)." It was on that occasion that it was revealed: "Whether ye cut down (o ye Muslims!) The tender palm trees, or ye left them standing on their roots, it was by leave of Allah."

consummate the marriage, and has not done so yet, should not accompany me; nor should a man who has built a house but has not completed its roof; nor should a man who has sheep or pregnant she-camels and is waiting for the birth of their young ones." So, The Prophet carried out the expedition. When he reached that town at the time or nearly at the time of the Asr prayer, he said to the sun: "O sun! You are under Allah's Order and I am under Allah's Order. O Allah! Stop it from setting." It was stopped till Allah made him victorious.

Then he collected the booty and the fire came to burn it, but it did not burn it. He said (to his men): "Some of you have stolen something from the booty. So one man from every tribe should give me a pledge of allegiance by shaking hands with me." (When they did so) the hand of a man got stuck over the hand of their prophet. Then that Prophet said (to the man): "The theft has been committed by your people. So all the persons of your tribe should give me the pledge of allegiance by shaking hands with me." The hands of two or three men got stuck over the hand of their Prophet who said: "You have committed the theft." Then they brought a head of gold like the head of a cow which they put among the (objects of the) booty on the ground; and the fire came and consumed the booty. In this way, the war booty had not been made lawful for anyone before us. But when Allah saw our weakness and disability, He made the war booty legal for us."

[12] The spoils of war

33-(1748) Mus'ab Ibn Sa'd narrated: My father took a sword from the one-fifth of the spoils of war, and went to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "Grant this to me." But he refused. On that occasion, Allah Almighty revealed: "They ask thee concerning (things taken as) spoils of war. Say: "(Such) spoils are at the disposal of Allah and the Messenger: so fear Allah, and keep straight the relations between yourselves: Obey Allah and His Messenger, if ye do believe."" (The spoils Of War "Al-Anfal" 1)

34-(...) Mus'ab Ibn Sa'd narrated from his father: Four holy Verses have been revealed in connection with me. Once, I got a sword (from the spoils of war) which was brought to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". (Mus'ab added) he (my father) said: "O Messenger of Allah! Give it to me in addition to my share of booty." He said: "Place it." He (my father) stood up and The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Put it where you had taken it." Then, he stood up and said: "O Messenger of Allah! Grant it to me in addition to my share of booty." He said: "Put it." Then, he stood up and said: "O Messenger of Allah! Grant it to me in addition to my share of booty. Would I be made as the one who has no share (in the war)?" upon this The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to him: "Place it where you had taken it." In connection with me, the following Verse was revealed: "They ask thee concerning (things taken as) spoils of war. Say: "(Such) spoils are at the disposal of Allah and the Messenger.""

35-(1749) Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" sent a detachment towards Najd in which I was involved. They gained a lot of camels. Their shares from the booty amounted to twelve or eleven camels each, and every one of them was given an extra camel.

36-(...) Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" narrated that The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" sent a detachment to Najd in which Ibn Umar was involved. Their shares (of the war spoils) amounted to twelve camels and they were given (by their leader) an extra camel each. However, The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" did not change that.

37-(...) Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" sent a detachment towards Najd in which I was involved. We got camels and sheep (as booty). Our shares from the booty amounted to twelve camels each. Then, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" gave everyone of us an extra camel.

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Ubaidullah, with the same chain of transmitters.

(...)Ibn Awn narrated: I wrote to Nafi asking him about (the extra things granted in addition to the shares of the fighters from) the spoils of war and he wrote to me that Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" was involved in that detachment...and the rest of the Hadith is the same.

38-(1750) Salim narrated from his father: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" gave (each one of) us an extra (camel) in addition to our shares of the one-fifth (of the war booty). I got a big old camel (in this extra).

41-(1751) Abu Muhammad Al-Ansari, who was a close companion of Abu Quatada narrated the (following) Hadith.

(...) Abu Muhammad, the freed slave of Abu Quatada narrated the (following) Hadith.

(...) Abu Quatada "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: We set out with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (on an expedition) in the year of (the holy Battle of) Hunain. When we faced the enemy, some of the Muslims turned back. I saw a man from the unbelievers having overpowered one of the Muslims. I turned round and attacked him from behind, striking him between his neck and shoulder. He turned towards me and caught hold of me (so much violently) that I noticed death approaching me. Then death overtook him and let me alone. I joined Umar Ibn Al-Khattab who said: "What has happened to the people (which led them to retreat)?" I said: "It is Allah's Decree." Then the people returned (and the battle ended with the victory of Muslims).

The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" sat (to distribute the spoils of war) and said: "Whoever killed a pagan and has an evidence for it, then his (the deceased) belongings will be for him." I stood up and said: "Who will give evidence for me?" Then I sat down. He (The Prophet) said like this. I stood up and said: "Who will give evidence for me?" then, I sat down once again. He (The Prophet) said so for the third time, after which I stood up. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "What is the matter with you O Abu Quatada?" I narrated the story to him. A man from among the people said: "He has told the truth O Messenger of Allah. The belongings of that (pagan) killed by him are with me. Make him concede his right (to me)." Abu Bakr said:

"No, by Allah, this should not happen. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" will not tend to deprive one of the lions of Allah who fight in the cause of Allah and His Messenger in order to give you his share of booty." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "He (Abu Bakr) has told the truth. Give the belongings to him (Abu Quatada)." He gave them to me. I sold the armour (included in the belongings which I got) and bought with its price a garden in the street of Banu Salama. This was the first property I gained after embracing Islam.

In the narration of Al-Laith, Abu Bakr said: "No, never! He will not give it to a fox from Quraish and let aside a lion from amongst the lions of Allah..." (According to this narration too, Abu Quatada said: "This was) The first property I gained."

42-(1752) Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Awf "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: While I was standing in the row on the day (of the battle) of Badr, I looked to my right and my left and saw two young Ansari boys. I wished I had been between men stronger than them. One of them drew my attention saying: "O Uncle! Do you know Abu Jahl?" I said: "Yes, What do you want from him, O my nephew?" He said: "I have been informed that he abuses Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". By Him, in Whose Hands my life is, if I see him, then my body will not leave his body till either of us who is destined to meet his fate earlier is killed." I was astonished at that talk. Then the other boy called my attention saying the same as the other had said.

After a while I saw Abu Jahl walking amongst the people. I said (to the boys): "Look! This is the man you asked me about." So, both of them attacked him with their swords and struck him to death. Then they returned to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" to inform him of that. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" asked: "Which of you has killed him?" Each of them said: "I Have killed him." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" asked: "Have you cleaned your swords?" They said: "No. " He then looked at their swords and said: "No doubt, you both have killed him." But, the belongings of the deceased were given to Mu'adh Ibn Amr Ibn Al-Jamuh. (The two boys were Mu'adh Ibn Amr Ibn Al-Jamuh and Mu'adh Ibn Afra).

belongings, but Khalid Ibn Al-Walid, who was the leader, prevented him. Awf Ibn Malik went to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and told him. He (The Prophet) asked Khalid: "What did prevent you to give him the booty?" he replied: "I regarded it as too much O Messenger of Allah." He (The Prophet) said: "Give it to him." Then, Khalid came upon Awf Ibn Malik who pulled him by his cloak and said: "Has what I had reported to you from The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" happened?" The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" heard him, with the result that he got angry and said: "Do not give him O Khalid! Do not give him O Khalid! Would you leave my leaders for me? However, the example of you and them is like one who was asked to take some camels and sheep in order to graze, and he took them to graze. When it was time for them to drink, he brought them to a pool, from which they drank its clear (water) and left its dirty (water), with the result that its clearness (i.e. the best reward) would become for you, and its dirt (i.e. the blame) would be for those (leaders)."

Awf Ibn Malik Al-Ashja'i narrated: I joined the expedition that proceeded under (the leadership of) Zaid Ibn Haritha to Mu'ta, and then, I received reinforcement from Yemen...and the rest is the same, according to which he (Awf) said (to Khalid): "O Khalid! didn't you know that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had judged that the booty (of an enemy) should be given to the one who killed him?" He (Khalid) said: "Yes, but I regarded it as too much."

45-(1754) Salama Ibn Al-Akwa narrated: We took part in the holy Battle of Hawazin with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". While we were having our breakfast with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", a man came riding a red camel. He made it kneel down, took out a strap of leather from its girth with which he tied the camel. Then he started eating with the people and looking (curiously here and there). We were in a state of weakness and lacking of mounts, since some of us were on foot. Suddenly, he left us quickly, came to his camel, which he untied. He made it kneel down, rode it and then urged it and it ran with him. A man on a brown she-camel chased him (regarding him as a spy).

Salama (the narrator) added: I came out hurriedly on foot. I ran on until I was near the thigh of the she-camel. I proceeded further until I was near the thighs of the camel. I advanced further until I caught hold of the nose string

I brought the camel driving it along with the man's baggage and arms. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" along with the people came to receive me. He asked: "Who has killed the man?" The people said: "Ibn Al-Akwa." He said: "Then, the entire belongings of the man are for him."

[14] Giving extra rewards to the fighters, and ransoming the Muslims with the captives (from the enemy)

46-(1755) Iyas Ibn Salama narrated from his father (Salama Ibn Al-Akwa): We fought (the tribe of) Fazara under the leadership of Abu Bakr who was appointed by The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". When we were as far from the water as a distance covered only in an hour, Abu Bakr ordered us to halt during the last portion of the night. Then we attacked from all sides and reached their watering place. Some of the enemies were killed and others were captured. I saw a group of people consisting of women and children. Since I was afraid that they should precede me to the mountain, I shot an arrow between them and the mountain. When they saw the arrow, they stopped. I came driving them.

Among them there was a woman from Banu Fazara. She was wearing a leather coat. Her daughter, who was one of the most beautiful girls in Arabia, was with her. I drove them until I brought them to Abu Bakr who granted this girl to me as a reward. Then, we arrived in Medina. I had not yet disrobed her when The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" met me in the street and said: "Give me that girl O Salama." I said: "O Messenger of Allah! By Allah! She has appealed me. I had not yet disrobed her." On the next day The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" met me in the street once again and said: "O Salama! Give me that girl, may Allah bless your father." I said: "She is for you O Messenger of Allah! By Allah! I have not yet disrobed her." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" sent her to the people of Mecca, and ransomed with her many Muslims who had been captured (and kept as prisoners) at Mecca.

come to a town (which surrendered with no war) and stay therein, you have a share (as booty with no war) in (the property taken from) it. If a town disobeys Allah and His Messenger (and fights Muslims) one-fifth of the booty taken from it should be for Allah and His Messenger and the rest should be for you."

48-(1757) Umar (Ibn Al-Khattab) "Allah be pleased with him" reported: The properties of Banu An-Nadir which Allah had transferred to His Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" as Booty were not gained by the Muslims with their horses and camels (i.e. were not gained through war). The properties therefore, belonged especially to Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", (from which) he used to give his family their yearly expenditure and spend what remained thereof on arms and horses to be used in Allah's Cause.

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Az-Zuhri, with the same chain of transmitters.

49-(...) Malik Ibn Aws narrated: Umar Ibn Al-Khattab sent (a messenger) to me (to come to him). I went to him when the sun rose high. I found him in his home, sitting on a bedstead, made of date-palm leaves, covered with no mattress. he was leaning over a leather pillow. I greeted him and sat down. He said: "O Malik! Some persons of your people who have families came to me and I have ordered that a gift should be given to them. So take and distribute it among them." I said: "Would that you order someone else to do it!" He said: "O Malik! Take it." Then, his doorman Yarfa came saying: "O Commander of the Believers! Uthman, Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Awf, Az-Zubair and Sa'd Ibn Abu Waqqas are asking your permission (to enter into you). May I admit them?"

Umar said: "Yes." So they were admitted, and they came in. A while later, he came again and said: "May I admit Ali and Abbas?" Omar said: "yes." So, they were admitted. (When they came in and sat down) Abbas said: "O Commander of The Believers! Judge between me and this (Ali) liar, sinful, treacherous betrayer." (They had a dispute regarding the property of Banu An-Nadir, which Allah had given to His Apostle as booty with no war). The (present) companions said: "O Commander of The Believers! Judge between them and relieve both of them in front of each other." (Malik Ibn Aws said: I think they had come only for that purpose). Umar said: "Be patient! "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Our (prophets') property will not be inherited, and whatever we leave, is to be used for charity"?" The group said: "Yes (He said so)." Umar then turned to Ali and Abbas and said: "I beseech you by Allah by Whose Permission the Heaven and the Earth exist, do you know that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Our (prophets') property will not be inherited, and whatever we leave, is to be used for charity"?" They replied: " Yes (He said so)." Umar then said: "Allah bestowed upon His Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" a special favour of something of this booty which he gave to nobody else." (Umar then recited Allah's saying): " What Allah has bestowed on His Messenger (and taken away) from the people of the townships- belongs to Allah- to His Messenger and to kindred and orphans, the needy and the wayfarer; in order that it may not (merely) make a circuit between the wealthy among you. So take what the Messenger assigns to you, and deny yourselves that which he withholds from you. And fear Allah; for Allah is strict in Punishment." (The Mustering "Al-Hashr" 7) (The narrator said): I do not know whether he (Umar) recited also the previous Verse.

Umar added: "So Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" distributed among you the property of Banu An-Nadir, but, by Allah, neither did he favour himself with it to your exclusion, nor did he take possession of it and leave you, (on the contrary, he distributed it amongst you) till this property remained out of it. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to spend the yearly expenses of his family out of this property, and used to keep the rest of its revenue to be spent in Allah's Cause. I ask you by Allah, do you know this?" They replied: "Yes." He besought Ali and Abbas by the same he had besought the people: "Do you know this?" they replied in the affirmative.

Umar added: "When Allah had taken His Prophet unto Him, Abu Bakr said: "I am the successor of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"." Then, both of you came to him: You (Abbas) demanded your inheritance from your nephew, and this (Ali) demanded the inheritance of his wife from her father, whereupon Abu Bakr said that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "We (Prophets) should not be inherited, for what we leave should be used for charity." The result was that you regarded him as a liar, sinful, treacherous betrayer; and Allah knows that he was true, pious, rightly-guided, and a follower of what is right.

Then Allah took Abu Bakr unto Him and I became the (second) successor of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and the successor of Abu Bakr. You regarded me as a liar, sinful, treacherous betrayer; and Allah knows that I have been true, pious, rightly-guided, and a follower of what is right. So, I became in charge of that (property). Then, you both (Ali and Abbas) came to talk to me, bearing the same claim and presenting the same case. You asked me to hand over it to you. I said to you: "I am ready to hand over this property to you if you wish, on the condition that you would take Allah's Pledge that you would manage it in the same way as The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to do," and you took it on that condition." (Then, he asked them): "was it right?" they replied: "Yes."

He said: " Now, both of you come to me in order to give a (different) judgement between you. No, by Allah, I will never give any judgement between you other than that (I have already given) until the Hour is established. If you are unable to manage it, then return it to me (and I will do the job on your behalf)."

50-(…) Malik Ibn Aws Ibn Al-Hadathan narrated: Umar Ibn Al-Khattab sent to me (in order to come to him, and when I went to him) he said to me: "Some persons who have families (from your people) came…"and the rest is the same, with a slight change of words.

[16] The Prophet's saying: "We (The Prophets) should not be inherited, and whatever we leave should be used for charity"

51-(1758) A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" narrated that when The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" died, his wives intended to send Uthman Ibn Affan to Abu Bakr, in order to ask him about their inheritance from The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". Upon this A'isha said to him: "Did not The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" say: "We (Prophets) should not be inherited, and whatever we leave should be used for charity"?"

52-(1759) A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" narrated: Fatima "Allah be pleased with her" the daughter of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" sent somebody to Abu Bakr As-Siddiq (after being appointed as caliph), asking for her inheritance of what The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had left of the property bestowed on him by Allah from the booty gained without war in Medina, and Fadak, and what remained of one-fifth the Khaibar's booty. On that, Abu Bakr said: "The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Our property should not be inherited. Whatever we (prophets) leave, is to be given in charity, but the family of (The Prophet) Muhammad can eat from this property." By Allah, I will make no change in the state of the charity of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". I also will leave it as it was during the lifetime of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", of which I will dispose in the same way as The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" did." In this way, Abu Bakr refused to give anything of that to Fatima.

As a result, she became angry with Abu Bakr, kept away from him, and did not talk to him till she died. She remained alive for six months after the death of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". When she died, her husband Ali buried her at night without informing Abu Bakr; and he led the funeral prayer by himself. When Fatima was alive, the people used to respect Ali so much. But after her death, Ali noticed a change in the people's attitude towards him. So Ali sought reconciliation with Abu Bakr and giving him the pledge of allegiance. However, Ali had not given the pledge of allegiance during those months (during which Fatima was alive after The Prophet's death). Ali sent somebody to Abu Bakr saying: "Come to us, but let nobody come with you." He seemed to have disliked that Umar might come. Umar said (to Abu Bakr): "No, by Allah, you shall not enter upon them alone!" Abu Bakr said: "What do you think they will do to me? By Allah, I will go to them."

Abu Bakr entered upon them. Ali testified that there is no God but Allah, and that Muhammad is The Messenger of Allah. Then he said (to Abu Bakr): "We know well your superiority and what Allah has given you. We are not jealous of the good Allah has bestowed upon you (by being caliph). But you did not consult us in the question of ruling, in which we thought that we had a right because of our near relationship to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"." He kept speaking until Abu Bakr's eyes flowed with tears. When Abu Bakr spoke, he said: "By Him, in Whose Hand my soul is! To keep good relations with the relatives of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" is dearer to me than to keep good relations with my kith and kin. But as for the trouble, which arose between you and me about his property, I will do my best to spend it on what is good. Therefore, I will not leave any rule or regulation I saw The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" doing in disposing of it, but that I will follow." Ali said to Abu Bakr: "I promise to give you the pledge of allegiance in this afternoon."

When Abu Bakr performed Dhuhr prayer, he came up the pulpit, testified that there is no God (to be worshiped) but Allah, and that Muhammad is The Messenger of Allah, and then mentioned the story of Ali and his delay in giving the pledge of allegiance, excusing him, and accepting the excuses he had offered. Then Ali asked for (Allah's) forgiveness. Testified that there is no God but Allah, and that Muhammad is The Messenger of Allah. He praised Abu Bakr's right, and said that he had not done what he had done because of jealousy of Abu Bakr, or as a protest of that with which Allah had favored him. (Ali added): "But we thought that we had some right in this affair (of regime), in which he (Abu Bakr) did not consult us, and in this way, caused us to feel sorry." Consequently, all the Muslims became happy and said: "You have done the right thing." The Muslims then became pleased with Ali since he returned to what people had done (of giving the pledge of allegiance to Abu Bakr).

53-(...) A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" narrated that both of Fatima and Al-Abbas "Allah be pleased with them" came to Abu Bakr, demanding their inheritance from The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". At this time, they demanded his land in Fadak, and his share from (the property of) Khaibar. Upon this Abu Bakr said to them: "I heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying..." and the rest is the same, with a slight change of words.

54-(...) Urwa narrated that A'isha "Allah be pleased with her", the wife of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", had told him: Fatima the daughter of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" asked Abu Bakr following the death of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" to be given her share of inheritance from what The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had left of the booty gained without fighting, which Allah had bestowed upon him. Abu Bakr said to her: "The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Our property will not be inherited. But whatever we (prophets) leave is (to be used for) charity." However, Fatima remained alive for six months after the death of Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him".

Fatima used to ask Abu Bakr for her share from the property of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" which he left at Khaibar and Fadak, in addition to his property at Medina (devoted for charity). Abu Bakr refused to give her that property and said: "I will not leave anything The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to do, because I am afraid that if I left something from The Prophet's tradition, then I would go astray." (Later on) Umar gave The Prophet's property (of charity) at Medina to Ali and Abbas, but Ali overpowered him (and kept it in his possession). But he withheld the properties of Khaibar and Fadak in his custody and said: "These two properties are the charity which The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used for his expenditures and urgent needs. Now their management is to be entrusted to the ruler." (Az-Zuhri said: "They have been managed in this way till today.")

55-(1760) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "None of my heirs should take (even) a single Dinar (from what I leave), for whatever I leave after the expenditures of my wives and the expenses of my employee (who is in charge of those properties assigned for charity) is (to be used for) charity."

١٨ ـ بابُ الإِمْدادِ بالمَلائكة في غَزْوَةِ بَدْرٍ وإِبَاحَةِ الغَنَائِمِ

٥٨ ـ (١٧٦٣) ـ حدّثنا هَنَّادُ بْنُ السَّرِيِّ: حَدَّثَنَا ابْنُ الْمُبَارَكِ، عَنْ عِكْرِمَةَ بْنِ

Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" cast a glance at the infidels, and they were one thousand while his own Companions were three hundred and nineteen. The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" turned (his face) towards the Qibla, stretched his hands and began his supplication to his Lord: "O Allah! Accomplish for me what You have promised me. O Allah! Bring about what You have promised me. O Allah! If this small group of Muslims is destroyed, You will not be worshipped on the earth." He continued his supplication to his Lord, stretching his hands, facing the Qibla, until his mantle slipped down from his shoulders.

Abu Bakr came to him, picked up his mantle and put it on his shoulders. Then he embraced him from behind and said:. "O Prophet of Allah! This supplication of yours to your Lord will be sufficient for you, and He will accomplish for you what He has promised you." On this occasion, Allah "Exalted and Glorified be He" revealed (the following Qur'anic verse): "When ye appealed to your Lord for help, He responded to your call (saying): I will support you with one thousand angels coming in succession." (Al-Anfal 9) In this way, Allah supported him with angels.

Abu Zumail said that Ibn Abbas narrated to him: On that day, while a Muslim was chasing an infidel who was going ahead of him, he heard over him' a whip's lashing and a rider's voice saying: Go ahead, O Haizum! He looked in front of him, and behold! The infidel fell down on his back. When he looked at him (closely, he observed) a scar on his nose and his face was torn as if it were lashed with a whip, and it turned green. An Ansari man came to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" to whom he narrated that (story). He (The Prophet) said: "You have told the truth. This was a support from the third heaven."

On that day, The Muslims killed seventy persons and took seventy as captives. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to Abu Bakr and Umar (Allah be pleased with them): "What is your opinion about those captives?" Abu Bakr said: "They are our kith and kin. I think you should release them after getting from them a ransom, which will be (a source of) power for us against the infidels. Probably, Allah would guide them to Islam." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said (to Umar): "What is your opinion O Ibn Al-Khattab?" He said: "O Messenger of Allah! I am not of the same opinion as Abu Bakr. I am of the opinion that you should hand them over to us so that we would chop off their necks. Hand over Aqil to Ali in order to chop off his neck, and hand over such and such relative to me in order that I would chop off his neck. They are the chiefs of the infidels, and the men of the greatest power from among them."

(Umar resumed): The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was inclined to the opinion of Abu Bakr and was not inclined to mine. When I came to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" the next day I found him and Abu Bakr sitting, and they were weeping. I said: "O Messenger of Allah! Why are you and your Companion weeping? Tell me if there is reason for weeping, I would weep, otherwise, I would pretend to weep for your weeping." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "I weep for what has happened to your companions who took ransom (from the prisoners). I was shown their torture, which was brought to me as close as this tree." (He pointed to a tree close to him.)

Then, Allah Almighty revealed: "It is not fitting for a Prophet that he should have prisoners of war until he hath thoroughly subdued the land. Ye look for the temporal goods of this world; but Allah looketh to the Hereafter: and Allah is Exalted in might, Wise. Had it not been for a previous ordainment from Allah, a severe penalty would have reached you for the (ransom) that ye took. But (now) enjoy what ye took in war, lawful and good: but fear Allah; for Allah is Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful." (Spoils of War "Al-Anfal" 67:69) Hence, Allah made booty lawful for them."

[19] Fastening and detaining the war prisoner and the permissibility of releasing him

59-(1764) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" reported: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" sent some cavalry towards Najd and they brought a man from the tribe of Banu Hanifa called Thumama Ibn Uthal, the chief of the people of Yamama. They fastened him to one of the pillars of the Mosque. The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" went to him and said: "What have you got, O Thumama?" He replied:" I have got a good idea, O Muhammad! If you kill me, you would kill a person who has already killed somebody, and if you set me free, you would do a favour to one who is grateful, and if you want property, then ask me whatever wealth you want, and you will be given."

بَكْرٍ وَعُمَرَ: «مَا تَرَوْنَ فِي هَؤُلَاءِ الأُسَارَىٰ؟» فَقَالَ أَبُو بَكْرٍ: يَا نَبِيَّ اللَّهِ! هُمْ بَنُو الْعَمِّ وَالْعَشِيرَةِ. أَرَىٰ أَنْ تَأْخُذَ مِنْهُمْ فِدْيَةً. فَتَكُونَ لَنَا قُوَّةً عَلَى الْكُفَّارِ. فَعَسَى اللَّهُ أَنْ يَهْدِيَهُمْ لِلإِسْلَامِ.

فَقَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ: «مَا تَرَىٰ يَا ابْنَ الْخَطَّابِ؟» قُلْتُ: لَا، وَاللَّهِ، يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ، مَا أَرَى الَّذِي رَأَىٰ أَبُو بَكْرٍ. وَلٰكِنِّي أَرَىٰ أَنْ تُمَكِّنَّا فَنَضْرِبَ أَعْنَاقَهُمْ. فَتُمَكِّنَ عَلِيًّا مِنْ عَقِيلٍ فَيَضْرِبَ عُنُقَهُ. وَتُمَكِّنِّي مِنْ فُلَانٍ ـ نَسِيباً لِعُمَرَ ـ فَأَضْرِبَ عُنُقَهُ، فَإِنَّ هٰؤُلَاءِ أَئِمَّةُ الْكُفْرِ وَصَنَادِيدُهَا. فَهَوِيَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ مَا قَالَ أَبُو بَكْرٍ. وَلَمْ يَهْوَ مَا قُلْتُ.

فَلَمَّا كَانَ مِنَ الْغَدِ جِئْتُ فَإِذَا رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ وَأَبُو بَكْرٍ قَاعِدَيْنِ يَبْكِيَانِ. قُلْتُ: يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ، أَخْبِرْنِي مِنْ أَيِّ شَيْءٍ تَبْكِي أَنْتَ وَصَاحِبُكَ، فَإِنْ وَجَدْتُ بُكَاءً بَكَيْتُ. وَإِنْ لَمْ أَجِدْ بُكَاءً تَبَاكَيْتُ لِبُكَائِكُمَا. فَقَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ: «أَبْكِي لِلَّذِي عَرَضَ عَلَيَّ أَصْحَابُكَ مِنْ أَخْذِهِمُ الْفِدَاءَ. لَقَدْ عُرِضَ عَلَيَّ عَذَابُهُمْ أَدْنَىٰ مِنْ هٰذِهِ الشَّجَرَةِ» ـ شَجَرَةٍ قَرِيبَةٍ مِنْ نَبِيِّ اللَّهِ ﷺ ـ وَأَنْزَلَ اللَّهُ عَزَّ وَجَلَّ: ﴿مَا كَانَ لِنَبِيٍّ أَن يَكُونَ لَهُۥٓ أَسْرَىٰ حَتَّىٰ يُثْخِنَ فِى ٱلْأَرْضِ﴾ إِلَىٰ قَوْلِهِ: ﴿فَكُلُوا۟ مِمَّا غَنِمْتُمْ حَلَٰلًا طَيِّبًا﴾ [الأنفال: ٦٧ ـ ٦٩] فَأَحَلَّ اللَّهُ الْغَنِيمَةَ لَهُمْ.

٥٩ ـ (١٧٦٤) ـ حدثنا قُتَيْبَةُ بْنُ سَعِيدٍ: حَدَّثَنَا لَيْثٌ، عَنْ سَعِيدِ بْنِ أَبِي سَعِيدٍ؛ أَنَّهُ سَمِعَ أَبَا هُرَيْرَةَ يَقُولُ: بَعَثَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ خَيْلاً قِبَلَ نَجْدٍ، فَجَاءَتْ بِرَجُلٍ مِنْ بَنِي حَنِيفَةَ يُقَالُ لَهُ: ثُمَامَةُ بْنُ أُثَالٍ. سَيِّدُ أَهْلِ الْيَمَامَةِ، فَرَبَطُوهُ بِسَارِيَةٍ مِنْ سَوَارِي الْمَسْجِدِ، فَخَرَجَ إِلَيْهِ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ فَقَالَ: «مَاذَا عِنْدَكَ يَا ثُمَامَةُ؟» فَقَالَ: عِنْدِي، يَا مُحَمَّدُ، خَيْرٌ. إِنْ تَقْتُلْ تَقْتُلْ ذَا دَمٍ. وَإِنْ تُنْعِمْ تُنْعِمْ عَلَىٰ شَاكِرٍ. وَإِنْ كُنْتَ تُرِيدُ الْمَالَ فَسَلْ تُعْطَ مِنْهُ مَا شِئْتَ، فَتَرَكَهُ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ.

He was left till the next day when The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to him: "What have you got O Thumama?" He said: "What I told you: If you set me free, you would do a favour to one who is grateful; if you kill me, you would kill a person who has already killed somebody; and if you want property, then ask me whatever wealth you want, and you will be given. " The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" left him till the day after, when he said: "What have you got, O Thumama?" He said: "I have got what I told you: If you set me free, you would do a favour to one who is grateful; if you kill me, you would kill a person who has already killed somebody; and if you want property, then ask me whatever wealth you want, and you will be given."

On that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Release Thumama."

So he (Thumama) went to a garden of date-palm trees near the Mosque, took a bath and then entered the Mosque and said: "I testify that there is no God (to be worshipped) but Allah, and testify that Muhammad is His Apostle! By Allah, O Muhammad! There was no face on the surface of the earth which had been more disliked by me than yours, but now your face has become the most beloved face to me. By Allah, there was no religion which had been more disliked by me than yours, but now it is the most beloved religion to me. By Allah, there was no town which had been more disliked by me than yours, but now it is the most beloved town to me. Your cavalry arrested me (at the time) when I was intending to perform Umra. Now what do you think?"

The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" gave him good tidings and ordered him to perform the Umra. So when he came to Mecca, someone said to him: "Have you deviated from your religion?" Thumama replied: "No! By Allah, I have embraced Islam with Muhammad, The Messenger of Allah. No, by Allah! Not a single grain of wheat will come to you from Yamama unless The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" gives his permission."

[20] Expelling the Jews from (the land of) Hijaz

61-(1765) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: While we were in the Mosque, The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came out and said: "Let us go to the Jews." We went out till we reached them. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" stood up and called them: "O Community of Jews! If you embrace Islam, you will be safe." they said: "You have reported (Allah's message to us), O Abu Al-Qasim!" he said: "This is what I wanted (from you). If you embrace Islam, you will be safe." They replied: "You have reported (Allah's message to us), O Abu Al-Qasim!" The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to them: "That is what I wanted (from you)." When he said to them his statement for the third time, he said: "You should know that the earth belongs to Allah and His Apostle. Indeed, I want to expel you from this land. So, if anyone amongst you owns some property, he is permitted to sell it. It should be known to you that the Earth belongs to Allah and His Apostle."

62-(1766) Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" reported: Banu An-Nadir and Banu Quraidha fought against The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (violating their peace treaty), so The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" expelled Banu An-Nadir and allowed Banu Quraidha to remain at their places (in Medina) till they fought against The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" again. He then killed their men and distributed their women, children and property among the Muslims, but some of them joined The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and he granted them safety, and they embraced Islam. He expelled all the Jews from Medina. They were the Jews of Banu Qainuqa, the tribe of Abdullah Ibn Salam, and the Jews of Banu Haritha and all the other Jews of Medina.

(...) The same Hadith was narrated on the authority of Musa, with the same chain of transmitters, but the narration of Ibn Juraij is more complete and much longer.

[21] Expelling both the Jews and the Christians from the Arab peninsula

63-(1767) Umar Ibn Al-Khattab "Allah be pleased with him" narrated that he heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying: "I am going to expel all the Jews and the Christians from the Arab peninsula, and I will leave nobody there but a Muslim."

[22] Permissibility of fighting those who violated their treaty, and permissibility of allowing the people of a fort to surrender according to a judgement of a just arbitrator, qualified to pass judgements

64-(1768) Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: When the tribe of Banu Quraidha accepted to submit to the judgment of Sa'd Ibn Mu'adh, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" sent for Sa'd, who came riding a donkey. When he became near the mosque, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to the Ansar: "Stand up for your chief (or the best of you)." Then he said to him: "These people (of Quraidha) approved to accept your judgment." Sa'd said: "I give the judgment that their warriors should be killed and their children (and women) should be taken as prisoners." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" then replied commenting: "You judged them with the judgment of Allah." Perhaps he said: "You judged them with the judgement of the King." Ibn Al-Muthanna did not mention in his narration (the statement): Perhaps he said: "You judged them with the judgement of the King."

The same was narrated on the authority of Shu'ba, with the same chain of transmitters, according to which he mentioned that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" once said: "You judged them with the judgement of Allah", and once he said: "You judged them with the judgement of the King."

65-(1769) A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" narrated: Sa'd was wounded on the day of (The Holy Battle of) The Trench when a man from Quraish, called Ibn Al-Ariqa threw him (with an arrow). He threw him at his medial arm vein. The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" made up a tent (for Sa'd) in the Mosque so as to be near to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" to visit. When The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" returned from the (Holy Battle of) The Trench and laid down his arms and took a bath, Gabriel came to him while he (Gabriel) was shaking the dust off his head, and said: "Did you put down the arms? By Allah, I have not laid them down yet. Go out to (fight) them." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Where (would I go out)?" 66-(...) Hisham narrated: My father told: I was informed that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said (to Sa'd): "You judged them with the judgement of Allah "Exalted and Glorified be He"."

67-(...) A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" narrated: Sa'd said just when his wound dried and was about to recover: "O Allah! You know that there is nothing more beloved to me than to fight in Your Cause against those who disbelieved Your Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and turned him out (of Mecca). O Allah! If there still remains any (probability of) fighting with the Quraish (disbelievers), then keep me alive till I fight against them in your cause. O Allah! I think you have put an end to the fight between us and them (Quraish unbelievers)., so, if you put an end to war between them and us, then let this wound burst and cause me to die as a result of that." Subsequently, the wound started bleeding from the front part of his neck. There was a tent in the Mosque belonging to Banu Ghifar who were surprised by the blood flowing towards them. They said: "O people of the tent! What is that which is coming to us from your side?" Indeed, blood was flowing abundantly out of Sa'd's wound. Sa'd then died as a result of that.

68-(...) The same was narrated by Hisham with the same chain of transmitters, according to which he mentioned: It (his wound) started bleeding that very night and it continued bleeding until he died. He added also that it was on this occasion that a poet (who was unbeliever) said:

"Hark, O Sa'd, Sa'd of Banu Mu'adh! What have (the Jews of) Quraidha and An-Nadir done? By your life! Sa'd Ibn Mu'adh Was steadfast on the morning they departed. You (people of Aws) have left your cooking pot empty (since your previous allies of Quraidha were killed), while the cooking pot of the people (of Khazraj) was hot and boiling. Abu Hubab, the nobleman said: "Keep staying O Qainuqa, and do not depart." However, they (the people of Quraidha) were weighty (and deep-rooted because of their great wealth and power) in their country, just as rocks are weighty in (the mountain of) Maitan."

[23] Hastening to go forth towards the holy war, and giving priority to the more important action from among the two when choice is made between them

69-(1770) Abdullah Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to us (after returning from) the day of (The Holy Battle of) The Confederates: "None of you should pray The Dhuhr except in Banu Quraidha." Some people were afraid that they would be overtaken by The (Asr) time on their way to Banu Quraidha, so, they prayed it before reaching Banu Quraidha. Some of them said: "We should not pray it except (in Banu Quraidha) where The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered us (to pray it), even if we were overtaken by the (Asr) time." But The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", did not blame any of them.

[24] The Emigrants return the gifts of trees and date-palms given by the Ansar to them, after they became wealthy by virtue of the conquests

70-(1771) Anas Ibn Malik "Allah be pleased with him" reported: When the Muhajirs (Emigrants) migrated from Mecca to Medina, they came without having anything (i.e. money) in their hands, while the Ansar (Supporters) possessed lands and date palms. They divided their property with the Emigrants. The Ansar divided (the land) with them on the condition that they would give half the fruit from the orchards every year, and the Muhajirs would undertake the labour and provide the land with the basic needs (of cultivation) on their behalf.

The mother of Anas Ibn Malik was called Umm Sulaim and she was also the mother of Abdullah Ibn Talha who was a brother of Anas from his mother's side. The mother of Anas had given the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" her date-palms, which he gave to Umm Aiman, the slave-woman who had been set free by him and was the mother of Usama Ibn Zaid. Then Anas Ibn Malik told Ibn Shihab that when the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had finished the war with the people of Khaibar and returned to Medina, the Muhajirs returned to the Ansar all the gifts, which they had given them out of the fruits. He (Anas Ibn Malik) said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" returned to my mother her date-palms and gave to Umm Aiman date-palms from his orchard instead of them.

Ibn Shihab told: Umm Aiman, who was the mother of Usama Ibn Zaid, was a slave-woman belonging to Abdullah Ibn Abd Al-Muttalib. She was from Ethiopia. When Amina (daughter of Wahb) gave birth to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" after his father had died, Umm Aiman was his (The Prophet's) wet-nurse until The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" grew up and emancipated her, and married her to Zaid Ibn Haritha. She died five months after the death of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him".

Anas "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: Some (Ansari people) used to give as a gift date-palm trees to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" till Banu Quraidha and Banu An-Nadir were conquered. Then, he gave back to them their date-palm trees. Anas added: my people ordered me to come and ask The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" to return some or all the date-palm trees they had given to him. However, The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had given those date-palm trees to Umm Aiman. I came to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (and told him about that) and he gave them to me. On that, Umm Aiman came and put the garment around my neck and said: "No, by Allah! We will not return those date-palm trees to you since The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" gave them to me." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said (to her): "O Umm Aiman! Leave those (date-palm trees) and I will give you so much (in substitution)." But she kept on rejecting, saying: "No, by Him, but Whom there is no god" till he gave her ten times her date-palm trees or nearly ten times her date-palm trees.

[25] Permissibility of eating from the foodstuff of the booty in the house of war

72-(1772) Abdullah Ibn Mughaffal narrated: On the day of (the holy battle of) Khaibar, I got a leather container of fat, of which I caught hold. I said: "Today, I would give nothing from that (fat) to anyone." I turned and behold! The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was (standing behind me) smiling.

73-(...) Abdullah Ibn Mughaffal narrated: On the day of (the holy battle of) Khaibar, a leather container having some food and fat was thrown by somebody. I jumped to take it. I looked behind, and suddenly I saw The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" there. So I felt shy (to take it).

[26] The letter of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" to Heraclius, calling him to embrace Islam

74-(1773) Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: Abu Sufyan told me: During the time of the armistice between me (i.e. the people of Quraish) and The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", I set out (in a commercial caravan) to Sham. At the same time, a letter was brought from The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" to Heraclius, the ruler of the Romans. However, Dihya Al-Kalbi brought it and handed it to the ruler of Busra, who, in turn, handed it to Heraclius. Heraclius asked: "Is there anyone belonging to the people of that man who claims to be a Prophet?" they replied in the affirmative. I was invited along with some people from Quraish. We entered upon Heraclius, who made us sit in front of him.

Heraclius asked: "Who amongst you is closely more related to that man who claims to be a Prophet?" Abu Sufyan said: I replied: "I am (the nearest relative to him)." They made me sit in front of him, and made my companions stand behind me. Heraclius called his interpreter and told him to tell my companions that he wanted to put some questions to me regarding that man (The Prophet) and that if I told a lie they (my companions) should contradict me." Abu Sufyan added: By Allah! Had I not been afraid of my companions labeling me a liar, I would not have spoken the truth (about The Prophet). Then, he told his interpreter to ask me:

"What is his family status amongst you?" I replied: "He belongs to a good noble family amongst us." He said: "Was anybody amongst his ancestors a king?" I replied: "No." Heraclius said: "Have you ever accused him of telling lies before his claim (to be a Prophet)?" I replied: "No." Heraclius asked: "do the noblemen or the poor follow him?" I replied: "only the poor people do follow him." He said: "Are his followers increasing or decreasing (day after day)?" I replied: "They are increasing." He then asked: "Does anybody amongst those who embrace his religion become displeased and reject it afterwards?" I replied: "No." Heraclius asked: "have you ever had a war with him?" I replied: "Yes." Then he asked: "What was the result of the battles?" I replied: "Sometimes he was victorious and sometimes we were." Heraclius said: "Does he break his promises?" I replied: "No. We are at armistice with him but we do not know what he will do in it." I could not find opportunity to say anything against him except that. Heraclius further asked: "has anybody amongst you ever claimed the same (To be a Prophet) before him?" I replied: "No."

Heraclius asked the interpreter to convey to me the following: "I asked you about his family and your reply was that he belonged to a very noble family. In fact, all the Apostles come from noble families amongst their respective people. Then I asked you whether anyone of his ancestors was a king. Your reply was in the negative. If it had been in the affirmative, I would have thought that this might have wanted to take back his ancestral kingdom. I then asked you whether the rich or the poor people followed him. You replied that only the poor men followed him. In fact, all Apostles have been followed by this very class of people. I further asked whether he was ever accused of telling lies before he said what he said. Your reply was in the negative. Therefore, I wondered how a person who does not tell a lie about others could ever tell a lie about Allah.

I further asked you whether there was anybody, who, after embracing his religion, became displeased and rejected it. Your reply was in the negative. As a matter of fact, this is (the sign of) true faith, when its delight enters the hearts with which it mixes completely. Then I asked you whether his followers were increasing or decreasing. You replied that they were increasing. Indeed, this is the way of true faith, until it is complete in all respects. I asked you whether you were at war with him, and you replied that you had been, and that the victory had been shared by turns: sometimes you suffered losses at his hands, and sometimes he suffered losses at your hands. However, that was the state of the Messengers, who might be put to trial, and then the decisive victory would be for them.

I asked you whether he had ever betrayed. You replied in the negative. However, the Apostles never betray. I questioned you whether anybody else amongst you claimed such a thing; and your reply was in the negative. If the answer had been in the affirmative, I would have thought that this man was following the previous one's statement. Heraclius said: "What does he order you to do?" I said: "He orders us to pray, to speak the truth, to keep good relations with our Kith and kin, and to be chaste." Heraclius then said: "If what you have said is true, then, he is a Prophet. I knew that he was going to appear but I did not know that he would be from you. Indeed, if I know I could reach him definitely, I would like to go immediately to meet him. If I were with him, I would certainly wash his feet. His dominion will very soon extend to this place beneath my feet."

Heraclius then asked for the letter sent to him by Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". The letter went as follows: "In the name of Allah the most gracious, the Most Merciful. From Muhammad the Apostle of Allah to Heraclius the ruler of Byzantines. Peace be upon him, who follows the right path. Now and then: I invite you to embrace Islam, and if you become a Muslim you will be safe, and Allah will double your reward. But if you reject this invitation of Islam you will commit a sin by misguiding your subjects (of peasants)": "Say: O People of the Book come to common terms as between us and you: that we worship none but Allah; that we associate no partners with him; that we erect not, from among ourselves, lords and patrons other than Allah. If then they turn back, say ye: bear witness that we (at last) are Muslims (bowing to Allah's will)" (Al Imran 64).

Abu Sufyan then added: When Heraclius had finished reading the letter, there was a great noise and cry in the Royal Court. Therefore, he ordered that we should be turned out of the court. When we came out, I said to my companions: "Indeed, the case of Ibn Abu Kabsha (The Prophet Muhammad) has become so prominent that even the King of Banu Al-Asfar (Romans) is afraid of him." Then I started to become sure that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" would be the conqueror in the near future until Allah guided me to embrace Islam.

(...)This Hadith was narrated on the authority of Ibn Shihab with the same chain of transmitters, in which he added: When Allah inflicted defeat upon the armies of Persia, Heraclius moved from Hims to Jerusalem thanking Allah Who granted him victory. It was also mentioned (in the letter of The Prophet): "From Muhammad, the slave of Allah and His Apostle"..."The sin of your followers"..."To the call of Islam".

75-(1774) Anas "Allah be pleased with him" narrated that The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" wrote (and sent letters) to Khosrau (the king of the Persians), Caesar (the emperor of Romans), the Negus (the king of Abyssinia) and every despot, calling them to (believe in) Allah "Exalted and Glorified be He". But that (Negus) was not the same Negus, on whom the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had offered the funeral prayer (when he died).

[28] The holy battle of Hunain

76-(1775) Al-Abbas "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: I was with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" on the Day of (the holy battle of) Hunain. I and Abu Sufyan Ibn Al-Harith Ibn Abd Al-Muttalib stuck to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and we did not separate from him. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was riding on his white mule which had been presented to him by Farwa Ibn Nufatha Al-Judhami. When the Muslims faced the unbelievers, the Muslims fled away, turning back, but The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" started spurring his mule towards the (direction of the) unbelievers. I was catching hold of the rein of the mule of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", keeping it from going very fast, while Abu Sufyan was catching hold of the stirrup of (the mule of) The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him".

Then, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "O Abbas! Call out to the people of (the huge tree of) Samura." Al-Abbas, who was a man of a loud voice, said: I called out at the top of my voice: "Where are the people of Samura?" By Allah! When they heard my voice, they came back (to us) just as cows come back to their calves, and said: "Here we are, responding to your call! Here we are, responding to your call!" Al-Abbas said: They started fighting the unbelievers . Then there was a call to The Ansar. Those (who called out to them) cried: "O community of the Ansar! O community of the Ansar!" Banu Al-Harith Ibn Al-Khazraj were the last to be called. Those (who called out to them) cried: "O Banu Al-Harith Ibn Al-Khazraj! O Banu Al-Harith Ibn Al-Khazraj!"

The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" who was riding on his mule looked at their fight with his neck stretched forward,

By Allah! As soon as he had thrown them (the infidels) with those pebbles, I started to observe that their force had been spent out and they began to retreat.

The same was narrated on the authority of Ma'mar, from Az-Zuhri, according to which The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said (after throwing the pebbles in the face of the infidels): "By the Lord of Ka'ba! The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" did not retreat. But, some hasty young men from his companions who were either improperly armed or were unarmed met a group of men who were (so excellent) archers that their arrows never missed the mark. Those men were from Banu Hawazin and Banu Nasr. They shot at them a volley of arrows that could hardly miss (their targets). The people turned to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" who was riding on his white mule. Abu Sufyan Ibn Al-Harith Ibn Abd Al-Muttalib was leading his (mule). [29] The holy battle of Ta'if

82-(1778) Abdullah Ibn Amr "Allah be pleased with both" reported: When Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" besieged the people of Ta'if and could not conquer them, he said: "We will return (to Medina) If Allah wills." The Companions (of The Prophet) said: "Shall we go away without conquering it (The Fort of Ta'if)?" on that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said (to them): "(Let's go to) fight tomorrow." They fought and (many of them) got wounded, whereupon The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "We will return (to Medina) tomorrow if Allah wills." That delighted them, whereupon The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" smiled.

[30] The holy battle of Badr

83-(1779) Anas "Allah be pleased with him" narrated that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" consulted (his companions) when the news of the coming of Abu Sufyan reached him. When Abu Bakr spoke, he (The Prophet) paid no attention to him, and when Umar spoke he also paid no attention to him. Then, Sa'd Ibn Ubada got up and said: "It seems that you want us (the Ansar to speak) O Messenger of Allah! By Allah, in Whose hand is my life! If you order us to plunge them (our horses) into the sea, we would do. If you order us to goad them (to a distant place as far as even) Bark Al-Ghimad, we would do."

٣٠ ـ باب غَزْوَةِ بَدْرٍ

٨٣ ـ (١٧٧٩) ـ حدّثنا أَبُو بَكْرِ بْنُ أَبِي شَيْبَةَ: حَدَّثَنَا عَفَّانُ: حَدَّثَنَا حَمَّادُ بْنُ سَلَمَةَ، عَنْ ثَابِتٍ، عَنْ أَنَسٍ؛ أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ﷺ شَاوَرَ، حِينَ بَلَغَهُ إِقْبَالُ أَبِي سُفْيَانَ. قَالَ: فَتَكَلَّمَ أَبُو بَكْرٍ فَأَعْرَضَ عَنْهُ. ثُمَّ تَكَلَّمَ عُمَرُ فَأَعْرَضَ عَنْهُ. فَقَامَ سَعْدُ بْنُ عُبَادَةَ فَقَالَ: إِيَّانَا تُرِيدُ يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ؟ وَالَّذِي نَفْسِي بِيَدِهِ، لَوْ أَمَرْتَنَا أَنْ نُخِيضَهَا الْبَحْرَ لأَخَضْنَاهَا. وَلَوْ أَمَرْتَنَا أَنْ نَضْرِبَ أَكْبَادَهَا إِلَىٰ بَرْكِ الْغِمَادِ لَفَعَلْنَا. قَالَ: فَنَدَبَ

He (the narrator) added: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" called upon the people (to go forth to Jihad). So they set out and encamped at Badr. Then, the water-carriers of Quraish arrived. There was among them a black slave belonging to Banu Al-Hajjaj. The Companions of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" caught hold of him and asked him about Abu Sufyan and his companions. He said: "I know nothing about Abu Sufyan, but Abu Jahl, Utba, Shaiba and Umaiyya Ibn Khalaf are there." When he said this, they beat him. Then he said: "Well, I will tell you about Abu Sufyan." Whenever they stopped beating him and asked him (once again) about Abu Sufyan, he would say: "I know nothing about Abu Sufyan, but Abu Jahl. Utba, Shaiba and Umaiyya Ibn Khalaf are there." When he said this, they beat him again. At the same time, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was standing in prayer. When he saw this he finished his prayer and said: "By Allah in Whose hand is my life! You beat him when he tells you the truth, and you let him when he tells you a lie."

He (the narrator) further said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "This is the very location where so-and-so (of the infidels of Quraish) would be killed." He put his hand on the ground (while saying) "here and here". Behold! None of them fell away from the very location to which The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had referred by putting his hand on the ground.

[31] The conquest of Mecca

84-(1780) Abdullah Ibn Rabah narrated from Abu Huraira: Many delegates came to Mu'awiya during the month of Ramadan. We prepared food for one another. Abu Huraira was one of those who invited us to his house many times. I said: "Would I not prepare food and invite them to my dwelling place?" I ordered that food should be prepared. I met Abu Huraira in the evening and said: "(I invite you to come to) have your food with me tonight." He said: "You anticipated me." I said: "Yes, and I invited them." (When they came and finished having their meals) Abu Huraira said: "Would I not tell you a Hadith from your traditions, O community of Ansar?" He talked of the Conquest of Mecca saying:

The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" proceeded until he reached Mecca. He placed Az-Zubair (as the leader of the force) on one wing and Khalid on the (force of the) other, and made Abu Ubaida lead the detachment that had no armours. They took their way through the interior of the valley. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was in the midst of a large contingent of fighters. When he saw me he said: "O Abu Huraira!" I said: "I am here responding to your call, O Messenger of Allah." He said: "Let none except the Ansar come to me." (The narrators other than Shaiban added) "Call to me (only) the Ansar."

٣١ - باب فَتْح مَكَّة

٨٤ - (١٧٨٠) - حدّثنا شَيْبَانُ بْنُ فَرُّوخَ: حَدَّثَنَا سُلَيْمَانُ بْنُ الْمُغِيرَةِ: حَدَّثَنَا ثَابِتٌ الْبُنَانِيُّ، عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ رَبَاحٍ، عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ. قَالَ: وَفَدَتْ وُفُودٌ إِلَىٰ مُعَاوِيَةَ. وَذٰلِكَ فِي رَمَضَانَ، فَكَانَ يَصْنَعُ بَعْضُنَا لِبَعْضٍ الطَّعَامَ، فَكَانَ أَبُو هُرَيْرَةَ مِمَّا يُكْثِرُ أَنْ يَدْعُونَا إِلَىٰ رَحْلِهِ. فَقُلْتُ: أَلَا أَصْنَعُ طَعَاماً فَأَدْعُوهُمْ إِلَىٰ رَحْلِي؟ فَأَمَرْتُ بِطَعَامٍ يُصْنَعُ. ثُمَّ لَقِيتُ أَبَا هُرَيْرَةَ مِنَ الْعَشِيِّ. فَقُلْتُ: الدَّعْوَةُ عِنْدِي اللَّيْلَةَ. فَقَالَ: سَبَقْتَنِي. قُلْتُ: نَعَمْ. فَدَعَوْتُهُمْ. فَقَالَ أَبُو هُرَيْرَةَ: أَلَا أُعْلِمُكُمْ بِحَدِيثٍ مِنْ حَدِيثِكُمْ يَا مَعْشَرَ الأَنْصَارِ؟ ثُمَّ ذَكَرَ فَتْحَ مَكَّةَ فَقَالَ: أَقْبَلَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ حَتَّىٰ قَدِمَ مَكَّةَ. فَبَعَثَ الزُّبَيْرَ عَلَىٰ إِحْدَى الْمُجَنِّبَتَيْنِ. وَبَعَثَ خَالِداً عَلَى الْمُجَنِّبَةِ الأُخْرَىٰ. وَبَعَثَ أَبَا عُبَيْدَةَ عَلَى الْحُسَّرِ، فَأَخَذُوا بَطْنَ الْوَادِي.

Abu Huraira resumed: So they gathered around him. Quraish also gathered their ruffians and their (lowly) followers, and said: "We shall send them forward. If they get anything, we shall be with them (to share it), and if they are befallen by anything, we shall pay (as remuneration) whatever we are required to pay." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said (to the Ansar): "You see the ruffians and the (lowly) followers of Quraish." He hinted by (striking) one of his hands against the other that they should be killed and then he said: "Meet me at As-Safa." Then we went on. (At that time) if anyone of us wanted that a certain person should be killed, he would be killed, with no resistance.

Abu Huraira resumed: There came Abu Sufyan and said: "O Messenger of Allah! the blood of Quraish has been made lawful (to be shed). There will be no Quraish afterwards." Then he (The Prophet) said: "Who enters the house of Abu Sufyan will be safe." Some of the Ansar whispered among themselves: "It seems that he (The Prophet) has been overpowered by his inclination to his city (of Mecca) and tenderness towards his kith and kin." Abu Huraira added: (Just at this time) The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was being Divinely revealed. However, whenever he started to be Divinely revealed, we would know that, and during the time of receiving it, none of us would dare raise his eyes towards The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" until this state of revelation was over.

When the state of revelation was over, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said (to the Ansar): "O community of Ansar!" They said: "Here we are responding to your call, O Messenger of Allah!" He said: "You said that "It seems that he (The Prophet) has been overpowered by his inclination to his city (of Mecca) and tenderness towards his kith and kin." They said: "We said so." He said: "Well. I am Allah's slave and Messenger. I migrated to Allah and to you. I will live with you and will die with you." consequently, they (the Ansar) turned to وَرَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ فِي كَتِيبَةٍ. قَالَ: فَنَظَرَ فَرَآنِي. فَقَالَ: «أَبُو هُرَيْرَةَ» قُلْتُ: لَبَّيْكَ. يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ. فَقَالَ: «لاَ يَأْتِينِي إِلاَّ أَنْصَارِيٌّ».

زَادَ غَيْرُ شَيْبَانَ: فَقَالَ: «اهْتِفْ لِي بِالأَنْصَارِ» قَالَ: فَأَطَافُوا بِهِ. وَوَبَّشَتْ قُرَيْشٌ أَوْبَاشاً لَهَا وَأَتْبَاعاً. فَقَالُوا: نُقَدِّمُ هٰؤُلاَءِ. فَإِنْ كَانَ لَهُمْ شَيْءٌ كُنَّا مَعَهُمْ. وَإِنْ أُصِيبُوا أَعْطَيْنَا الَّذِي سُئِلْنَا.

فَقَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّه ﷺ: «تَرَوْنَ إِلَىٰ أَوْبَاشِ قُرَيْشٍ وَأَتْبَاعِهِمْ» ثُمَّ قَالَ بِيَدَيْهِ، إِحْدَاهُمَا عَلَى الأُخْرَى. ثُمَّ قَالَ: «حَتَّىٰ تُوَافُونِي بِالصَّفَا» قَالَ: فَانْطَلَقْنَا، فَمَا شَاءَ أَحَدٌ مِنَّا أَنْ يَقْتُلَ أَحَداً إِلاَّ قَتَلَهُ. وَمَا أَحَدٌ مِنْهُمْ يُوَجِّهُ إِلَيْنَا شَيْئاً.

قَالَ: فَجَاءَ أَبُو سُفْيَانَ فَقَالَ: يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ، أُبِيحَتْ خَضْرَاءُ قُرَيْشٍ. لاَ قُرَيْشَ بَعْدَ الْيَوْمِ. ثُمَّ قَالَ: «مَنْ دَخَلَ دَارَ أَبِي سُفْيَانَ فَهُوَ آمِنٌ» فَقَالَتِ الأَنْصَارُ، بَعْضُهُمْ لِبَعْضٍ: أَمَّا الرَّجُلُ فَأَدْرَكَتْهُ رَغْبَةٌ فِي قَرْيَتِهِ، وَرَأْفَةٌ بِعَشِيرَتِهِ.

فَقَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ: «إِنَّ اللَّهَ وَرَسُولَهُ يُصَدِّقَانِكُمْ وَيَعْذِرَانِكُمْ» قَالَ: فَأَقْبَلَ

him in tears and they were saying: "By Allah, we said what we said because of our firm attachment to Allah and His Messenger." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "No doubt, Allah and His Messenger testify that you are true and accept your apology."

He (the narrator) further said: Some people turned to the house of Abu Sufyan and (some) people shut their doors. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" advanced until he approached the (Black) Stone. He kissed it and circumambulated Ka'ba. He reached near an idol beside Ka'ba, which was worshipped by the (unbelieving) people. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had a bow in his hand, which he was holding from its crooked end. When he approached the idol, he started piercing its eyes (with the bow) while he was saying: "Truth has come and falsehood has perished." When he finished the circumambulation, he came to Safa, which he ascended to a height from where he could see Ka'ba. Then, he raised his hands and started praising Allah and supplicating what he wanted to supplicate.

85-(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Sulaiman Ibn Al-Mughira, with the same chain of transmitters, according to which he added: He (The Prophet) hinted (by striking) one of his hands against the other: "Kill them entirely." He also added: They (the Ansar) said: "We said so, O Messenger of Allah." Upon this he said: "Then, what is (the significance of) my name (as a Prophet, whose name is derived from the praise)? Nay! I'm Allah's slave and Messenger."

86-(...) Abdullah Ibn Rabah narrated: We came in delegates to Mu'awiya Ibn Abu Sufyan, and Abu Huraira was among us. Everyday, one of us used to prepare food for his companions. It was my turn when I said to Abu Huraira: "O Abu Huraira! It is my turn (to prepare meals for you, so come to have food with me)." They (my companions) came to the house, but the food had not been ready yet. I said: "O Abu Huraira! It'd be better to narrate to us about The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" till our food is ready."

Abu Huraira narrated: On the day of the Conquest (of Mecca), we were with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", who made Khalid (Ibn Al-Walid) (as the leader of the force) on the right wing, and Az-Zubair (as the leader of the force) on the left wing, and appointed Abu Ubaida as the leader of the force (which had to proceed towards) the interior of the valley. He said to me: "O Abu Huraira! Call the

He (the narrator) said: On that day, no one (from the infidels of Quraish) appeared to them but that they (killed him and) caused him to fall down. Then, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came up (the mountain of) As-Safa. The Ansar came and stood by the side of As-Safa. Abu Sufyan came and said: "O Messenger of Allah! The (sanctity of) Quraish has been destroyed, and there will be no Quraish afterwards." Upon this The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Whoever enters the house of Abu Sufyan is safe, whoever lays down the arms is safe, and whoever (enters his house and) close the door is safe." The Ansar said: "As for him (The Prophet), he has been overtaken by his tenderness towards his clan, and his inclination to his city (of Mecca)." Then, the revelation was sent down upon The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", who said (to the Ansar): "You said (among yourselves): "As for him (The Prophet), he has been overtaken by his tenderness towards his clan, and his inclination to his city (of Mecca)." Then, what is (the significance of) my name (as a prophet whose name is derived from the praise)?" He said it thrice. "I am Allah's slave and Messenger. I migrated to Allah and to you. I will live with you and will die with you." They (the Ansar) said: "By Allah, we said what we said only because of our eager attachment to Allah and His Messenger." He said: "No doubt, Allah and His Messenger testify that you are true, and accept your apology."

[32] Removing the idols from around Ka'ba

87-(1781) Abdullah "Allah be pleased with him" reported: When The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" entered Mecca, there were three hundred and sixty idols around the Ka'ba. The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" started striking them with a stick he had in his hand and was saying: "And say: truth has (now) arrived, and falsehood perished: for falsehood is (by its nature) bound to perish." (The Night Journey "Al-Isra " 81) and: "Say: The Truth has arrived, and Falsehood neither creates anything new, nor restores anything." (Saba (Sheba) 49). Ibn Abu Umar added in his narration: On the day of the Conquest.

فَقَالَ: «يَا أَبَا هُرَيْرَةَ، ادْعُ لِي الأَنْصَارَ» فَدَعَوْتُهُمْ. فَجَاؤُوا يُهَرْوِلُونَ. فَقَالَ: «يَا مَعْشَرَ الأَنْصَارِ، هَلْ تَرَوْنَ أَوْبَاشَ قُرَيْشٍ؟» قَالُوا: نَعَمْ. قَالَ: «انْظُرُوا. إِذَا لَقِيتُمُوهُمْ غَداً أَنْ تَحْصِدُوهُمْ حَصْداً» وَأَخْفَىٰ بِيَدِه. وَوَضَعَ يَمِينَهُ عَلَىٰ شِمَالِه. وَقَالَ: «مَوْعِدُكُمُ الصَّفَا» قَالَ: فَمَا أَشْرَفَ يَوْمَئِذٍ لَهُمْ أَحَدٌ إِلاَّ أَنَامُوهُ. قَالَ: وَصَعِدَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ الصَّفَا. وَجَاءَتِ الأَنْصَارُ. فَأَطَافُوا بِالصَّفَا. فَجَاءَ أَبُو سُفْيَانَ فَقَالَ: يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ، أُبِيدَتْ خَضْرَاءُ قُرَيْشٍ. لاَ قُرَيْشَ بَعْدَ الْيَوْمِ. قَالَ أَبُو سُفْيَانَ: قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ: «مَنْ دَخَلَ دَارَ أَبِي سُفْيَانَ فَهُوَ آمِنٌ، وَمَنْ أَلْقَى السِّلاَحَ فَهُوَ آمِنٌ، وَمَنْ أَغْلَقَ بَابَهُ فَهُوَ آمِنٌ» فَقَالَتِ الأَنْصَارُ: أَمَّا الرَّجُلُ فَقَدْ أَخَذَتْهُ رَأْفَةٌ بِعَشِيرَتِهِ. وَرَغْبَةٌ فِي قَرْيَتِهِ. وَنَزَلَ الْوَحْيُ عَلَىٰ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ ﷺ. قَالَ: «قُلْتُمْ: أَمَّا الرَّجُلُ فَقَدْ أَخَذَتْهُ رَأْفَةٌ بِعَشِيرَتِه، وَرَغْبَةٌ فِي قَرْيَتِه. أَلاَ فَمَا اسْمِى إِذاً! ـ ثَلاَثَ مَرَّاتٍ ـ أَنَا مُحَمَّدٌ عَبْدُ اللَّهِ وَرَسُولُهُ. هَاجَرْتُ إِلَى اللَّهِ وَإِلَيْكُمْ، فَالْمَحْيَا مَحْيَاكُمْ وَالْمَمَاتُ مَمَاتُكُمْ». قَالُوا: وَاللَّهِ، مَا قُلْنَا إِلاَّ ضِنًّا بِاللَّهِ وَرَسُولِهِ. قَالَ: «فَإِنَّ اللَّهَ وَرَسُولَهُ يُصَدِّقَانِكُمْ وَيَعْذِرَانِكُمْ».

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Ibn Abu Najih up to (Allah's saying): "for falsehood is (by its nature) bound to perish." He did not mention the other holy Verse.

[33] No Quraishi person would be killed as bound hand and foot after the Conquest (of Mecca)

88-(1782) Abdullah Ibn Muti narrated from his father: I heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying on the day of the Conquest (of Mecca): "No Quraishi person would be killed as bound hand and foot (i.e. as unbelievers because all of them would embrace Islam and would not renegade to apostasy as some others would do) from this day onto the Day of Judgement."

89-(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Zakariyya, with the same chain of transmitters, but with the following addition: At this time (when The Prophet said what he had said), no one from Quraish (whose names were) Asi (Disobedient) had embraced Islam except Muti (the narrator of the Hadith), whose name was (before Islam) Asi (Disobedient), but The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" changed his name to Muti (Obedient, after embracing Islam).

[34] The treaty of Al-Hudaibiya

90-(1883) Abu Ishaq narrated: I heard Al-Bara Ibn Azib saying: Ali Ibn Abu Talib wrote the (document of the) treaty between The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and the infidels, on the day of Al-Hudaibiya. He wrote: "This is (the treaty) on which Muhammad, The Messenger of Allah..." they (the infidels) said: "Do nod write "The Messenger of Allah", for if we know that you are The Messenger of Allah, we will never fight against you." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to Ali: "Erase that (phrase)." Ali said: "I'm not to erase it." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" erased it with his own hand. He (the narrator) added: From among the terms (of the treaty) they put the condition that they (the Muslims) should enter Mecca (for Umra in the coming year), where they would stay for only three (days), and that they should not enter but with their sheaths of swords.

91-(...) Abu Ishaq narrated: I heard Al-Bara Ibn Azib saying: When The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" made a treaty with those (infidels) of Al-Hudaibiya, Ali wrote a document between them. He wrote: "From Muhammad, The Messenger of Allah..."and the rest is the same, without mentioning: "This is (the treaty) on which".

Al-Bara "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: When The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was prevented (to enter) the House, those (infidels) of Mecca concluded a peace treaty with him according to which he would enter Mecca and stay there for three days only (in the coming year), that he should not enter but with the sheaths containing the swords, that he should not get out accompanying anyone of its people, and that he should not prevent anyone of those who were with him to stay in it. He said to Ali: "Write the (document of) conditions between us: "In the Name of Allah, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful. This is the peace treaty, which Muhammad, The Messenger of Allah, concluded." The unbelievers (of Quraish) said (to The Prophet): "If we know that you are The Messenger of Allah, we surely would follow you, but write: "Muhammad, the son of Abdullah." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered Ali to erase that (phrase of "The Messenger of Allah)." Ali said: "No, by Allah, I am not to erase it." Then The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to him: "Show me its location." He (Ali) showed him its place, where he erased it and wrote: "The son of Abdullah".

(In the following year The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" entered Mecca and) he stayed there three days. When it was the third day, they (the infidels of Mecca) said to Ali: "This is the last day (of stay) according to the treaty of your companion. So, tell him to go out." When he (Ali) told him of that, he (The Prophet) said: "Yes." Then, he went out.

They agreed with The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" on the condition that "If anyone of you (Muslims) came to us (in Mecca), we would not return him to you, but if anyone of us (the infidels) came to you (in Medina), you should return him to us." They (the Muslims) said: "O Messenger of Allah! Should we write that?" he said: "Yes, for whoever among us went to them, then, might Allah keep him away, and whoever among them came to us (and we returned him), then, might Allah relieve him and make for him a way of exit."

94-(1785) Abu Wa'il narrated: Sahl Ibn Hunaif got up on the day of (the battle of) Siffin and said: "O people! Blame yourselves! We were with The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" on the day of Al-Hudaibiya. If we had been called to fight, we would have fought. That was in the (year of the) peace treaty made between The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and the infidels (of Quraish). Umar Ibn Al-Khattab came to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "O Allah's Apostle! Aren't we on the right and our opponents on the wrong?" The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Yes." Umar said: "Aren't our killed persons in Paradise and theirs in Hell?" He said: "Yes." Umar said: "Then why should we accept hard terms in matters regarding our religion? Shall we return before Allah judges between us and them?" The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "O Ibn Al-Khattab! I am the Apostle of Allah and Allah will never degrade me."

Then Umar returned angrily; and he could not keep patient until he met Abu Bakr and said to him: "O Abu Bakr! Aren't we on the right and our opponents on the wrong?" he said: "Yes." Umar said: "Aren't our killed persons in Paradise and theirs in Hell?" He said: "Yes." Umar said: "Then why should we accept hard terms in matters regarding our religion? Shall we return before Allah judges between us and them?" On that Abu Bakr said (to him): "O Ibn Al-Khattab! He is the Apostle of Allah and Allah will never degrade him." Then The Sura of The Victory "Al-Fath" was sent down to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", who sent to Umar and made him recite it. Umar said to him: "Is that (peace treaty of Al-Hudaibiya) regarded as a victory?" he (The Prophet) replied in the affirmative. On that he (Umar) became pleased and then returned.

(ح) وَحَدَّثَنَا ابْنُ نُمَيْرٍ ـ وَتَقَارَبَا فِي اللَّفْظِ ـ: حَدَّثَنَا أَبِي: حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ الْعَزِيزِ بْنُ سِيَاهٍ: حَدَّثَنَا حَبِيبُ بْنُ أَبِي ثَابِتٍ، عَنْ أَبِي وَائِلٍ. قَالَ: قَامَ سَهْلُ بْنُ حُنَيْفٍ يَوْمَ صِفِّينَ فَقَالَ: أَيُّهَا النَّاسُ، اتَّهِمُوا أَنْفُسَكُمْ. لَقَدْ كُنَّا مَعَ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ ﷺ يَوْمَ الْحُدَيْبِيَةِ. وَلَوْ نَرَىٰ قِتَالاً لَقَاتَلْنَا. وَذٰلِكَ فِي الصُّلْحِ الَّذِي كَانَ بَيْنَ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ ﷺ وَبَيْنَ الْمُشْرِكِينَ.

فَجَاءَ عُمَرُ بْنُ الْخَطَّابِ. فَأَتَىٰ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ﷺ فَقَالَ: يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ، أَلَسْنَا عَلَىٰ حَقٍّ وَهُمْ عَلَىٰ بَاطِلٍ؟ قَالَ: «بَلَىٰ» قَالَ: أَلَيْسَ قَتْلاَنَا فِي الْجَنَّةِ وَقَتْلاَهُمْ فِي النَّارِ؟ قَالَ: «بَلَىٰ» قَالَ: فَفِيمَ نُعْطِي الدَّنِيَّةَ فِي دِينِنَا، وَنَرْجِعُ وَلَمَّا يَحْكُمِ اللَّهُ بَيْنَنَا وَبَيْنَهُمْ؟ فَقَالَ: «يَا ابْنَ الْخَطَّابِ، إِنِّي رَسُولُ اللَّهِ. وَلَنْ يُضَيِّعَنِي اللَّهُ أَبَداً».

قَالَ: فَانْطَلَقَ عُمَرُ فَلَمْ يَصْبِرْ مُتَغَيِّظاً، فَأَتَىٰ أَبَا بَكْرٍ فَقَالَ: يَا أَبَا بَكْرٍ، أَلَسْنَا عَلَىٰ حَقٍّ وَهُمْ عَلَى بَاطِلٍ؟ قَالَ: بَلَىٰ. قَالَ: أَلَيْسَ قَتْلاَنَا فِي الْجَنَّةِ وَقَتْلاَهُمْ فِي النَّارِ؟ قَالَ: بَلَىٰ. قَالَ: فَعَلاَمَ نُعْطِي الدَّنِيَّةَ فِي دِينِنَا، وَنَرْجِعُ وَلَمَّا يَحْكُمِ اللَّهُ بَيْنَنَا وَبَيْنَهُمْ؟ فَقَالَ: يَا ابْنَ الْخَطَّابِ، إِنَّهُ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ وَلَنْ يُضَيِّعَهُ اللَّهُ أَبَداً. قَالَ: فَنَزَلَ الْقُرْآنُ عَلَىٰ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ ﷺ بِالْفَتْحِ. فَأَرْسَلَ إِلَىٰ عُمَرَ فَأَقْرَأَهُ إِيَّاهُ. فَقَالَ: يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ، أَوَفَتْحٌ هُوَ؟ قَالَ: «نَعَمْ» فَطَابَتْ نَفْسُهُ وَرَجَعَ.

me a coward). I saw myself on the day of Abu Jandal (tending to fight), and if I had the power of refusing the order of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" then, I would have refused it (in order to fight the pagans bravely). By Allah! Whenever we put our swords on our shoulders for any matter whatever difficult it might be, they would make easy for us to achieve the goal we expected except the present situation (of Siffin in view of disagreement and dispute between Muslims)."

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Al-A'mash, with the same chain of transmitters, in which he mentioned (in any matter which terrified us."

96-(...) Abu Wa'il narrated: I heard Sahl Ibn Hunaif saying on the day of (the battle of) Siffin: "O People! Blame your opinions as regards your religion. I saw myself on the day of Abu Jandal (tending to fight), and if I had been able to revert the order of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (I would have done). But, (this situation of yours was so difficult that) when we mended it at one side, it was rent at another."

97-(1786) Quatada narrated that Anas Ibn Malik "Allah be pleased with him" told them: When it was revealed: "Verily We have granted thee a manifest Victory: That Allah may forgive thee thy faults of the past and those to follow; fulfill His favour to thee; and guide thee on the Straight Way; And that Allah may help thee with powerful help. It is He Who sent down Tranquility into the hearts of the Believers, that they may add Faith to their Faith; for to Allah belong the Forces of the heavens and the earth; and Allah is full of Knowledge and Wisdom; That He may admit the men and women who believe, to Gardens beneath which rivers flow, to dwell therein for aye, and remove their ills from them; and that is, in the sight of Allah, the highest achievement (for man)" (Al-Fath 1:5) at the time of his (The Prophet's) return from Al-Hudaibiya, while the companions were overwhelmed by grief and distress, for he had slaughtered the sacrificial animals at Al-Hudaibiya (and they had been prevented to reach Mecca), he (The Prophet) said: "There has been sent down to me a (holy) Verse, which is dearer to me than the whole world."

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Quatada from Anas, through another chain of transmitters.

[35] Sticking to the covenant

98-(1787) Hudhaifa Ibn Al-Yaman "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: Nothing prevented me from taking part in the holy Battle of Badr except that when I came out with my father Husail we were caught by the unbelievers of Quraish, who said: "Do you want to go to Muhammad?" We said: "We do not want to go to him, but we wish to go to Medina." They took from us a covenant in the name of God that we would go back to Medina and would not fight beside Muhammad "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". So, we came to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and narrated that to him. He said: "You should proceed (to Medina) . We will fulfill the covenant (you) made with them and seek for the help of Allah against them."

[36] The holy battle of the Confederates

99-(1788) Ibrahim At-Taimi narrated from his father: While we were with Hudhaifa, a man said: "Had I joined (the time of) The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", I would have fought on his side, and done my best (in order to support him)." On that Hudhaifa said: "Would you do that? No doubt, I saw us when we were with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" on the night of the (holy battle of the) Confederates, and we were overtaken by strong wind and severe cold. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Is there anyone to (go in order to reconnoiter and) bring me the news of the people (of the enemy), might Allah make him with me on the Day of Judgement?" we kept silent, and none of us replied to him. He said: "Is there anyone to (go in order to reconnoiter and) bring me the news of the people (of the enemy), might Allah make him with me on the Day of Judgement?" we kept silent, and none of us replied to him. He said (for the third time): "Is there anyone to (go in order to reconnoiter and) bring me the news of the people (of the enemy), might Allah make him with me on the Day of Judgement?" we kept silent, and none of us replied to him.

Then, he said: "Stand up, O Hudhaifa and (go and detect the enemy and) bring us the news of the people." I could find no flee since he called me by my name. He said: "Go and bring me the news of the people, and do not prompt them against us." When I turned back from him, (I felt warm) as if I was walking in a heated bath. (When I reached the enemy) I found Abu Sufyan warming his back against fire. I put an arrow in the middle of the bow and intended to shoot him, but I mentioned the saying of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him": "Do not prompt them against us", though if I had thrown him (with the arrow), فَقُلْنَا: مَا نُرِيدُهُ. مَا نُرِيدُ إِلاَّ الْمَدِينَةَ، فَأَخَذُوا مِنَّا عَهْدَ اللَّهِ وَمِيثَاقَهُ لَنَنْصَرِفَنَّ إِلَى الْمَدِينَةِ وَلاَ نُقَاتِلُ مَعَهُ، فَأَتَيْنَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ﷺ فَأَخْبَرْنَاهُ الْخَبَرَ. فَقَالَ: «انْصَرِفَا. نَفِي لَهُمْ بِعَهْدِهِمْ، وَنَسْتَعِينُ اللَّهَ عَلَيْهِمْ».

٣٦ ـ باب غَزْوَةِ الأَحْزَابِ

٩٩ ـ (١٧٨٨) ـ حدّثنا زُهَيْرُ بْنُ حَرْبٍ وَإِسْحَاقُ بْنُ إِبْرَاهِيمَ. جَمِيعاً عَنْ جَرِيرٍ. قَالَ زُهَيْرٌ: حَدَّثَنَا جَرِيرٌ، عَنِ الأَعْمَشِ، عَنْ إِبْرَاهِيمَ التَّيْمِيِّ، عَنْ أَبِيهِ، قَالَ: كُنَّا عِنْدَ حُذَيْفَةَ. فَقَالَ رَجُلٌ: لَوْ أَدْرَكْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ﷺ قَاتَلْتُ مَعَهُ وَأَبْلَيْتُ. فَقَالَ حُذَيْفَةُ: أَنْتَ كُنْتَ تَفْعَلُ ذٰلِكَ؟ لَقَدْ رَأَيْتُنَا مَعَ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ ﷺ لَيْلَةَ الأَحْزَابِ. وَأَخَذَتْنَا رِيحٌ شَدِيدَةٌ وَقُرٌّ.

فَقَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ: «أَلاَ رَجُلٌ يَأْتِينِي بِخَبَرِ الْقَوْمِ، جَعَلَهُ اللَّهُ مَعِي يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ؟» فَسَكَتْنَا. فَلَمْ يُجِبْهُ مِنَّا أَحَدٌ. ثُمَّ قَالَ: «أَلاَ رَجُلٌ يَأْتِينَا بِخَبَرِ الْقَوْمِ، جَعَلَهُ اللَّهُ مَعِي يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ؟» فَسَكَتْنَا. فَلَمْ يُجِبْهُ مِنَّا أَحَدٌ. ثُمَّ قَالَ: «أَلاَ رَجُلٌ يَأْتِينَا بِخَبَرِ الْقَوْمِ، جَعَلَهُ اللَّهُ مَعِي يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ؟» فَسَكَتْنَا. فَلَمْ يُجِبْهُ مِنَّا أَحَدٌ. فَقَالَ: «قُمْ. يَا حُذَيْفَةُ، فَأْتِنَا بِخَبَرِ الْقَوْمِ» فَلَمْ أَجِدْ بُدًّا، إِذْ دَعَانِي بِاسْمِي، أَنْ أَقُومَ. قَالَ: «اذْهَبْ، فَأْتِنِي بِخَبَرِ الْقَوْمِ. وَلاَ تَذْعَرْهُمْ عَلَيَّ» فَلَمَّا وَلَّيْتُ مِنْ عِنْدِهِ جَعَلْتُ كَأَنَّمَا أَمْشِي فِي حَمَّامٍ. حَتَّىٰ أَتَيْتُهُمْ. فَرَأَيْتُ أَبَا سُفْيَانَ يَصْلِي ظَهْرَهُ بِالنَّارِ. فَوَضَعْتُ سَهْماً فِي كَبِدِ الْقَوْسِ. فَأَرَدْتُ أَنْ أَرْمِيَهُ.

فَذَكَرْتُ قَوْلَ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ ﷺ: «وَلاَ تَذْعَرْهُمْ عَلَيَّ» وَلَوْ رَمَيْتُهُ لأَصَبْتُهُ. فَرَجَعْتُ

surely, I would have killed him. I returned walking (and I felt warm as if I was walking) in a heated bath. When I came and related to him (The Prophet) the news of the people, I felt cold once again. So, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" wrapped me in a surplus mantle, which was on him, while he was praying. I (slept and) kept asleep until it was morning, when he (The Prophet) said to me: "Get up, O sleeping so much."

[37] The holy battle of Uhud

100-(1789) Anas "Allah be pleased with him" narrated that during the holy battle of Uhud, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was surrounded (by the unbelievers) among seven of his companions from the Ansar and two from Quraish. When they (the unbelievers) overwhelmed him, he said: "Who would keep them away from us, and he would be admitted in Paradise (or he would be my companion in the Paradise)?" a man from the Ansar advanced and fought them until he was killed. When they (the unbelievers) overwhelmed him once again, he said: "Who would keep them away from us, and he would be admitted in Paradise (or he would be my companion in the Paradise)?" a man from the Ansar advanced and fought them until he was killed. It remained as such until all the seven (Ansari men) were killed. On that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "No doubt, we have not been just to our companions (since we let them fight until they were killed without participating with them)."

101-(1790) Abu Hazim narrated that Sahl Ibn Sa'd had been asked about the injuries of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". He said: His face was wounded, his canine tooth got broken, and the helmet was broken on his head. Fatima, the daughter of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" washed the injuries, and Ali Ibn Abu Talib poured water from a shield. When Fatima saw that the water did but aggravated the bleeding, she took a piece of a mat, which she burnt, and inserted its ashes into the wound. In this way, the blood was congealed (with the result that bleeding stopped).

102-(...) Abu Hazim narrated that Sahl Ibn Sa'd had been asked about the injuries of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". He said: "By Allah, I know who washed the injuries of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and who poured water (for washing them), as well as I know with what he was treated...and the rest is the same.

وَأَنَا أَمْشِي فِي مِثْلِ الْحَمَّامِ، فَلَمَّا أَتَيْتُهُ فَأَخْبَرْتُهُ بِخَبَرِ الْقَوْمِ، وَفَرَغْتُ، قُرِرْتُ. فَأَلْبَسَنِي رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ مِنْ فَضْلِ عَبَاءَةٍ كَانَتْ عَلَيْهِ يُصَلِّي فِيهَا. فَلَمْ أَزَلْ نَائِماً حَتَّىٰ أَصْبَحْتُ. فَلَمَّا أَصْبَحْتُ قَالَ: «قُمْ، يَا نَوْمَانُ».

٣٧ ـ باب غَزْوَة أُحُد

١٠٠ ـ (١٧٨٩) ـ وحدّثنا هَدَّابُ بْنُ خَالِدٍ الأَزْدِيُّ: حَدَّثَنَا حَمَّادُ بْنُ سَلَمَةَ، عَنْ عَلِيِّ بْنِ زَيْدٍ وَثَابِتٍ الْبُنَانِيِّ، عَنْ أَنَسِ بْنِ مَالِكٍ؛ أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ﷺ أُفْرِدَ يَوْمَ أُحُدٍ فِي سَبْعَةٍ مِنَ الأَنْصَارِ وَرَجُلَيْنِ مِنْ قُرَيْشٍ، فَلَمَّا رَهِقُوهُ قَالَ: «مَنْ يَرُدُّهُمْ عَنَّا وَلَهُ الْجَنَّةُ، أَوْ هُوَ رَفِيقِي فِي الْجَنَّةِ؟» فَتَقَدَّمَ رَجُلٌ مِنَ الأَنْصَارِ، فَقَاتَلَ حَتَّىٰ قُتِلَ. ثُمَّ رَهِقُوهُ أَيْضاً. فَقَالَ: «مَنْ يَرُدُّهُمْ عَنَّا وَلَهُ الْجَنَّةُ، أَوْ هُوَ رَفِيقِي فِي الْجَنَّةِ؟» فَتَقَدَّمَ رَجُلٌ مِنَ الأَنْصَارِ، فَقَاتَلَ حَتَّىٰ قُتِلَ. فَلَمْ يَزَلْ كَذٰلِكَ حَتَّى قُتِلَ السَّبْعَةُ. فَقَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ لِصَاحِبَيْهِ: «مَا أَنْصَفْنَا أَصْحَابَنَا».

103-(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Abu Hazim from Sahl Ibn Sa'd, through another chain of transmitters, and with a slight variation of words.

104-(1791) Anas "Allah be pleased with him" narrated that on the day of (the holy battle of) Uhud, the canine tooth of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was broken, and he was wounded in his head. He started wiping the blood off him saying: "How could a people be prosperous since they wounded their Prophet, broke his canine tooth while he was calling them to (believe in) Allah?" on that Allah sent down: "Not for thee, (but for Allah), is the decision: whether he turns in mercy to them, or punishes them; for they are indeed wrongdoers." (Al Imran 128)

105-(1792) Abdullah "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: As if I was seeing The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" like a Prophet from among the Prophets, whose people had hit him, while he was wiping the blood off his face and saying: "O my Lord! Forgive for my nation for they know nothing."

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Al-A'mash, with the same chain of transmitters, but here he mentioned: "While he was removing the blood from his forehead."

[38] The severe anger of Allah with those (unbelievers) killed by The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him".

106-(1793) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (pointing to his broken canine tooth) said: "Allah's Wrath has become severe on the people who harm their Prophet. Allah's Wrath has become severe on the man who is killed by the Apostle of Allah in Allah's Cause."

[39] The hurt received by The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" from the unbelievers and the hypocrites

107-(1794) Abdullah Ibn Mas'ud "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: Once The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was offering prayer near the House. Abu Jahl (Father of Ignorance) was sitting with some of his companions. At the same time, there was (the abdominal contents of) a camel, which was slaughtered a day earlier. Abu Jahl said to the others: "Who amongst you will bring the abdominal contents (intestines, etc.) Of a camel of Banu (sons of) so and so and put it on the shoulders of Muhammad, when he prostrates?" The most unfortunate of them got up and brought it, and when The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" prostrated he placed it between his shoulders. Then, they started laughing and falling on one another.

I was standing and watching but could do nothing. Had I had some people to protect me, I would have lifted it from the back of The Messenger of Allah “Allah's blessing and peace be upon him”. Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was in prostration and he did not lift his head until somebody went and told Fatima (The Prophet's daughter) who came, and she was still a young girl, and threw that (camel's Abdominal contents) away from his back. Then, she went to them and insulted them. When The Prophet “Allah's blessing and peace be upon him” finished his prayer, he raised his voice and invoked evil against them. However, it was his habit that if he invoked for something, he would invoke thrice, and if he asked for something, he would ask thrice.

He said thrice: "O Allah! Punish Quraish." When they heard his voice (invoking evil against them), they stopped laughing, and were frightened of his invocation (against them, in view of the fact that they had a conviction that the prayers and invocations were accepted in this town of Mecca). He (The Prophet)said: "O Allah! Punish Abu Jahl, Utba Ibn Rabie'a, Shaiba Ibn Rabie'a, Al-Walid Ibn Utba, Umaiyya Ibn Khalaf, and Uqba Ibn Abu Mu'ait." He mentioned the seventh whose name I cannot recall. By Him, Who has sent Muhammad with the truth, I saw all of those persons who were counted by him (Allah's Apostle) dead on the day of (the holy battle of) Badr, and then they were dragged into the Qalib (one of the wells) of Badr.

108-(...) Abdullah “Allah be pleased with him” narrated: While The Messenger of Allah “Allah's blessing and peace be upon him” was prostrating (as he was performing prayer near Ka'ba), there were some people from Quraish (sitting in a gathering) around him. Then, Uqba Ibn Abu Mu'ait (got up and) brought the abdominal contents of a (slaughtered) camel, which he threw over the back of The Messenger of Allah “Allah's blessing and peace be upon him”, who did not raise his head. Then Fatima (The Prophet's daughter) came and threw them away from him, and she invoked evil against the one who did so. He (The Prophet) said: "O Allah! Destroy (the pagans of) Quraish: Abu Jahl Ibn Hisham, Utba Ibn Rabie'a,

He (Abdullah) added: "I saw them all killed on the day of (the holy battle of) Badr, and they were thrown in the well, except Umaiyya (or Ubai) whose limbs were cut off, and he was not thrown in the well.

109-(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Abu Ishaq, with the same chain of transmitters, in which he added: He (The Prophet) liked to (invoke) thrice, saying: "O Allah! Destroy (the pagans of) Quraish! O Allah! Destroy (the pagans of) Quraish! O Allah! Destroy (the pagans of) Quraish!" he invoked thrice. In this narration, Al-Walid Ibn Utba was mentioned among them, and a mention also was made of Umaiyya Ibn Khalaf, without any doubt. Abu Ishaq said: I forgot the seventh.

Abdullah "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" received the House and invoked evil against six (pagans) of Quraish, including Abu Jahl, Utba Ibn Rabie'a, Shaiba Ibn Rabie'a, Umaiyya Ibn Khalaf, and Uqba Ibn Abu Mu'ait. I swear by Allah that I saw all of them dead on the day of (the holy battle of) Badr, and the sun changed their complexion; and it was a very hot day.

The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" replied: "Your tribe troubled me a lot, and the worst trouble was that on the day of Aqaba when I presented myself to Ibn Abd Yalil Ibn Abd Kulal and he did not respond to my demand. So I departed, overwhelmed with excessive sorrow, and proceeded on, and could not be conscious till I found myself at Qarn Ath-Tha'alib where I lifted my head towards the sky to see a cloud shading me unexpectedly. I looked up and saw Gabriel in it. He called me saying: "Allah has heard your people's saying to you, and what they have replied back to you. Allah has sent the Angel of the Mountains to you so that you may order him to do whatever you wish to these people." The Angel of the Mountains called and greeted me, and then said: "O Muhammad! containing people of different religions: there were Muslims, pagans, idol-worshippers and Jews, including Abdullah Ibn Ubai, and in that gathering Abdullah Ibn Rawaha was also present. When a cloud of dust raised by the donkey reached that gathering, Abdullah Ibn Ubai covered his nose with his garment and then said: "Do not cover us with dust." Then Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" greeted them, stopped, dismounted, and invited them to (believe in) Allah (To embrace Islam) and recited to them the Holy Qur'an. On that, Abdullah Ibn Ubai said: "O man! There is nothing better than that, which you say. If it is the truth, then do not trouble us with it in our gatherings. Return to your mount and if somebody comes to you, relate (your tales) to him." On that Abdullah Ibn Rawaha said: "Well! Bring it (What you want to say) to us in our gathering, for we love that."

So the Muslims, the pagans and the Jews started abusing one another till they were on the point of fighting with one another. The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" kept on quietening them till they became calm, whereupon The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" rode his mount and proceeded till he entered upon Sa'd Ibn Ubada. The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to Sa'd: "O Sa'd! Did not you hear what Abu Hubab said?" He meant Abdullah Ibn Ubai. "He said so-and-so." On that Sa'd Ibn Ubada said: "O Allah's Apostle! Excuse and forgive him, for by Allah, Allah gave you the truth with which He sent you at the time when the people of this town (Medina) had decided unanimously to crown him and tie a turban on his head (as chief). But when Allah opposed that (decision) through the Truth that Allah gave to you, he (Abdullah Ibn Ubai) was grieved with jealousy. That caused him to do what you have seen." So Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" excused him.

(…) The same was narrated on the authority of Ibn Shihab, with the same chain of transmitters, and added here: "And that was before Abdullah (Ibn Ubai) embraced Islam."

117-(1799) Anas "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: It was said to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him": "Would that you see Abdullah Ibn Ubai." So, The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" went to him, riding a donkey, with the Muslims accompanying him, walking on salty barren land. When The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" reached Abdullah Ibn Ubai, the latter said: "Keep away

On that a man from Abdullah's tribe got angry for Abdullah's sake, and the two men abused each other which caused the companions of the two men to get angry. The two groups started fighting with sticks, shoes and hands. We were informed that the following Divine Verse was revealed (on this occasion): "If two parties among the Believers fall into a quarrel, make ye peace between them: but if one of them transgresses beyond bounds against the other, then fight ye (all) against the one that transgresses until it complies with the command of Allah; but if it complies, then make peace between them with justice, and be fair: for Allah loves those who are fair (and just)." Ibn Mas'ud went and found that the two sons of Afra had struck him to death (and he was in his last breaths). Abdullah Ibn Mas'ud took hold of him by the beard and said: "Are you Abu Jahl?" Abu Jahl said: "Can there be a man superior to one whom you have killed or one whom his own folk have killed?" Abu Mijlaz added: Abu Jahl said: "But, if somebody other than farmers killed me (it would be dearer to me)."

Ka'b said: "Yes, (I will), but what should you mortgage to me?"

Muhammad Ibn Maslama said: "What do you want?" Ka'b replied: "Mortgage your women to me." He said: "How can we mortgage our women to you and you are the most generous of the Arabs?" Ka'b said: "Then mortgage your sons to me." He said: "How can we mortgage our sons to you? Later they would be abused by the people's saying that so-and-so was mortgaged for one or two Wasaqs of dates (and that would cause us great disgrace). But we will mortgage our arms to you." He said: "Well (it is alright)." He (Muhammad Ibn Maslama) promised Ka'b that Muhammad would return to him, in the company of Al-Harith, Abu Abs Ibn Jabr and Abbad Ibn Bishr.

Then, they came to him, and invited him and he came down to them at night. His wife said: "I hear a voice as if blood is dropping from it." Ka'b said: "They are none but Muhammad Ibn Maslama and his foster brother and Abu Na'ila. A generous man should respond to a call at night even if he was invited to be killed." Muhammad Ibn Maslama said to his companions: "When he (Ka'b) comes, I will stretch my hand to his head, and when I get a strong hold of his head, then, get at him." Ka'b Ibn Al-Ashraf came down to them wrapped in his clothes (and diffusing perfume). They said: "We detect the smell of perfume on you." Ka'b replied: "I have got so-and-so, the best Arab woman who know how to use the high class of perfume." He (Muhammad Ibn Maslama) requested Ka'b: "Will you allow me to smell your head?" Ka'b said: "Yes, you might smell." Muhammad smelt it. Then he requested Ka'b again: "Will you allow me (to smell your head once again)?" Ka'b said: "Yes." When Muhammad got a strong hold of him, he said (to his companions): "Get at him!" So they killed him.

While we were proceeding at night, a man from the group said to Amir Ibn Al-Akwa: "O Amir! Won't you let us hear your poetry?" Amir was a poet, so he got down and started reciting for the people poetry that kept pace with the camels' footsteps, saying: "O Allah! Without you we would not have been guided on the right path, nor would we have given in charity, nor would we have prayed. So please forgive us, what we have committed (Our flaws); let all of us Be sacrificed for Your Cause; make our feet firm When we meet our enemy, And send calmness Upon us; and If they call us towards An unjust thing, We will refuse. The infidels have made a hue and Cry to ask others help against us."

The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" asked: "Who is that (camel) driver (reciting poetry)?" The people said: "He is Amir Ibn Al-Akwa." Then The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "May Allah bestow His Mercy on him." A man amongst the people said: "O Allah's Prophet! It (martyrdom) has been affirmed to him. Would that you let us enjoy his company longer!" Then we reached and besieged Khaibar till we were afflicted with severe hunger. Then he (The Prophet) said: "No doubt, Allah enabled you to conquer it (Khaibar)." In the evening of the day of the conquest of the city, the Muslims made huge fires. The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "What are these fires? For what (kind of) cooking are you making the fire?" The people replied: "Meat." He asked: "What kind of meat?" They said: "The meat of donkeys." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Throw away the meat and break the pots." A man said: "O Allah's Apostle! Shall we throw away the meat and wash the pots instead?" He said: "(Yes, you can do) that too."

When the army rows lined up for the clash, Amir's sword was short. When he aimed at the leg of a Jew to strike it, the sharp blade of the sword returned to him and injured his own knee, which caused him to die. When they returned from the battle of Khaibar (Salama, the narrator, was catching hold of my hand), and Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saw me silent, he said: "What is troubling you?" I replied: "Let my father and mother be sacrificed for you! The people say that the deeds of Amir are lost." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Who said so?" I said: "So-and-so, so-and-so, and Usaid Ibn Hudair Al-Ansari." Upon this he said: "Whoever says so, is mistaken, for Amir has got a double reward." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" raised his two fingers and added: "He (Amir) was a persistent struggler in the Cause of Allah; and there is only a few Arabs who did (such good deeds) as he (Amir) had done."

124-(...) Salama Ibn Al-Akwa "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: When it was the day of (the holy battle of) Khaibar, my brother Amir fought fiercely beside The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" before (the sharp blade of) his sword returned to him and then killed him. Upon this the companions of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" spoke about his death, and doubted (whether it was martyrdom, saying): "A man killed by his weapon." In this way, they had doubt in some of his affairs.

Salama added: Then, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" returned from (the battle of) Khaibar. I said to him: "O Messenger of Allah! Allow me to recite some poetic verses to you." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" allowed him. Umar Ibn Al-Khattab said: "I know what you are going to recite." I recited: "By Allah! Without Allah we would not have been guided on the right path, nor would we have given in charity, nor would we have prayed." Upon this The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "You have told the truth." (Salama resumed): "Send calmness Upon us, and make our feet firm When we meet our enemy. No doubt, the infidels have rebelled against us."

He (Salama) resumed: When I finished my poetic verses, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" asked me: "Who said this poetry?" I said: "My brother." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Might Allah bestow His mercy upon him." I said: "O Messenger of Allah! There are some people who are reluctant to offer the funeral prayer for him, saying that he was a man, who was killed by his weapon." He said: "He (was martyred and) died as a persistent struggler (in Allah's cause)." Ibn Shihab said: I asked one of the sons of Salama Ibn Al-Akwa about that, and he narrated to me a similar Hadith except that he said: When I said that some people were reluctant in offering the funeral prayer for him, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "They are mistaken. He (Amir) died as a persistent struggler (in Allah's cause), for whom there will be a double reward." He indicated to that by raising his two fingers together.

[44] The holy battle of the Confederates (or the Ditch)

125-(1803) Al-Bara "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: On the day of Al-Ahzab (The Confederates) The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to carry earth with us, and the earth was covering the whiteness of his Abdomen. He was reciting: "By Allah! Without You we would have got no guidance, nor given in charity, nor prayed. So please bless us with tranquility and make firm our feet when we meet our enemies. Indeed (those) people (or perhaps he said: the chieftains (of the tribes)) have refused to follow us (in accepting Islam); but never shall we give in if they try to bring affliction upon us." He used to raise his voice (while reciting that).

Anas Ibn Malik "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: They (the companions of The Prophet) used to recite the following poetic verses, and The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was reciting with them: "O Allah! There is no goodness except that of the hereafter. So, please, support (or, according to the narration of Shaiban, forgive) both the Ansar and the Emigrants."

130-(...) Anas "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The companions of (The Prophet) Muhammad "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to say on the day of the (holy battle of the) Ditch: "It is we, who gave the pledge of allegiance to Muhammad, to embrace Islam (or to strive ourselves in the cause of Allah, Hammad was in doubt) as long as we survive." On the other hand, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" would say: "O Allah! The (real) goodness is that of the hereafter. So, please, O Allah, forgive both the Ansar and the Emigrants."

١٣١ ـ (١٨٠٦) ـ حدّثنا قُتَيْبَةُ بْنُ سَعِيدٍ: حَدَّثَنَا حَاتِمٌ ـ يَعْنِي ابْنَ إِسْمَاعِيلَ ـ عَنْ يَزِيدَ بْنِ أَبِي عُبَيْدٍ. قَالَ: سَمِعْتُ سَلَمَةَ بْنَ الأَكْوَعِ يَقُولُ: خَرَجْتُ قَبْلَ أَنْ يُؤَذَّنَ بِالأُولَىٰ.

of Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Awf met me (on the way) and said: "The milch she-camels of Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had been taken away by force." I asked: "Who had taken them?" He replied: "(Those of) Ghatafan." I made three loud cries (to people of Medina) saying: "Come for help!" I made the people between the two huge rocks of Medina hear me.

Then I rushed onward and caught up with the robbers while they were watering the camels. I started throwing arrows at them as I was a good archer and I was saying: "I am the son of Al-Akwa, and today there will perish the wicked people." I kept on saying like that till I restored the she-camels (of The Prophet). I also snatched thirty Burdas (Garments) from them. Then The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and the other people came there, and I said: "O Allah's Prophet! I have stopped the people (of Ghatafan) from taking water and they are thirsty now. So send (some people) after them now." On that The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "O son of Al-Akwa! You have overpowered them, so forgive them." Then we all came back and Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" seated me behind him on his she-camel till we entered Medina.

132-(1807) Iyas Ibn Salama narrated from his father: We reached Al-Hudaibiya with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and we were fourteen hundred in number. There were fifty goats for them, which could not be watered (in view of the shortage of water in the well). The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" sat on the edge of the well. Either he supplicated (Allah) or spat into the well after which The water gushed. We drank and watered (the animals). Then The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" called us to take the oath of fealty, as he was sitting at the base of a tree. I was the first man to take such an oath. Then other people took the oath. When half the people did so, he said to me: "Come to take the oath of fealty O Salama!" I said: "I was among the people who took the oath earlier." He said: "(You may do it) once again."

Then The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saw that I had no arms. He gave me a big or a small shield. Then he resumed accepting oaths of fealty from the people until it was the last group of them when he said (to me): "Won't you swear fealty, O Salama?" I said: "O Messenger of Allah! I took the oath with the first group of the people and then (I swore fealty) once again in the middle of the people." He said: "(You may do so) again." In this way, I took the oath of fealty thrice. Then he said to me: "O Salama! Where is the shield I gave to you?" I said: "O Messenger of Allah! My uncle Amir met me and he had no weapons. So I gave the shield to him." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" laughed and said: "You are like a person belonging to the ancient days who said: O Allah! I seek a friend who is dearer to me than myself." (When all the Companions had sworn fealty to The Prophet), the polytheists sent messages of peace, until people were able to move from one camp to the other. At last, the peace treaty was concluded.

قَالَ: فَقَعَدَ رَسُولُ اللّٰهِ ﷺ عَلَىٰ جَبَا الرَّكِيَّةِ، فَإِمَّا دَعَا وَإِمَّا بَسَقَ فِيهَا. قَالَ: فَجَاشَتْ، فَسَقَيْنَا وَاسْتَقَيْنَا. قَالَ: ثُمَّ إِنَّ رَسُولَ اللّٰهِ ﷺ دَعَانَا لِلْبَيْعَةِ فِي أَصْلِ الشَّجَرَةِ. قَالَ: فَبَايَعْتُهُ أَوَّلَ النَّاسِ. ثُمَّ بَايَعَ وَبَايَعَ. حَتَّىٰ إِذَا كَانَ فِي وَسَطٍ مِنَ النَّاسِ قَالَ: «بَايِعْ يَا سَلَمَةُ» قَالَ: قُلْتُ: قَدْ بَايَعْتُكَ، يَا رَسُولَ اللّٰهِ فِي أَوَّلِ النَّاسِ. قَالَ: «وَأَيْضاً» قَالَ: وَرَآنِي رَسُولُ اللّٰهِ ﷺ عَزِلاً ـ يَعْنِي لَيْسَ مَعَهُ سِلَاحٌ ـ.

I was a dependant of Talha Ibn Ubaidullah. I used to water his horse and rub its back. I also used to serve Talha (by doing many jobs for him) and eat from his food. I had left my family and my property as an emigrant in the cause of Allah and His Messenger. When we and the people of Mecca had concluded a peace treaty and the people of one side started mixing with those of the other, I came to a tree, swept away its thorns and lay down (in order to take rest) at its base. At the same time, four polytheists from the Meccans came to me and began to talk badly about The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". I became angry with them and moved to another tree. They hung their arms (to the tree) and lay down (in order to take rest).

Meanwhile, somebody from the lower part of the valley cried out: "Run up, O Emigrants! Ibn Zunaim has been murdered." I drew my sword and attacked those four while they were asleep. I seized their arms, which I gathered them in my hand and said: "By the One Who has bestowed honour upon Muhammad, none of you shall raise his head, else I will cut his face." I came driving them to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". (At the same time) my uncle Amir came (to him) driving a man from Abalat called Mikraz. Amir was dragging him on a horse with a thick covering on its back along with seventy polytheists. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" cast a glance at them and said: "Let them go so as to prove guilty of breach more than once (before we punish them)." In this way, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forgave them. It was on this occasion that Allah revealed the following verse: "And it is He Who has restrained their hands from you and your hands from them in the midst of Mecca, after that He gave you the victory over them. And Allah sees well all that ye do." (The Victory "Al-Fath" 24)

قَالَ: فَأَعْطَانِي رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ حجفَةً أَوْ دَرقَةً. ثُمَّ بَايَعَ. حَتَّىٰ إِذَا كَانَ فِي آخِرِ النَّاسِ قَالَ: «أَلاَ تُبَايِعُنِي يَا سَلَمَةُ؟» قَالَ: قُلْتُ: قَدْ بَايَعْتُكَ، يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ فِي أَوَّلِ النَّاسِ، وَفِي أَوْسَطِ النَّاسِ. قَالَ: «وَأَيْضاً» قَالَ: فَبَايَعْتُهُ الثَّالِثَة. ثُمَّ قَالَ لِي: «يَا سَلَمَةُ، أَيْنَ حَجَفَتُكَ أَوْ دَرقَتُكَ الَّتِي أَعْطَيْتُكَ؟» قَالَ: قُلْتُ: يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ، لَقِيَنِي عَمِّي عَامِرٌ عَزِلاً، فَأَعْطَيْتُهُ إِيَّاهَا. قَالَ: فَضَحِكَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ وَقَالَ: «إِنَّكَ كَالَّذِي قَالَ الأَوَّلُ: اللَّهُمَّ أَبْغِنِي حَبِيباً هُوَ أَحَبُّ إِلَيَّ مِنْ نَفْسِي».

Then we proceeded returning to Medina, and halted at a place where there was a mountain between us and Banu Lihyan who were polytheists. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" asked for Allah's forgiveness for one who would come up the mountain at night to act as a reconnoiterer for The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and his Companions. I came up (that mountain) twice or thrice that night. Then, we arrived in Medina. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" sent his camels with his slave, Rabah, and I was with him. I went to the pasture with the horse of Talha along with the camels.

When it was the morning, Abd Ar-Rahman Al-Fazari raided and drove away all the camels of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and killed their shepherd. I said: "O Rabah! Ride this horse, convey it to Talha Ibn Ubaidullah and Inform The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" that the polytheists have raided on his camels." Then I stood upon a hillock, faced Medina, and cried out thrice: "Come to help!" I set out in pursuit of the raiders, shooting at them with arrows and reciting: "I am the son of Al-Akwa, and today is the day of defeat for the wicked people." I would overtake a man from them, shoot at him an arrow, which, piercing through the saddle, would reach his shoulder. I would say: "Take it, and I am the son of Al-Akwa, and today is the day of defeat for the wicked people."

By Allah! I continued shooting at them and hamstringing their animals. Whenever a horseman turned upon me, I would come to a tree and (hid myself) sitting at its base. Then I would shoot at him and hamstring his horse. Then, they entered a narrow mountain defile. I came up that mountain and held them at bay, throwing stones at them. I continued pursuing them in this way until I released all the camels of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and no camel was left with them. They left me. Then I followed them shooting at them until they dropped more than thirty garments and thirty lances, in order to lighten their burden. There was nothing they dropped except that I put a mark using (a piece of) stone so that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and his Companions would recognize it (as booty).

قَالَ: ثُمَّ خَرَجْنَا رَاجِعِينَ إِلَى الْمَدِينَةِ، فَنَزَلْنَا مَنْزِلاً. بَيْنَنَا وَبَيْنَ بَنِي لِحْيَانَ جَبَلٌ. وَهُمُ الْمُشْرِكُونَ. فَاسْتَغْفَرَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ لِمَنْ رَقِيَ هٰذَا الْجَبَلَ اللَّيْلَةَ. كَأَنَّهُ طَلِيعَةٌ لِلنَّبِيِّ ﷺ وَأَصْحَابِهِ. قَالَ سَلَمَةُ: فَرَقِيتُ تِلْكَ اللَّيْلَةَ مَرَّتَيْنِ أَوْ ثَلاثاً. ثُمَّ قَدِمْنَا الْمَدِينَةَ. فَبَعَثَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ بِظَهْرِهِ مَعَ رَبَاحٍ غُلامِ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ ﷺ، وَأَنَا مَعَهُ. وَخَرَجْتُ مَعَهُ بِفَرَسِ طَلْحَةَ. أُنَدِّيهِ مَعَ الظَّهْرِ، فَلَمَّا أَصْبَحْنَا إِذَا عَبْدُ الرَّحْمٰنِ الْفَزَارِيُّ قَدْ أَغَارَ عَلَىٰ ظَهْرِ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ ﷺ. فَاسْتَاقَهُ أَجْمَعَ، وَقَتَلَ رَاعِيَهُ.

قَالَ: فَقُلْتُ: يَا رَبَاحُ! خُذْ هٰذَا الْفَرَسَ فَأَبْلِغْهُ طَلْحَةَ بْنَ عُبَيْدِ اللَّهِ، وَأَخْبِرْ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ﷺ أَنَّ الْمُشْرِكِينَ قَدْ أَغَارُوا عَلَىٰ سَرْحِهِ. قَالَ: ثُمَّ قُمْتُ عَلَىٰ أَكَمَةٍ فَاسْتَقْبَلْتُ الْمَدِينَةَ. فَنَادَيْتُ ثَلاثاً: يَا صَبَاحَاهْ، ثُمَّ خَرَجْتُ فِي آثَارِ الْقَوْمِ أَرْمِيهِمْ بِالنَّبْلِ، وَأَرْتَجِزُ أَقُولُ:

أَنَا ابْنُ الأَكْوَعِ وَالْيَوْمُ يَوْمُ الرُّضَّعِ

فَأَلْحَقُ رَجُلاً مِنْهُمْ. فَأَصُكُّ سَهْماً فِي رَحْلِهِ، حَتَّىٰ خَلَصَ نَصْلُ السَّهْمِ إِلَىٰ كَتِفِهِ. قَالَ: قُلْتُ: خُذْهَا

وَأَنَا ابْنُ الأَكْوَعِ وَالْيَوْمُ يَوْمُ الرُّضَّعِ

قَالَ: فَوَاللَّهِ، مَا زِلْتُ أَرْمِيهِمْ وَأَعْقِرُ بِهِمْ، فَإِذَا رَجَعَ إِلَيَّ فَارِسٌ أَتَيْتُ شَجَرَةً فَجَلَسْتُ فِي أَصْلِهَا ثُمَّ رَمَيْتُهُ، فَعَقَرْتُ بِهِ. حَتَّىٰ إِذَا تَضَايَقَ الْجَبَلُ فَدَخَلُوا فِي تَضَايُقِهِ، عَلَوْتُ الْجَبَلَ، فَجَعَلْتُ أُرَدِّيهِمْ بِالْحِجَارَةِ. قَالَ: فَمَا زِلْتُ كَذٰلِكَ أَتْبَعُهُمْ حَتَّىٰ مَا خَلَقَ اللَّهُ مِنْ بَعِيرٍ مِنْ ظَهْرِ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ ﷺ إِلاَّ خَلَّفْتُهُ وَرَاءَ ظَهْرِي، وَخَلَّوْا بَيْنِي وَبَيْنَهُ. ثُمَّ اتَّبَعْتُهُمْ أَرْمِيهِمْ. حَتَّىٰ أَلْقَوْا أَكْثَرَ مِنْ ثَلاثِينَ بُرْدَةً وَثَلاثِينَ رُمْحاً. يَسْتَخِفُّونَ. وَلا يَطْرَحُونَ شَيْئاً إِلاَّ جَعَلْتُ عَلَيْهِ آرَاماً مِنَ الْحِجَارَةِ. يَعْرِفُهَا رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ وَأَصْحَابُهُ.

(They proceeded) until They came to a narrow valley when so and so, son of Badr Al-Fazari joined them. They sat down to take their breakfast and I sat on the top of a tapering rock. Al-Fazari said: "Who is that person I am seeing?" They said: "This person has disturbed us. By God, he has not left us as of the dusk and has been shooting at us until he has seized everything from our hands." He said: "Let four of you get at him (and then kill him)." Four of them ascended the mountain and advanced towards me. When I was able to talk to them, I said: "Do you recognize me?" They said: "No. Who are you?" I said: "I am Salama Ibn Al-Akwa'. By the One Who has honoured the face of Muhammad "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" I can kill whomever I like of you but none of you will be able to kill me." One of them said: "I think so." So they returned.

I did not move from my place until I saw the horsemen of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", who came riding through the trees. behold! the first of them was Al-Akhram Al-Asadi. Behind him was Abu Quatada Al-Ansari and behind him was Al-Miqdad Ibn Al-Aswad Al-Kindi. I caught hold of the rein of Al-Akhram's horse (When the raiders saw this), they fled away. I said (to Al-Akhram): "O Akhram! Protect yourself against them until The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and his Companions join you." He said: "O Salama! If you believe In Allah and the Day of Judgment and (if) you know that Paradise is a reality and Hell is a reality, you should not stand between me and martyrdom." I let him go. Al-Akhram and Abd Ar-Rahman (Al-Fazari) fought each other. Al-Akhram hamstrung Abd Ar-Rahman's horse and the latter struck him to death. Abd Ar-Rahman turned and rode Al-Akhram's horse. Abu Quatada, a horseman of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", overtook Abd Ar-Rahman and struck him to death.

By the One Who honoured the face of Muhammad "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", I pursued them running on foot (so fast) that I couldn't see behind me the Companions of Muhammad "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", nor could I observe any dust raised by their horses. (I kept pursuing them) until before sunset they reached a valley, which had a spring of water, which was called Dhu-Qarad, so that they could drink, for they were thirsty. They saw me running towards them. I drove them away from the valley before they could get a single drop of its water. They left the valley and ran down a slope. I ran (behind them), overtook a man from them, shot him with an arrow through the shoulder blade and said: "Take this and I am the son of Al-Akwa'; and today is the day of the defeat for the wicked people." The man said: "May his mother be bereaved of him! Are you Al-Akwa who has been pursuing us since morning?" I said: "Yes, O enemy of yourself, (I'm) the same Akwa."

They left two horses dead tired on the hillock, which I came dragging to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". I met Amir who had with him a container having milk and a container having water. I performed ablution with the water and drank the milk. Then I came to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" while he was at the (same spring of) water from which I had driven them away. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had captured those camels and everything else I had captured and all the lances and garments I had seized from the polytheists. At the same time, Bilal had slaughtered a she-camel from the camels I had seized from the people, and was roasting its liver and hump for The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him".

I said: "O Messenger of Allah! Let me choose from our people one hundred men in order that I would follow those raiders and I would destroy all of them to the extent that nobody would be left to report the news (of their destruction to their people)." Upon this The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" laughed so much that his premolar teeth could be visible in the light of the fire. Then he said: "O Salama! Do you think you can do this?" I said: "Yes, by the One Who has dignified you." He said: "Now they have reached the land of Ghatafan." Meanwhile, a man from the (tribe of) Ghatafan came and said: "So and so slaughtered a camel for them. When they exposed its skin, they saw dust (being raised far off). They said: "They (Al-Akwa and his companions) are coming." So they fled away.

When it was morning, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Our best horseman today is Abu Quatada, and our best footman today is Salama." Then he gave me two shares of the booty: the share of a horseman and the share of a footman. He combined both of them for me. When he intended to return to Medina, he made me ride behind him on his she-camel called Al-Atba. While we were proceeding, a man from the Ansar who could not be defeated in a race said: "Is there anyone who could compete (with me) in race to Medina? Is there any competitor?" He kept repeating it. When I heard his talk, I said: "Don't خُذْهَا وَأَنَا ابْنُ الأَكْوَعِ. وَالْيَوْمُ يَوْمُ الرُّضَّعِ. قَالَ: يَا ثَكِلَتْهُ أُمُّهُ، أَكْوَعُهُ بُكْرَةَ. قَالَ: قُلْتُ: نَعَمْ. يَا عَدُوَّ نَفْسِهِ، أَكْوَعُكَ بُكْرَةَ.

قَالَ: وَأَرْدَوْا فَرَسَيْنِ عَلَىٰ ثَنِيَّةٍ. قَالَ: فَجِئْتُ بِهِمَا أَسُوقُهُمَا إِلَىٰ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ ﷺ.

قَالَ: وَلَحِقَنِي عَامِرٌ بِسَطِيحَةٍ فِيهَا مَذْقَةٌ مِنْ لَبَنٍ وَسَطِيحَةٍ فِيهَا مَاءٌ. فَتَوَضَّأْتُ وَشَرِبْتُ. ثُمَّ أَتَيْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ﷺ وَهُوَ عَلَى الْمَاءِ الَّذِي حَلأْتُهُمْ عَنْهُ. فَإِذَا رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ قَدْ أَخَذَ تِلْكَ الإِبِلَ، وَكُلَّ شَيْءٍ اسْتَنْقَذْتُهُ مِنَ الْمُشْرِكِينَ. وَكُلَّ رُمْحٍ وَبُرْدَةٍ. وَإِذَا بِلاَلٌ نَحَرَ نَاقَةً مِنَ الإِبِلِ الَّذِي اسْتَنْقَذْتُ مِنَ الْقَوْمِ. وَإِذَا هُوَ يَشْوِي لِرَسُولِ اللَّهِ ﷺ مِنْ كَبِدِهَا وَسَنَامِهَا.

قَالَ: قُلْتُ: يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ، خَلِّنِي فَأَنْتَخِبُ مِنَ الْقَوْمِ مِئَةَ رَجُلٍ. فَأَتَّبِعُ الْقَوْمَ فَلاَ يَبْقَىٰ مِنْهُمْ مُخْبِرٌ إِلاَّ قَتَلْتُهُ. قَالَ: فَضَحِكَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ حَتَّى بَدَتْ نَوَاجِذُهُ فِي ضَوْءِ النَّارِ. فَقَالَ: «يَا سَلَمَةُ، أَتُرَاكَ كُنْتَ فَاعِلاً؟» قُلْتُ: نَعَمْ. وَالَّذِي أَكْرَمَكَ. فَقَالَ: «إِنَّهُمُ الآنَ لَيُقْرَوْنَ فِي أَرْضِ غَطَفَانَ». قَالَ: فَجَاءَ رَجُلٌ مِنْ غَطَفَانَ. فَقَالَ: نَحَرَ لَهُمْ فُلاَنٌ جَزُوراً. فَلَمَّا كَشَفُوا جِلْدَهَا رَأَوْا غُبَاراً. فَقَالُوا: أَتَاكُمُ الْقَوْمُ. فَخَرَجُوا هَارِبِينَ.

قَالَ: ثُمَّ أَعْطَانِي رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ سَهْمَيْنِ: سَهْمَ الْفَارِسِ وَسَهْمَ الرَّاجِلِ. فَجَمَعَهُمَا لِي جَمِيعاً. ثُمَّ أَرْدَفَنِي رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ وَرَاءَهُ عَلَى الْعَضْبَاءِ. رَاجِعِينَ إِلَى الْمَدِينَةِ. قَالَ: فَبَيْنَمَا نَحْنُ نَسِيرُ. قَالَ: وَكَانَ رَجُلٌ مِنَ الأَنْصَارِ لاَ يُسْبَقُ شَدًّا، قَالَ: فَجَعَلَ يَقُولُ: أَلاَ مُسَابِقٌ إِلَى الْمَدِينَةِ؟ هَلْ مِنْ مُسَابِقٍ؟ فَجَعَلَ يُعِيدُ ذٰلِكَ. قَالَ: فَلَمَّا سَمِعْتُ كَلاَمَهُ قُلْتُ: أَمَا تُكْرِمُ كَرِيماً. وَلاَ تَهَابُ شَرِيفاً؟

you have any regard to a dignified person or respect for a noble man?" He said: "No, unless he is The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"." I said: "O Messenger of Allah! May my father and mother be sacrificed for you! Let me get down so that I may defeat this man." He said: "If you wish (you can do)."

I said (to the man): "I am coming to you." I turned my feet. sprang up. I gasped (for a while) when one or two elevated places were left and then followed his heel and again gasped (for a while) when one or two elevated places were left and again rushed until I joined him and gave him a blow between his shoulders. I said: "You have been defeated, by Allah." He said: "I think so." In this way, I reached Medina before him. By Allah! we had stayed there no more than three nights when we set out (in an expedition) to Khaibar with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". (On the way) my uncle Amir started reciting the following poetic verses for the people: "By Allah! Without Allah (Who has guided us aright) we would have got no guidance, nor would we have given in charity, nor would we have prayed. We could do nothing without Your favour. So please make firm our feet when we meet our enemies, and bless us with tranquility." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Who is this?" Amir said: "it is Amir." He said: "May your Lord forgive you!" he (the narrator) said: Whenever The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" asked forgiveness for a particular person, surely he would receive martyrdom. Umar Ibn Al-Khattab who was riding on his camel called out: "O Prophet of Allah! Would that you allowed us to enjoy of Amir."

He (the narrator) resumed: When we reached Khaibar, its king Marhab proceeded showing off with his sword and chanting: "Khaibar knows that I am Marhab, who is A fully armed well-tried warrior, when the war comes spreading its flames." My uncle Amir appeared to combat with him, saying: "Khaibar knows that I am Amir, a fully armed experienced person who plunges into wars." They exchanged two strikes. Marhab's sword struck the shield of Amir who bent to attack his opponent from below, but his sword returned against him and cut his medial arm vein, which caused him to die.

He added: I came out and heard some people among the Companions of the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying: "Amir's deeds have been lost since he killed himself." I came to the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" weeping and I said: "O Messenger of Allah! Amir's deeds have been lost." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Who said this?" I said: "Some of your Companions." He said: "He has told a lie who said so. No doubt, Amir would receive a double reward."

Then he sent me to Ali who was suffering from sore eyes, and said: "I will give the banner to a man who loves Allah and His Messenger or whom Allah and His Messenger love." I went to Ali, brought him, and I was leading him for he had sore eyes until I took him to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", who applied his saliva to his eyes and he recovered. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" gave him the banner (and Ali went to combat Marhab). Marhab proceeded chanting: "Khaibar knows that I am Marhab, who is a fully armed well-tried warrior, when war comes spreading its flames." Ali chanted in reply: "I am the one whose mother named him Haidar (one of the names given to the lion), (who is) like a lion of a forest with a terror-striking face. I give my opponents the measure of Sandara in exchange for Sa (i.e. return their attack with one that is much stronger)." He (the narrator) added: Ali struck the head of Marhab and killed him, and the victory (conquest of Khaibar) was at his hands.

This long Hadith was narrated Through a different chain of transmitters.

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Ikrima Ibn Ammar.

133-(1808) Anas Ibn Malik "Allah be pleased with him" narrated that eighty Persons from the people of Mecca came down upon The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" from the mountain of Tan'im. They were armed and they wanted to attack the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and his Companions who were not ready. He (The Prophet) captured them but spared their lives. It was on this occasion that Allah "Exalted and Hallowed be He" revealed: "And it is He Who has restrained their hands from you and your hands from them in the midst of Mecca, after that He gave you the victory over them. And Allah sees well all that ye do." (The Victory "Al-Fath" 24)

[47] The women's taking part with men in the holy battles

134-(1809) Anas "Allah be pleased with him" narrated that on the Day of (the holy battle of) Hunain Umm Sulaim took out a dagger she had. Abu Talha saw her and said: "O Messenger of Allah! This is Umm Sulaim. She is holding a dagger." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" asked (her): "Why are you holding this dagger?" She said: "I took it so that I may split open the belly of any unbeliever who comes near me." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" smiled. She said: "O Messenger of Allah! Kill those people-other than us-whom you set free (on the day of the Conquest of Mecca). They were defeated from you (and left you alone in the battlefield, because their Islam has not been reliable)." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "O Umm Sulaim! Allah is sufficient (against the enemies) and He has done well to us."

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Ishaq Ibn Abdullah Ibn Abu Talha from Anas "Allah be pleased with him".

135-(1810) Anas Ibn Malik "Allah be pleased with him" narrated that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to let Umm Sulaim and some other women of the Ansar accompany him when he went forth to Jihad. They would provide (the soldiers) with water and treat the wounded people.

136-(1811) Anas Ibn Malik "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: On the Day of (the holy battle of) Uhud some people, being defeated, left the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", but Abu Talha stood before him covering him with a shield. Abu Talha was a skillful archer. He broke two or three bows on that day. Whenever a man passed by carrying a quiver of arrows, he (The Messenger of Allah) would say: "Spare them for Abu Talha." Whenever the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" raised his head to look at the people, Abu Talha would say: "O Prophet of Allah! may my father and my mother sacrifice their lives for you! Do not raise your head lest you would be struck with an arrow shot by the enemy. Let my neck be before your neck." He (the narrator) said: I saw A'isha Bint Abu Bakr and Umm Sulaim. Both of them had tucked up their garments, to the extent that the anklets on their feet were visible. They were carrying water-skins on their backs in order to pour water into the mouths of the people. They would return (to the well), fill them again and then come back to pour water into the mouths of the people. The sword of Abu Talha fell down from his hand twice or thrice because of drowsiness.

[48] Women participants in jihad might be given something (from the booty) but not a regular share, and prohibition of killing children of the enemy during the war

137-(1812) Yazid Ibn Hurmuz narrated that Najda wrote to Ibn Abbas to tell him about five things. Ibn Abbas said: "Had it not been for (fear that it might be said that) I conceal knowledge, I would not have written anything to him." Najda wrote to him: "Now and then: tell me whether The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to accompany the women in his holy battles, and whether he would fix shares for them from the war booty. (Tell me also) whether he used to kill the children in the war, and when the (time of the) orphanhood should end up. (Inform me) of the one-fifth of the war spoils: for whom it should be given)."

Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" wrote (in reply) to him: "You wrote to me asking whether The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to accompany the women in his holy battles; and, no doubt, he allowed them to come with him in order that they should treat the wounded persons, and they would get something from the booty, but he (The Prophet) did not fix certain shares for them (as those of the fighters). Moreover, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" did not kill the children (in wars), so, do not kill them. You also wrote to me asking about the period at which the orphanhood should end up. By my life! if a man has become bearded but is still incapable of getting his rights from others as well as fulfilling his obligations towards them, (he would be treated as an orphan), but when he can look after his interests like grown-up people, he is no longer an orphan. You wrote to me asking about the one-fifth (of the booty) as to whom it should be given. We (the kinsmen of The Prophet) thought that it would be given to us, but those people (of Umayyads) denied it to us."

138-(...) Yazid Ibn Hurmuz reported that Najda wrote to Ibn Abbas, asking him about many things...and the rest is the same, with the following addition: "The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" did not kill the children in the wars, so, do not kill them, unless you know about them what Al-Khadir knew about the child he had killed." It was also added: "Moreover, you should be able to distinguish the believer from the unbeliever, in order that you would kill the unbeliever and let the believer."

139-(...) Yazid Ibn Hurmuz narrated: Najda Ibn Amir Al-Haruri wrote to Ibn Abbas asking him about the slave and the woman as to whether they would get a share from the booty (in case they took part in Jihad) ; about the killing of children (of the enemy in war) ; about the orphan as to when his orphanhood should end up; about the kith and kin (of the Prophet) as to who they are. He said to Yazid: "Write to him. Had it not been for fear that he might fall into folly, I would not have written to him. Write: "You wrote asking about the woman and the slave whether they would get a share of the booty if they participated in Jihad, and there is no fixed shares for them (as those given to the fighting men) except that they might be given something as a reward. You have written asking me about the killing of the children of the enemy in war. No doubt, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" did not kill them; and you should not kill them unless you know what (Al-Khadir) the companion of Moses knew about the child he had killed. You wrote asking me about the orphan as to when the period of his orphanhood would end up, so that the expression " orphan" should be removed from him. However, the word " orphan" will not be removed from him until he attains maturity of body and mind. You also wrote asking me about the kith and kin (of the Prophet) as to who they are. We think that it is we, but our people (from the Umayyads) denied us this (right with its resulting privileges)."

(...) Yazid Ibn Hurmuz narrated that Najda wrote to Ibn Abbas, asking him about...and the rest of the Hadith is the same.

140-(...) Yazid Ibn Hurmuz narrated: Najda wrote to Ibn Abbas. I was sitting with Ibn Abbas when he read his letter and wrote its reply. Ibn Abbas said: "Had it not been for preventing him from falling into wickedness, I would not have replied to his letter, may he never be joyful." He wrote in reply to him referring to the share of the kith and kin (of the Prophet from the booty) whom Allah mentioned: "We thought we were the kith and kin of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", but our people denied us such a position. You asked about the orphan as to when his orphanhood would end up. When he comes to the age of marriage, attains maturity of mind, and his property is given to him, then he is no longer an orphan. You also asked whether The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to kill the children of the unbelievers in the war. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" did not kill any one of their children, and you should not kill

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Hatim, with the same chain of transmitters, except that he mentioned that they were seven holy battles and seven detachments.

[50] The holy battle of Dhat Ar-Riqa

149-(1816) Abu Burda narrated from Abu Musa "Allah be pleased with him": "We went out in the company of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" for a holy battle. Every six persons of us had (to ride) one camel alternately. So, (in view of excessive walking) our feet became thin. My feet became thin and my nail dropped. We used to wrap our feet with the pieces of cloth. For this reason, the holy battle was named the holy battle of The Pieces of Cloth (Dhat Ar-Riqa) as we wrapped our feet with those pieces of cloth." Abu Burda told: It is true that Abu Musa narrated this tradition, but later on, he disliked (narrating) it, as if it seemed that he disliked to disclose a good deed he had done. Abu Usama said: Others than Buraid added: "And Allah would give reward for it."

[51] Undesirability to seek for the help of an unbeliever in war

150-(1817) A'isha "Allah be pleased with her", the wife of the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" set out for Badr. When he reached Harrat Al-Wabara (a place four miles from Medina) a man met him, and he was famous for his bravery and courage. The Companions of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" were happy to see him. He said (to The Prophet): "I came in order to follow you and get a share from the booty." [2] Appointing anyone as one's successor or giving up the question of appointment

11-(1823) Abdullah Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: I was present with my father when he was fatally wounded. People praised him and said: "May Allah greatly recompense you!" He said: "I am hopeful (of Allah's mercy) as well as afraid (of His wrath)." People said: "Appoint anyone as your successor." He said: "Should I carry the burden of conducting your affairs in my life as well as in my death? I wish I could acquit myself (before Allah) in a way that there is neither anything in my favour nor is there anything against me. If I would appoint my successor, then (I would do so because) one better than me did so. (He meant Abu Bakr.) If I would leave You alone, then (I would do so because) one better than me, i.e. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" did so." Abdullah said: When he mentioned The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" I learnt that he would appoint none as Caliph.

12-(...) Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: I entered the dwelling place of (my sister) Hafsa who said: "Do you know that your father will not appoint his successor?" I said: "He is not to do that." She said: "He is going to do that." I took an oath that I will talk to him about the matter. I kept quiet until the next morning, but I still did not talk to him, and I felt as if I were carrying a mountain on my right hand. At last I came and entered upon him. He began to ask me about the state of the people, and I informed him (about them). Then I said to him: "I heard something from the people which I took an oath that I should tell to you. They pretend that you will not nominate a successor. If a shepherd of camels and sheep you appointed comes back to you leaving the cattle, you will think that the cattle are lost. To look after the people is more serious and grave." He was impressed by my words. He bent his head thoughtfully for some time after which he raised it to me and said: "Allah will surely protect His religion. [3] Forbiddance of demanding or being eager to become a ruler

13-(1652) Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Samura "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "O Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Samura! Do not seek to be a ruler, because if you are given authority for that (seeking), then you will be held responsible for it. But if you are given it without asking for it, then you will be helped in it (by Allah)."

(…)The same tradition was narrated on the authority of Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Samura, through another chain of transmitters.

14-(1824) Abu Musa "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: Two of my cousins and I entered upon the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". One of them said: "O Messenger of Allah! Appoint us as rulers of some territories which Allah "Exalted and Hallowed be He" has entrusted to you." The other said something similar. He said: "We do not appoint to this position one who asks for it nor anyone who is eager to it."

15-(…) Abu Musa "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: I went to the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" in the company of two men from the Ash'arites. One of them was on my right hand and the other on my left. Both of them demanded a position (of authority) while the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was brushing his teeth with a tooth-stick. He said (to me): "O Abu Musa (or O Abdullah Ibn Qais)! What do you say (about their request)?" I said: "By Allah, Who sent you on your mission with the truth, they did not disclose to me what they had in their minds, and I did not know that they would ask for a position." Noticed as if I were looking at the tooth-stick of the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" between his lips.

I said: "I am from the people of Egypt." She said: "What was the conduct of your ruler towards you in this war of yours?" I said: "We did not experience anything bad from him. If the camel of a man from us died, he would grant him a camel. If any one of us lost his slave, he would give him a slave. If anybody was in need of the basic necessities of life, he would provide him with provisions." She said: "Behold! the treatment that was meted out to my brother, Muhammad Ibn Abu Bakr, does not prevent me from telling you what I heard from The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". He said in this house of mine: "O Allah! Whoever acquire some kind of control over the affairs of my people and is hard upon them, then be hard upon him, and whoever acquire some kind of control over the affairs of my people and is kind to them, then, bestow Your mercy upon him.""'

[7] The prohibition of (accepting) the gifts of the employees

26-(1832) Abu Humaid As-Sa'idi narrated: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" appointed a man from the tribe of Asad, called Ibn Al-Lutbiyya for collecting the obligatory charity. When he returned he said: "This (the obligatory charity) is for you and this has been given to me as a present." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" stood on the pulpit, praised Allah, and extolled Him. Then, he said: "Why hadn't he stayed in his father's or mother's house to see whether he would be given presents or not? By Him, in Whose Hands my life is, whoever takes something from those (resources of the obligatory charity unlawfully) will carry it on his neck on the Day of Judgement; if it be a camel, it will be grunting; if a cow, it will be mooing; and if a sheep, it will be bleating." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" then

٧ ـ بَابُ تَحْرِيمِ هَدَايَا الْعُمَّالِ

٢٦ ـ (١٨٣٢) ـ حدّثنا أَبُو بَكْرِ بْنُ أَبِي شَيْبَةَ وَعَمْرٌو النَّاقِدُ وَابْنُ أَبِي عُمَرَ ـ وَاللَّفْظُ لأَبِي بَكْرٍ ـ. قَالُوا: حَدَّثَنَا سُفْيَانُ بْنُ عُيَيْنَةَ، عَنِ الزُّهْرِيِّ، عَنْ عُرْوَةَ، عَنْ أَبِي حُمَيْدٍ السَّاعِدِيِّ، قَالَ: اسْتَعْمَلَ رَسُولُ اللّٰهِ ﷺ رَجُلاً مِنَ الأَسْدِ يُقَالُ لَهُ: ابْنُ اللُّتْبِيَّةِ ـ قَالَ عَمْرٌو وَابْنُ أَبِي عُمَرَ: عَلَى الصَّدَقَةِ ـ فَلَمَّا قَدِمَ قَالَ: هٰذَا لَكُمْ. وَهٰذَا لِي، أُهْدِيَ لِي. قَالَ: فَقَامَ رَسُولُ اللّٰهِ ﷺ عَلَى الْمِنْبَرِ. فَحَمِدَ اللّٰهَ وَأَثْنَىٰ عَلَيْهِ. وَقَالَ: «مَا بَالُ عَامِلٍ أَبْعَثُهُ فَيَقُولُ: هٰذَا لَكُمْ وَهٰذَا أُهْدِيَ لِي، أَفَلاَ قَعَدَ فِي بَيْتِ أَبِيهِ أَوْ فِي بَيْتِ أُمِّهِ حَتَّىٰ يَنْظُرَ أَيُهْدَىٰ إِلَيْهِ أَمْ لاَ. وَالَّذِي نَفْسُ مُحَمَّدٍ بِيَدِهِ، لاَ يَنَالُ أَحَدٌ مِنْكُمْ

raised his hands till we saw the whiteness of his armpits, and said thrice: "O Allah! Haven't I reported Your Message (to them)?"

(...) Abu Humaid As-Sa'idi narrated: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" appointed Ibn Al-Lutbiyya, a man from the Azd tribe, in charge of obligatory charity. He came with the charity objects, which he gave to the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "This (obligatory charity) is for you and this is a gift presented to me." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to him: "Why didn't you remain in the house of your father and your mother to see whether gifts would be presented to you or not." Then he stood up to deliver a sermon...and the rest is the same as narrated by Sufyan.

27-(...) Abu Humaid As-Sa'idi narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" appointed a man from the Azd tribe called Ibn Al-Utbiyya, to collect the obligatory charity from Banu Sulaim. When he returned, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" asked him to render his account. He said: "This wealth is for you (i.e. for the treasury of Muslims) and this is a gift (presented to me)." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "You should have remained in the house of your father and your mother, until your gift came to you if you spoke the truth."

Then he addressed us. He praised Allah and extolled Him. afterwards he said: "I appoint a man from you to a responsible position sharing with the authority that Allah has entrusted to me, and he comes to me saying: This wealth is for you (i.e. for the treasury of Muslims) and this is a gift presented to me. Why did he not remain in the house of his father and his mother and his gift came to him, if he spoke the truth? By Allah, there is no one of you who will take anything from (the public funds) illegally, but that he will meet his Lord carrying it on himself on the Day of judgment. I will recognize any one of you meeting Allah and carrying a growling camel, or a cow bellowing or a goat bleating." Then he raised his hands so high that the whiteness of his armpits could be visible. Then he said: "O my Lord, I have conveyed (Your Commandments)." The narrator says: My eyes saw (the Prophet standing in that posture) and my ears heard (his statements).

28-(...) The same was narrated through a different chain of transmitters on the authority of Hisham with a slight variation of wording.

31-(1834) Ibn Juraij narrated: Allah's saying: "O ye who believe! Obey Allah, and obey the Messenger, and those charged with authority among you. If ye differ in anything among yourselves, refer it to Allah and His Messenger, if ye do believe in Allah and the Last Day: that is best, and most suitable for final determination" (The Women "An-Nisa" 59) was revealed in connection with Abdullah Ibn Hudhafa Ibn Qais Ibn Adi As-Sahmi who was dispatched by the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" as leader of a military expedition. He said: "It was the duty of every Prophet before me to guide his followers to whatever good for them he knew and warn them against whatever bad for them he knew. But this nation of yours has its days of peace and (security) in the beginning of its life, and in the last phase of its existence it will be afflicted with trials and with things disagreeable to you, when there will be tremendous trials one after the other, each making the previous one dwindle into insignificance. When they would be afflicted with a trial, the believer would say: This is going to bring about my destruction. When it would be over, they would be afflicted with another trial, and the believer would say: This surely is going to be my end.

Whoever wishes to be moved from the fire and be admitted in Paradise should die with faith in Allah and the Last Day and should treat the people as he wishes to be treated by them. He who swears allegiance to a Caliph should give him the pledge of his hand and the sincerity of his heart. He should obey him to the best of his capacity. If another man comes forward (in order to claim to be Caliph), disputing his (the former's) authority, they (the Muslims) should behead the latter."

I came close to him (Abdullah Ibn Amr) and said to him: I beseech you by Allah, did you hear it from The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"? He pointed with his hands to his ears and his heart and said: My ears heard it and my mind kept it. I said to him: This cousin of yours, Mu'awiya, orders us to unjustly consume our wealth among ourselves and to kill one another, while Allah says: "O ye who believe, do not consume your wealth among yourselves unjustly, unless it be trade based on mutual agreement, and do not kill yourselves. Verily, Allah is Merciful to you." (The Women "An-Nisa" 29). He (Abdullah Ibn Amr) kept silent for a while after which he said: Obey him in so far as he is obedient to Allah, and disobey him in so far he is disobedient to Allah.

Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Whoever shows disobedience (to the ruler) and deviates from the group of Muslims and then dies in that state would die the death of one belonging to the days of ignorance (i.e. would die as an unbeliever). Whoever is killed under the banner of a people who are blind (to the cause for which they are fighting, and do not know whether it is right or not), who gets flared up with family pride, and fights for the sake of his kith and kin (and does not fight in the cause of Allah), he will not belong to my (Muslim) nation. Whoever rebels against my (Muslim) nation killing the righteous and the wicked of them, sparing not (even) those faithful and fulfilling not his promise made with those who have been given a pledge of protection, will not be from me (i.e. he will not be of my followers)."

But he offered his prayers at that place, and he took the oath of fealty nowhere except near the tree in Al-Hudaibiya. Ibn Juraij said that he was told by Abu Az-Zubair who heard Jabir Ibn Abdullah saying: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" invoked (Allah) over the well at Al-Hudaibiya.

71-(...) Jabir "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: We were one thousand and four hundred on the Day of Hudaibiya when the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to us: "Today you are the best people on the earth." Jabir said: Had I had the eyesight, I would have showed you the place of the tree.

He said: "Do you talk of Migration? No doubt, the affair of Migration is very difficult. But have you got camels?" The Bedouin said: "Yes." He asked: "Do you fulfill the obligatory charity due upon them?" He said: "Yes." He said: "Go on doing good deeds across the villages, for surely Allah will not leave any of your deeds without reward."

(...)This tradition was narrated through a different chain of transmitters with the following addition at the end: "Do you milk them on the day they arrive at the water?" He replied in the affirmative.

[21] How the women swore fealty (to The Prophet)

88-(1866) A'isha "Allah be pleased with her", the wife of the Prophet, narrated: Whenever the believing women migrated (to Medina) and came to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", they would be tested in accordance with the following words of Allah, the Almighty and Exalted: " O Prophet, when believing women come to you to take the oath of fealty to you that they will not associate in worship anything with Allah, that they will not steal, that they will not commit adultery......) to the end of the verse (Al-Mumtahina 12).

A'isha said: Whoever from among the believing women accepted these conditions and agreed to abide by them were considered to have offered themselves for swearing fealty. When they had (formally) declared their resolution to do so, the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" would say to them: "You may go. I have accepted your fealty." By Allah, the hand of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" never touched the hand of a woman. He would take the oath of fealty from them by oral declaration. A'isha further said: By Allah, the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" never took any vow from women except that which Allah had ordered him to take, and his palm never touched the palm of a woman. When he had taken their vow, he would tell them that he had taken the oath from them orally.

89-(...) Urwa narrated that A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" told him how the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" took the oath of fealty from women. She said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" never touched a woman with his hand. He would only take a vow from her and when he had taken the vow (from her orally), he would say: "You may go. I have accepted your fealty."

[22] Swearing fealty for listening to and obeying the orders of the leader as far as possible

90-(1867) Abdullah Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: We used to swear fealty to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" that we would listen to and obey his orders. He would tell us (to say in the oath): As far as I could.

[28] The merit of jihad and campaigning in the way of Allah

103-(1876) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" reported: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Allah has undertaken to look after the affairs of one who goes out to fight in His way believing in Him and affirming the truth of His Messengers. He is committed to His care that He will either admit him to Paradise or bring him back to his home from where he set out with a reward or (his share of) booty. By Him in Whose Hand is the life of Mohammad, if a person gets wounded in the way of Allah, he will come on the Day of Judgment with his wound in the same condition as it was when it was first inflicted: its color being the color of blood but its smell being the smell of musk. By Him in Whose Hand is the life of Muhammad, had it not been too hard upon the Muslims, I would not have lagged behind any expedition which is going to fight in the cause of Allah. But I do not have abundant means (of conveyance) to provide them (the fighters) with mounts, nor have they abundant means (to provide themselves with what they need for Jihad), and it is hard upon them to be left behind. By Him in Whose Hand is Mohammad's life, I love to fight in the cause of Allah and be killed, to fight and again be killed and to fight again and be killed."

110-(1878) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" reported: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was asked: "What deed could be an equivalent to Jihad in the way of Allah "Exalted and Hallowed be He"?" He answered: "You do not have the power to do that deed." They repeated the question twice or thrice. Every time he answered: "You do not have the power to do it." When the question was asked for the third time, he said: "The example of the one who goes out for Jihad is like a person who keeps Fast, stands in the Prayer (constantly), (obeying) Allah's (behest's contained in) the verses (of the Qur'an), and does not exhibit any lassitude in Fasting and the Prayer until the Mujahid returns from Jihad in the way of Allah, the Exalted."

[31] The high position prepared by Allah for fighters in Allah's way in paradise

116-(1884) Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri "Allah be pleased with him" narrated that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said (to him): "O Abu Sa'id! Whoever is pleased to accept Allah as his Lord, Islam as his religion and Muhammad as his Messenger is surely entitled to be admitted in Paradise." He (Abu Sa'id) wondered at it and said: "O Messenger of Allah! Repeat it for me." He (The Messenger of Allah) did that and added: "There is another act which elevates the position of a man in Paradise to a grade one hundred (higher), and the elevation between one grade and the other is equal to the height of the heaven from the earth." He (Abu Sa'id) asked: "What is that act?" He said: "It is Jihad in the cause of Allah. It is Jihad in the cause of Allah."

[32] The one who is killed in the way of Allah will have all his sins obliterated except debt

117-(1885) Abu Quatada "Allah be pleased with him" narrated that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" stood up among them (his Companions) to deliver a sermon in which he told them that Jihad in the cause of Allah and belief in Allah are the best of acts (in reward). A man stood up and said: "O Messenger of Allah! Do you think that if I am killed in the way of Allah, my sins will be removed from me?" The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Yes, in case you are killed in the way of Allah while being steadfast, expecting the reward (from Allah), always facing the enemy in fight, never turning your back upon him." Then he asked: "What have you said? Do you think if I am killed in the way of Allah, all my sins will be obliterated from me?" The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Yes, in case you are steadfast, expecting the reward (from Allah), always facing the enemy in fight, and never turning your back upon him, (all your sins would be removed) except debt. Gabriel has told me this."

[33] The souls of the martyrs are in paradise; they are alive and find their sustenance from their lord

121-(1887) Masruq narrated: We asked Abdullah (Ibn Mas'ud) about Allah's saying: "Think not of those who are slain in Allah's way as dead. Nay, they live, finding their sustenance in the presence of their Lord." (Al Imran 169) He said: We asked (The Prophet) about that and he said: "The souls of the martyrs live in the bodies of green birds who have their nests in chandeliers hung from the throne of the Almighty. They eat the fruits of Paradise from wherever they like and then nestle in these chandeliers. Once their Lord cast a glance at them and said: Do you want anything? They said: What more shall we desire? We eat the fruit of Paradise from wherever we like. Their Lord asked them the same question thrice. When they saw that they will remain to be asked without being left (without answering His question), they said: O Lord, we wish that You might return our souls to our bodies so that we may be slain in Your cause once again. When He saw that they had no desire, they were left (to their pleasure in Paradise)."

124-(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Ibn Shihab with following slight change of wording: "A man in a mountain valley." but did not mention" next to him a man."

125-(1889) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "From among the men the best is he, who holds the reins of his horse (getting himself ever ready to proceed) in the way of Allah, (runs as fast as if he seems to) fly on its back whenever he hears a fearful shriek, or a call for help, flies to it seeking for death at places where it can be expected. Next to him is a man who lives with his sheep at a hill-top or in a valley, performs (obligatory) prayers regularly, gives obligatory charity and worships his Lord until death comes to him. There is no better one among men except those two."

[35] The two men, both of whom will enter paradise though one of them kills the other

128-(1890) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" reported: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Allah laughs at two men, both of whom will enter Paradise (though) one of them kills the other." They said: "O Messenger of Allah! How is it?" He said: "One of them fights in the way of Allah "Exalted and Hallowed be He", and dies as a martyr. Then Allah turns in mercy to the murderer who embraces Islam, fights in the way of Allah "Exalted and Hallowed be He", and dies as a martyr."

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Abu Az-Zinad with the same chain of transmitters.

129-(...) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" reported that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Allah laughs at two men one of whom kills the other, though both of them will enter Paradise." They (the Companions) said: "How is it O Messenger of Allah?" He said: "One is killed (as a martyr in the cause of Allah) and enters Paradise. Then Allah forgives the other and guides him to Islam. Then he fights in the cause of Allah and dies as a martyr."

[36] What about a man who killed a disbeliever and embraced Islam

130-(1891) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" reported that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "An unbeliever and his killer (a believer) will never be gathered together in the fire (of Hell)."

131-(...) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" reported that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Two persons the presence of one of whom hurts the other shall never be gathered together in Hell." It was asked: "O Messenger of Allah! Who are they?" He said: "A believer who killed an unbeliever and (then) held fast to the straight path."

[37] The merit of charity in the way of Allah and its manifold reward

132-(1892) Abu Mas'ud Al-Ansari "Allah be pleased with him" reported: A man brought a muzzled she-camel and said: "It is (to be given) in the cause of Allah." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "For it, you will have seven hundred she-camels on the Day of Judgment all of which will be muzzled."

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Al-A'mash.

[38] The merit of helping the warrior (fighting in the way of Allah) with a mount to ride and looking after his family in his absence

133-(1893) Abu Mas'ud Al-Ansari "Allah be pleased with him" reported: A man came to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "My mount has been killed, so give me a mount to ride." He said: "I have none." A man said: "O Messenger of Allah! I can guide him to one who will provide him with a mount." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Whoever guides to something good has a reward similar to that of its doer."

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Al-A'mash.

134-(1894) Anas Ibn Malik "Allah be pleased with him" reported that a young man from Aslam tribe said: "O Messenger of Allah! I wish to fight (in the cause of Allah) but I don't have anything to equip myself with for fighting." He (The Prophet) said: "Go to so and so, for he had equipped himself (for fighting) but he fell ill." So, he (the young man) went to him and said: "The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon looking after the family of a warrior and betrays his trust will be made to stand on the Day of judgment before the such a warrior who will take away from his good deeds whatever he likes. So what do you think (will he leave anything from those good deeds for him)?"

١٣٩ ـ (١٨٩٧) ـ حدّثنا أَبُو بَكْرِ بْنُ أَبِي شَيْبَةَ: حَدَّثَنَا وَكِيعٌ، عَنْ سُفْيَانَ، عَنْ عَلْقَمَةَ بْنِ مَرْثَدٍ، عَنْ سُلَيْمَانَ بْنِ بُرَيْدَةَ، عَنْ أَبِيهِ. قَالَ: قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ: «حُرْمَةُ نِسَاءِ

(…) The same was narrated through another chain of transmitters.

140-(…) Alqama Ibn Marthad narrated the same with the following end: It will be said to the Mujahid: "Take from his good deeds whatever you like." Then The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" turned to us and asked: "What do you think (will he leave anything of his good deeds for him)?"

[40] Jihad is not obligatory for those who have a genuine excuse

141-(1898) Abu Ishaq narrated that he heard Al-Bara talking about Allah's saying: " Not equal are Those who sit (at home) from among the believers and those who go out for Jihad in the way of Allah." (An-Nisa 95). The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered Zaid (to write the verse). He brought a shoulder-blade (of a slaughtered camel) on which he wrote it (the verse). The son of Umm Maktum complained of his blindness to the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". (It was on this occasion that) it was revealed: "Not equal are those of the believers who sit (at home) without any trouble (such as illness, incapacity, disability etc.)." (An-Nisa 95).

The tradition was narrated through two other chains of transmitters.

142-(…) Abu Ishaq narrated from Al-Bara: When the following Verse was revealed: " Not equal are Those who sit (at home) from among the believers and those who go out for Jihad in the way of Allah." (An-Nisa 95), the son of Umm Maktum complained of his blindness to him (the Prophet). (It was on this occasion that) it was revealed: "Not equal are those of the believers who sit (at home) without any trouble (such as illness, incapacity, disability etc.)." (An-Nisa 95).

[41] The proof that the martyr would attain paradise

143-(1899) Jabir "Allah be pleased with him" reported that a man said: "O Messenger of Allah! Where shall I be if I am killed?" He said: "In Paradise." The man threw away the dates he had in his hand and fought until he was killed. According to the narration of Suwaid: A man said to the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" on the day of Uhud.

وَفِي حَدِيثِ سُوَيْدٍ: قَالَ رَجُلٌ لِلنَّبِيِّ ﷺ، يَوْمَ أُحُدٍ.

[البخاري: كتاب المغازي، باب غزوة أحد، رقم: ٤٠٤٦].

144-(1900) Al- Bara "Allah be pleased with him" reported: A man from Banu Nabit (one of the Ansar tribes) came to the Holy Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "I testify that there is no god but Allah and that you are His Slave and Messenger." Then he went forward and fought until he was killed. The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "He has done a little but shall be given a great reward."

145-(1901) Anas Ibn Malik "Allah be pleased with him" reported: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" sent Busaisa as a spy to see what the caravan of Abu Sufyan was doing. He returned (and met the Prophet in his house) where there was nobody except The Messenger of Allah and me. I do not remember whether he (Anas) made an exception of some wives of the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" or not. He (Busaisa) told him the news of the caravan, whereupon The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came out (hurriedly), spoke to the people and said: "We are in need (of men), so, whoever has a mount to ride ready with him should ride with us." People began to ask him permission for bringing their mounts, which were grazing on the hillocks near Medina. He said: "No. (I want) only those who have their mounts ready."

So The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and his Companions proceeded towards Badr and preceded the infidels (of Mecca). When the infidels (also) reached there, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "None of you should step forward for (doing) anything unless I am ahead of him." The infidels advanced (towards us), and The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Get up to enter Paradise which is equal in width to the heavens and the earth." Umair Ibn Al-Humam Al-Ansari said: "O Messenger of Allah! Is Paradise equal in width to the heavens and the earth?" He said: "Yes." Umair said: "Bravo!"

The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" asked him: "What led you to say bravo?" He said: "O Messenger of Allah! Nothing but the desire to be among its residents." He said: "You are one of its residents." He took out dates from his bag and began to eat them. Then he said: "If I were to live until I have eaten all these dates of mine, it would be a long life." He threw away all the dates he had with him. Then he fought the enemies until he was killed.

146-(1902) Abdullah Ibn Qais narrated from his father that while he was facing the enemy, he reported that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "No doubt, , the gates of Paradise are under the shadows of the swords." A man in a shabby condition got up and said: "O Abu Musa! Did you hear The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying this? He said: Yes. He returned to his friends and said: I greet you (a farewell greeting). Then he broke the sheath of his sword, threw it away, advanced with his (naked) sword towards the enemy and fought (them) with it until he was killed.

147-(677) Anas Ibn Malik "Allah be pleased with him" narrated that some people came to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said to him: Send with us some men who may teach us the Qur'an and the Sunna. Accordingly, he sent seventy men from the Ansar. They were called the Reciters and among them was my maternal uncle Haram. They used to recite the Qur'an, discuss and study its meaning at night. In the day they used to bring water and pour it (in pitchers) in the mosque, collect wood and sell it, and with the earnings they would buy food for the people of the Suffa and the needy. The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" sent the Reciters with these people, who fell upon them and killed them before they reached their destination. (At their last breaths), they said: O Allah, convey from us the news to our Prophet that we met You and we are pleased with You as well as You are pleased with us. A man attacked Haram from behind and pierced him with a spear, which killed him. (At his last breaths), Haram said: By the Lord of the Ka'ba, I met with success. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to his Companions: Your brothers have been killed and they were saying: O Allah, convey from us the news to our Prophet that we met You and we are pleased with You as well as You are pleased with us.

148-(1903) Anas "Allah be pleased with him" related: My uncle, after whom I have been named, was not present with the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" on the Day of Badr. He felt distressed about it. He would say: I have missed the first battle fought by the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and if Allah now gives me an opportunity to see a battlefield with the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", Allah will see what I do therein. He was afraid to say more than this (lest he be unable to keep his word with Allah). He was present with the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" on the Day of Uhud. He met Sa'd Ibn Mu'adh (who was retreating). Anas said to him: O Abu Amr, where (are you going)? Woe (to you)! I find the smell of Paradise beside the Uhud mountain. He went forward and fought them (the enemy) until he was killed. More than eighty wounds inflicted with swords, spears and arrows were found on his body. His sister, my aunt, Ar-Rubaiy Bint An-Nadr said: I could not recognize my brother's body (it was so badly mutilated) except from his finger-tips. (It was on this occasion that) the Qur'anic verse: " Men who have been true to their covenant with Allah. Of them some have completed their vow (to the extreme), and some still wait: but they have never changed (their determination) in the least." (Al-Ahzab 23) It was said that this verse was revealed about him and his companions.

[42] One who fights that the word of Allah should be exalted fights in the cause of Allah

149-(1904) Abu Musa Al-Ash'ari "Allah be pleased with him" reported: A desert Arab came to the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: Messenger of Allah, one man fights for the spoils of war; another fights that he may be remembered, and another fights that he may see his (high) position (achieved as a result of his valor in fighting). Which of these is fighting in the cause of Allah? The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: One who fights with the aim of exalting the word of Allah is a fighter in the way of Allah.

150-(...) Abu Musa "Allah be pleased with him" reported: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was asked which of the men fights in the way of Allah: (one who fights) for displaying his courage; (a man who) fights out of his family pride and (a man who) fights for showing off, who amongst these fights in the way of Allah? The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Who fights that the word of Allah be exalted fights in the way of Allah."

(...) Abu Musa "Allah be pleased with him" reported: We came to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: O Messenger of Allah, one of us fights to display his courage...and the rest of the Hadith is the same.

[43] Whoever fights for showing off and gaining reputation would be doomed to the fire (of Hell)

152-(1905) Sulaiman Ibn Yasar narrated: People dispersed from around Abu Huraira, and Natil (Ibn Qais Al-Hizami Ash-Shami), who was from Sham said to him: O Sheikh, narrate (to us) a Hadith you heard from The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". He said: Yes. I heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying: "The first of men (whose case) will be decided on the Day of Judgment will be a man who died as a martyr. He shall be brought and Allah will make him recount His blessings (which He had bestowed upon him) and he will recount them. Then Allah will say: What did you do (to requite these blessings)? He will say: I fought for You until I died as a martyr. Allah will say: You have told a lie. You fought so that you might be called "a brave warrior"; and you were called so. Then judgements will be passed against him and he will be dragged with his face downward and thrown into Hell. Then there will be brought a man who acquired knowledge which he taught (to others) and recited the Qur'an. He will be brought And Allah will make him recount His blessings and he will recount them. Then Allah will ask: What did you do (to requite these blessings)? He will say: I acquired knowledge and spread it and recited the Qur'an seeking for Your pleasure. Allah will say: You have told a lie. You acquired knowledge so that you might be called "a scholar" and you recited the Qur'an so that it might be said: "He is a reciter" and it was said. Then judgements will be passed against him and he shall be dragged with his face downward and thrown into the Fire. Then there will be brought a man whom Allah had made abundantly rich and had granted every kind of wealth. He will be brought and Allah will make him recount His blessings and he will recount them. Allah will then ask: What did you do (to requite these blessings)? He will say: I spent money in every cause in which You wished that it should be spent. Allah will say: You have told a lie. You did so that it might be said about You: "He is a generous man" and it was said.

٤٦ ـ بابُ اسْتِحْبَابِ طَلَبِ الشَّهَادة في سبيل الله تعالى

١٥٦ ـ (١٩٠٨) ـ حدّثنا شَيْبَانُ بْنُ فَرُّوخَ: حَدَّثَنَا حَمَّادُ بْنُ سَلَمَةَ: حَدَّثَنَا ثَابِتٌ، عَنْ أَنَسِ بْنِ مَالِكٍ. قَالَ: قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ: «مَنْ طَلَبَ الشَّهَادَةَ صَادِقاً، أُعْطِيَهَا، وَلَوْ لَمْ تُصِبْهُ».

١٥٧ ـ (١٩٠٩) ـ حدّثني أَبُو الطَّاهِرِ وَحَرْمَلَةُ بْنُ يَحْيَىٰ ـ وَاللَّفْظُ لِحَرْمَلَةَ ـ قَالَ أَبُو الطَّاهِرِ: أَخْبَرَنَا. وَقَالَ حَرْمَلَةُ: حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ وَهْبٍ: حَدَّثَنِي أَبُو شُرَيْحٍ؛ أَنَّ سَهْلَ بْنَ and peace be upon him" said: "Whoever seeks for martyrdom with sincerity will be elevated by Allah among the martyrs even if he died on his bed." Abu Tahir did not mention in his narration the words: "with sincerity".

[47] Condemnation of the one who died but never fought in the way of Allah nor did he ever hope or decide to set out for jihad

158-(1910) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Whoever died but did not fight in the way of Allah nor did he hope (or decide to set out) for Jihad would be considered to have died the death of a hypocrite."

Abdullah Ibn Al-Mubarak said: We think the Hadith applied to the time of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him".

[48] The reward of those who could not join a jihad expedition because of illness or some other excuse

159-(1911) Jabir "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: We were with the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" on an expedition, when he said: "There are some people in Medina. Never you cover a distance or cross a valley except that they are with you. They have been detained by illness."

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Al-A'mash, with the following change: "They will share with you the reward (of Jihad)."

[49] The merit of joining a naval expedition for jihad

160-(1912) Anas "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to visit Umm Haram Bint Milhan, who presented food to him. Umm Haram was the wife of Ubada Ibn As-Samit. Once, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" visited her and she presented food to him and started looking for lice in his head. Then The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" slept, and afterwards woke up smiling. Umm Haram asked: "What makes you smile, O Allah's Apostle?" He said: "Some of my followers (in a dream) were presented before me as fighters in Allah's Cause (on board a ship) amidst this sea. They were as kings on the thrones (or like kings on the thrones)." (He is in doubt as to which expression was used). Umm Haram said: "O Allah's Apostle! Invoke Allah to make me one of them." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" invoked Allah for her. Then he slept again and woke up smiling. Once again Umm Haram asked: "What makes you smile, O

أَبِي أُمَامَةَ بْنِ سَهْلِ بْنِ حُنَيْفٍ حَدَّثَهُ، عَنْ أَبِيهِ، عَنْ جَدِّهِ؛ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ ﷺ قَالَ: «مَنْ سَأَلَ اللَّهَ الشَّهَادَةَ بِصِدْقٍ، بَلَّغَهُ اللَّهُ مَنَازِلَ الشُّهَدَاءِ، وَإِنْ مَاتَ عَلَىٰ فِرَاشِهِ».

وَلَمْ يَذْكُرْ أَبُو الطَّاهِرِ فِي حَدِيثِهِ «بِصِدْقٍ».

٤٧ ـ باب ذَمِّ مَنْ مَاتَ ولم يَغْزُ ولم يُحَدِّثْ نَفْسَهُ بالغزو

١٥٨ ـ (١٩١٠) ـ حدّثنا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ عَبْدِ الرَّحْمٰنِ بْنِ سَهْمٍ الأَنْطَاكِيُّ: أَخْبَرَنَا عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ الْمُبَارَكِ، عَنْ وُهَيْبٍ الْمَكِّيِّ، عَنْ عُمَرَ بْنِ مُحَمَّدِ بْنِ الْمُنْكَدِرِ، عَنْ سُمَيٍّ، عَنْ أَبِي صَالِحٍ، عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ: قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ: «مَنْ مَاتَ وَلَمْ يَغْزُ، وَلَمْ يُحَدِّثْ بِهِ نَفْسَهُ، مَاتَ عَلَىٰ شُعْبَةٍ مِنْ نِفَاقٍ».

قَالَ ابْنُ سَهْمٍ: قَالَ عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ الْمُبَارَكِ: فَنُرَى أَنَّ ذٰلِكَ كَانَ عَلَىٰ عَهْدِ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ ﷺ.

٤٨ ـ باب ثواب من حَبَسَه عن الغزو مَرَضٌ أو عُذْرٌ آخر

١٥٩ ـ (١٩١١) ـ حدّثنا عُثْمَانُ بْنُ أَبِي شَيْبَةَ: حَدَّثَنَا جَرِيرٌ، عَنِ الأَعْمَشِ، عَنْ أَبِي سُفْيَانَ، عَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ: كُنَّا مَعَ النَّبِيِّ ﷺ فِي غَزَاةٍ. فَقَالَ: «إِنَّ بِالْمَدِينَةِ لَرِجَالاً مَا سِرْتُمْ مَسِيراً وَلاَ قَطَعْتُمْ وَادِياً، إِلاَّ كَانُوا مَعَكُمْ، حَبَسَهُمُ الْمَرَضُ».

(...) ـ وحدّثنا يَحْيَىٰ بْنُ يَحْيَىٰ: أَخْبَرَنَا أَبُو مُعَاوِيَةَ. (ح) وَحَدَّثَنَا أَبُو بَكْرِ بْنُ أَبِي شَيْبَةَ وَأَبُو سَعِيدٍ الأَشَجُّ. قَالاَ: حَدَّثَنَا وَكِيعٌ. (ح) وَحَدَّثَنَا إِسْحَاقُ بْنُ إِبْرَاهِيمَ: أَخْبَرَنَا عِيسَى بْنُ يُونُسَ. كُلُّهُمْ عَنِ الأَعْمَشِ، بِهٰذَا الإِسْنَادِ. غَيْرَ أَنَّ فِي حَدِيثِ وَكِيعٍ: «إِلاَّ شَرِكُوكُمْ فِي الأَجْرِ».

٤٩ ـ باب فَضْلِ الغَزْوِ في البَحْر

١٦٠ ـ (١٩١٢) ـ حدّثنا يَحْيَىٰ بْنُ يَحْيَىٰ قَالَ: قَرَأْتُ عَلَىٰ مَالِكٍ، عَنْ إِسْحَاقَ بْنِ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ أَبِي طَلْحَةَ، عَنْ أَنَسِ بْنِ مَالِكٍ؛ أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ﷺ كَانَ يَدْخُلُ عَلَىٰ أُمِّ حَرَامٍ بِنْتِ مِلْحَانَ فَتُطْعِمُهُ. وَكَانَتْ أُمُّ حَرَامٍ تَحْتَ عُبَادَةَ بْنِ الصَّامِتِ. فَدَخَلَ عَلَيْهَا رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ يَوْماً فَأَطْعَمَتْهُ. ثُمَّ جَلَسَتْ تَفْلِي رَأْسَهُ، فَنَامَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ، ثُمَّ اسْتَيْقَظَ وَهُوَ يَضْحَكُ. قَالَتْ: فَقُلْتُ: مَا يُضْحِكُكَ يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ؟ قَالَ: «نَاسٌ مِنْ أُمَّتِي عُرِضُوا عَلَيَّ غُزَاةً فِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ. يَرْكَبُونَ ثَبَجَ هٰذَا الْبَحْرِ. مُلُوكاً عَلَى الأَسِرَّةِ. أَوْ مِثْلَ الْمُلُوكِ عَلَى الأَسِرَّةِ» ـ يَشُكُّ أَيَّهُمَا قَالَ ـ قَالَتْ: فَقُلْتُ: يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ، ادْعُ اللَّهَ أَنْ يَجْعَلَنِي مِنْهُمْ، فَدَعَا لَهَا. ثُمَّ وَضَعَ رَأْسَهُ فَنَامَ. ثُمَّ اسْتَيْقَظَ وَهُوَ يَضْحَكُ. قَالَتْ: فَقُلْتُ: مَا يُضْحِكُكَ يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ؟ قَالَ: «نَاسٌ مِنْ أُمَّتِي عُرِضُوا عَلَيَّ غُزَاةً فِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ» كَمَا

Allah's Apostle?" He replied: "Some of my followers were presented to me as fighters in Allah's Cause." He repeated the same dream. Umm Haram said: "O Allah's Apostle! Invoke Allah for me to be one of them." He said: "You are amongst the first ones." It happened that she sailed on the sea in the time when Mu'awiya Ibn Abu Sufyan was the governor (of Sham during the caliphate of Uthman). After she had disembarked, she fell down from her riding animal and died.

161-(...) Umm Haram (who was the aunt of Anas) narrated: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came to us one day and had a nap in our house. When he woke up, he was laughing. I said: "O Messenger of Allah! What makes you laugh?" He said: "I saw a people from my followers sailing on the surface of the sea (looking) like kings (sitting) on their thrones." I said: "Invoke Allah for me to be among them." He said: "You will be among them." He had another nap, after which he woke up and was laughing. I asked him about that, and he gave the same reply. I said: "Invoke Allah for me to be among them." He said: "You are among the first patch." Anas said: Ubada Ibn As-Samit married her. He joined a naval expedition and took her along with him. When she returned, a mule was brought for her. While she was mounting it she fell down, with her neck broken (and she died).

162-(...) Umm Haram Bint Milhan narrated: One day The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" slept (at a place) near me. He woke up smiling. She said: "O Messenger of Allah! What makes you laugh?" He said: "Some people from my followers were presented to me. They were sailing amidst this green sea...and the rest is the same.

(...) Anas "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: One day The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" visited the daughter of Milhan, the maternal aunt of Anas and placed his head near her...and the rest is the same.

[50] The merit of keeping vigilance in the way of Allah "exalted and Hallowed be He"

163-(1913) Salman "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: I heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying: "Keeping vigilance for a day and a night is better (in point of reward) than fasting for a whole month and standing in prayer every night. If a person dies (while keeping vigilance), this (good) act of his will continue and he will go on receiving his reward for it perpetually and will be saved from the torture of the grave."

قَالَ فِي الأُولَىٰ. قَالَتْ: فَقُلْتُ: يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ، ادْعُ اللَّهَ أَنْ يَجْعَلَنِي مِنْهُمْ. قَالَ: «أَنْتِ مِنَ الأَوَّلِينَ».

فَرَكِبَتْ أُمُّ حَرَامٍ بِنْتُ مِلْحَانَ الْبَحْرَ فِي زَمَنِ مُعَاوِيَةَ، فَصُرِعَتْ عَنْ دَابَّتِهَا حِينَ خَرَجَتْ مِنَ الْبَحْرِ. فَهَلَكَتْ.

[51] The martyrdoms

164-(1914) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" reported: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "While a man walks along a path, finds a thorny twig lying on the way and puts it aside, Allah would appreciate it and forgive him." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The martyrs are of five kinds: one who dies of plague; one who dies of diarrhea (or cholera); one who is drowned; one who is buried under debris and one who dies fighting in the way of Allah, the Great and Almighty."

165-(1915) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" reported that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Whom do you consider to be a martyr among you?" They (the Companions) said: "O Messenger of Allah! Whoever is killed in the way of Allah is a martyr." He said: "Then (if this is only so) the martyrs of my nation will be small in number." They asked: "O Messenger of Allah! who are they?" He said: "One who is killed in the way of Allah is a martyr, one who dies in the way of Allah is a martyr, one who dies of plague is a martyr, and one who dies of the abdominal disease is a martyr." Ibn Miqsam said: I testify the truth of what your father narrated old that the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "One who is drowned is a martyr."

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Suhail, with the following change: Ibn Miqsam said: I testify the truth of what your brother narrated that the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "One who is drowned is a martyr."

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Suhail, in which he added: Ibn Miqsam said: "One who is drowned is a martyr."

166-(1916) Hafsa Bint Sirin narrated: Anas Ibn Malik asked me: What was the reason of the death of Yahya Ibn Abu Amra? I said: (He died) of plague. He said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Death by plague is martyrdom for every Muslim (who dies because of it)."

[52] The merit of archery and inducing others to learn it and condemnation of one who learnt it and then neglected it

167-(1917) Uqba Ibn Amir narrated: I heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying while delivering a sermon from the pulpit: "Prepare to meet them (the enemies) with as much power as you can afford. Beware, power consists in archery. Beware, power consists in archery. Beware, power consists in archery."

168-(1918) Uqba Ibn Amir narrated: I heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying: "The territories shall be opened to you and Allah will suffice you (against your enemies), but none of you should fail to play with his arrows."

(...)Uqba Ibn Amir narrated: I heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying the same.

169-(1919) Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Shumasa narrated that Fuqaim Al-Lakhmi said to Uqba Ibn Amir: You spend time at (throwing arrows) between these two targets and you are an old man, so it will be very hard upon you. Uqba said: Had it not been for what I heard from the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", I would not have strained myself. Al-Harith (a sub-narrator) said: I asked Ibn Shumasa: What was that? He said that he (The Prophet) said: "Whoever learnt archery and then abandoned it is not from us, or he is guilty of disobedience."

[53] The prophet's saying: "A group of people from my nation will remain on the right path and continue to be triumphant; their opponents shall not be able to cause any harm to them"

170-(1920) Thawban narrated that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "A group of people from my nation will remain victorious on the right path and continue to be triumphant (against their enemies). He who opposes them shall not be able to cause any harm to them. They will remain in this state until Allah's Command is executed." In the narration of Qutaiba, the following is not mentioned: "They will remain in this state."

171-(1921) Al- Mughira narrated: I heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying: "A group of people from my nation will continue to be triumphant over the people until the Command of Allah overtakes them while they are still victorious."

173-(1923) Jabir Ibn Abdullah "Allah be pleased with both" reported: I heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying: "A group of people from my nation will continue to fight In defense of truth and remain victorious until the Day of judgment."

174-(1037) Umair Ibn Umm Hani narrated: I heard Mu'awiya saying while delivering a speech from the pulpit that he heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying: "A group of people from my nation will continue to obey Allah's Command, and those who disappoint or oppose them shall not be able to cause any harm to them. They will be dominating the people until Allah's Command is carried out, while they are victorious over the people."

175-(...) Yazid Ibn Al-Asamm narrated that he heard Mu'awiya Ibn Abu Sufyan relating a tradition from the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" other than which he did not hear from the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" from the pulpit: "Whomever Allah wants to do a favour, He enables him to understand (the principles of) religion. A group of people from the Muslims will remain on the Right Path and continue until the Day of Judgment to be victorious over those who oppose them."

176-(1924) Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Shumasa Al- Mahri narrated: I was in the company of Maslama Ibn Mukhallad, and Abdullah Ibn Amr Ibn Al-As was with him. Abdullah said: "The Hour shall not be established but when the worst of people are left on the earth. They will be worse than the people of pre-Islamic period of ignorance. They will get whatever they ask of Allah." We were still sitting when Uqba Ibn Amir came, to whom Maslama said: O Uqba! Listen to what Abdullah says. Uqba said: He knows better. As for me, I heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying: "A group of people from my nation will continue to fight in obedience to the Command of Allah, remaining dominant over their enemies. Those who oppose them shall not cause any harm to them. They will remain in this state until the Hour overtakes them." Abdullah said: "Yes. Then Allah will raise a wind, which will be fragrant like musk, whose touch will be (as smooth) as the touch of silk. It will not leave a single person in whose heart there is faith (as little) as a grain but that it will cause him to die. Only the worst of men will remain whom the Hour shall overwhelm."

(34) The Book Of Games and Slaughtered Animals

That Could Be Eaten

[1] Hunting with the help of the trained dogs

1-(1929) Adi Ibn Hatim "Allah be pleased with him" reported: I said: "O Messenger of Allah! I set off trained dogs and they catch for me (the game), on which I recite the name of Allah." He said: "When you set off your trained dogs and you recite the name of Allah (while setting them off), then eat (the game)." I said: "Even if these (trained dogs) kill that (the game)?" He (the Prophet) said: "Even if these kill, but (on the condition) that no other dog, which you did not set off (along with your dogs), participates, (in catching the game)." I said to him: "I throw a heavy featherless blunt arrow, for hunting and killing (the game)." He said: "When you throw such a featherless blunt arrow , and it pierces, then eat, but if it falls flatly (and beats the game to death), then do not eat that."

2-(…) Adi Ibn Hatim "Allah be pleased with him" reported: I asked The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying: "We are people who hunt with these (trained) dogs, then (what should we do)?" He (The Prophet) said: "When you set off your trained dogs having recited the name of Allah, then eat what they catch for you, even if it (the game) is killed, on the condition that (the hunting dog) has not eaten (any portion of the game). If it has eaten (the game), then don't eat it since I fear that it might have caught it for its own self; and do not eat if other dogs take part with your trained dogs."

3-(…) Adi Ibn Hatim "Allah be pleased with him" reported: I asked The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" about (hunting with the help of) the heavy featherless blunt arrow. He said: "If it strikes (the game) with its sharp end, then eat, but if it strikes flatly and it dies, that is an animal which is beaten to death, which you should not eat." I asked The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" about (hunting with the help of) dogs, and he said: "When you set off your dog (for hunting) reciting the name of Allah, then eat (the game), but if a portion of it is eaten (by the dog), then do not eat that, for it (your dog) has caught such (a game) for itself." I said: "If I find along with my dog another dog, and do not know which (of the dogs) has caught (the game, then what should I do)?" He (The Prophet) said: "Don't eat that, for you recited the name of Allah only on your dog and not on the other one."

that? He said: We sucked it just as a baby sucks and then drank water over it, and it sufficed us for the day until night. We beat off leaves with the help of our staffs, then drenched them with water and ate them. We then went to the coast of the sea, and there rose before us on the coast of the sea something like a big mound. We came near that and we found that it was a beast, called Al-Anbar (spermaceti whale).

Abu Ubaida said: It is dead. He then said: No (but it does not matter), we have been sent by the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" in the way of Allah and you are hard pressed (on account of the scarcity of food), so you might eat that. We three hundred in number stayed there for a month, until we grew bulky. He (Jabir) said: I saw how we extracted pitcher after pitcher full of fat from the cavity of its eye, and sliced from it compact piece of meat equal to a bull or like a bull.

Abu Ubaida called forth thirteen men from us and he made them sit in the cavity of its eye, and he took hold of one of the ribs of its chest and made it stand and then saddled the biggest of the camels we had with us and it passed under it (the arched rib). Moreover, we provided ourselves with pieces of boiled meat (especially for use in our journey). When we came back to Medina, we went to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and mentioned that to him, whereupon he said: "That was a provision which Allah had brought forth for you. Is there any piece of meat (left) with you, so that you would give it to us?" He (Jabir) said: We sent to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" some of it, which he ate.

18-(...) Jabir Ibn Abdullah "Allah be pleased with both" reported: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" sent us (on an expedition). We were three hundred riders and our chief (leader) was Abu Ubaida Ibn Al-Jarrah. We were to watch a caravan belonging to Quraish. So we stayed on the coast for half a month, and were so much afflicted by extreme hunger that we (were forced) to eat leaves. That is why it (such an expedition) was called the Detachment of Leaves. The sea cast out for us an animal, which was called Al-Anbar (spermaceti whale). We ate of that for half of the month and rubbed its fat on our (bodies) until our bodies became stout. Abu Ubaida caught hold of one of its ribs and fixed that up. He then cast a glance at the tallest man of the army and the highest of the camels. Then he made him ride over it, and that man passed beneath it (the rib), and many men could sit in its eye cavity, and we extracted many

25-(...) Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade the eating of the meat of donkeys on the day of (the holy battle of) Khaibar, when the people were in need of it.

26-(1937) Ash- Shaibani reported: I asked Abdullah Ibn Abu Awfa about (the command of) the meat of donkeys. He said: We suffered from hunger on the Day of (the holy battle of) Khaibar while we were with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". We found donkeys in the exterior of Medina. We slaughtered them and our earthen pots were boiling when the announcer of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" proclaimed that the earthen pots should be turned upside down and nothing of the meat of the donkeys should be eaten. I (Ash-Shaibani) said: What kind of prohibition is it, which he (The Prophet) made? He said: We discussed the matter among ourselves. Some of us said that it was made unlawful for ever, (whereas others said) it was made unlawful because its one-fifth was not given (to the treasury).

27-(...) Ash-Shaibani narrated: I heard Abdullah Ibn Abu Awfa saying: We suffered from hunger during the nights of Khaibar. On the Day of (the holy battle of) Khaibar, we fell upon donkeys which we slaughtered, and when our earthen pots boiled with them, the announcer of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" made a proclamation that the earthen pots should be turned upside down, and nothing should be eaten of the meat of the donkeys. Some of the people said that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade (eating this meat) for one-fifth (due to the State) had not been paid, while others said that he prohibited it for ever.

28-(1938) Adi (Ibn Thabit) narrated : I heard Al-Bara and Abdullah Ibn Abu Awfa saying: We found some donkeys, which we cooked. Then the announcer of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" made a proclamation that the earthen pots should be turned upside down.

(...)This Hadith was narrated on the authority of Ubaidullah with the same chain of transmitters.

(...) A Hadith regarding the eating of the mastigure was narrated from the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" on the authority of Ibn Umar. But this narration contains the following slight variation of wording: A mastigure was brought to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" but he neither ate it nor did he prohibit (the eating of) it. The narration of Usama contains: The man (who asked about the mastigure) was standing in the mosque and The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was sitting on the pulpit.

42-(1944) Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" reported that there were some men with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" from among his Companions, including Sa'd, when (cooked) meat of mastigure was brought to them. One of the wives of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "It is the meat of mastigure." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Eat, for it is lawful, but it is not my diet."

46-(1947) Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" reported: Umm Hufaid Bint Al-Harith, Ibn Abbess's aunt sent some dried yogurt, ghee (a clarified semi-fluid butter) and a mastigure to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" as a gift. The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ate the dried yogurt and butter but left the mastigure because he disliked it. There were those who ate (from their meat) and those who abandoned that. On the next day, I met Ibn Abbas, and told him (about that) in the presence of many people. Some of them said that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had said: "I neither eat it nor do I forbid (anyone) to eat it, nor do I make it unlawful." Ibn Abbas said: What a bad it is that you say! The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" has not been sent, but (to declare clearly) the lawful and the unlawful (things). Once, we were with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" in the house of Maimuna, and there were with him Al-Fadl Ibn Abbas, Khalid Ibn Al-Walid and a woman. Then a tray of food containing meat was presented to him. When The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was about to eat it, Maimuna said: "It is the meat of mastigure." He withdrew his hand saying: "That is the meat which I never eat." But he said to those (who were present with him): "You may eat." Al-Fadl and Khalid Ibn Al-Walid ate of it, and so did the woman. Maimuna said: "I never eat anything but that which The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" eats."

وَقَالَتْ مَيْمُونَةُ: لاَ آكُلُ مِنْ شَيْءٍ إِلاَّ شَيْءٌ يَأْكُلُ مِنْهُ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ.

48-(1949) Abu Az-Zubair reported that he heard Jabir Ibn Abdullah "Allah be pleased with both" saying that a (cooked) mastigure was presented to The Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him”, but he refused to eat it , and said: “I do not know. Perhaps it (the mastigure) might be one of (the natives of) the ancient past whose (forms) had been distorted.”

49-(1950) Abu Az-Zubair reported: I asked Jabir "Allah be pleased with him" about (eating) the mastigure, and he said: “Don't eat it because he (The Prophet) detested it.” He (the narrator) said that Umar Ibn Al-Khattab "Allah be pleased with him" said: “The Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” did not make it unlawful. Allah “Exalted and Glorified be He” has made it (a source) of benefit for more than one (person). It is a common diet of the shepherds. Had it been with me, I would have eaten it.”

50-(1951) Abu Sa'id "Allah be pleased with him" reported that a man said: “O Messenger of Allah! We live in a land which is abundant of mastigures, so what do you order or what verdict do you give (about eating it)?” He said: “It was mentioned to me that some people from among the children of Isra'il were distorted (so probably they might have been distorted in the shape of mastigures).” So he (The Prophet) neither ordered (us to eat it) nor did he forbid (us to eat it). Abu Sa'id said: Some time later, Umar said: “Allah “Exalted and Glorified be He” has made it (a source of) benefit for more than one (person), for it is the common diet of shepherds. Had it been with me, I would have eaten it. The Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” (did not eat it only because he) detested it.”

51-(…) Abu Sa'id "Allah be pleased with him" reported that a Bedouin came to The Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” and said: “I live in a low land which is abundant of mastigures, and these are the common diet of my family (tell me what is your verdict?)” He (The Prophet) did make no reply. We said to him: “Repeat it (your problem)”, and he repeated it, but he did make no reply. (It was repeated thrice.) Then The Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” called him at the third time saying: “O man of the desert, verily Allah cursed or showed wrath to a district of the children of Isra'il and distorted them to beasts moving on the earth. I do not know, probably this (mastigure) may be one of them. So I do not eat it, nor do I prohibit its eating.”

[8] Permissibility of (eating) the locusts

52-(1952) Abdullah Ibn Abu Awfa "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: We took part in seven holy battles with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", during which we ate locusts.

(...) The same was narrated through another chain of transmitters, with difference in the number of the expeditions between six and seven.

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Abu Ya'fur, and mentioned seven holy battles.

[9] Permissibility of (eating) the hare

53-(1953) Anas Ibn Malik "Allah be pleased with him" reported: We chased a hare at Marr Az-Zahran (a valley near Mecca). They (my companions) ran, but felt exhausted; I also tried until I caught hold of it. I brought it to Abu Talha who slaughtered it and sent its haunch and two hind legs to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and it was I who brought them to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and he accepted them.

[10] Permissibility of using what enables one to hunt a game, and disapproval of flinging of small pebbles

54-(1954) Ibn Buraida reported: Abdullah Ibn Mughaffal "Allah be pleased with him" saw a person from among his companions throwing small pebbles, whereupon he said: Do not throw pebbles, for The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" did not like it, or he forbade flinging of pebbles since neither the game is taken thereby, nor an enemy defeated, but it may break a tooth or put out an eye. He, afterwards, again saw him flinging pebbles, and said to him: I inform you that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" did not approve or he forbade flinging of pebbles, and then I see you again flinging pebbles, I will not speak with you for so and so (time).

(...) The same was narrated through another chain of transmitters.

55-(...) Abdullah Ibn Mughaffal "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade flinging of pebbles. Ibn Ja'far added in his narration that he said: Because neither an enemy is defeated thereby, nor is the game killed, but it may

So, no sooner had they seen Ibn Umar than they went away. Thereupon Ibn Umar said: "Who has done this? Allah has cursed him who does this. Verily The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" invoked curse upon one who made a live thing the target (of one's marksmanship)."

60-(1959) Abu Az-Zubair reported from Jabir Ibn Abdullah "Allah be pleased with both" that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade that any beast should be killed after it has been tied.

(35) The Book Of Sacrifices

[1] Its time

1-(1960) Jundub Ibn Sufyan "Allah be pleased with him" reported: I was with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" on the day of Sacrifice (Id Al-Adha). He had not returned after having offered (the Id) Prayer and finished it, when he saw the meat of the sacrificial animals, which had been slaughtered before he had completed the Prayer. He (the Prophet) said: "Whoever slaughtered his sacrificial animal before his or our (Id) Prayer, should slaughter another one instead of it, and whoever did not slaughter, should slaughter by (reciting) the name of Allah."

2-(...) Jundub Ibn Sufyan "Allah be pleased with him" reported: I was with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" on the day of Sacrifice (Id Al-Adha). After he had finished the (Id) prayer with the people, he looked at some goats, which had been slaughtered. Then, he said: "Whoever slaughtered his sacrificial goat before the Prayer, should slaughter another goat instead of it, and whoever did not slaughter, should slaughter by (reciting) the name of Allah."

(...) The same was narrated through another chain of transmitters.

3-(...) Jundub Ibn Sufyan "Allah be pleased with him" reported: I was with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" on the day of Sacrifice (Id Al-Adha). After he had finished the (Id) prayer, he delivered a sermon and said: "Whoever slaughtered (his sacrificial animal) before the Prayer, should slaughter another one instead of it, and whoever did not slaughter, should slaughter by (reciting) the name of Allah."

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Shu'ba, with the same chain of transmitters.

4-(1961) Al-Bara "Allah be pleased with him" reported: My maternal uncle Abu Burda sacrificed his animal before (Id) Prayer. Thereupon The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "That is a goat (slaughtered for the sake of) flesh (and not as a sacrifice on the Day of Al-Adha)." He (Abu Burda) said: "I have a six-month lamb." He (The Prophet) said: "Offer it as a sacrifice, but it will not justify for anyone other than you (afterwards)." Then, he said: "He who sacrificed (the animal) before (Id) Prayer, he in fact slaughtered it for his own self, and he who slaughtered after the Prayer, his ritual of sacrifice became complete and he in fact observed the religious practice of the Muslims."

Al-Bara Ibn Azib "Allah be pleased with him" reported that his maternal uncle Abu Burda Ibn Niyar had sacrificed his animal earlier than the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" sacrificed. He said: "O Messenger of Allah! It is the day of meat and it is not desirable (to have longing for meat). For this reason I hurried and offered my sacrificial animal, so that I might feed my family and neighbours and my kith and kin." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Offer a sacrificial animal once again." He said: "O Messenger of Allah! I have a small milch goat of less than one year, and it is better than two dry goats (from which) meat (is expected)." [4] Permissibility of slaughtering the animal with whatever causes the blood to flow, except tooth, nail and bone

20-(1968) Abaya Ibn Rifa'a Ibn Rafi narrated from his grandfather Rafi Ibn Khadij: I said to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him": "We may meet the enemies in the future and have no knives (can we slaughter the animals with reeds?)" The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: " Make haste or be careful (in using whatever) causes blood to flow, and eat the animals if the name of Allah has been mentioned (on slaughtering them). Do not slaughter with teeth or fingernails and I will tell you why: It is because teeth are bones (which Cannot cut properly) and fingernails are the tools used by the Ethiopians (whom we should not imitate for they are infidels)." We had gained many sheep and camels as booty. One of those camels fled. A man threw an arrow at the camel, with which (Allah) stopped it. The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Some of these animals are like wild animals, so if you lose control over one of these animals, treat it as such."

42-(...) Sa'id Ibn Al-Musaiyyab narrated: I heard Umm Salama "Allah be pleased with her", the wife of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", saying: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "If one has a sacrificial animal (which he intends) to offer, and he enters the month of Dhul-Hijja, he should neither get his hair cut nor should he get his nails trimmed until he has sacrificed the animal."

(...)Amr Ibn Muslim Ibn Ammar Al-Laithi reported: While we were in a bathroom just before Id Al-Adha, some persons tried to remove the hair (of the pubic area) with the help of hair-removing chemicals. Some people who owned the bath (or some of the people who were sitting there) said that Sa'id Ibn Al-Musaiyyab did not approve of it, or he forbade (those intending to offer a sacrifice to do) it. Then I met Sa'id Ibn Al-Musaiyyab to whom I mentioned that, whereupon he said: O son of my brother! This Hadith has been forgotten and abandoned. Umm Salama "Allah be pleased with her", the wife of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", narrated to me that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said...and the rest is the same.

He (Ali) became angry and said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" did not tell me anything secretly which he concealed from the people, except that he told me four things. He said: O Commander of the Believers! What are they? He said: He (The Prophet) said: "Allah cursed him who cursed his father, Allah cursed him who slaughtered (a sacrificial animal by the name of) anyone other than Allah, Allah cursed him who sheltered an innovator (of heresy in religion) , and Allah cursed him who changed the boundary lines of the land."

(36) The Book Of Drinks

[1] The prohibition of the wine and all intoxicants

1-(1979) Ali Ibn Abu Talib "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: I got a she-camel as my share of the war booty on the day of Badr, and Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" gave me another she-camel. I let both of them kneel at the door of one of the Ansar, intending to carry The Idhkhir on them to sell it and use its price for my wedding banquet on marrying Fatima. A goldsmith from Banu Qainuqa was with me. Hamza Ibn Abd Al-Muttalib was in that house drinking wine and a lady singer was reciting: "O Hamza! (Kill) the fat old she camels (and serve them to your guests)."

So Hamza took his sword, went towards the two she-camels, cut off their humps, opened their flanks, and took a part of their livers. (I (a sub-narrator) said to Ibn Shihab (another sub-narrator): Did he take anything out of the hump? He said: He cut off the humps and took them altogether.) When I saw that dreadful sight, I went to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" in whose company Zaid Ibn Haritha was. I told him the news. The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came out in the company of Zaid Ibn Haritha, and I too went with them. He went to Hamza and spoke angrily to him. Hamza looked up and said: "Aren't you only the slaves of my forefathers?" The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" retreated and went out. (This incident happened before the prohibition of drinking Wine).

(...)This Hadith was narrated on the authority of Juraij with the same chain of transmitters.

2-(...) Ali "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: I got a she-camel as my share of the war booty on the day (of the battle) of Badr, and The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had given me a she-camel from the one-fifth of the booty. When I intended to marry Fatima, the daughter of Allah's Apostle, I had an appointment with a goldsmith from the tribe of Banu Qainuqa to go with me to bring Idhkhir (grass of pleasant smell) so that I might sell it to the goldsmiths and spend its price on my wedding party. I was collecting for my she-camels equipment of saddles, sacks and ropes while my two she-camels were kneeling down beside the room of an Ansari man. I returned after collecting whatever I collected, to see the humps of my two she-camels cut off, their flanks cut open and a portion of their livers was taken out.

When I saw that state of my two she-camels, I could not help weeping. I asked: "Who did so?" The people replied: "Hamza Ibn Abd Al-Muttalib who is staying with some Ansari drunks in this house, having a lady singer singing to him and his companions. She recited the following in her song: "O Hamza! (Kill) the fat old she camels (and serve them to your guests)." So Hamza took his sword, went towards the two she-camels, cut off their humps with his sword, opened their flanks, and took a part of their livers."

I went away till I reached The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and Zaid Ibn Haritha was with him. When The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" noticed on my face the effect of what I had suffered, he asked: "What is wrong with you." I replied: "O Allah's Apostle! I have never seen such a (dreadful) sight as I saw today. Hamza attacked my two she-camels, cut off their humps, and ripped open their flanks. He is sitting there in a house in the company of some drunks." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" then asked for his covering sheet, put it on, and set out walking followed by me and Zaid Ibn Haritha till he came to the house where Hamza was. He asked permission to enter, and he was allowed, and they were drunk. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" started blaming Hamza for what he had done, but Hamza was drunk and his eyes were red. Hamza looked at The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and then he raised his eyes. Then he looked at his knees, and raised up his eyes looking at his umbilicus. Then he raised up his eyes looking at his face. Hamza then said: "Aren't you but the slaves of my father?" The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" realized that he was drunk. So The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" retreated, and we went out with him.

4-(...) Abd Al-Aziz Ibn Suhaib reported: They (some persons) asked Anas Ibn Malik about Fadikh (the wine prepared from fresh dates), whereupon he said: There was no wine with us except this Fadikh of yours. It was only this Fadikh that I had been serving to Abu Talha and Abu Aiyyub along with some persons from amongst the Companions of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" in our house. When a person came and said: "Has the news reached you?" We said: "No." He said: "Verily the wine has been made unlawful." Abu Talha said: "O Anas! Spill these large pitchers." Afterwards, they never reverted to it, nor did they ask about this after the announcement by that man.

5-(...) Anas Ibn Malik "Allah be pleased with him" reported: I was standing amongst the uncles of my tribe serving them (the wine prepared from fresh dates called) Fadikh while I was the youngest of them, when a person came and said: "Verily the wine has been made unlawful." They said: "O Anas! Spill it away." So I spilt it. Sulaiman At-Taimi (a sub-narrator) said that he asked Anas what that (Fadikh)was. He said: It had been prepared from dry and fresh dates. Abu Bakr Ibn Anas said: It was their wine during those days. Sulaiman said: A person narrated to me from Anas Ibn Malik that he said so.

6-(...) Anas "Allah be pleased with him" reported: I was standing amongst the people of my (tribe), serving them wine...and the rest of the Hadith is the same, but with this variation that Abu Bakr Ibn Anas said: It (licker prepared from fresh dates)was their wine during those days, and Anas was present there and he did not deny that. Mu'tamir reported from his father: A person who was with me told me that he had heard Anas saying that this was their wine during those days.

The (verses pertaining the) prohibition of liquor have been revealed." So we spilt it on that day. It was a mixture of dry dates and fresh dates. Anas Ibn Malik "Allah be pleased with him" said: The wine was made unlawful. The common wine of theirs was then a mixture of dry dates and fresh dates.

(…)Anas Ibn Malik "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: I was serving wine to Abu Talha, Abu Dujana, and Suhail Ibn Baida' from a water skin containing the mixture of fresh dates and dry dates…and the rest of the Hadith is the same.

8-(1981) Anas Ibn Malik "Allah be pleased with him" reported that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade (people) to mix fresh dates with dry dates and then drink (their resultant wine); and that was their common licker when the wine was prohibited.

9-(1880) Anas Ibn Malik "Allah be pleased with him" reported: I was serving drink to Abu Ubaida Ibn Al-Jarrah, Abu Talha and Ubai Ibn Ka'b prepared from fresh dates and dry dates when a visitor came and said: "Verily the wine has been made unlawful." Abu Talha said: "O Anas! Get up and break this pitcher." I got up to a pointed stone with whose lower part I struck the pitcher until it broke into pieces.

10-(1982) Anas Ibn Malik "Allah be pleased with him" reported: When Allah revealed the verse in which He prohibited the wine, there was no wine drunk but that prepared from dates.

[2] It is forbidden to prepare vinegar from wine

11-(1983) Anas "Allah be pleased with him" reported that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was asked about using wine for preparing vinegar. He answered in the negative.

[3] Forbiddance of using wine as a medical treatment

12-(1984) Wa'il Al-Hadrami reported that Tariq Ibn Suwaid Al-Ju'fi asked The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" about wine. He forbade it and disliked preparing it. [9] Permissibility of Nabidh, which has not become strong and has not turned into intoxicant

79-(2004) Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" reported that Nabidh was prepared for The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" in the beginning of the night and he would drink it in the morning and the following night and the following day and the night after that up to the afternoon (of the coming day). If anything was left out of that he would give it to his servant, or order that it be poured out.

80-(...) Yahya Al-Bahrani narrated: Nabidh was mentioned in the presence of Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" who said that Nabidh was prepared for The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" in the water skin, (Shu'ba said): on the night of Monday. He would drink it on Monday and on Tuesday up to the afternoon, and If anything was left out of it, he would give it to his servant or pour it out.

81-(...) Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" reported that raisins would be soaked in water for The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" which he would drink on that day and on the next day and on the following day until the evening of the third day. He would then order it to be drunk by (other people) or to be spilt.

82-(...) Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" reported that Nabidh used to be prepared from raisins for The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" in the water skin which he would drink on that day, on the next day and the day following; and when It was the evening of the third day, he would also drink it and give it to (his Companions). But if something was left over, he would spill it.

83-(...) Yahya Abu Umar An-Nakh'i reported that some people asked Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" about transaction and trade of wine. He asked (them): Are you Muslims? They said, Yes. He said: Its transaction and trade are unlawful. They asked him about Nabidh and he said: Once, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" set out on a journey and then came back and (found that) some of his Companions prepared Nabidh for him in green pitcher, hollow stump and dry gourd. He ordered it to be spilt, and it was done accordingly. He then ordered them (to prepare Nabidh) in a water skin and it was prepared in it by soaking raisins in water. It was prepared in the night. In the morning he drank of it (and kept drinking) on that day, then the next night, and then on the next day until the evening. He drank and gave others to drink. When it was (the following) morning he ordered that what was left over be spilt.

84-(2005) Thumama (i.e. Ibn Hazm Al-Qushairi) reported: I met A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" whom I asked about Nabidh (which used to be served to the Prophet). A'isha called an Abyssinian slave-girl and said: Ask her (about that) for it was she, who used to prepare Nabidh for The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". The Abyssinian (slave-girl) said: I used to prepare Nabidh for him in a water skin in the night whose mouth I would tie and then hang it. When it was morning he (The Prophet) would drink from it.

85-(...) A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" reported: We used to prepare Nabidh for The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" in a water skin, whose upper part was tied and (in whose lower part)it had a hole. Whenever we prepared Nabidh in the morning, he would drink it in the evening, and whenever we prepared Nabidh in the night, he would drink it in the morning.

86-(2006) Sahl Ibn Sa'd "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: Abu Usaid As-Sa'idi invited The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" to his wedding party. His wife who was the bride, served them on that day. Do you know what drink she presented to Allah's Apostle? She had soaked some dates for him in water in a pot of stone overnight; and after he had finished his meal she gave him that drink.

(...)Sahl "Allah be pleased with him" reported that Abu Usaid As-Sa'idi came to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"...and the rest of the Hadith is the same, without mentioning the following: After he had finished the meal she gave him that drink.

87-(...) Sahl Ibn Sa'd "Allah be pleased with him" reported (the same) and he said: In a big bowl of stone, and when The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had finished his meal, she drenched the dates and served (that) privately to him.

88-(2007) Sahl Ibn Sa'd "Allah be pleased with him" reported: A woman from the Arab was mentioned before The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". He ordered Abu Usaid to send a message to her and he (accordingly) sent a message to her. She came and stayed in the fortresses of Banu Sa'ida. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" went out until he came to her while she was sitting with her head downcast. When The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" talked to her, she said: "I seek refuge with Allah from you." He said: "I (decided to) keep you away from me." They (the people near her) said: "Do you know who he is?" She said: "No." They said: "He is The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"; and he came to you in order to demand your hand." She said: "Then I am the most miserable woman because of this (disobedience of mine)."

Sahl said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" then set forth on that day until he sat in the shed of Banu Sa'ida along 90-(2009) Abu Bakr As-Siddiq "Allah be pleased with him" reported: When we went along with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" from Mecca to Medina, we passed by a shepherd and The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was thirsty. He (Abu Bakr) said: I milked for him a small quantity of milk (from the shepherd's goat) and brought it to him (the Prophet), and he drank it until (he became satisfied and) I got pleased (because of that).

91-(...) Al-Bara "Allah be pleased with him" reported: When The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" set out from Mecca to Medina, Suraqa Ibn Malik Ibn Ju'shum pursued him. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" invoked evil upon him, and his horse sank (in the sand of the desert). He (Suraqa) said (to The Messenger of Allah): "Invoke good upon me and I will cause no harm to you." He (The Prophet) invoked Allah (to release him). On the other hand, he (The Prophet) felt thirsty, at the time they passed by a shepherd. Abu Bakr As-Siddiq "Allah be pleased with him" said: I took a bowl in which I milked a small quantity of milk for The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and gave it to him. He drank it until (he got satisfied) and I became happy.

92-(168) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" reported that when The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was made to go to Jerusalem on the night of Heavenly Journey, two cups were presented to him: one containing wine and the other containing milk (and he was asked to choose one of them to drink). He looked at both of them, and took the one containing milk. Gabriel "Peace be upon him" said: "Praise be to Allah Who guided you to the true nature. Had you taken the one containing wine, Your nation would have gone astray."

103-(2018) Jabir Ibn Abdullah “Allah be pleased with both” reported: I heard The Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” saying: “If one enters his house and mentions the name of Allah at the time of entering it and at the time of (starting) eating the food, Satan will say (to himself): “You have no place to spend the night and no dinner.” But if he enters without mentioning the name of Allah, the Satan will say: “You have found a place to spend the night.” If he does not mention the name of Allah at the time of (starting) eating food, he (the Satan) will say: “You have found a place to spend the night and a dinner.”

(…) This Hadith was narrated on the authority of Jabir Ibn Abdullah with the same chain of transmitters but with a slight variation of wording.

104-(2019) Jabir Ibn Abdullah “Allah be pleased with both” reported: The Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” said: “Do not eat with your left hand, for the Satan eats with his left hand.”

105-(2020) Ibn Umar “Allah be pleased with both” reported: The Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” said: “When any one of you (intends to) eat, he should eat with his right hand; and when he (intends to) drink he should drink with his right hand, for the Satan eats with his left hand and drinks with his left hand.”

(…)This Hadith was narrated by Az-Zuhri on the authority of Sufyan through a different chain of transmitters.

106-(…) Salim narrated from his father: The Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” said: “None of you should eat with his left hand, nor should he drink with it (i.e. his left hand), for the Satan eats with his left hand and drinks with that (hand).” Nafi added to that: "He also should not take anything with that (left hand) nor should he give anything with it." In the narration transmitted on the authority of Abu Tahir there is a slight variation of wording.

107-(2021) Iyas narrated from his father Salama Ibn Al-Akwa “Allah be pleased with him” that somebody ate in the presence of The Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” with his left hand. He (The Prophet) said: “Eat with your right hand.” He said: “I cannot do so.” He (The Prophet) said: “Might you not be able to do so! It was vanity which prevented him from doing so.” However, he could not raise it (his right hand) up to his mouth.

[17] Desirability to circulate water or milk (in a gathering beginning) from the right side of the one who serves

124-(2029) Anas Ibn Malik "Allah be pleased with him" reported: There was brought to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" a cup of milk mixed with water, while there was on his right a Bedouin and Abu Bakr was on his left. He (the Prophet) drank and then gave it to the desert Arab and said: "(Give to one) who is on the right, then again who is on the right."

125-(...) Anas "Allah be pleased with him" reported: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came to Medina when I was ten years old and he died when I was twenty years old. My mother encouraged me to serve him. Once, he (The Prophet) came to our house, and we milked a goat for him and mixed it (the milk) with water from the well of the house. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" drank that. Abu Bakr was on his left side when Umar said to him: "O Messenger of Allah! Give it to Abu Bakr!" He (The Prophet) gave it to the desert Arab who was on his right. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "(You should begin with) the one who is on the right, then he who is on the right (and so on)."

126-(...) Anas Ibn Malik "Allah be pleased with him" reported: Once, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came to our house and he asked for a drink. We milked a goat for him and then mixed it (the milk) with the water of this well of mine. I gave it to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" who drank it, while Abu Bakr was on his left , Umar was in front of him, and a Bedouin was on his right. When The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had finished drinking, Umar said: "O Messenger of Allah! Here is Abu Bakr! Give it to him to drink!" (It seemed as if he was showing him to The Prophet). But The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" gave it to the desert Arab and left Abu Bakr and Umar. Then, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "(You should start with) those on the right, those on the right, those on the right (and so on)." Anas said: This is the Sunna. This is the Sunna. This is the Sunna.

127-(2030) Sahl Ibn Sa'd As-Sa'idi "Allah be pleased with him" reported: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was given a drink, from which he drank. There was a boy on his right

[19] What should the guest do if an uninvited person accompanies him and the desirability of inviting him to the meal

138-(2036) Abu Mas'ud Al-Ansari "Allah be pleased with him" reported: A person from the Ansar who was called Abu Shu'aib had a slave who was a butcher. He saw The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and noticed (the signs of) hunger on his face. He said to the servant: "Might Allah be merciful to you! Prepare for us food sufficient for five persons, for I intend to invite The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" among five persons." He then prepared the food and came to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and invited him among five persons to the meal. A man followed him and when The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" reached the door, he said: "This man has followed us; if you like you may permit him (to join the meal) and if you like he can go back." He said: "O Messenger of Allah! I permit him (to join the meal)."

[20] It is permissible for the guest to accompany with him anyone when he is confident that the host shall be pleased

140-(2038) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" reported that one day or one night, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" went out (of his house), where he found Abu Bakr and Umar. He said: "What has brought you out of your houses at this hour?" They said: "O Messenger of Allah! It is hunger." He said: "By Him in Whose Hand is my life! It is what has brought you out which has brought me out . Get up." They got up along with him, and came to the house of an Ansari man, who was not at home. When his wife saw him she said: "Welcome!" The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to her: "Where is so and so?" She said: "He went out to bring some fresh water for us." When the Ansari man came and saw The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and his two Companions, he said: "Praise be to Allah! No one has more honourable guests today than me."

He went out and brought them a bunch of ripe dates, dry dates and fresh dates, and said: "Eat of that." He took hold of a knife (in order to slaughter a goat). The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to him: "Beware of (slaughtering) a milch animal." He slaughtered a goat for them. Then, they ate of it and of the bunch and then drank. When they had taken their fill and had been fully satisfied with the drink, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to Abu Bakr and Umar: "By Him in Whose Hand is my life! You will certainly be asked about this blessing on the Day of judgment. Hunger brought you out of your houses, but you did not return until this blessing came to you."

(...)Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" reported: One day while Abu Bakr was sitting accompanied by Umar, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" joined them and said: "What causes you to stay here?" They said: "It is hunger which has brought us out from our houses, by Him Who has sent you with the Truth." The rest is the same.

141-(2039) Jabir Ibn Abdullah "Allah be pleased with both" reported: While we were digging the Trench, I saw The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" feeling very hungry. I came to my wife and said to her: "Is there anything with you? I saw The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" feeling so much hungry." She brought out a leather container having a Sa of barley. We had also a lamb, which I slaughtered. She ground the flour. She finished (this work) along with me. I cut it into pieces and put it in the earthen pot and then returned to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (for inviting him). She said: "Do not humiliate me in the presence of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and those who are with him."

When I came to him I whispered to him saying: "O Messenger of Allah! We have slaughtered a lamb for you and she (my wife) has ground a Sa of barley, which we had. Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" asked: "Has Abu Talha sent you?" I said: "Yes." He asked: "for food?" I said: "Yes." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" then said to the men around him: "Get up!"

He set out (accompanied by them); and I went ahead of them till I reached Abu Talha and informed him (of The Prophet's visit). Abu Talha said: "O Umm Sulaim! The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" is coming with the people and we have nothing to feed them." She said: "Allah and His Apostle know better." So Abu Talha went out to receive Allah's Apostle. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came along with Abu Talha. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "O Umm Sulaim! Bring whatever you have." She brought the bread, which The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered to be broken into pieces. Umm Sulaim poured on them some butter from an oilskin. Then The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" recited what Allah wished him to recite, and said: "Let ten persons come (to share the meal)." Ten persons were admitted, ate their fill and went out. Then he again said: "Let another ten do the same." They were admitted, ate their fill and went out. Then he again said: "Let ten persons (come in)." (They were admitted, ate their fill and went out). Indeed, all of them ate their fill; and they were seventy or eighty men.

Then, he was given dates which he ate but he placed their stones between his two fingers, joining his forefinger and middle finger. (Shu'ba reported: I think that this Hadith, Allah willing, also contains: Putting date stones between his two fingers). Then a drink was brought for him, which he drank, and then gave to one who was on his right. He (the narrator) said: My father took hold of his mount's rein and asked him to invoke good for us. He said: "O Allah! Bless them in whatever sustenance You have provided them with, forgive them, and bestow mercy upon them."

[25] It is forbidden to eat two dates or morsels at a time

150-(2045) Jabala Ibn Suhaim said: Ibn Az-Zubair used to provide us with dates during the time when the people were suffering from hardship because of famine. As we were occupied by eating, Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" happened to pass by us. He said: "Do not eat two dates at a time, for The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade eating them together but only after seeking permission from one's brother (who shares food with him)." Shu'ba said: I do not think that these words of seeking permission are but from the words of Ibn Umar.

She said: "We have nothing but vinegar." He asked for it, which he start eating, and then said: "No doubt, vinegar is a good condiment! Vinegar is a good condiment!"

167-(...) Jabir Ibn Abdullah "Allah be pleased with both" reported: Once, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" caught hold of my hand (and accompanied me) to his house. Some pieces of bread were presented to him, whereupon he said: "Isn't there any condiment?" she (his wife) said: "No, except some vinegar." He said: "What a good condiment Vinegar is!" Jabir said: I have loved vinegar since I heard that from The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". Talha (a sub-narrator) said: I have loved vinegar since I heard that from Jabir.

He pointed to me and I stood up for him. He took hold of my hand and we proceeded until we came to one of the dwelling places of his wives. He entered and invited me to come in. I entered and there was a hanging curtain beside her. He said: "Is there (any food for) lunch?" she said: "Yes." Then, three loaves of bread were brought for him (The Prophet) and put in a basket of palm leaves. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" took a loaf which he put in front of him, and took another one which he put in front of me. He took the third one which he divided into two: the one half in front of him and the other half in front of me. Then he said: "Is there any condiment?" she said: "There is nothing except for some vinegar." He said: "Bring it. What a good condiment vinegar is!"

[31] It is permissible to eat garlic, but (it is desirable) to avoid it when one intends to talk to important persons

170-(2053) Abu Aiyyub Al-Ansari "Allah be pleased with him" reported: Whenever food was brought to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", he would eat from it, and send the remaining to me. One day, he sent to me the leftover, from which he took nothing at all for it contained garlic. I asked him: "Is it unlawful (to eat)?" He said: "No, but I hate it because of its (bad) smell." He (Abu Aiyyub) said: "Then I hate what you hate."

Aflah, the freed slave of Abu Aiyyub Al-Ansari, reported: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" descended as a guest in his (Abu Aiyyub's) house and he occupied the lower floor, and Abu Aiyyub Al-Ansari occupied the upper floor. One night, Abu Aiyyub Al-Ansari got up and said (to himself): "(How do) we walk above the head of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"?" They went aside and spent the night in a nook and (in the morning) they told The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" about that. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The lower floor is more comfortable (for me)." but he (Abu Aiyyub) said: "We are not to live over a roof beneath which you live." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" moved to the upper floor, and Abu Aiyyub Al-Ansari moved to the lower one.

He (Abu Aiyyub) used to prepare food for The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" . Whenever it was brought to him (Abu Aiyyub after The Prophet had finished his meal), he would ask (about the location) where his (The Prophet's) fingers had touched (the food), in order that he would follow his fingers on that location where those (of the Prophet) had touched. Once, he prepared food which contained garlic, and when it was brought back to him he asked about the location where the fingers of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had touched. It was said to him that he (The Prophet) had not eaten. He (Abu Aiyyub) was overtaken and went up to him (The Prophet) and said: "Is it (garlic) unlawful (to eat)?" The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "No, but I hate it." He (Abu Aiyyub) said: "I then hate what you hate or what you disliked." He (Abu Aiyyub) said: (The Prophet did not eat garlic) because The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was visited (by angels who) brought him the message of Allah.

[32] Showing hospitality to one's guest and the excellence of giving preference to him

172-(2054) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" reported: A person came to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "I am hard pressed by hunger." He sent (a message) to one of his wives (to get food for him), but she said: "By Him Who has sent you with the Truth, I have nothing (to serve him) but water." He (the Prophet) then sent the (same) message to another, and she gave the same reply, until all of them gave the same reply: "By Him Who has sent you with the Truth, I have nothing (to serve him) but water." Then, he (the Prophet) said: "Allah would bestow mercy upon him who will entertain this guest tonight." An Ansari stood up and said: "O Messenger of Allah! I (would entertain him)."

He took him to his house and said to his wife: "Is there anything with you (to serve the guest)?" She said: "No, except for a subsistence for our children." He said: "Distract their attention with something, and when the guest enters extinguish the lamp and give him the impression that we are eating." So they sat down, and the guest had his meal. When it was morning he went to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" who said: "Allah was well pleased with what you both did for your guest this night."

173-(...) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" reported that a guest spent the night in the house of a man from the Ansar who had nothing except for the food of his own self and his children. He said to his wife: "Let the children go to bed, extinguish the lamp, and serve the guest with what you have. It was on this occasion that this verse was revealed: "But give them preference over themselves, even though poverty was their (own lot)." (The Mustering "Al-Hashr" 59)

(...)Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" reported that a man came to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" so that he might entertain him as a guest. But he had nothing with which he could entertain him. He asked: "Is there any person who would entertain him so that Allah would bestow mercy upon him?" A person from the Ansar who was called Abu Talha stood up and took him to his house...and the rest of the Hadith is the same, including mentioning of the revelation of the verse as narrated by Waki.

174-(2055) Al-Miqdad "Allah be pleased with him" reported: I and two of my companions were hard pressed of hunger to the extent that we had lost our faculties of seeing and hearing. We offered ourselves (as guests) to the Companions of the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", but none amongst them agreed to entertain us (because they had nothing to serve us). We came to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", who (agreed to entertain us and he) took us to his house where there were three goats. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Milk those (goats) for us." We milked them and every one from amongst us drank his share and we set aside that of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". However, he used to come during the night and greet (the people present there) in a manner that would not awaken the sleepy but make one who was awake hear it. He would go to the mosque and perform prayer, then go to the milk and drink it.

Al-Miqdad further said: One night the Satan came to me when I had taken my share, and said: "Muhammad has gone to the Ansar, who would entertain him and he would get what is with them, and he has no need for this small quantity (of milk)." Consequently, I took (that milk) and drank it, and when it had entered into my stomach and I was certain that there was no way (to get it out), the Satan blamed me and said: "Woe to you! what have you done? You have taken the drink kept for Muhammad! When he would come and not find it, he would invoke evil upon you, with the result that you would be destroyed, and in this way, both this world and the Hereafter would go (in vain with no share of good deeds) for you."

قَالَ: فَيَجِيءُ مِنَ اللَّيْلِ فَيُسَلِّمُ تَسْلِيماً لاَ يُوقِظُ نَائِماً، وَيُسْمِعُ الْيَقْظَانَ، قَالَ ثُمَّ يَأْتِي الْمَسْجِدَ فَيُصَلِّي، ثُمَّ يَأْتِي شَرَابَهُ فَيَشْرَبُ. فَأَتَانِي الشَّيْطَانُ ذَاتَ لَيْلَةٍ، وَقَدْ شَرِبْتُ نَصِيبِي.

فَقَالَ: مُحَمَّدٌ يَأْتِي الأَنْصَارَ فَيُتْحِفُونَهُ، وَيُصِيبُ عِنْدَهُمْ، مَا بِهِ حَاجَةٌ إِلَىٰ هٰذِهِ

There was a sheet over me. Whenever I put it upon my feet, my head would be uncovered and whenever I put it upon my head, my feet would be uncovered. I could not sleep, but my two companions had gone asleep for they had not done what I had done. Then, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came. He greeted as he used to do. He then came to the mosque and observed prayer and then came to his drink (of milk) which he uncovered, but he did not find anything in it. He raised his head towards the sky. I said (to myself) that he (The Prophet) was going to invoke evil upon me and in this way, I would be destroyed. But he (The Prophet) said: "O Allah! Feed him who fed me and provide with drink him who provided me with drink."

I tightened the sheet upon myself and caught hold of the knife and went to the goats (of the Prophet) with the intention to slaughter the fattest for The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". But behold! (the udders of) all of them were full of milk. I took hold of a bowl belonging to the family of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" in which they had not expected to milk (in view of the fact that it was too big to be fitting for the quantity of the milk they used to have). Then, I milked in it until it swelled up with foam. I came to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" who said: "Have you all drunk your share of the milk during the night?" I said: "Drink it." He drank it. he then gave it (the bowl) to me and I said: "O Messenger of Allah! Drink it." he drank it and gave it (the bowl) to me. Then, I knew that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had been satisfied and that I had got his invocation (of blessings).

I burst into laughter (so much) that I fell upon the ground, whereupon The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "O Miqdad! It must be one of your misbehaviors." I said: "O Messenger of Allah! This affair of mine is so-and-so, and I have done so." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: This (milk which was found in the udders unexpectedly) is but a mercy from Allah. Why did you not inform me so that we would have awakened our two companions in order to have their share (of the milk)?" I said: "By Him Who has sent you with the Truth. I do not mind whatever you give (to them), and whatever the (other) people get, when I had got it along with you from amongst the people."

الْجُرْعَةِ، فَأَتَيْتُهَا فَشَرِبْتُهَا، فَلَمَّا أَنْ وَغَلَتْ فِي بَطْنِي، وَعَلِمْتُ أَنَّهُ لَيْسَ إِلَيْهَا سَبِيلٌ، قَالَ نَدَّمَنِي الشَّيْطَانُ.

قَالَ: فَحَلَبْتُ فِيهِ حَتَّىٰ عَلَتْهُ رَغْوَةٌ. فَجِئْتُ إِلَىٰ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ ﷺ فَقَالَ: «أَشَرِبْتُمْ شَرَابَكُمْ اللَّيْلَةَ؟» قَالَ: قُلْتُ: يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ، اشْرَبْ. فَشَرِبَ ثُمَّ نَاوَلَنِي. فَقُلْتُ: يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ، اشْرَبْ. فَشَرِبَ ثُمَّ نَاوَلَنِي. فَلَمَّا عَرَفْتُ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ ﷺ قَدْ رَوِيَ، وَأَصَبْتُ دَعْوَتَهُ، ضَحِكْتُ حَتَّىٰ أُلْقِيتُ إِلَى الأَرْضِ. قَالَ فَقَالَ النَّبِيُّ ﷺ: «إِحْدَىٰ سَوْآتِكَ يَا مِقْدَادُ» فَقُلْتُ: يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ، كَانَ مِنْ أَمْرِي كَذَا وَكَذَا. وَفَعَلْتُ كَذَا.

فَقَالَ النَّبِيُّ ﷺ: «مَا هٰذِهِ إِلاَّ رَحْمَةٌ مِنَ اللَّهِ، أَفَلاَ كُنْتَ آذَنْتَنِي، فَنُوقِظَ صَاحِبَيْنَا فَيُصِيبَانِ مِنْهَا»، قَالَ فَقُلْتُ: وَالَّذِي بَعَثَكَ بِالْحَقِّ، مَا أُبَالِي إِذَا أَصَبْتَهَا وَأَصَبْتُهَا مَعَكَ،

(...)This Hadith was narrated on the authority of Al-Mughira with the same chain of transmitters.

175-(2056) Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Abu Bakr "Allah be pleased with both" reported: We were one hundred and thirty (persons) in the company of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Does anyone of you have food?" There was a person with (us) who had a Sa of flour or something like that, which was kneaded. Then a tall infidel with disheveled hair came driving his flock of sheep. Thereupon The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Would you like to sell it (one of those goats), or offer it as a gift or a present?" He said: "No, (I would not give anyone as a gift), but I would sell it." He (the Prophet) bought a sheep from him, which was slaughtered and its meat was prepared. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered that its liver should be roasted. By Allah, there was none among those one hundred and thirty persons but that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" gave him a portion of its liver. If anyone was present he gave it to him, but if he was absent it was reserved for him. He (the Prophet) filled two bowls (one with soup and the other with mutton) from which we all ate our fill. But some was left over in (those) two bowls, which I put on the camel (or said similar to that).

176-(2057) Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Abu Bakr "Allah be pleased with both" reported: The people of Suffa were very poor. Once The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said (to his Companions): "He who among you has food for two persons should take three (guests with him), and he who has food for four persons should take five or six (guests with him)." Accordingly, Abu Bakr took three (guests), and the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" took ten (guests). Abu Bakr took three persons (in addition to) my father and my mother. (I (a sub-narrator) do not know whether he said: My wife and one servant who was common between our house and that of Abu Bakr).

Abu Bakr had had his evening meal with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". He stayed here until the Night

Prayer had been offered. He then came back (to the house of The Messenger of Allah) and stayed there until The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" felt drowsy and (Abu Bakr) then came (back to his own house) after a portion of the night had been over, as Allah willed. His wife said to him: "What did detain you from your guests?" He said: "Oh! have you not served them the supper?" She said: "It was served to them, but they refused to eat until you came." I slunk away and hid myself. He (Abu Bakr) said: "O you ignorant foolish one!" He reproached me and said to his guests: "Eat, though it may not be pleasant now." He further said: "By Allah! I will never eat it."

By Allah, we did not take a morsel from beneath it (the food but that there appeared) more until they had eaten their fill, and lo! it was more than what it had been before. Abu Bakr saw that and found that it was so or more than that. He said to his wife: "O Sister of Banu Firas! What is this?" She said: "By the coolness of my eyes! It increased three times it had been." Then Abu Bakr ate saying: "That (oath not to eat from the food)was from the Satan." He took another morsel out of it and then took (the remaining portion of) it to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", where it was kept until morning. During (those days) there was a covenant between us and some other people, and the period of covenant was over, and we had appointed twelve officials with every person among them. It is Allah only Who knows as to how many people were there with each of them. He sent (this food) from which all of them ate.

177-(...) Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Abu Bakr "Allah be pleased with both" reported: Some guests came to our house. My father used to (go and) talk to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" during the night. While he was going he said: "O Abd Ar-Rahman! Entertain the guests." When it was evening we served the food to them, but they refused and said: "We would not eat unless the owner of the house comes and join us." I said to them: "He (my father) is an uncompromising man, and if you did not do, I fear, I would be harmed by him." But they refused.

When he (my father) came, the first thing he asked was: "Have you served the guests?" They (the members of the household) said: "We have not served them yet." He said: "Did I not order Abd Ar-Rahman (to serve them)?" He (the narrator) said: I slunk away and hid myself at this time. He said once again: " O ignorant foolish fellow! I ask you by Allah, that if you hear my voice you should come to me." I came and said: "By Allah! There

The food was brought, and he ate by mentioning the name of Allah and so did they. When it was morning he came to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "O Messenger of Allah! They (the guests) fulfilled their oath, but I broke mine." He related to him the whole story, whereupon he said: "You have been the most true to your oath and you are the best of them." He (the narrator) said: I do not know whether he made an expiation for it.

[1] The prohibition of using the gold and silver utensils in eating and drinking for both men and women

1-(2065) Umm Salama "Allah be pleased with her", the wife of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", reported: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "He who drinks in the utensil of silver in fact drinks down in his belly the Fire of Hell."

(...)This Hadith was narrated on the authority of Ubaidullah through other chains of transmitters: "He who eats or drinks in the utensil of silver and gold..." (and the rest is the same), but no mention in any narration made of (the words) eating and gold.

2-(...) Abd Ar-Rahman narrated from his maternal aunt Umm Salama "Allah be pleased with her": The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "He who drinks in the utensil of gold or silver in fact drinks down in his belly the Fire of Hell."

[2] The prohibition of the gold ring for men

3-(2066) Al-Bara Ibn Azib "Allah be pleased with him" reported: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered us to do seven things and forbade us to do seven (things). He ordered us to visit the patient, to follow the funeral procession, to reply to the sneezer (by saying: Might Allah bestow mercy upon you, in case he said after sneezing: Praise be to Allah), to fulfill the oath, to help the poor, to accept the invitation and to greet whomever we meet. He forbade us to wear rings or gold rings, to drink in silver (utensils), to use the saddle cloth made of red silk, to wear garments made of Qassi material, or garments made of silk or brocade and velvet.

(...)This Hadith was narrated on the authority of Ash'ath Ibn Sulaim with the same chain of transmitters he substituted: "To find the lost thing" for "to fulfill the oath".

(...)This Hadith was narrated on the authority of Al-Ash'ath Ibn Abu Ash-Sha'tha with the same chain of transmitters, but there is no doubt about the words: "To fulfill the oath" in addition to the following: "Not to drink in silver utensils, for one who drinks in them in this world would not drink (in them) in the Hereafter."

saying: "You should neither wear silk or brocade nor should you drink in utensils of gold and silver, nor should you eat in the dishes made of those (gold and silver), for they are for them (the unbelievers) in this world."

6-(2068) Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" reported: Umar Ibn Al-Khattab saw a garment of silk (being sold) at the door of the mosque, whereupon he said: "O Messenger of Allah! Would that you buy it and wear it for the people on Friday and for (receiving) the delegations when they come to you! "Upon this, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "He who wears it has no share (of reward) in the Hereafter." Then (some of) those silk garments were sent to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", who sent one of them to Umar. Thereupon Omar said: You make me wear (this silk garment) though you said about the silk garment of Utarid (the person who had been selling this garment) what you had said. (What is the matter?)" The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "I did not send to you this to wear, (but in order that you might utilize its price)." Umar gave it as a gift to a brother of his who was an infidel in Mecca.

(...)This Hadith was narrated on the authority of Ibn Umar through another chain of transmitters.

7-(...) Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" reported that Umar saw Utarid At-Tamimi standing in the market (and selling) silk garments. However, he used to go to (courts of) kings and get (high prices) from them for those garments. Umar said: "O Messenger of Allah! I saw Utarid standing in the market with a silk garment. Would that you buy and wear it for (receiving) the delegations of Arabs when they visit you?" I (the narrator) think that he (Umar) also said: "You also may wear it on Friday." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "He who wears silk in this world has no share (of reward) in the Hereafter."

Later on when these silk garments were presented to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" he presented one of them to Umar, one to Usama Ibn Zaid, and one to Ali Ibn Abu Talib, saying: "Tear it, and make from (the pieces of) it head coverings for your wives." Umar came carrying his garment and said: "O Messenger of Allah! You sent it to me, though you had said yesterday about the (silk) garment of Utarid what you had said." He (The Prophet) said: "I did not send it to you in order to wear, but I sent It to you so that you might utilize it."

As for Usama, he was hasty (when he wore) his garment. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" looked at him in such a way that he knew that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" disliked what he had done. He said: "O Messenger of Allah! Why do you look at me like this, though it was you who presented it to me?" He said: "I did not send it to you to wear, but I sent It to you so that you might tear it and make (from the pieces of) it head covering for your wives."

Abdullah said to me: "as for what you say as regards observing fasts in (the month of) Rajab, how about one who observes fasts perpetually? As for what you say about the striped garment, I heard Umar Ibn Al-Khattab saying that he heard from The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him": "He who wears silk garment (in this world) would have no share (of reward in the Hereafter); and I am afraid that it might apply to such a striped garment. As regards the saddle cloth made of red silk, that is the saddle cloth of Abdullah and it is red." I returned to Asma whom I told. She said: "Here is the cloak of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". She brought out to me that cloak made of Persian cloth, with a hem of brocade, whose sleeves had borders of brocade. Then she said: "This (cloak of The Messenger of Allah) was with A'isha until she died. When she died, I had it. 53-(2091) Abdullah Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" reported: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had a gold signet ring, and whenever he wore it he would keep its stone on the inner side of his palm. The people (imitated him and) had (such rings). Then one day as he sat on the pulpit he pulled it away saying: "I wore this ring and kept its stone towards the inner side." He then threw it away, and said: "By Allah, I will never wear it." Consequently, the people threw their (gold) rings away.

(...)This Hadith was narrated on the authority of Ibn Umar through another chain of transmitters but with the addition that in the narration of Uqba Ibn Khalid, it was mentioned that he (The Prophet) wore it (the gold signet ring) in his right hand.

[12] The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" wore a silver ring in which the following phrase was engraved "Muhammad The Messenger of Allah" which his successors wore after him

54-(...) Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" reported that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had taken a ring made of silver, which (he wore) in his hand. then it was in Abu Bakr's hand, then it was in Umar's hand, and then it was in Uthman's hand, until it fell from him into the well of Aris. This (silver ring) had this phrase engraved upon it "Muhammad The Messenger of Allah". Ibn Numair narrated this Hadith with a slight variation of wording.

55-(...) Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" reported that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had taken a gold ring. then he threw it, and took a silver ring (instead), with the following phrase engraved upon it: "Muhammad, The Messenger of Allah". He said: "None should engrave like the engravement of this ring of mine." When he Wore it, he kept its stone towards the inside of his palm. It was this ring which fell down from Mu'aiqib into the well of Aris.

their rings. (The word "silver" here is not correct, and it seems that Ibn Shihab, the sub-narrator was mistaken by bringing it instead of "gold", because the well-known fact is that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" once had a gold ring which he wore in his hand, and which he discarded later when the people did the same, as understood from the narrations of this Hadith on the authority of Anas, through people other than Ibn Shihab. But as for the silver ring, there is a unanimous consensus among the religious scholars that it is not forbidden).

[26] Forbiddance of making a picture of an animated thing, and the angels never enter a house in which there is a dog or a picture

81-(2104) A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" reported: Gabriel "Peace be upon him" had an appointment with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (to visit him) at a certain hour. But, when it was the definite time, he did not come to him. There was in his (The Prophet's) hand a staff, which he threw and said: "Neither Allah nor His messengers (angels) have broken their promise." Then he cast a glance and found a dog under his bedding, whereupon he said: "O A'isha! When did this dog enter here?" She said: "BY Allah, I do not know." He then ordered it be taken out. Then Gabriel came to whom The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "You promised me (to visit me) and I expected you, but you did not come." He said: "It was the dog in your house which prevented me (from coming), for we (angels) never enter a house in which there is a dog or a picture."

Abu Talha "Allah be pleased with him", the Companion of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", reported: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The angels never enter a house in which there is a picture." Busr told: Zaid fell ill and we went to visit him. (We found that) there was a curtain hanging at his door with a picture on it. I said to Ubaidullah Al-Khawlani, the step-son of Maimuna, the wife of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him": "Did not Zaid himself tell us earlier of (the order of The Prophet pertaining to the prohibition of) pictures?" Ubaidullah said: "Did not you hear him when he said: "Except for the prints on the cloth"?"

86-(...) Busr Ibn Sa'id narrated that Abdullah Ibn Zaid told him in the presence of Ubaidullah Al-Khawlani, who was with Busr, that Abu Talha reported that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Angels never enter a house in which there is a picture." Busr said: Zaid Ibn Khalid fell sick whom we visited (to inquire about his health). As We saw in his house a curtain having pictures on it. I said to Ubaidullah Al-Khawlani: "Did he not narrate to us (what The Prophet had said about pictures)?" He said: "He (did so but he) said: "Except the prints over the cloth." Did you not hear him saying that?" I said: "No." He said: "No doubt, he mentioned that."

87-(...) Zaid Ibn Khalid Al-Juhani narrated that Abu Talha Al-Ansari told: I heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying: "Angels never enter a house in which there is a picture or portraits."

(2107) I came to A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" to whom I said: "This (Abu Talha) told me that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had said: "Angels never enter a house in which there is a picture or a dog." Did you hear The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having mentioned that?" She replied in the negative and added: "But I am going to narrate to you what I saw him doing. I witnessed that he set out for a certain holy battle. I took a carpet with which I screened the door. When he (The Prophet) returned, he saw that carpet, and I noticed (the signs of) disapproval on his face. He pulled it until he tore or cut it (into pieces). Then, he said: "Allah has not ordered us to clothe stones and clay." We cut this (curtain) from which we prepared two cushions stuffed with date-palm fiber, which he (The Prophet) did not criticize.

88-(...) A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" reported: We had a curtain which had portraits of birds over it. Whenever a visitor came, he would find them in front of him. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to me: "Change them, for whenever I enter (this chamber) I would see them with the result that I would remember the (luxurities of) this world." She further said: We had a sheet which had marks of silk over it, which we used to wear.

89-(...) This Hadith was narrated on the authority of Ibn Al-Muthanna with the following addition: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" did not order us to tear it.

90-(...) A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" reported: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" returned from journey and I had screened my door with a curtain having portraits of winged horses over it. He ordered me to pull it away, and I did accordingly.

91-(...) A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" reported that once, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" entered upon me and I had hung (on the door) a thin curtain having pictures over it, the result of which was that the colour of his face changed. He took hold of the curtain which he tore. Then he said: "Verily, the people who would receive the most grievous torture on the Day of Judgement are those who try to make the like of the creatures of Allah."

99-(2110) I (Muslim) read this before Nasr Ibn Ali al-Jahdami who read it before other narrators, the last of whom was Ibn Sa'id Ibn Abu al-Hasan who narrated that a man came to Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" and said: "I am one whose profession is to make pictures. What is your religious verdict about them?" He (Ibn Abbas) said to him: "Come closer to me." He came closer to him so much that he (Ibn Abbas) put his hand on his head and said: "I am going to narrate to you what I heard from The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". I heard him saying: "All the makers of pictures would be in the fire (of Hell). Every picture he made would have the soul breathed into it (by Allah), by which he would be punished in the Hell."" Then, he (Ibn Abbas) further said: "If you have to do it anyway, then make the pictures of trees and lifeless things." However, Nasr Ibn Ali confirmed that.

peace be upon him" the face of which had been cauterized. On that, he said: "Allah curses him who has cauterized it (on the face)."

108-(2118) Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" reported that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saw a donkey whose face had been cauterized. He disapproved of it saying: "By Allah, I do not cauterize (the animal) but on a part as far as it could be from the face." Then, he ordered that his donkey (should be brought) which he cauterized on the buttocks. In this way, he was the first to cauterize on the buttocks.

[30] Permissibility of cauterizing the animal on any part of the body except the face

109-(2119) Anas "Allah be pleased with him" reported that when Umm Sulaim delivered her child, she said to him: "O Anas! Observe this child and let nothing be given to it until you bring it to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" in the morning, so that he might chew some dates and put them (mixed with his saliva) into his (the child's) mouth." I went to him in the morning while he was in the garden, with a black square garment (made of wool) over him. He was cauterizing the mounts which had been brought to him (as booty) after the Victory.

tattooed, those ladies who remove the hair from the faces as well as those who get the hair of their faces removed, and those who make artificial spaces between their teeth in order to be more beautiful whereby they change Allah's creation." His saying reached a lady from Banu Asad called Umm Ya'qub who used to recite The Holy Qur'an. She came and said (to Abdullah): "I have come to know that you have cursed those ladies who practice tattooing as well as those who get themselves tattooed, those ladies who get the hair of their faces removed, and those who make artificial spaces between their teeth in order to be more beautiful whereby they change Allah's creation." He replied: "Why should I not curse those whom The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had cursed and who are cursed in Allah's Book!"

Umm Ya'qub said: "I read the Qur'an (in full) from the binder to the binder, but I did find in it nothing of what you say." He said: "No doubt, had you read it (The Holy Qur'an), you would have found it. Didn't you read: "Take what the Messenger assigns to you, and deny yourselves that which he withholds from you. And fear Allah; for Allah is strict in Punishment." (The Mustering "Al-Hashr" 7) She said: "But I see your wife doing these things now." He said: "Go and watch her." She entered upon the wife of Abdullah and watched her but could see nothing to support her statement. Then, she came out and said: "I saw nothing." On that he said: "Had she (my wife) been doing so, I would not have kept her in my company."

121-(2126) Jabir Ibn Abdullah "Allah be pleased with both" reported that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" reproached that a woman should add anything (such as false hair) to her head.

122-(2127) Humaid Ibn Abd Ar-Rahman narrated that he heard Mu'awiya Ibn Abu Sufyan (talking) on the pulpit in the year when he came to perform Hajj. He took a tuft of hair that was in the hand of a sentinel and said: "O people of Medina! Where are your learned men? I heard The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbidding such a thing as this (false hair). On that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "You might name (your children) with my name but do not take my nickname, for I have been sent as a Qasim (Distributor) who distributes (the spoils of war and the objects of charity) among you."

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Husain, without mentioning: " I have been sent as a Qasim (Distributor) who distributes (the spoils of war and the objects of charity) among you."

5-(...) Jabir Ibn Abdullah "Allah be pleased with both" reported: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "You might name (your children) with my name but do not take my nickname, for I am Abu Al-Qasim (Distributor) who distributes (the spoils of war and the objects of charity) among you."

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Al-A'mash, with the same chain of transmitters, but with a slight variation in wording.

6-(...) Jabir Ibn Abdullah "Allah be pleased with both" reported: A man from among the Ansar begot a child whom he intended to name Muhammad. He went to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and asked him about that. On that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The Ansar have done well! You might name (your children) with my name but do not nickname with my nickname."

7-(...) The same was narrated through another chain of transmitters, but with a slight change of words.

(...) Jabir "Allah be pleased with him" reported: A man amongst us begot a boy whom he named Al-Qasim. On that we said (to this man): "We will never call you Abu Al-Qasim and will never please you with this blessed title." So, he went to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and mentioned that to him. The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Name your child Abd Ar-Rahman."

[3] It is desirable to change ugly names into good names, and changing the name of Barra (Pious) into Zainab and so on

14-(2139) Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" reported that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" changed the name of Asiya (Disobedient woman) and said: "You are Jamila (Pretty). Ahmad (a sub-narrator) narrated it with a slight variation in wording.

15-(…) Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" reported that Umar had a daughter called Asiya (Disobedient woman). The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" named her Jamila (Pretty).

16-(2140) Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" reported that the (original) name of Juwairiya (his wife) was Barra (Pious). The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" changed it into Juwairiya. Furthermore, he disliked that it should be said: He had come out from (the house of) Barra (Pious woman). The narration of Ibn Abu Umar has a slight variation in wording.

17-(2141) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" reported that the (original) name of Zainab was Barra (Pious woman). It was said of her: "By that, she is giving herself the prestige of piety." So The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" changed her name to Zainab.

18-(2142) Zainab, daughter of Umm Salama, narrated: My (original) name was Barra (Pious). The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" named me Zainab. Then there entered upon him Zainab, daughter of Jahsh, whose (original) name was Barra. Then, he named her Zainab.

19-(…) Muhammad Ibn Amr Ibn Ata narrated: I named my daughter Barra. Then, Zainab Bint Abu Salama said to me: No doubt, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade (us) to use such a name. Moreover, I was named Barra, but The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Don't give yourself the prestige of being pious. It is Allah alone who knows the people of piety from among you." They (the Companions) said: "Then, what should we name her?" He said: "Name her Zainab."

[4] Forbiddance of calling the ruler as the king of kings or Shahinshah

20-(2143) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The most abominable name in Allah's sight is (the name of) King of Kings." The following addition was included in the narration of Ibn Abu Shaiba: "There is no king but Allah, "Exalted and Glorified be He"." Sufyan said: e.g. (the Persian word of) Shahinshah. Ahmad Ibn Hanbal said: I asked Abu Amr about the meaning of Akhna. He said: The most abominable.

21-(...) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated from The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him": "The most wretched person in the sight of Allah on the Day of Judgement, and the worst person who deserves His wrath most will be the one who is called the King of Kings for, no doubt, there is no king but Allah."

[5] Desirability of putting a chewed date mixed with one's saliva into the mouth of the new-born child at the time of its birth, and of carrying it to a pious person so that he may chew some dates and put them mixed with his saliva into its palate, and permissibility of naming (the child) on the day of its birth and desirability of such names as Abdullah, Ibrahim and the names of all the Prophets

22-(2144) Anas Ibn Malik "Allah be pleased with him" reported: I took Abdullah Ibn Abu Talha Al-Ansari at the time of his birth to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", who was wearing a woollen cloak and besmearing the camels with pitch. He said: "Do you Have some dates?" I answered in the affirmative. He took hold of the dates, put them in his mouth, chewed them, and opened the mouth of the child, in which he put that, with the result that the child started licking it. On that, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The Ansar like dates." Then, he (The Prophet) named him Abdullah.

23-(...) Anas Ibn Malik "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: Abu Talha had a child who was seriously sick. Once, while Abu Talha was out, the child died. When Abu Talha returned home, he asked: "How is my son?" Umm Sulaim (his wife) answered: "He is more quiet than he has ever been." Then she presented the supper to him, which he had and then (slept and) had sexual intercourse with her. After he had finished, she said (to him): "Bury the child (for he died)."

Next morning Abu Talha came to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and told him about that. The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said (to him): "Did you have sexual intercourse with your wife last night?" Abu Talha said: "Yes." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "O Allah! Bestow Your blessing on them concerning their (last) night." (Later) Umm Sulaim gave birth to a boy. Abu Talha told me to take care of the child until it was taken to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". Then Abu Talha took the child to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and Umm Sulaim sent some dates along with the child.

The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" took the child (on his lap) and asked if there was something with him. The people replied: "Yes, a few dates." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" took a date, which he chewed. Then he took it out of his mouth, and put it (as mixed with his saliva) into the child's mouth, with which he rubbed its pallet. Then, he named him Abdullah.

24-(2145) Abu Musa "Allah be pleased with him" reported: I begot a child whom I brought to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" who named him Ibrahim and (chewed a date and put it (mixed with his saliva) into the mouth of the child, with which he) rubbed his palate.

25-(2146) A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" reported: Asma Bint Abu Bakr emigrated (from Mecca to Medina) while she was pregnant of Abdullah Ibn Az-Zubair. She came to Quba where she gave birth to Abdullah whom she sent to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" so that he should rub his palate with chewed dates. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" took hold of him (the child) whom he placed in his lap and then called for a date.

A'isha said: We spent some time in search of it until we were able to find it. He (the Prophet) chewed it, and then put (it mixed with) his saliva into his mouth. In this way, the first thing that entered his stomach was the saliva of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". Asma said: He then rubbed him, asked for Allah's blessing upon him, and named him Abdullah. He (Abdullah) went to him (the Prophet) at the the lap of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and so he was lifted. When The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had finished the work he said: "Where is the child?" Abu Usaid said: "O Messenger of Allah! We took him away." He said: "What is his name?" He said: "O Messenger of Allah! His name is so and so. He (the Prophet) said: "Nay! His name is Al-Mundhir." On that day, he named him Al-Mundhir.

30-(2150) Anas "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was the best of all the people in character. I had a younger brother called Abu Umair, who, I think, had been newly weaned. Whenever The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saw him, he used to say (to him): "O Abu Umair! What did The sparrow do?" (It was a nightingale) with which he used to play.

[6] It is permissible for one to call as" my son" another who is not his own son, and it is desirable to do so

31-(2151) Anas Ibn Malik "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" addressed me saying: "O My Son."

32-(2152) Al-Mughira Ibn Shu'ba "Allah be pleased with him" reported: None else asked The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" more questions about Ad-Dajjal than I did. He said to me: "O my son! What would trouble you from him? He will not harm you." I said: "The people think that he will have rivers of water and mountains of bread with him." He said: "He will be more insignificant in the sight of Allah than all of those things (he will have)."

[7] Asking permission to be admitted (in a house)

33-(2153) Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri "Allah be pleased with him" reported: I was sitting in Medina with (some people from) the Ansar when Abu Musa came trembling with fear. We said to him: "What is the matter?" He said: "Umar sent for me. I went to him and greeted him thrice at (his) door but he made no reply to me with the result that I came back. Later, he (Umar) said: "What prevented you from coming to us?" I said: "I came to you and greeted you thrice at your door, but there was no reply. So I came back since The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"

34-(...) Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri "Allah be pleased with him" reported: We were sitting with Ubai Ibn Ka'b when Abu Musa Al-Ash'ari came angrily. He stood (in front of us) and said: "I beseech you by Allah to bear witness whether anyone amongst you heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying: "Permission (for being admitted in the house) should be sought thrice: If permission is granted to you (then you might enter), otherwise, you should go back."" Ubai Ibn Ka'b said: What is the matter?" He said: "I sought permission thrice yesterday to enter upon Umar Ibn Al-Khattab but he did not admit me, so I came back. Then I went to him today and entered upon him and told him that I had come to him yesterday and greeted him thrice, then (when I was not admitted) I came back. He said: "Yes, we heard you but we were busy at that time, but why did you not seek permission further until you were permitted (either to be admitted or to go back)?"

He (Abu Musa) said: "I sought permission in such a way that I heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having said (in connection With seeking permission for being admitted in a house)." He (Umar) said: "By Allah, I shall torture your back and abdomen unless you bring one who may bear testimony to what you say." Abu Musa went away and Umar said (to his companions who were present there): "If he (Abu Musa) finds an evidence (i.e. a witness to support his statement), you will see him by the side of the pulpit in the evening, and if he does not find a witness, you will not see him there." When it was evening they found him (Abu Musa) there. He (Umar) said: "O Abu Musa! Tell me: Have you found a witness (to confirm what you have said)?" He said: "Yes. Here is Ubai Ibn Ka'b." He (Umar) said: "Well, he is a truthful (witness)." He (Umar) said (addressing Ubai Ibn Ka'b): "O Abu At-Tufail! What does he (Abu Musa say?" He said: "I heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying so, O Ibn Al-Khattab. Do not be hard upon the Companions of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". He (Umar) said: "Exalted be Allah! I heard something and I wanted to verify (of its truth)."

(...) This Hadith was narrated on the authority of Talha Ibn Yahya with the same chain of transmitters, but with the following change: He (Umar) said: "O Abu Al-Mundhir! Did you hear this from The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"?" He said: "Yes. O Ibn Al-Khattab! Do not be hard upon the Companions of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him".! No mention was made of the words of Umar: "Exalted be Allah! and what follows it.

[8] Undesirability of saying: "It is I" in reply to one's asking about the identity of the caller who seeks permission for being admitted

38-(2155) Jabir Ibn Abdullah "Allah be pleased with both" reported: I came to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and called him (seeking permission to be admitted). The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Who is it?" I said: "It is I." He (the Prophet) came out saying: "It is I! It is I!"

أَبُو مُوسَىٰ إِلَىٰ عُمَرَ بْنِ الْخَطَّابِ فَقَالَ: السَّلاَمُ عَلَيْكُمْ. هٰذَا عَبْدُ اللّهِ بْنُ قَيْسٍ. فَلَمْ يَأْذَنْ لَهُ. فَقَالَ: السَّلاَمُ عَلَيْكُمْ. هٰذَا أَبُو مُوسَىٰ. السَّلاَمُ عَلَيْكُمْ. هٰذَا الأَشْعَرِيُّ. ثُمَّ انْصَرَفَ. فَقَالَ: رُدُّوا عَلَيَّ. رُدُّوا عَلَيَّ.

فَجَاءَ فَقَالَ: يَا أَبَا مُوسَىٰ، مَا رَدَّكَ؟ كُنَّا فِي شُغْلٍ. قَالَ: سَمِعْتُ رَسُولَ اللّهِ ﷺ يَقُولُ: «الاسْتِئْذَانُ ثَلاَثٌ، فَإِنْ أُذِنَ لَكَ، وَإِلاَّ فَارْجِعْ»، قَالَ: لَتَأْتِيَنِّي عَلَىٰ هٰذَا بِبَيِّنَةٍ. وَإِلاَّ فَعَلْتُ وَفَعَلْتُ. فَذَهَبَ أَبُو مُوسَىٰ.

قَالَ عُمَرُ: إِنْ وَجَدَ بَيِّنَةً تَجِدُوهُ عِنْدَ الْمِنْبَرِ عَشِيَّةً، وَإِنْ لَمْ يَجِدْ بَيِّنَةً فَلَمْ تَجِدُوهُ. فَلَمَّا أَنْ جَاءَ بِالْعَشِيِّ وَجَدُوهُ. قَالَ: يَا أَبَا مُوسَىٰ، مَا تَقُولُ؟ أَقَدْ وَجَدْتَ؟ قَالَ: نَعَمْ. أُبَيَّ بْنَ كَعْبٍ. قَالَ: عَدْلٌ. قَالَ: يَا أَبَا الطُّفَيْلِ، مَا يَقُولُ هٰذَا؟ قَالَ: سَمِعْتُ رَسُولَ اللّهِ ﷺ يَقُولُ ذٰلِكَ يَا ابْنَ الْخَطَّابِ، فَلاَ تَكُونَنَّ عَذَاباً عَلَىٰ أَصْحَابِ رَسُولِ اللّهِ ﷺ. قَالَ: سُبْحَانَ اللّهِ، إِنَّمَا سَمِعْتُ شَيْئاً، فَأَحْبَبْتُ أَنْ أَتَثَبَّتَ.

(39) The Book Of Salutation

[1] The rider should pay salutation to the pedestrian first, and the small group (of people) should pay salutation to the larger group first (in case they pass by them)

1-(2160) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" reported: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The rider should pay salutation to the pedestrian first, and the pedestrian should pay salutation to the sitting one first. Moreover, a small group (of people) should pay salutation to a larger group first."

[2] It is the right of sitting on the roads to return back the greeting

2-(2161) Abu Talha "Allah be pleased with him" reported: We were sitting in front of the houses and talking amongst ourselves, when The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came upon us. He stood by us and said: "What is the reason of setting up your gatherings on the paths? Avoid these gatherings on the paths." We said: "We were sitting here without causing harm (to the passers-by). We are sitting to discuss matters and talk among ourselves." He said: "If there is no way (but to sit on those roads), then give the paths their rights which are to lower the gaze, to return back the greetings, and to hold good speech (among yourselves)."

3-(2121) Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Beware! Avoid sitting on the roads." The people said: "There is no way out of it since these are our sitting places where we have talks." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "If you insist on sitting there, then you must observe the rights of the road." They asked: "What are the rights of the road?" He said: "They are to lower your gazes (on seeing what is unlawful to look at), refrain from harming people, return back greetings, advocate good and forbid evil."

[10] When one comes to a session, and finds an opening (in the circle of people) in which he sits down

26-(2176) Abu Waqid Al-Laithi "Allah be pleased with him" reported: While Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was sitting in the mosque with some people, three men came. Two of them came in front of Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and the third one went away. The two persons kept on standing before Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" for a while. One of them found a place in the circle and sat there while the other sat behind the gathering, and the third one went away. When Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" finished his preaching, he said: "Shall I tell you about these three persons? One of them betook himself to Allah, so Allah (took him into His grace and mercy and) accommodated him. The second felt shy, so Allah felt shy from him (and did not punish him). 33-(2181) A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" reported: An effeminate one used to enter upon the wives of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", who considered him to be a male without any sexual desire. Once, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came while he was sitting in the house of one of his wives, describing the body of a certain woman, and saying: "as (she is so beautiful and fat that) she shows four folds of flesh while facing you, and eight when she turns her back." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "I see that he knows these things (of sexual desires), do not allow him to enter upon you (O women)." She (A'isha) said: Then they screened themselves from him.

[14] It is permissible for a man to make a strange woman ride behind him in case she gets exhausted on the way

34-(2182) Asma Bint Abu Bakr "Allah be pleased with both" reported: I got married to Az-Zubair, who had neither land nor wealth, nor slave nor anything else like it, except a horse. She added: I used to graze his horse, provide it with fodder, look after it, and ground dates for his camel. Besides this, I used to graze the camel, provide it with water, patch up the leather bucket, and knead the flour. But I was not proficient in baking the bread, so my female neighbors from the Ansar used to bake bread for me; and they were sincere women. She further said: Moreover, I used to carry on my head the stones of the dates from the land of Az-Zubair with which The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had endowed him, and it was two-thirds a Farsakh (two miles from Medina). She added: One day, while I was carrying the stones of dates upon my head I passed by The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" along with a group of his Companions. He called me and called (the camel) to kneel down in order to make me ride behind him. (I told Az-Zubair) "I felt shy and remembered your jealousy (so, I rejected to ride behind him)." He said: "By Allah! Your carrying the stone dates upon your head is harder upon me than your riding behind him." She said: (I led such a life of hardship) until Abu Bakr sent a female servant who undertook the task of looking after the horse, with the result that I felt as if she manumitted me.

35-(...) Asma "Allah be pleased with her" reported: I used to do the household duties for Az-Zubair who had a horse, of which I used to take care. Nothing was harder upon me than to look after the horse, for which I used to bring grass and I used to look after it. Then I got a servant when The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" gained some captives from whom he gave me a female servant, who then began to look after the horse, and in this way, she relieved me of this burden.

A man came and said: "O Mother of Abdullah! I am a poor person and I wish that I should act as a seller under the shadow of your house." I (Asma) said: "If I grant you permission, Az-Zubair may not agree to that. So you should come and demand that when Az-Zubair is present there." He came accordingly and said: "O Mother of Abdullah! I am a poor man, and I desire that I should act as a seller under the shadow of your house." I said: "Isn't there in Medina (a place) except my house?" Az-Zubair said: "Why do you prevent a poor man to act as a seller here?" So he started selling, until he earned so much to the extent that I sold the slave-girl to him. Then, Az-Zubair entered upon me while her price was still in my lap. He said: "Grant this to me." I said: "I made a decision to give it in charity."

[16] What about medicine, disease and charm

39-(2185) A'isha “Allah be pleased with her” narrated: Whenever The Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” fell ill. Gabriel used to recite the following: "In the name of Allah. He may cure you, and from all kinds of illness He may get you recovered, and (protect you) from the evil of a jealous one when he feels jealous, and from the evil (effect of the) eye."

40-(2186) Abu Sa'id “Allah be pleased with him” reported that Gabriel came to The Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” and said: “O Muhammad! Have you fallen ill?” He answered in the affirmative. He (Gabriel) said: "In the name of Allah I protect you from anything that may harm you, and from the evil (effect of the) eye of a jealous one. Might Allah cure you, and I invoke the name of Allah for you."

41-(2187) Abu Huraira “Allah be pleased with him” reported: The Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” said: “The (effect of an evil) eye is a fact.”

42-(2188) Ibn Abbas “Allah be pleased with both” reported: The Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” said: “The (effect of an evil) eye is a fact; and if anything is to precede the Decree, it would be the (effect of an evil) eye. Therefore, if you are required to take bath (to recover) from the (effect of an evil) eye, you should take bath.”

[17] What about magic

43-(2189) A’isha "Allah be pleased with her" narrated: Magic was worked on The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" by a Jew from Banu Zuraiq, called Labid Ibn Al-A’sam. So, he began to envisage that he did a thing, which he did not actually do. One day when he was in my house, he invoked (Allah for a long period), then invoked and then invoked. Then he said: "O A’isha! I feel that Allah has inspired me regarding the matter about which I asked him.” I asked: “What is that, O Messenger of Allah?” he replied: “Two persons came to me (in my dream) and sat, one by my head and the other by my feet. The one sitting by my head asked the other who was sitting by my feet (or the one sitting by my feet asked the other who was sitting by my head):

"What is the ailment of this man?" The other replied: “He has been bewitched." The first asked: “Who has bewitched him?” The other replied: “Labid Ibn Al-A’sam.” The first one asked: “What material has he used?”

٤٣ ـ (٢١٨٩) ـ حدّثنا أَبُو كُرَيْبٍ: حَدَّثَنَا ابْنُ نُمَيْرٍ، عَنْ هِشَامٍ، عَنْ أَبِيهِ، عَنْ عَائِشَةَ. قَالَتْ: سَحَرَ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ﷺ يَهُودِيٌّ مِنْ يَهُودِ بَنِي زُرَيْقٍ. يُقَالُ لَهُ: لَبِيدُ بْنُ الأَعْصَمِ قَالَتْ: حَتَّىٰ كَانَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ يُخَيَّلُ إِلَيْهِ أَنَّهُ يَفْعَلُ الشَّيْءَ، وَمَا يَفْعَلُهُ. حَتَّىٰ إِذَا كَانَ ذَاتَ يَوْمٍ، أَوْ ذَاتَ لَيْلَةٍ، دَعَا رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ، ثُمَّ دَعَا، ثُمَّ دَعَا. ثُمَّ قَالَ: «يَا عَائِشَةُ، أَشَعَرْتِ أَنَّ اللَّهَ أَفْتَانِي فِيمَا اسْتَفْتَيْتُهُ فِيهِ؟ جَاءَنِي رَجُلاَنِ فَقَعَدَ أَحَدُهُمَا عِنْدَ رَأْسِي وَالآخَرُ عِنْدَ رِجْلَيَّ. فَقَالَ الَّذِي عِنْدَ رَأْسِي لِلَّذِي عِنْدَ رِجْلَيَّ، أَوِ الَّذِي

The other replied: "A comb, the hair gathered on it, and the outer skin of the pollen of the male date palm." The first asked: "Where is that?" he said: "In the well of Dharwan."" So, The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", along with some of his companions, went out towards the well (and looked at that, and when he returned) he said to me: "By Allah! Its water is as red as the Henna, and its date-palms (near the well) are like the heads of the devils." I asked: "O Messenger of Allah! Did you not burn those things?" He said: "No, for I have been cured by Allah and I am afraid that this action may spread evil amongst the people. But, I ordered that they should be buried."

(...) A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" reported that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was bewitched...and the rest of the Hadith is the same but with the following change: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" went to the well at which he looked, where there were date-palms near it. I (A'isha) said: I asked The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" to take it out. The following was not mentioned: "Did not you burn it?"..."I ordered that they should be buried."

[18] What about poison

45-(2190) Anas "Allah be pleased with him" reported that a Jewess brought to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" poisoned meat, from which he ate. (When the effect of this poison was felt by him, he asked for her, and) she was brought to him. He asked her about the reason of that (which she had done), and she said: "I intended to kill you." He said: "No doubt, Allah is not to enable you to do so." They (the Companion's) said: "Should we not kill her?" He said: "No." He (Anas) said: I noticed that (affect of the poison) on the uvula of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him".

(...) Anas Ibn Malik "Allah be pleased with him" reported that a Jewess put poison in some meat which she brought to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"...and the rest is the same.
